SYNOPSIS OF THE BANKING AND COMMERCIAL LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA

ALABAMA.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of Alabama, reported by BALL & BECKWITH, Attorneys at Law, Montgomery, Alabama.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—See Deeds.

ACCOUNTS.—See Limitations of Actions. In all suits upon accounts, an itemized statement of the account, verified by affidavit of a competent witness, is competent evidence of its correctness, if it is filed with the complaint or other pleading, and the plaintiff indorses on such pleading the fact that the account is verified by affidavit, unless the defendant, within the time allowed for pleading, files an affidavit denying the correctness of the account, and if he denies only a part he must deny item by item. (Acts 1915, p. 609.)

ACTIONS.—All civil actions in common law Courts of Record are commenced by summons and complaint, or by attachment, followed by complaint. The complaint is filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court, and the summons is issued by the Clerk, accompanied by the complaint. Service is effected by the delivery, by the proper officer, of a copy of each to the defendant.

Freeholders or householders, having a permanent residence in the State, must be sued in the county of their residence, "unless the suit be for the recovery of real property or the possession thereof, or for a trespass thereto, when the suit must be instituted in the county where the land lies."

Branch summons may issue, when there are several defendants residing or found in different counties, and the cause of action is joint, or is joint and several. (Code of Ala 1907, Sec. 5300.) See Corporations.

Actions upon contracts, express or implied, by parol or under seal, for the payment of money (other than bills of exchange, promissory notes payable in bank, or at a designated place, and commercial instruments), must be prosecuted in the name of the party really interested, whether he has the legal title or not. Actions on commercial paper must be instituted in the name of the party having the legal title.

In all actions by a transferee or assignee of a contract, not a commercial instrument, the assignee or transferee is "subject to any defense the payor, obligor, or debtor may have had against the payee, obligee, or creditor, previous to notice of assignment or transfer."

"All actions on contracts, express or implied, all personal actions, except for injuries to the reputation, survive in favor of and against the personal representatives." (Code of Ala. 1907, Sec. 2496.)

Actions for the recovery of, and actions for injuries to lands, survive in favor of or against heirs, devisees, or personal representatives, or against tenants, according to their respective rights. (Code of Ala. 1907, Sec. 2497.)

The successful party in all civil actions (with minor exceptions) is entitled to and recovers full costs, for which judgment is rendered, but when execution against the defendant is returned 'no property found' execution may issue against the plaintiff for costs created by him in obtaining his judgment. (Code of Ala. 1907, Sec. 3662, 3701.) All non-residents of the State are required to give security for the costs of suits instituted by them. Neglect or failure to give security when required subjects the suit to dismissal, and the attorney directing the issue of the process to liability for the costs. The security may be given by a deposit of money with the Clerk of the Court, and the amount may, when necessary, be enlarged by order of Court. If judgment is rendered for the defendant, on motion, a judgment can be obtained against the security for the costs. (Code of Ala. 1907, Sec. 3687.)

AFFIDAVITS.—Ex parte affidavits are not admitted as testimony. Affidavits out of the State may be made before any Judge of any Court of Record, Chancellor, Judge of the United States Courts, a Commissioner of this State, or Notary Public; and in this State before any of the above named, a Justice of the Peace, Register, or Clerk of a Court.

ARRESTS.—Under the Constitution there can be no imprisonment for debt.

ASSIGNMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF CREDITORS.—A general assignment giving preference to one or more creditors, over the remaining creditors, enures to the benefit of all; but this does not apply to or embrace mortgages given to secure a debt, contracted contemporaneously with the execution of the mortgage, and for the security of which the mortgage was given. (Code, Sec. 4295.) No insolvent law. All conveyances or assignments, in writing or otherwise, made with intent to hinder, delay or defraud creditors, purchasers or other persons, and every bond or other evidence of debt given, suit commenced, decree or judgment suffered with the like intent against the persons who are or may be so hindered, delayed or defrauded, their heirs, personal representatives and assigns, are void. (Code, Sec. 4293.)

Every deed of trust, mortgage or other security made to secure any pre-existing debt, is fraudulent and void if the grantor reserve a benefit to himself. (Code, Sec. 4294.)

All conveyances or assignments, verbal or written, of personal property in trust for the grantor, are void as to creditors. (Code, Sec. 8287.) Every general assignment of or conveyance of substantially all of debtor's property in payment of a prior debt, by which a preference is given, shall be and enure to benefit of all the creditors of the grantor equally. This act shall not apply to mortgage to secure a loan made contemporaneously with the execution of the mortgage. (Code 1907, Sec. 4295.)

ATTACHMENTS.—For what debts and damages issued: 1. To enforce the collection of a debt, whether it is due or not, at the time the attachment is taken out; 2. For any moneyed demand, the amount of which can be certainly ascertained; 3. To recover damages for a breach of contract, when the damages are not certain or liquidated; 4. When the action sounds in damages merely. Cases in which attachments issue: 1. When the defendant resides out of the State; 2. When the defendant absconds; 3. When the defendant secretes himself so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served on him; 4. When the defendant is about to remove out of the State; 5. When the defendant is about to remove his property out of the State, so that the plaintiff will probably lose his debt or have to sue for it in another State; 6. When the defendant is about fraudulently to dispose of his property; 7. When the defendant has fraudulently disposed of his property; 8. When the defendant has moneys, property or effects, liable to satisfy his debts, which he fraudulently withholds. Before the issuance of an attachment the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, must make oath of the amount of the debt or demand, and that it is justly due; also that one of the causes above enumerated exists, and that the attachment is not sued out for the purpose of vexing or harassing the defendant; which must also be reduced to writing, and subscribed by the party. The plaintiff, his agent or attorney, is further required to execute a bond in double the amount claimed to be due, with sufficient surety, payable to the defendant, with condition that the plaintiff will prosecute the attachment. But attachment may issue without such bond on ground of non-residence. If defendant enter unconditional appearance, such bond must be made within twenty-fours after notice thereof.

BANKS AND BANKING.—No bank can be incorporated by special act of the legislature, nor except on a specie basis; but all must be established under the general banking law. 2. There is no preference between classes of depositors in case of insolvency. 3. Every bank must cease all banking operations within twenty years from the time of organization and promptly thereafter close up its business, but its corporate existence may be extended 20 years by the stockholders, and thereafter may be extended from time to time for 20 years each time. Banks can sue and be sued until the affairs and liabilities are fully settled.

Statutory provisions for banks of discount or deposit: 1. Any number of persons (not less than three stockholders) may associate themselves together to establish a bank of deposit and discount; their capital stock to be not less than $25,000, of which not less than 25 per cent., and in no case less than $25,000, 2. Such persons must make a certificate under their hands and seals, setting forth: The name of the association; place of business; the number of shares of capital stock, and total amount; names and residences of stockholders, and number of shares held by each. 3. A transcript of the declaration of incorporation must also be filed in the office of the Secretary of the State, who issues to the incorporators a certificate of incorporation. 4. A stockholder is liable for the debts of the bank only to the extent of unpaid stock. No bank shall receive greater rate of interest for lending money than allowed by law to individuals. Foreign corporation invested with the privilege of banking must exercise same by the exclusive use of gold and silver coin and National Bank notes or other currency of the United States. Banks of deposit and discount incorporated under general laws of State. No certificate of deposit issued by any bank for any special deposit for which interest is to be paid must be re-issued, but, on the return thereof, must be cancelled. A married woman or minor may make deposit of his or her earnings or savings in bank, and such deposit shall be paid only to such married woman or minor upon his or her order, and not to the husband, or parent or guardian. Parties interested should consult Acts 1911 establishing State Banking Department, and amendment to State Constitution, adopted 1916.

BILLS AND NOTES.—Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act is in force, adopted by Code of 1907, and reenacted with explanatory sections. (Acts 1909, p. 126)

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—The statute denounces as invalid all future mortgages of personal property not in writing and subscribed by the mortgagor. (Code of Ala. Sec. 4288.)

Conveyances of personal property to secure debts, or to provide indemnity, are inoperative and void against creditors and purchasers without notice until recorded, unless the property is brought into this State, subject to such incumbrances, in which case they must be registered within three months; and if such property is removed to a different county from that in which the grantor resides, the conveyance must be recorded within three months from the removal, or it ceases to have effect as to creditors and purchasers from the grantee without notice.

Conveyances of personal property to secure debts, or for indemnity, must be recorded in the county where the grantor resides, and also in the county where the property is at the date of the conveyance; if the property is removed to another county, the conveyance must be again recorded within three months from such removal, in the county to which it is removed.

No renewal of chattel mortgages is necessary. They may be foreclosed as follows: 1. By selling the property under a power of sale contained in the mortgage; 2. By an action of detinue to recover possession; 3. By bill in equity for foreclosure. The rights of a mortgagee cannot be affected by the mortgagor remaining in possession of mortgaged chattels after forfeiture, except by some act or consent of the mortgagee. All the original rights of the mortgagee are preserved. The reservation of the possession of stock in trade, and of the right to deal therewith, is fraudulent, as against the creditors of the mortgagor.

CONDITIONAL SALES.—All contracts for conditional sales of personal property must be recorded in ninety days in Judge of Probate's office, in the county where the purchaser resides, and in county where the property is or remains.

CONSIGNMENTS.—See Frauds.

CORPORATIONS.—There are general laws under which corporations may be speedily organized for any lawful purpose. For business purposes generally, the corporation not having delegated to it the right or power of eminent domain, the usual mode of incorporation is by the filing a certificate in writing in the office of the probate judge of the county in which it is intended the corporation shall have its principal place of business, stating the names and residences of the corporators; the amount of the capital stock, which shall not be less than $2,000; the number of shares into which it is divided; the name of the corporation; and the principal place of its business; the nature of its business; amount of capital stock with which it will begin business, and its general purposes. The declaration for the incorporation of railroad, street railway, or other companies for the construction of roads is required to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. All private corporations have the same and the ordinary powers of such corporations. All general or special laws under which corporations are formed are subject to alteration, amendment, or repeal at the pleasure of the Legislature. Stock or bonds cannot be issued "except for money, labor done, or money or property actually received." The stock, or bonded indebtedness, cannot be increased, "except in pursuance of general laws, nor without the consent of the persons holding the larger amount in value of stock, first obtained at a meeting to be held after thirty days' notice given in pursuance of law." Preferred stock cannot be issued without the consent of the owners of two-thirds of the stock. The stockholder is not liable for the debts of the corporation beyond the amount due from him on his stock. The property of a corporation is subject to the same but not to a higher rate of taxation than the property of natural persons. Foreign corporations doing business in the State must have a known place of business and an authorized agent, and are suable by the service of process upon an agent anywhere in the State. A privilege tax is required of all corporations doing business in this State.

Any corporation may by proper provision in or amendment to its charter, issue stock without par value. (Acts 1919, p. 698.)

The capital stock and bonded indebtedness of private corporations organized in this State under a special charter may be increased, the consent of the persons holding the larger amount in value of the stock of such corporation being first obtained at a meeting of the stockholders convened for that purpose, thirty days' notice having been given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the corporation has its principal office, if one is published in such county, and if not, then in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county nearest the principal office, a copy of which shall be mailed to each stockholder; such notice explicitly stating what increase it is proposed to make to the capital stock or bonded indebtedness of the corporation. It is also necessary to obtain the consent at such meeting of the stockholders to such increase of the persons holding the larger amount in value of the stock. A report thereof must be made to the Judge of Probate who shall keep a record thereof.

Corporations may alter and amend their charter with the consent of two-thirds in value and three-fourths in number of stockholders. They may also amend defects in their organization, do corporate acts in other States of the Union, issue preferred stock to loan and invest, give and receive mortgages, shall answer interrogatories to corporation by the officer cognizant of the fact, may locate officers, agents, etc., at pleasure in State other than at principal place of business. (Code 1907 Chapter 69)

DAMAGES ON PROTESTED BILLS.—The damages on bills of exchange, inland or foreign, protested for non-acceptance or non-payment, are five per cent. on the sum drawn for. Damages on protest for non-payment are in place of all charges except costs of protest incurred previous to and at the time of giving notice of non-payment; but the holder may recover legal interest upon the aggregate amount of the principal sum specified in such bill, and of the damages thereon, from the time at which payment of the principal sum has been demanded, and costs of protest. When a bill of exchange is protested for non-acceptance, the same rate of damages is allowed as in the case of a protest for non-payment.

DEEDS.—All persons of the age of twenty-one years, not under legal incapacity, may alien lands, or any interest therein, immediate or future, certain or uncertain, or may devise the same by will. (Code of Ala. Sec. 3354.) A married woman, if over the age of eighteen years, may release her dower in the lands of her husband.

Alienations of lands, or of any right or interest therein (other than of the homestead), "must be written or printed, on parchment or paper, and must be signed at their foot by the contracting party or his or her agent having written authority; or if he is not able to sign his name, then his name must be written for him, with the words 'his mark' written against the same or over it. The execution of such conveyance must be attested by one, or, when the party cannot write, by two witnesses who are able to write, and who must sign their names as witnesses." (Code of Ala. Sec. 3354 et seq.)

The wife may relinquish dower, by joining with the husband in a conveyance, attested by two witnesses, or acknowledged before an officer having authority to take the acknowledgment of conveyances; or subsequent to a conveyance by the husband, by an instrument in writing, executed in the presence of two attesting witnesses, or acknowledged before an officer having authority to take the acknowledgment of conveyances. (Code of Ala. Sec. 3818 et seq.)

In conveyances of the separate estate of the wife, the husband must join. (See Code of Ala. Sec. 2528.)

Acknowledgments and proofs of conveyances may be taken by Judges of the Supreme and Circuit Courts and their Clerks, Chancellors, and Registers in Chancery, Judges of the Courts of Probate, Justices of the Peace, and Notaries Public. If taken in other States of the United States, they may be taken by Judges and Clerks of any Federal Court, Judges and Clerks of any Court of Record in any State, Notaries Public, or Commissioners appointed by the Governor of Alabama. Beyond the limits of the United States, such acknowledgments and proofs may be taken by the Judge of any Court of Record, Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any city, town, borough or county, Notaries Public, or by any diplomatic, consular or commercial agent of the United States. (Code of Ala. Sec. 3358 et seq. In no case need the United States Consul certify the character of the official taking the acknowledgment.

Powers of attorney to convey property may be proven or acknowledged in the same manner, and must be received as evidence to the same extent as conveyances.

If the grantor is unknown, his or her identity may be established by evidence satisfactory to the officer taking the acknowledgment.

All instruments purporting on their face to be under seal, are taken as sealed instruments. (Code, Sec. 3363.) Consideration of sealed instruments may be impeached and inquired into by plea. (Code, 5324.)

EXEMPTIONS.—Exemptions allowed to the amount of $1.000 in personalty and $2,000 in realty if situated in a town, or 160 acres if situated in the county, and wages $25 per month. The exemptions of $1,000 personalty may be waived by the usual form of promissory note with waiver, but the exemptions of $25 wages cannot be waived in any way.

FRAUD, STATUTE OF.—Is substantially the same as the English statute, except that purchase or sale of personal property to any amount by parol is not within the statute. Bankers, factors, consignees, attorneys, common carriers, or any other agent who fraudulently converts or secretes any money, property or effects received by virtue of such employment, are indictable for embezzlement. (Code, Chap. 90.)

HUSBAND AND WIFE.—All property held by wife previous to her marriage, her separate property, not subject to liabilities of husband. So the earnings and wearing apparel of the wife, and damages for injuries to her person or reputation. Husband not liable for ante or post nuptial contracts or torts of wife. The wife has full legal power to contract as if she were sole, except as to her real estate. And this she can only alienate by and with the consent of the husband expressed by his joining with her in the conveyance. The wife cannot directly or indirectly become surety for husband. Married woman over 18 years of age relieved of disability of minority. Contracts by non-resident married woman concerning property in this State has same force and effect as made by a resident married woman in the State. Married woman may make will. May take insurance on husband's life for an amount the premiums on which will not exceed $500, which premiums may be paid by husband.

Must be sued alone. Code 1907, Chap. 95.

INTEREST.—The rate of interest on all contracts, open accounts, judgments, and decrees is eight per cent. per annum. The principal only can be recovered by law on usurious contracts when usury is pleaded. In such cases defendant, recovers full costs. (Code of Ala. Sec. 4619.)

JUDGMENTS.—Any judgment or decree of Court of Record becomes a lien on property of defendant in any county of this State for ten years, when a certificate of Clerk or Register of the Court wherein such judgment was rendered is filed and registered with the Probate Judge of the county showing the Court which rendered the same, the amount of same and costs, date of rendition, the names of parties and plaintiff's attorney, with date of filing and not otherwise. Such registration is notice to all persons of the existence of such lien.

Judgments are proved by a certified transcript, and the mode of proof is not regulated by statute.

Under the Acts of 1911 all special Courts in the State with their special rules of pleading were abolished and in their stead was created a uniform system of Circuit Courts with uniform procedure, having Civil, Criminal and Chancery jurisdiction. The time for appearance in Civil and Equity cases is ordinarily, thirty days from service of original process. Subsequent pleading is subject to the direction of the Court. In addition to the Circuit Courts there are Justice of the Peace Courts and, in the larger cities, "Inferior Courts" or "Courts of Common Pleas," which are not Courts of record and have Civil jurisdiction up to $100

LIMITATIONS.—Notes, six years: stated accounts, such as where all the terms are agreed on, six years; open accounts, three years; sealed instruments, ten years; judgments, twenty years. Bar created by statute can only be removed by a partial payment, made on the contract before the bar is complete, or by an unconditional promise in writing. Those under legal disability have three years after its removal in which to begin suit; but no action can be commenced after twenty years. Actions founded on a promise in writing not under seal, must be brought within six years.

MORTGAGES.—Are executed and acknowledged in the same manner as deeds. Usually they contain a power of sale authorizing foreclosure without the intervention of a Court, by publication of a notice. They may be foreclosed upon failure to pay any portion either of principal or interest, if there be a provision in the mortgage to that effect. They may be also foreclosed by bill in equity. There are two years for redemption allowed in each case. A woman cannot mortgage her statutory separate estate for the purpose of subjecting it to sale, for the payment of the husband's debt. There is no statute as to how mortgages shall be discharged, being governed by common law. (Code of Ala. Sec. 3354, 5746.) See Chattel Mortgages: Trust Deeds.

REDEMPTION.—Real estate, or any interest in it, that has been sold under execution, or by power of sale in a mortgage, can be redeemed within two years after such sale, upon the debtor's tendering the purchaser, or any one who has the title to such realty, the purchase money with ten per cent. per annum, and all other lawful charges. All lands sold for taxes, the party entitled thereto must deposit with the Judge or Probate of the county in which the land is situated the amount of money for which the land was sold, with interest thereon, at the rate of fifteen per cent. per annum; all taxes which has been assessed upon the lands sought to be redeemed since the date of sale with interest thereon, at the rate of eight per cent. per annum and all costs. Personal property sold for taxes cannot be redeemed. The equity of redemption is subject to levy and sale under execution.

STAY OF EXECUTION.—Judgments rendered before a Justice of the Peace may be stayed as follows: By the production of good security in the payment thereof, namely, on all sums less than $20, thirty days; over $20, for sixty days. If unpaid, execution issues against all parties to such undertaking; defendant cannot stay the issue of execution from Circuit Court. The plaintiff may do so, but he loses priority of lien, if other liens in the meantime are obtained. The defendant, by executing bond in double the amount of the judgment, and taking an appeal to the Supreme Court, can delay the collection of the judgment until its affirmance by the Supreme Court, but for this he is compelled to pay legal interest and five per cent. damages as well as all cost of the appeal.

TAX LAWS.—(Code of Ala. Sec. 2060 et. seq.)—When land is sold for taxes, the collector gives the purchaser a certificate of purchase, containing a description of the land, showing that the land was assessed, to whom assessed, the date of assessment, for what years taxes were due, the amount of the taxes, forfeiture, fees and costs; that it was advertised, and how long it was offered for sale, and at what time; who became the purchaser and at what price.

Land sold for taxes may be redeemed at any time before the expiration of two years from the date of sale, by the owner, mortgagee, or any person having a beneficial interest therein, by depositing with the Judge of Probate of the county in which said land was sold the amount of purchase-money and a penalty of fifteen per cent. per annum on the amount paid at the tax sale, cost of the certificate of purchase, all taxes on such land which have accrued subsequently to the sale, and $1 to the Judge; land of an infant or lunatic, when sold, may be redeemed at any time within one year after the removal of such disability, upon satisfactory evidence of ownership. Upon redemption the Judge of Probate gives the person redeeming, if other than the State, a certificate of redemption containing substantially the same statements as the certificate of purchase.

To lands remaining unredeemed immediately after the expiration of two years from the sale, the Probate Judge then in office shall make a deed and deliver the same to the purchaser upon the return of the certificate of purchase and the payment of $1 for the deed. In all controversies and suits in relation to the rights of the purchaser, such deed is prima facie evidence of the facts recited therein.

TESTIMONY.—In suits and proceedings before any Court or officer other than criminal cases, there must be no exclusion of any witness because he is a party, or interested, except that neither party shall testify against the other as to any transaction with or statement by any deceased person, whose estate is interested in the result of the suit, or when such deceased person at the time of such transaction or statement acted in any representative or fiduciary relation to the party against whom such testimony is sought to be introduced. (Code of Ala. Sec. 4007.)

TRUST DEEDS.—Mortgages of real or personal property are usually executed with powers of sale. Such powers of sale can be executed by an assignee or personal representative of any person who by assignment or otherwise becomes entitled to the money secured. Deeds of trust are in use, and in many respects are more available, especially for non residents.

No such corporation must loan money except on adequate security on real or personal property, and such loans must not be for a longer period than six years." Directors declare and pay dividends from interest and profits. Have no power to contract debts and liabilities except for deposits. Stock and assets are security to depositors and stockholders. Depositors have prior security over stockholders, unless the by-laws extend security of deposits made by stockholders. The right to hold, purchase and convey real and personal property is limited to lot and building in which the business of the corporation is carried on, the cost of which must not exceed $100,000, except by a vote of two-thirds of the stockholders it may extend to $250,000. Property mortgaged or pledged in regular course of business on purchase by sales under such pledges, mortgages or deeds and can not purchase hold and convey in any other case for any purpose, and all property taken on loans or pledges must be sold within five years after title is vested in the corporation. The corporation cannot purchase, own or sell personal property except such as may be requisite for its immediate accommodation for the transaction of its business. Such corporation cannot hold, purchase or convey bonds, securities or evidence of indebtedness, public or private, except bonds of the United States, territory or county or corporated cities, unless it has a full paid capital stock or $100,000. Married women and minors may use their right to make and draw deposits, dividends and execute receipts therefor. May issue general certificates of deposits transferable by endorsement and delivery. Payments under such certificates may be made to proper assignee or in case of death to legal representative payment discharges corporation. They may prescribe by by-laws the time and conditions upon which re-payments are to be made to depositors. When depositors call for a greater amount than is disposable for that purpose no funds of depositors or earnings shall be loaned until such excess has ceased. Five per cent. of the net profits constitute a reserve fund on each dividend day which must be invested as other funds of the corporation to be used in payment of losses sustained in pursuing its lawful business. May provide for the disposal of funds except reserve funds of over $100,000. No director or officer can directly or indirectly for himself or as a partner or an agent of others borrow any of the deposits or funds, nor can he become an endorser or security for loans to others nor an obligor from whom money is borrowed or loaned, under penalty of his office becoming vacate. ARKANSAS.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the State of Arkansas, prepared by MOORE & MOORE, Attorney at Law, Texarkana, Arkansas.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—When deeds are acknowledged or proved in this State, proof or acknowledgment may be taken before the supreme or circuit court, or either judge or clerk thereof, or the clerk of any court of record, or any justice of the peace or notary public. Anywhere else in the United States, before any court of the United States or any State or Territory, or Indian Territory, or colony, possession or dependency of the United States having a seal or the clerk thereof, mayor or chief officer of any city or town having a seal of office, or notary public, or any commissioner for the State of Arkansas. Out of the United States, before any court of any State, kingdom, or empire having a seal, or any mayor or chief officer of any city or town having an official seal, or before any officer of any foreign country who by its laws is authorized to take probate of the conveyance of real estate of his own country, if he have an official seal. The proof of the execution of a deed is made by one or more of the subscribing witnesses making affidavit before the proper officer or court that he saw the grantor subscribe it, or had heard him acknowledge that he had subscribed and executed it for the purposes and consideration therein mentioned, and that he or they had subscribed it as witnesses at his request. If the witnesses are dead or cannot be had, proof of the handwriting of the grantor and that of at least one of the subscribing witnesses may be proved by two or more disinterested witnesses swearing to each signature. The husband must join in conveyance of wife's lands, if the lands were acquired before October 13, 1874. If acquired since that time, she can convey either as a single person, or in the form preacribed by the statute for conveyances by married woman. If the grantor is unknown to the officer or court, his identity can be established by affidavits indorsed on the conveyance. After a deed is filed for record it is notice to all the world, but recording is not compulsory. When husband and wife convey lands of the husband, the certificate of acknowledgement must show that the wife acknowledged her relinquishment of dower; but not when the lands conveyed belong to the wife. Neither deeds nor mortgages are required to be filed for record within any specified time, but mortgages are not liens until filed for record, except between mortgagor and mortgagee.

ACTIONS.—Circuit Courts have jurisdiction of all actions unless specially limited and provided, otherwise by the Constitution and statute. They have jurisdiction of all the criminal law and exclusive jurisdiction in all matters of contract over $300.00.

Justices of the Peace have original jurisdiction, exclusive of the Circuit Court, in matters of contract, not exceeding $100.00, and concurrent jurisdiction in matters of contracts where amount in controversy does not exceed $300.00. They also have concurrent jurisdiction in suits for recovery of personal property where the value does not exceed $300.00, and in matters of damage to personal property where the amount does not exceed $100.00. They also have jurisdiction in certain small criminal cases.

The State is divided into Chancery Districts, and the Chancery Courts have the usual Equity (or Chancery) jurisdiction.

Suit in the Circuit Court is commenced by filing a written complaint signed by the party or his attorneys verified by affidavit of the party, unless he is absent from the county when the verification may be made by agent or attorney. This verification, however, is not required where the complaint is founded on a note or other obligation of defendant. The original or a copy of a writing or account sued on, must, if possible, be filed with the complaint In suits before a Justice of the Peace, the note or the account sued on must be filed, but written pleadings are not required. In the Circuit Court judgment will be rendered where no defense is made when the summons has been served twenty days before the commencement of the term in any county in the state, or where service has been had thirty days outside State. Before Justices the service must be five days before day of trial where the amount in controversy does not exceed $50.00 and ten days where it exceeds that sum. Non-residents may be summoned by warning order. In Chancery suits service must be had not less than twenty days before the beginning of the term of court.

Initial costs in the Circuit Court are usually about $10.00 and in Justice's court about $5.00.

Probate Courts have jurisdiction in matters of estates and of orphans and guardianship ADMINISTRATION.—Administration usually taken on estates in the county where the decedent resided.

Letters of administration are granted to the representative of an intestate, preferring first the husband or wife, or some person entitled by law to a distribution of the estate, as the court or clerk may be of opinion will best manage the estate. If no such person applies within thirty days after the death of the intestate, letters of administration may be granted to any creditor of the intestate who may apply for the same within sixty days after death of the intestate, or to such other person as the court may appoint.

Bond must be given in a sum not less than double the amount of the estimated value of the estate.

In the case of a person dying leaving a will if no executor is named administration may be taken "with the will annexed."

Claims are payable in the following order: First, funeral expenses; second, expenses of last sickness, wages of service, and demands for medicine and medical attendance during last illness; third, judgments rendered against deceased in his lifetime, which are liens on his lands; fourth, all other demands exhibited within six months after the grant of letters; fifth, all such demands exhibited after the end of six months and within one year from the grant of letters Claims not exhibited within one year after the grant of letters are barred.

Claims are exhibited by delivering to the executor or administrator a copy of the judgment, note, or other written contract, and exhibiting the original; if the claim is an account, an itemized account must be delivered to the executor or administrator The claimant must append to his demand an affidavit that nothing has been paid or delivered toward the satisfaction of demand, except what is credited thereon, and that the sum of ..... dollars is justly due. The administrator may allow the claim by indorsing the approval thereon; if rejected, by the administrator or executor, the claim must be passed upon for allowance by the Judge of the Probate Court. Non residents cannot act as executors or administrators.

AFFIDAVITS.—May be made out of the State before a Commissioner for Arkansas, a Judge of a court, Mayor of City, Notary Public, or Justice of the Peace, in the State before a Judge of a court, Justice of the Peace, Notary Public or Clerk of a Court. The seal of a court or clerk of a court is sufficient authentication. When made out of the State before a Justice of the Peace or other officer not having a seal, authentication must be made under the act of Congress.

ARREST.—The defendant may be arrested in a civil action upon an affidavit by the plaintiff setting forth the nature of plaintiff's claim or debt, and charging the defendant with fraud in contracting the same. That it is just and the amount the plaintiff ought to recover. That the affiant believes, either that the defendant is about to depart from this State, and with the intent to defraud his creditor, has concealed or removed from the State his property or so much thereof that the process of the court after judgment cannot be executed, or that the defendant has money or securities for money or evidence of debt in the possession of himself or of others for his use, and is about to depart from the State without leaving property therein sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's claim. Bond must be given to indemnify the defendant in case the order of arrest is wrongfully obtained. The defendant may give bail conditioned that he will render himself amenable to the order of the court if judgment go against him. The defendant may be discharged upon surrender of all his property not exempt from execution.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY.—Assignments for the benefit of creditors may be made with or without preference. Except that insolvent corporations are not allowed to make preferences, only for wages and salaries of laborers and employees. Assignee must give bond in double the amount of property assigned, and must sell within 120 days, at auction, all the property assigned to him for the payment of debts. Proof of fraud on the part of assignor is sufficient to invalidate the assignment, whether the assignee knew of it or not.

ATTACHMENT. — Plaintiff in civil action, arising on contract, may at or after commencement thereof have attachment against property of defendant where said defendant is non-resident of the State or a foreign corporation, or has been absent four months from the State, or has departed from it with intent to defraud his creditors, or has left the county of his residence to avoid service of a summons, or conceals himself so that a summons can not be served upon him, or has transferred, sold, conveyed or removed his property out of the State with fraudulent intent, or is about to sell, remove or dispose of the same with such fraudulent intent, not leaving enough to pay all his debts. Under a writ of attachment debts due the defendant may be garnisheed. Plaintiff must give bond with sureties, conditioned to pay all damages defendant may sustain if the order of attachment is wrongfully obtained. A creditor may have attachment before his debt is due, when debtor has disposed of his property with fraudulent intent or is about to do so, or about to remove his property from the State fraudulently. But the creditor must first secure anorder from circuit judge or clerk.

BANKING CORPORATIONS —By Act of General Assembly of Arkansas, approved March 3, 1913, to be in force on and after January ., 1914, and to remain in force for twelve years thereafter there was created a department to be known as the State Bank Department.

The Governor, by and with advice and with consent of Senate appoints a Bank Commissioner who is the head of the Bank Department. Any five or more persons, a majority of whom are bona fide residents of this State may apply to the Commissioner to be incorporated as a Bank Trust Company, or Savings Bank, which corporation may transact as many of such businesses as are provided for in its proposed Articles of Agreement. The Bank Commissioner, upon being satisfied as to the compliance with the law, shall, upon payment of the fees, give to the institution a Certificate of Incorporation in such form as he may prescribe the receipt of which shall authorize it to proceed with its business. The stockholders of every bank are liable individually, equally and ratably and not one for another for all debts of the bank to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof in addition to the amount invested in such stock. Provision is made in said Act for an individual or firm doing business as a private bank setting apart the assets of such private bank for the liabilities thereof until all such liabilities have been paid in full, and providing that a widow of an individual banker shall not be endowed of any property of the bank, except such as remains after payment of all depositors and other creditors. When public funds are deposited in an incorporated bank for safe keeping, the bank and the stockholders thereof are liable for all such funds that such bank, on demand, shall fail to pay to the person entitled to receive the same. [The Act is a long one, and anyone interested in same should consult the Act itself.]

CHATTEL MORTGAGES are acknowledged same as deeds, and are not liens until filed for record, though good between the parties. May be foreclosed by complaint in equity. May be filed and not recorded at option of mortgagee, and are liens from time of filing.

Trust deeds must be acknowledged and filed same as mortgages. Before sale under power given in mortgages, the property must be appraised by three disinterested householders, under oath or affirmation, and must bring two-thirds of the appraised value, or it is reserved from sale twelve months if real estate, and sixty days if personal property. At second offering it is sold for what it will bring. But no appraisement is required, and there is no right of redemption, after sale of personal property, if the sale is made under decree of foreclosure of court. Real estate mortgages must be recorded in county where land is situated. If mortgagor is non-resident of the State, a mortgage of personal property must be recorded in county where the property is situated at the time the mortgage is executed. If a resident of the State, then mortgage of personal property must be recorded where he resides.

CONDITIONAL SALES.—There are no special statutory requirements in regard to conditional sales, except such as apply to chattel and other mortgages. (See Chattel Mortgages.)

CORPORATIONS (manufacturing and other business). —Corporations are formed under a general law by any number of persons, not less than three, filing Articles of Incorporation in the County Clerk's office of the county in which its domicile and business is located, and in the office of the Secretary of State; the authorized capital to be divided into shares of $ 5 or $ 00 each. Such articles to specify distinctly and definitely the purpose for which the Corporation is formed. An annual statement is required to be filed in the County Clerk's office, showing its financial condition, and if the president and secretary fail to file such statement, they are jointly and severally liable for all debts of the corporation contracted during the period of such neglect and are subject to a fine not to exceed $50 for each day of such neglect. Directors must be at least three in number chosen annually. They elect the president (who must be one of their number) and other officers. The secretary and the treasurer, who may be the same person shall reside and have their place of business and keep the books of the corporation within this State. Provision is made by statute for increasing or reducing the capital stock and for liquidating the corporation. The stock is personal property and can be transferred only on the books of the corporation in such form as the directors prescribe. The corporation has a prior lien on the stock for any indebtedness of the stockholder to the corporation. A certificate of any transfer of stock must be filed in office of County Clerk and noted by him in a book kept for the purpose. The personal liability of each stockholder is limited to the amount of his subscribed and unpaid stock. For eign corporations may do business in the State by complying with the statute requiring copy of charter filed and recorded and paying prescribed fees, appointing agent for service, etc. Provision is made by statute for the formation of navigation companies, turnpike and plank-road companies, institutions of learning, fair associations, etc., and trust and surety companies, which last are preserved by the Act in regard to Banking Corporations.

DEPOSITIONS.—Depositions may be used on the trial of all issues in any action where the witness does not reside in the county where the action is pending, or is absent from the State, or lives more than thirty miles from the place where the court sits in which the action is pending. They may be taken de bene esse, or upon reasonable notice to the adverse party, or upon interrogatories and commission.

Reasonable notice is one day for each thirty miles of travel, one day for preparation where the distance is 100 miles or less, and two days where it is more.

Where the distance exceeds fifty miles, and the usual mode of travel for the whole or part of the distance is by steamboat, railway or other public conveyance, the time ordinarily required by such mode of travel, with the days for preparation, shall be deemed sufficient for the notice.

Where a deposition is taken upon interrogatories, neither party nor his agent or attorney shall be present, unless both parties are present or represented, or unless the opposite party, his agent or attorney, has been seasonably notified of the time and place of the examination, or the party attending has been notified by the adverse party to be present. The court has the power to order that depositions taken in another county in the State shall be taken on interrogatories.

The certificate of the officer must state the time and place of taking the deposition; that the witness was duly sworn before he gave his testimony, and that his testimony was written, and read to, and subscribed by him, in the presence of the officer; and which of the parties, in person or by his agent or attorney, was present at the examination of the witness.

The statement of the witness must be written in the presence of the officer taking it, either by the witness or the officer, or stenographer. A deposition may be written by a stenographer, sworn by the officer, that he will correctly write and transcribe it. If thus written, the witness may appear before the officer and sign the deposition after it is transcribed. Parties to the suit, may, at time of taking, waive witness' signature. If thus waived the officer must so certify.

Depositions may be taken in the State before any Judge, or Clerk of Record, Justice of the Peace, Mayor of a City, or Notary Public.

Depositions may be taken out of the State, before a Commissioner appointed by the Governor thereof, a Judge of the Court, a Justice of the Peace, Mayor of a City, Notary Public, or by any other person empowered by a commission directed to him, by consent of the parties, or by order of the court.

The caption of the deposition shall be in these words: "The deposition of.....taken on the..... day of.....190 , between the hours of 8 o'clock A. M. and 5 o'clock, P. M. at the..... ....in the..... .....of.....county and State of.....to be read in evidence in an action between..... plaintiff and..... defendant, pending in the..... court of.....county, Arkansas."

Certificate should be in the following words:

"State of.....
County of.....

"I.....a..... in and for said county, do certify that the foregoing deposition of..... ..... was taken before me.....and was read to and subscribed by him in my presence, at the time and place in the action mentioned in the caption, the said .....having been first sworn by me that the evidence he should give in the action should be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, and his statements were reduced to writing by me in his presence (or by him in my presence), the plaintiff alone being present at the examination (or the defendant), or both or neither in person, or by attorney, being present at the examination, according to the facts. (If written by a stenographer, and witness' signature waived, officer's certificate should so state, as above noted.)

"Witness my hand and seal of office at .....on this..... day of....."

When the depositions are completed they shall be sealed up by the officer and directed to the clerk of the court in which the action is pending with an indorsement thereon, showing them to be depositions, the style of the case, and they must be either delivered or mailed to the clerk by the officer taking them; except that depositions taken out of the State, sealed and directed as above, may be delivered to the party taking the same, his agent or attorney, to be by him delivered such person so delivering them to take an oath that they have not been opened by him, or other person, to his knowledge.

DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Real and personal property descends, first, to children and their descendants in equal parts, second, if there be no children, then to the father, then to the mother, if no mother, then to the brothers and sisters of their descendants in equal parts; if there be no children, father, mother, brothers or sisters, nor their descendants, then to the grandfather, grand-mother, uncles, aunts and their descendants in equal parts, and so on, passing to the nearest lineal ancestors and their children and descendants in equal parts. Where there are descendents of the intestate, the property descends to them per capita, if in equal degree, and per stirpes in unequal degree.

In case of real estate, if the inheritance was ancestral and came from the father's side, then it will go to the line on the part of the father, in exclusion of the mother's line, and on the contrary where the inheritance came from the mother's side, the same rule obtains as to the line of the mother. If the inheritance was not ancestral, but a new acquisition, then, after a life estate reserved in succession to the father and mother, if living, it will go as to the remainder, first, to the line of the intestate's paternal uncles and aunts and their descendants, in postponement of the mother's line, until the former becomes extinct, and then to the line of the intestate's maternal uncles and aunts and their descendants, unless there should be lineal or collateral kindred, who either by right of propinquity or in right of representation, stand in a nearer relationship to the intestate than uncles and aunts; in such case such nearer kindred would take the inheritance to the exclusion of both of these collateral lines, and in their hands it would become an ancestral estate and afterwards go to the blood of the relative from which it came in the ordinary course of descent prescribed for ancestral inheritances. Half blood and their descendants take personalty as well as realty equal with the whole blood, except that they are excluded from real estate when it is ancestral, if they lack the blood of the transmitting ancestor. Posthumous children of the intestate inherit as if born during the lifetime of the intestate. Illegitimate children are capable of inheriting and transmitting property on the part of the mother.

DIVORCE.—The grounds for divorce are impotency wilful desertion for one year without reasonable cause; where either party had a husband or wife living at the time of the marriage; where either party is convicted of felony or other infamous crime, habitual drunkenness for one year, cruel or barbarous treatment or personal indignity such as to render the conditions of the applicant intolerable and adultery occurring subsequent to the marriage.

The plaintiff must allege and prove, in addition to a legal ground of divorce, first, a residence in the State for one year next before bringing suit, second, that the cause of divorce occurred or existed in this State, or if out of the State, either that it was a legal cause of divorce in the State where it occurred or existed, or that the plaintiff's residence was then in this State, and third, that the cause of divorce existed or occurred within five years next before the commencement of the suit. On final decree each party is restored to the property undisposed of, which he or she brought into the marriage. The wife may be restored to her maiden name by the decree of the court. At the wife's instance she is entitled to one-third of the personalty absolutely of the husband, and to one-third of his lands for life, when the decree is obtained in suit instituted by the wife.

EXECUTIONS.—All executions may be stayed for a period of six months on bond and security. Sales are made on a credit of three months on bond and security, which bond and security have the force of a judgment if forfeited. Anything may be taken on execution belonging to the debtors not exempted by law. Execution sales, if of lands, must be advertised at least twenty days before sale, by printed advertisements posted at the court house door, and at least five other public places in the county in which the sale is to be made, one of which must be on the premises to be sold, and by publishing the same, for at least two insertions before the day of sale, in a weekly newspaper published in the county, if there be one. The time and place of sale of personalty must be advertised by putting up written or printed notices at three of the most public places in the vicinity of the place of sale. Real estate must be sold at the court house door, unless the defendant requests the sale to be made on the land to be sold.

EXEMPTIONS.—Are as follows:—Personal property of a resident of this State, who is not married, or the head of a family in specific articles to be selected by such resident not exceeding in value two hundred dollars in addition to his or her wearing apparel; no property shall be exempt from execution for debts contracted for the purchase money thereof, while in the hands of the vendee.

Second, the personal property of any resident of this State who is married or the head of a family in specific articles selected by such resident to the value of five hundred dollars, in addition to his or her wearing apparel and that of his or her family.

Third, the homestead of any resident of this State, who is married or the head of a family is exempt, except for the purchase money, or for specific liens or for taxes, or against executors, administrators, guardians, receivers, attorneys for money collected by them, and other trustees of an express trust, for money due, from them in their fiduciary capacity.

Fourth, the homestead outside of any city, town or village, occupied as a residence, shall consist of not over 160 acres of land with the improvements thereon to be selected by the owner, provided the same shall not exceed in value $2,560.00, and the homestead shall not be reduced in any event to less than 80 acres regardless of value.

The homestead in any city, town or village, owned and occupied as a residence, shall consist of not exceeding one acre of land, with the improvements thereon, to be selected by the owner; provided, the same shall not exceed in value $2,500, and in no event shall such homestead be reduced to less than one quarter of an acre of land, regardless of value.

A homestead cannot be sold or mortgaged without the wife joining in the deed and releasing the homestead, and if the husband fails to claim it, it may be claimed by the wife. If the personal estate of a decedent is worth less than $300.00 on her petition, it is all turned over to the widow and children.

FRAUDS, STATUTE OF.—Unless the agreement, promise or contract upon which an action shall be brought or some memorandum or note thereof, shall be made in writing, and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or by some person by him properly authorized so to do, such action cannot be maintained—first, to charge an executor or administrator on any special promise to answer for any debt or damage out of his own estate; second, to charge any person, upon any special promise to answer for the debts, default or miscarriage of another; third, to charge any person upon an agreement made in consideration of marriage; fourth, to charge any person upon any contract for the sale of lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any interest in or concerning them; fifth, to charge any person upon any lease of land, tenements or hereditaments for longer term than one year; sixth, to charge any person upon any contract, promise or agreement, that is not to be performed within one year from the making thereof.

No contract for the sale of goods or other personal property for the price of $30.00 or upward, shall be binding on the parties unless first, there be some note or memorandum in writing, signed by the party to be charged, or second, the purchaser shall except a part of the goods sold and actually receive the same, or third, shall give something in earnest to bind the bargain or in part payment thereof.

GARNISHMENT.—Where any plaintiff may begin any action, or may have obtained a judgment, garnishment may issue against anyone owing the defendant. In actions by attachment, the plaintiff may sue out writ of garnishment on bringing suit.

HOLIDAYS.—Sunday, Christmas, January 1st, February 22d, Jefferson Davis' birthday, June 3rd, July 4th and Thanksgiving Day are quasi legal holidays. Strictly speaking there are no legal holidays except as they affect the notice and protest of bills, notes, etc.

HOMESTEADS.—(See exemptions above.)

HUSBAND AND WIFE.—Our constitution and laws have gone very far in changing the relation formerly existing between husband and wife, especially as regards property rights. The constitution provides, "the real and personal property of any feme covert in this State, acquired either before or after marriage, whether by gift, grant, inheritance, devise, or otherwise, shall, so long as she may choose, be and remain her separate estate and property, and may be devised, bequeathed, or conveyed by her, the same as if she were a feme sole; and the same shall not be subject to the debts of her husband."

The Legislature has provided for the schedule of the separate property of a married woman. Failure to schedule such property leaves the burden of proof on the wife to show in what character it is held.

A wife's separate property is not liable for any debts contracted by her unless the contract was made with special reference to its being so liable.

Females become of age at 18 years.

Sec 1.—That from and after the passage of this Act, every married woman and every woman who may in the future become married, shall have all the rights to contract and be contracted with, to sue and be sued, and in law and equity shall enjoy all rights and be subjected to all the laws of this State, as though she were a femme sole; provided, it is expressly declared to be the intention of this Act to remove all statutory disabilities of married women as well as common law disabilities, such as the disability to act as executrix or administratrix as provided by Section 6 of Kirby's Digest, and all other statutory disabilities.

Act 66, approved February 11, 1919.

INTEREST.—Legal rate is six per cent., but contracts may be made for any rate not exceeding ten per cent. Interest begins to run on an open account from the time payment is unreasonably withheld. Judgments bear the same interest as contract sued on, if in such instrument the words "until paid" are used concerning the payment of interest. But if the words per annum alone are used, then, regardless of the rate stipulated, the judgment would draw six per cent. Judgment against counties or county warrants bear no interest. Usury forfeits principal and interest.

JUDGMENTS.—Judgments and decrees rendered in the Circuit Court are liens for three years on the real estate of the defendant, situate in the county in which the court is held. Judgments of a Justice of the Peace become a lien on the real estate of the defendant by filing a transcript of such judgment with the Clerk of the Circuit Court

Execution may be issued on judgment until the judgment is barred by the statute of limitation (ten years). The death of a plaintiff does not prevent issue of execution, but the names of his representatives may be indorsed thereon; nor does the death of the defendants prevent execution against survivors. Execution cannot issue on judgment or decree until ten days after rendition thereof, unless specially ordered by the court.

Judgments are not a lien on personal property, but an execution issued thereon is a lien as soon as same is issued and placed in the hands of the sheriff or constable.

LIMITATIONS.—Accounts and actions for injuring or wrongfully taking goods and chattels, three years; notes and sealed instruments, five years; (sealed instruments executed prior to March 29, 1889, ten years) judgments, ten years. A written acknowledgement of indebtedness and promise to pay, or a part payment, revives the debt. Limitations of actions for the recovery of real estate, seven years. Usual saving clause in favor of infants and insane persons, but not as to non-residents. Suits to foreclose mortgages or trust deeds are barred unless brought within the period of limitation fixed by law for suit on the debt or liability for the security of which they are given. When partial payment is made on indebtedness secured by mortgage, such payment will not extend limitation, so as to affect third parties, unless mortgagee, prior to expiration of limitation, shall endorse date and amount of such payment, on margin of record in Recorder's office.

MARRIED WOMEN.—(See Husband and Wife above)

MECHANICS' LIENS.—All artisans, builders and mechanics have liens for work and labor and material furnished by them on any building, edifice, on tenement, and for money paid by them for such material. The lien must be filed within ninety days and suit brought within ninety days, respectively, after the lien accrues, and after the lien is filed. Laborers also have a lien on product of their labor, which must be enforced by suit commenced within eight months.

MORTGAGES.—Are acknowledged as deeds are. They are not liens until filed for record, though they are good between the parties without such filing. They may be foreclosed by suit in equity. Sales of personalty under decree, are made on a credit of three months. Sales of lands on not less than three or more than six months. The purchaser to give bond with security, which has the force of a judgment and a lien being retained on lands sold for the price. A personal decree may also be given for amount due on mortgage, and may be enforced by execution either before or after sale of mortgaged property, for any amount due. Mortgages may be released by entry of satisfaction on the margin of the record of the mortgage, in the Recorder's office, by the mortgagee

Real and personal property when sold under powers in mortgages and deeds of trust, must bring two-thirds of its appraised value. (See Chattel Mortgages. (See Limitations.) (See Redemptions.)

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.—The Uniform Negotiable Instrument Law is in force in this State.

REAL PROPERTY.—The term "real property" is held to mean and include, not only the land itself whether laid out in town lots or otherwise, with all things therein contained, but also all buildings, structures and improvements, and other fixtures of whatever kind thereon, and all rights and privileges belonging or in anywise appertaining thereto.

Real Estate is considered assets in the hands of an executor or administrator for the purpose of paying debts. (See "Acknowledgments," "Descents and Distribution," "Husband and Wife," "Exemptions," "Taxes," etc.

REDEMPTIONS.—Real estate or any interest therein, sold under execution, may be redeemed by the debtor from the purchaser, or his vendee, or the personal representative of either, within twelve months after sale, by paying the amount of the purchase money with fifteen per cent. per annum and all lawful charges.

Lands sold under decree of foreclosure of mortgage may be redeemed within twelve months after decree.

REPLEVIN.—Specific personal property may be replevied. An order for the delivery of the property to the plaintiff is made when there is filed in the office of the clerk or the magistrate an affidavit containing, first, a particular description of the property claimed; second, its actual value and the damages which plaintiff believes he ought to recover for detention; third, that the plaintiff is the owner of the property, or has a special interest therein, stating the facts thereto, and that he is entitled to the immediate possession; fourth, that the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant with the alleged cause of detention; fifth, that it has not been taken for a tax or fine against the plaintiff, or under any order or judgment of the court against him, or seized under an execution or attachment against his property, or if so seized that it is exempt by statute from such seizure; sixth, that the plaintiff's cause of action has accrued within three years, and where the action is brought to recover property taken under execution, the fact of the taking must be stated and the nature of the process under which it was taken. The affidavit must state the value of each article when several articles are claimed.

The order of delivery shall not be complied with by the sheriff until a bond has been executed to the defendant that the plaintiff shall duly prosecute the action and perform the judgment of the court by returning the property, if a return is adjudged, and by paying such sums of money as may be adjudged against him, not exceeding double the value of the property and the costs.

Within two days after taking the property by the sheriff or constable, the defendant may, under proper showing made, execute a bond to the plaintiff in the presence of the sheriff in double the value of the property, and he may retain the same until the action is finally determined by the court.

The judgment in actions of replevin, if for the plaintiff, may be for the delivery of the property, or for the value thereof in case a delivery cannot be had, and damages for its detention. If the judgment is for the defendant, it may be for a return of the property or its value, in case a return cannot be had and damages for taking and withholding the property.

SEALS.—The impressions, devices and emblems of the great Seal of State are specially provided for by statute. All state officers are required to have a seal of office, presenting the impressions, devices and emblems of the great Seal of State.

All official seals are likewise required to present impressions, etc., of the great Seal of State, except the surrounding words which shall be such as to indicate the office in which they may severally belong.

Private seals are abolished.

STAY OF PROCEEDINGS.—A stay of proceedings may be had under certain circumstances in the progress of any action, when in the discretion of the court, the ends of justice may require it, under such rules and terms as the court may prescribe.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.—Supplemental complaints, answers, bills, and all other proceedings may be had during the progress, or at the conclusion of a trial on such terms as the court may prescribe, in furtherance of the ends of justice.

TAXES.—Taxes must be paid between the first Monday in January and the tenth day of April of each year next succeeding that in which they are assessed. If the taxes are not paid within the time required by law, 10 per cent. penalty is added, besides costs.

Lands sold for taxes may be redeemed within two years after forfeiture, by paying amount of taxes for which the land was sold, penalty and costs, taxes afterward paid by the purchaser, and interest on these sums at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum.

Delinquent lands are sold by the collector on the second Monday in June. If no person will bid the amount of the taxes, penalty and costs, the lands are struck off to the State. Minors, insane persons and persons in confinement have the same time (two years) for redemption, after removal of their disabilities. Between grantor and grantee, taxes are a lien from the first Monday in January following the year for which tax is levied.

All taxes are ad valorum, including taxes of corporations.

TRUST DEEDS.—The law governing trust deeds is the same as that concerning mortgages, they must be acknowledged and filed the same as mortgages

USURY.—The contracting for interest or a discount greater than ten per cent. when pleaded by the debtor, forfeits the entire indebtedness, principal and interest, and this is so no matter by what device such contracting for greater interest than ten per cent. is attempted to be concealed.

WILLS.—Every person over twenty-one years of age may devise realty and personalty, and all persons over eighteen may bequeath goods and chattels. Wills must be executed as follows: First, they must be subscribed by the testator, at the end of the will, or by some person for him at his request; second, the subscription to a will shall be made by the testator in the presence of each of the attesting witnesses, or acknowledged by him to have been so made to each of the attesting witnesses; third, at the time of such subscribing or acknowledgment the testator shall declare the instrument, so subscribed, to be his last will and testament; fourth, there shall be at least two attesting witnesses, each of whom shall sign his name as a witness at the end of the will at the request of the testator, in the presence of the testator and in the presence of the other witness or witnesses; fifth, when the entire body and signature of a will are in the handwriting of the testator it may be established by the evidence of at least three disinterested witnesses to the handwriting and signature of the testator, without subscribing witnesses. No such will shall be pleaded in bar of one subscribed and witnessed in due form. Nuncupative wills may be made during last illness and must be proved by two witnesses and are only good where the estate bequeathed does not exceed five hundred dollars.

Wills are proved and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Probate Court of the county in which the testator resided at the time of death. If he had no known place of residence in this State, and land is devised, then it must be probated and recorded in the county where the land, or the greater part thereof, lies. If no land is devised, then in the county where the testator died, or that in which his estate, or the greater part thereof, lies, or where there may be any debt or demand owing to him.

Wills may be written on a typewriter.

Bequests for charitable or religious purposes are not restricted or forbidden by our law.

ACTIONS.—There is but one form of civil action, and it is commenced by filing a complaint. The old rules of common law and chancery pleading are superseded by the forms provided by the code. The superior court has original jurisdiction in all cases in equity; civil actions in which the subject of litigation is not capable of pecuniary estimation; cases at law which involve the title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll or municipal fine, and other cases in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy, amounts to three hundred dollars; of actions of forcible entry and detainer, to prevent or abate a nuisance, matters of probate, divorce and annulment of marriage, and all special cases and proceedings not otherwise provided for; also all criminal cases amounting to felony, and misdemeanor cases not otherwise provided for, has power of naturalization and to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibitions, quo warranto and habeas corpus. Justices' courts have civil jurisdiction generally to three hundred dollars, exclusive of interest.

Actions relating to real property must be tried in the county in which the subject of the action, or some part thereof, is situated. Other actions must be tried in the county in which the defendants, or some of them, reside at the commencement of the action; if against a non resident, in any county the plaintiff may designate. On filing a complaint six dollars is paid to clerk of superior court and two dollars to a justice of the peace, who is also entitled to three dollars at time of trial. A sheriff or constable receives fifty cents for serving summons and mileage. A summons may be served by any person over eighteen years of ago not a party to the action. A non-resident plaintiff may be required to furnish security for costs in the sum of three hundred dollars in superior or justice's court and a new or additional undertaking may be ordered upon proof that original undertaking is insufficient.

ADMINISTRATION—Must be had in the county of which decedent was a resident at the time of death. If a non-resident in the county in which he died leaving estate therein; if a non-resident dying out of the state, in the county in which any part of the estate may be.

Administration of the estate of a person dying intestate must be granted to: First, the surviving husband or wife, or some competent person whom he or she may request to have appointed; second, the children; third, the father or mother; fourth, the brothers; fifth, the sisters; sixth, the grandchildren; seventh the next of kin entitled to share in the distribution of the estate; eighth, the public administrator; ninth, the creditors; tenth, any person legally competent.

Every administrator, and every executor, unless the will expressly provides that no bond shall be given, must execute a joint and several bond to the State of California with two or more sureties, in a penal sum not less than twice the value of the personal property and twice the probable value of the annual rents, profits and issues of the real estate. An additional bond is required when real property is sold. Claims against the estate must be presented within ten months from the first publication of notice to creditors when the estate exceeds ten thousand dollars in value, and within four months when it does not. If claimant received no notice by reason of being out of the State, claim may be presented at any time before decree of distribution is entered.

AFFIDAVITS—May be taken in this State before any judge or clerk of any court, justice of the peace or notary public; if taken in another State, before a commissioner appointed by the governor of this State, a notary public, or a judge or clerk of a court of record having a seal; if taken in a foreign country, before an ambassador minister, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent of the United States, or before any judge of a court of record having a seal. When an affidavit is taken before a judge or a court in another State, or in a foreign country, the genuineness of the signature of the judge, the existence of the court, and the fact that such judge is a member thereof must be certified by the clerk of the court, under the seal thereof.

ARREST.—Defendant may be arrested: First, in an action for recovery of money or damages on a cause of action arising upon contract when the defendant is about to depart from the State with intent to defraud his creditors; second, in an action for a fine or penalty, or for money or property embezzled, or fraudulently misapplied, or converted to his own use, by a public officer, or an officer of a corporation, or an attorney, factor, broker, agent or clerk, in the course of his employment as such, or by any other person in a fiduciary capacity; third, in an action to recover the possession of personal property unjustly detained, when the property has been concealed, removed or disposed of, to prevent its being found or taken by the sheriff; fourth, when the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt or incurring the obligation for which an action is brought, or in concealing or disposing of the property for the taking, detention or conversion of which an action is brought; fifth, when the defendant has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors. An order of arrest must be obtained from a judge of the court in which the action is brought

The order may be made whenever it appears to the judge, from the affidavit of plaintiff or some one else, that a sufficient cause of action exists, and that the case is one of those above mentioned. Before issuing the order the judge must require an undertaking, with two sureties, in not less than five hundred dollars. The order may be made at any time before judgment

ATTACHMENT.—The plaintiff, at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time afterward, may have the property of the defendant attached, in an action upon a contract, express or implied, for the direct payment of money, where the contract is made or is payable in this State, and is not secured; or, if originally secured such security may have become valueless.

An attachment may also be issued against a defendant not residing in the State. The attachment is issued in an action by the clerk of the court upon filing an affidavit, by or on behalf of the plaintiff, showing the foregoing facts to exist, and that the attachment is not sought and the action is not prosecuted to hinder, delay or defraud any creditor of the defendant. Before the attachment is issued the plaintiff must file an undertaking, with two sureties, in a sum not less than two hundred dollars nor more than the amount claimed (it is usually given for one-half the amount claimed); the condition and object of the undertaking is to secure the defendant against all costs and damages by reason of the attachment.

BANKS AND BANKING.—Section 348 of the Code of Civil Procedure is as follows: "Actions brought to recover money or other property deposited with any bank, banker, trust company, or savings and loan society, have no limitation." Section 321 of the Civil Code is as follows: "Every corporation doing a banking business in this State must keep in its office, in a place accessible to the stockholders, depositors, and creditors thereof, and for their use, a book containing a list of all stockholders in such corporation, and the number of shares of stock held by each; and every such corporation must keep posted in its office, in a conspicuous place, accessible to the public generally, a notice signed by the president or secretary, showing: First, the names of the directors of such corporation; second, the number and value of shares of stock held by each director. The entries on such book and such notice shall be made and posted within twenty-four hours after any transfer of stock, and shall be conclusive evidence against each director and stockholder of the number of shares of stock held by each. The provisions of this section shall apply to all banking corporations formed or existing before twelve o'clock, noon, of the day on which this code took effect, as well as to those formed after such time. Code took effect January 1, 1873. A special partnership cannot transact a banking business." Section 3054 of the Civil Code is as follows: "A banker has a general lien, dependent on possession, upon all property in his hands belonging to a customer, for the balance due to him from such customer in the course of business." Section 561 of the Penal Code is as follows: "Every officer, agent, teller, or clerk of any savings bank, who knowingly overdraws his account with such bank, and thereby wrongfully obtains the money, note, or funds of such bank, is guilty of a misdemeanor." And Section 562 is as follows: "Every officer, agent, teller, or clerk of any bank, and every individual banker, or agent, teller, or clerk of any individual banker who received any deposits, knowing that such bank, or association, or banker is insolvent, is guilty of a misdemeanor."

BILLS AND NOTES.—The law and rules governing negotiable paper are very much the same as those of the common law and law merchant. Days of grace are not allowed in this State. An action cannot be maintained upon a bill or note unless commenced within four years from its maturity, or, if the bill or note is made out of this State, unless commenced within two years from maturity. Any written promise or request for the payment of a certain sum of money to order or bearer is a negotiable instrument. The apparent maturity of a bill of exchange payable at sight or on demand is one year after date, if it bears interest; otherwise ten days after its date, in addition to reasonable time to forward it for acceptance. The apparent maturity of a promissory note is one year after its date, if it bears interest: otherwise six months after its date.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES may be made upon all growing crops, including grapes and fruit, and upon any and all kinds of personal property, except the following: First, personal property not capable of manual delivery. Second, articles of wearing apparel and personal adornment. Third, the stock in trade of a merchant.

A mortgage of personal property is void as to third persons acting in good faith and for value, unless it is accompanied by an affidavit of all the parties thereto that it is made in good faith and without design to hinder, delay or defraud creditors, and is acknowledged and recorded as grants of real property.

A mortgage of personal property may be made in the following form: (Sec. 2956 Civil Code.)

This mortgage, made the ..... day of ....., in the year....., by A B, of ....., by occupation a ....., mortgagor, to C D, of ....., by occupation a....., mortgagee.

Witnesseth: That the mortgagor mortgages to the mortgagee (here describe the property), as security for the payment to him of .....dollars on (or before) the ..... day of ....., in the year ....., with interest thereon (or, as security for the payment of a note or obligation, describing it, etc.). A B.

CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATES.—Claims against estates of decedents must be presented to the executor or administrator within ten months after the first publication of notice to creditors, if the estate exceeds $10,000; otherwise within four months. If approved by the executor or administrator, it must be presented for approval to the probate judge; if approved by him it may then be filed in the probate proceedings, and has the effect of a judgment. If a claim is not so presented it is forever barred, unless the claimant make affidavit to the court or judge that he had no notice, by reason of being out of the State; in such case he may present his claim at any time before a decree of distribution is entered. Every claim must be supported by the affidavit of the claimant, or some one in his behalf, that the amount is justly due, that no payments have been made thereon which are not credited, and that there are no offsets to the same, to the knowledge of the affiant. If the claim should be rejected by the executor or administrator or by the judge, the claimant must bring suit against the executor or administrator within three months after the date of its rejection, if it be then due, or within two months after it becomes due, otherwise the claim will be forever barred.

CONDITIONAL SALES.—Conditional sales are recognized in this State to the fullest extent. Even a bona fide purchaser from the person to whom the personal property is delivered under an executory contract of sale gets no valid claim to the property.

CORPORATIONS—Three persons are required to form a corporation and the majority must be residents of this State; may be formed for any purpose for which individuals may lawfully associate themselves.

Articles of incorporation giving the name of the corporation, the purposes for which it is formed, the place where its principal business is to be transacted, the term for which it is to exist, not exceeding fifty years, the number of its directors, which shall not be less than five, and the names and residences of those who are appointed for the first year, the amount of its capital stock and the number of shares into which it is divided, the amount actually subscribed and by whom, are acknowledged and filed with the county recorder and a certified copy filed with the secretary of state who thereupon issues a certificate of incorporation.

Each stockholder of a corporation is individually and personally liable for such proportion of its debts and liabilities as the amount of stock or shares owned by him at the time the liability was incurred bears to the whole of the subscribed capital stock or shares of the corporation and for a like proportion only of each debt or claim against the corporation. Any creditor of a corporation may institute joint or several actions against any of its stockholders for the enforcement of such liability. Such liability is not released by any subsequent transfer of stock. The liability of a stockholder of a foreign corporation doing business within the State is the same as that of a domestic corporation.

There are many code provisions relative to different classes of corporations.

DEPOSITIONS.—The deposition of a witness out of the State may be taken upon a commission issued from the court upon the application of either party upon five days' previous notice to the other. If issued to any place within the United States it may be directed to a person agreed upon by the parties; or if they do not agree, to any judge or justice of the peace or commissioner selected by the court or judge or justice issuing it. If issued to any country out of the United States it may be directed to a minister, ambassador, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States in such country, or to any person agreed upon by the parties. Depositions are taken upon interrogatories direct and cross, settled by the judge or officer granting the order for the commission. Where parties agree the examination may be without written interrogatories The depositions of a witness within the State may be taken when the witness is a party to the action, or an officer or a member of a corporation which is a party, or a person for whose immediate benefit the action is prosecuted or defended. Or, when the witness resides out of the county, or is about to leave the county, or is too infirm to attend the trial, or when the testimony is required upon a motion, or in any other case where the oral examination of the witness is not required; or when the witness is the only one who can show a fact material to the issue; provided, that the deposition of such witness shall not be used if his presence can be procured at the time of the trial of the cause.

The deposition is taken before a judge or officer authorized to administer oaths on serving upon the adverse party notice of the time and place of the examination together with an affidavit showing that the case is within one of the requirements Such notice must be at least five days, adding also one day for every twenty-five miles of the distance to the place of examination, unless for cause shown the judge by order shortens the time.

DESCENT.—When any person having title to any estate dies without disposing of the estate by will it is succeeded to and must be distributed subject to the payment of debts as follows: (Sec 1386, Civil Code.) First, if the decedent leave a surviving husband or wife, and only one child, or the lawful issue of one child, in equal shares to the surviving husband, or wife and child, or issue of such child; if the decedent leave a surviving husband or wife, and more than one child living, or one child living, and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, one third to the surviving husband or wife and the remainder in equal shares to his children and to the lawful issue of any deceased child, by right of representation, but if there be no child of the decedent living at his death, the remainder goes to all of his lineal descendants, and if all the descendants are in the same degree of kindred to the decedent, they share equally, otherwise they take according to the right of representation. If the decedent leave no surviving husband or wife, but leave issue, the whole estate goes to such issue, and if such issue consists of more than one child living, or one child living, and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, then the estate goes in equal shares to the children living or the child living, and the issue of the deceased child or children by right of representation; second if the decedent leave no issue, the estate goes one-half to the surviving husband or wife, and the other half to the decedent's father and mother in equal shares, and if either be dead the whole of said half goes to the other; if there be no father or mother, then one-half goes in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of the decedent, and to the children of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation; if the decedent leave no issue, nor husband nor wife the estate must go to his father and mother in equal shares, or if either be dead then to the other; third, if there be neither issue, husband, wife, father nor mother, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of the decedent, and to the children of any deceased brother or sister, by right of representation; fifth, if the decedent leave a surviving husband or wife, and neither issue, father, mother brother nor sister the whole estate goes to the surviving husband or wife; sixth, if the decedent leave neither issue, husband, wife, father, mother, brother nor sister, the estate must go to the next of kin, in equal degree, excepting that when there are two or more collateral kindred, in equal degree, but claiming through different ancestors, those who claimed through the nearest ancestors must be preferred to those claiming through an ancestor more remote; seventh if the decedent leave several children, or one child and the issue of one or more children, and any such surviving child dies under age, and not having been married, all the estate that came to the deceased child by inheritance from such decedent descends in equal shares to the other children of the same parent, and to the issue of any such other children who are dead, by right of representation; eighth, if at the death of such child, who dies under age, not having been married, all of the other children of his parents are also dead, and any of them have left issue the estate that came to such child by inheritance from his parent descends to the issue of all other children of the same parent; and if all the issue are in the same degree of kindred to the child they share the estate equally, otherwise they take according to the right of representation; ninth, if the decedent be a widow or widower, and leave no kindred, and the estate, or any portion thereof, was common property of such decedent, and his or her deceased spouse, while such a spouse was living, such common property shall go to the father of such deceased spouse, or if he be dead, to the mother; if there be no father nor mother, then such property shall go to the brothers and sisters of such deceased spouse, in equal shares, and to the lawful issue of any deceased brother or sister of such deceased spouse, by right of representation; tenth, if the decedent leave no husband, wife or kindred, and there be no heirs to take his estate or any portion thereof, under subdivision nine of this section, the same escheat to the state for the support of common schools.

ACTIONS.—There is but one form of civil actions. Civil actions may be brought in the Justice Court, where the amount involved does not exceed $300. The limit of County Court jurisdiction is $2,000, except in probate matters, where it has unlimited jurisdiction. The District Courts have unlimited jurisdiction. The Supreme Court has appellate jurisdiction by writ of error in all cases. Writs of error must be sued out within one year from the date of judgment. Appeals lie from Justice Courts to the County Court where the trial is denovo. Appeals lie from the County to the District Court in all cases except where there has been an appeal from the Justice Court to the County Court. In the trial of appeals in the District Court the trial is denovo. Civil suits in Justice Court are begun by summons, stating the demand, and are returnable in not less than five, nor more than fourteen days, (when defendant a corporation, 20 days) and no written pleadings are required. In County and District Courts defendant has twenty days to plead, if served in the County with summons and copy of complaint; if served with summons only, thirty days; if served out of County, ten days additional. If defendant does not appear judgment may then be taken by default. In Courts of Record suits are commenced by filing of complaint or service of summons. Summons may issue at any time within a month after complaint filed; and complaint must be filed within ten days after issue of summons, or case will be dismissed.

By act of the legislature all the appeals to the Supreme Court are abolished so that when a party desires to take his case from the trial court to the Supreme Court he must go by writ of error and on demand of the trial court the execution is stayed for the period of 30 days within which to permit him to apply for a supersedeas from the Supreme Court.

Notice of assignment giving names of assignor and assignee, date of assignment and when and where recorded and a description of the real property affected, shall also be recorded forthwith by assignee in county where there is real estate and thereupon become constructive notice. Assignee file report with court under oath at expiration of three months of his acts and doings and list of creditors, their residence, claims, amount and value of security held by creditors, if any. This shall not apply in case of defalcation as a public officer, executor, administrator, guardian, conservator, trustee or those acting in a fiduciary capacity nor any debt to any person paying such fiduciary debt. Appeals may be taken to higher court. Discharge of debtor under this act shall not release others jointly liable. The affidavit above referred to is substantially statutory but in substance is to the effect he has acted in good faith without fraud or collusion. (This is the act of 1897 and repeals all other acts.) While the assignment act is still in force it is seldom used since the enactment of the National Bankruptcy Act.

ATTACHMENTS.—Attachments may issue out of a Court of Record when the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, or some creditable person for him, shall file in the office of the clerk of the Court in which the action is brought an affidavit setting forth that the defendant is indebted to said plaintiff, stating the nature and the amount of such indebtedness as near as may be, together with bond, with two or more securities in double the amount sued for, and alleging any one or more of the following causes for attachment: (1) That defendant is a non-resident. (2) That defendant is a foreign corporation. (3) That defendant is a corporation whose chief office or place of business is out of the State. (4) That defendant conceals himself or stands in defiance of an officer so process cannot be served, or that he has been absent from the State for more than four months, or his whereabouts have been unknown for four months, and the indebtedness has been due during all of said period. (5) That defendant is about to remove his property or effects, or a material part thereof, out of this State, with intent to defraud, or hinder, or delay his creditors. (6) That the defendant has fraudulently conveyed or transferred or assigned his property or effects so as to hinder or delay his creditors. (7) That defendant has fraudulently concealed or disposed of his property or effects so as to hinder or delay his creditors. (8) That the defendant is about to fraudulently convey or transfer or assign his property or effects so as to hinder or delay his creditors. (9) That defendant is about to fraudulently conceal or remove or dispose of his property or effects so as to hinder or delay his creditors, or that said debtor has departed or is about to depart from this State with the intention of having his effects removed from the State. (10) That defendant has failed or refused to pay the price or value of any article or thing delivered to him, which he should have paid for on delivery thereof. (11) That the defendant has failed or refused to pay the price or value of any work or labor done or performed or for any service rendered by the plaintiff at the instance of defendant which should have been paid for at the time of completion of said work or when the services were fully rendered. Attachments may issue out of Justice Courts for substantially the same grounds, and by act of 1905 the additional ground unless the debt is for farm products, house rent, furniture, fuel, groceries or wearing apparel on the filing of like affidavit and bond. No final judgment shall be rendered where a levy has been made until thirty days after such levy in Court of Record, or until twenty days in a Justice Court. Any creditor of defendant by filing an affidavit and undertaking as above, together with a statement of his claim within the thirty days (twenty days in a Justice Court) may become a party plaintiff in the original suit. A dismissal by one creditor shall not operate as a dismissal to any other. The final judgment shall be a several judgment wherein each creditor named as plaintiff shall recover the amount found to be due him with costs, and the money realized after paying all costs, shall be paid to the several judgment creditors pro rata in proportion to their several judgments. If levies sufficient to render the debtor insolvent have been made, the Court may authorize suits upon debts not yet due, so that such creditors may pro rata upon the attached property. If the claim of any creditor exceeds the jurisdiction of the Court from which the first attachment was levied, that Court shall certify the entire proceedings to the next higher Court. The Court out of which the first attachment is levied, acquires jurisdiction of all subsequent proceedings as to the attached property; but if originally begun in a Justice Court, other creditors by bringing suits and issuing attachments (as above provided) out of the County or District Court, may cause the whole proceedings to be certified to such higher court by the Justice. The legality of the attachment proceedings may be put in issue by affidavit traversing the alleged grounds of the attachment. The credits and choses in action of the debtor may be seized by garnishment in any case where the debtor is entitled to an attachment, or under execution. An execution in the hands of the officer is a lien against all the property of the defendant other than real estate. Real estate may be levied on under attachment or execution out of the County or District Court (Laws of 1894 and 1895). By filing a transcript of Justice Court judgment in District Court, that then becomes a District Court judgment and real estate may then be levied on; the expense of such transcript and filing is about $3.85.

To be subscribed and sworn to before a notary public or other officer entitled to administer oaths. The form may be varied to suit each case. Substantially the same form may be used in filing claims against insolvent estates. If any decedent leaves, a widow residing in this state, in all cases she shall be allowed to have and retain as her widow's allowance not to exceed $?,00 . Upon ascertainment by the county court that the amount of personal property belonging to the estate does not exceed the amount of the widow's allowance, the court shall at once enter an order setting aside to the widow the personal property so belonging to the estate, freed from the debts of the estate. But this shall not affect the rights of any creditor whose claim is secured on such property. And thereupon the court shall further enter an order settling the estate and discharging the administrator or executor without waiting for the presentation of claims against the estate, requiring publication of notice to creditors of such final settlement. All administrators and executors shall exhibit accounts of their administration for settlement to the court six months from the date of their letters, and in like manner every six months thereafter, or oftener, if required by the court, until the duties of their administration are fully completed. Estates are liable for costs on all claims exhibited at or before said term, but not after. Persons having claims against estates, upon giving the administrator or executor ten days' notice of the time they intend to present the same, with a copy of the account or instrument of writing whereon such claim is founded, may exhibit such claims against the estate at any term of the court subsequent to the issuing of letters testamentary or of administration. The court must classify all claims as follows: First class: Funeral and other expenses attending last sickness of deceased. Second class: All expenses of proving the will and taking out letters and settlement of the estate; also physician's bill in the last illness of the deceased. If claim is objected to it must be proved up in like manner and by like evidence as in suits at law, except that the claimant cannot testify in his own behalf. The entry of allowance has the force and effect of a judgment. No mortgage, deed or trust, or other security, real or personal, securing payment of claims against estates of deceased persons, shall be foreclosed within one year from the death of the debtor, otherwise than by suit in court, except upon order of court, which can be made only after the claim is proved and allowed in the county court.

DEEDS.—Any person, association, body politic or corporation who shall be entitled to take title and hold real estate, shall be authorized to convey the same. Livery of seizin shall be in no case necessary for the conveyance of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments. There is no estate in joint tenancy in this State (except to executors and trustees), unless the deed shall declare against a tenancy in common and in favor of a joint tenancy, and all estates not so declared are deemed to be tenancy in common. After acquired title: After making a conveyance absolute and in fee-simple of any real estate in this State, the vendor not having the legal estate therein at the time of said conveyance and shall afterwards become possessed of, and confirmed in, the legal estate of the real estate so sold, it shall be taken and held to be in trust and for the use of the grantee in said conveyance, and said conveyance shall be as valid as if no such defect had existed at the time of such conveyance. Lands not in possession, or under adverse possession, may be conveyed in the same manner, and to the same effect, as if in possession. A tenant in fee-tial takes a life-estate only, and the remainder shall pass in fee-simple absolute to the person who would have taken on the death of the first grantee. Unless a different or less estate is limited therein, every estate granted and conveyed or devised (although words heretofore necessary to transfer an estate of inheritance be not used), shall be deemed a fee-simple estate of inheritance. All conveyances of real estate or interests therein carries with it the right of possession, unless a different intent be expressed in the deed. Covenants of seizin, peaceable possession, freedom from encumbrance and of warranty, contained in any conveyance of real estate, or interest therein, run with the premises and inure to the benefit of subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers. No action can be obtained against a warrantor without notice and his refusal to defend the title. Attorney in fact: Conveyances may be made by an attorney in fact, but the power of attorney must be filed and recorded in the same office where the conveyance is to be recorded. Trust deeds must be made to the public trustee. Those made to any other person are held to be mortgages.

DEPOSITIONS.—The testimony of witnesses, either in or out of this State, may be taken at any time after the service of the summons, or the appearance of the defendant, and in a special proceeding after a question of fact has arisen therein. When the absent witness resides in this State, his deposition may be taken under the following circumstances: 1. When the witness is a party or beneficiary, for whose benefit the suit is prosecuted or defended. 2. When the witness resides out of the county in which his testimony is to be used. 3. When the witness is about to leave the county, and will be absent when the evidence is required. 4. When the witness is too infirm to attend the trial. Within the State: Depositions may be taken before any judge or clerk of court or justice of peace or notary public. A copy of an affidavit reciting at least one of the four grounds above specified must accompany the notice, which must recite time and place of taking testimony at least five days in advance of the time named, and one day for each twenty-five miles distance from the party's residence to the place of taking the deposition. Upon cause shown a judge may shorten the time, in which event a copy of the order of court must be served with the notice. The testimony of witnesses out of the State must be taken upon a commission, issued by the clerk of the court where the suit is pending, under seal of court, upon five days' notice the opposite party, and a copy of interrogatories be attached to commission. The commission issues to any officer above named or to any person agreed upon by the parties The opposite party may file and have attached to the commission such interrogatories as he may desire. These interrogatories may be dispensed with upon a written stipulation of parties.

DESCENT.—Any person owning real and personal estate, and dying intestate leaving a husband or wife and children, or the descendants of children surviving one half of such estate shall descend to such surviving husband or wife and the residue thereof to said children or their descendants. If there be no child nor children, nor their descendants, then the whole of such estate descends to and vests in the surviving husband or wife, subject to the payment of debts. Tenancy by curtesy and dower are abolished, and neither husband nor wife have any share in the estate of the other; except as above enumerated, the estate shall descend and be destributed as follows: 1. To his or her children surviving, and the descendants of his or her children who are dead, the descendants collectively taking the share which their children would have taken if living. 2. If no children nor their descendants, then to the father and mother share and share alike; if there be no father, then to his or her mother; if there be no mother, then to the father; if there be no father or mother, then the brothers and sisters, and to the descendants of such of them as are dead, the descendants collectively taking the share of their immediate ancestor in equal parts. 3. If none of the relatives above enumerated be living, then to the grandfather, grandmother, uncles, aunts and their descendants, the descendents collectively taking the share of their immediate ancestors in equal parts. Posthumous children or descendants inherit as if born in the lifetime of the intestate. Beyond these no right of inheritance accrues to any person not in being and capable of taking as heir at the time of intestate's death. Children and descendants of children of the half blood inherit the same as children and descendants of the whole blood, but collateral relatives of the half blood inherit only half the measure of collateral relatives of the whole blood, if there are any of the last named living. Lawfully adopted children inherit as legal heirs of the persons adopting them. The subsequent marriage of the parents of an illegitimate child restores it to full rights of inheritance. Divorce of husband and wife does not affect the right of child's inheritance. See Wills.

EVIDENCE.—There shall be no evidence of the contents of a writing other than the writing itself, except in the following cases: 1, When the original has been lost or destroyed, in which case proof of the loss or destruction shall first be made. 2, When the original is in the hands of the adverse party, and he refuses to produce it after notice. 3, When the original is a record or other document in the custody of a public officer. 4, When the original is recorded and a certified copy of the record is made evidence by statute. 5, When the original consists of a multitude of accounts or other documents which cannot be examined without great loss of time, and the fact sought from them is the general result of the whole. The party producing a writing in evidence must explain any alteration that may appear on its face; if such alterations were not made by the consent of parties thereto, or by another without his (the owner's) consent, then the writing is excluded. Judicial records: A judicial record of this State, or of the United States, may be proved by production of the original, or a copy thereof, certified by the legal custodian thereof under seal of court. Judicial records of other States, or any Territory of the United States, may be proved and admitted as evidence in the courts of this State by the attestation of the clerk and the seal of the court together with a certificate of the judge or presiding magistrate that the clerk's attestation is in due form. Judicial records of foreign countries are admitted by copy thereof, certified by the clerk under seal of court (if there be a clerk and seal), or by the legal keeper of the record, with seal of his office annexed (if he has one), to be a true copy of such record and in either case that the signature is genuine and the certificate in due form, and, also, together with the certificate of the minister or ambassador of the United States, or of a United States consul, that there is such a court, specifying generally the nature of its jurisdiction and verifying the signature of the judge and clerk or other legal keeper of the record. Or a copy of such foreign record shall be admissible in evidence upon proof. 1, That the copy offered has been compared by the witness with the original, and is an exact transcript of the whole of it. 2, That such original was in the custody of the clerk of the court or other legal keeper of the same. 3, That the copy is duly attested by a seal which is proved to be the seal of the court where the records remain, if it be the record of a court, or, if there be no seal or if it be not the record of a court, by the signature of the legal keeper of the original. Printed Statutes of States and Foreign Countries: Printed copies in volumes of statutes, codes, or other written law, of any Territory or of any other State or foreign government, purporting or proven to have been published by the authorities thereof, or proven to be commonly admitted as evidence of the existing law in the courts and judicial tribunals of said State, Territory, or government, shall be received as presumptive evidence of such laws. Seals: The impress of a seal, authenticating any paper or matter of records whatever, may be made direct on the paper or instrument, or impressed with wax, wafer, or other substance, and then attached thereto. A witness may be compelled to produce books, papers and documents when he is to be examined as a witness. An offer of a compromise cannot be given in evidence. Evidence taken by a reference must be reported in writing to the court without any finding of facts or other suggestions. By act of 1899, a party to the record of any civil action or proceeding, or a person for whose immediate benefit such action or proceeding is prosecuted or defended, or the directors, officers, superintendent or managing agents of any corporation which is a party to the record in such action or proceeding, may be examined upon the trial thereof, as if under cross-examination at the instance of the adverse party or parties or any of them, and for that purpose may be compelled in the same manner and subject to the same rules for examination as any other witness to testify, but the party calling for such examination shall not be concluded thereby, but may rebut it by counter testimony.

EXECUTIONS.—An execution is a lien upon the property of the execution debtor from the time it comes into the hands of the officer, which date must be endorsed upon the execution. Personal and real property levied upon shall be sold in such lots and parcels, only, as shall be necessary to discharge the debts and costs. The plaintiff in execution may elect what property may be first levied upon. Every interest in land, legal and equitable, shall be subject to levy and sale under execution. The rights or shares that any defendant may have in any corporation or company, and all debts due said defendant, and all other property not exempt from execution, may be seized and sold to satisfy an execution. Personal property sold under execution must be advertised 10 days; real estate 20 days. Our garnishment statutes are very broad and embrace credits and choses in action which may be reached by garnishment under execution or under attachment.—See Attachment.

By the 1911 act execution is stayed for five days as a matter of course after the rendition of judgment in the county and district court. On request it may be stayed 30, within which to obtain a supersedeas from the supreme court. (See Actions.)

All sales of stocks in trade other than in the ordinary course of business shall be prima facie fraudulent unless the purchaser secures from seller full written inventory and list of creditors and notifies each creditor at least 5 days before the transfer of the contemplated sale.

Thereupon while occupied by such owner it is exempt to the amount of $2,000. Premises worth in excess of $2,000 may be homesteaded, but are only exempt to that amount; to convey or encumber a homestead the wife must freely and voluntarily, separately and apart from her husband, sign and acknowledge the deed, and the officer taking the acknowledgment shall fully inform her of her rights and the effect of signing said mortgage. Wife can homestead husband's property.

INSOLVENCY.—(See Assignments.)

INTEREST.—There are no usury laws in Colorado. The legal rate of interest in the absence of any agreement, is 8 per cent. per annum. In the absence of any agreement 8 per cent. per annum is allowed, after due. The parties to any bond, bill, note, or contract may stipulate for any rate of intertest and such rate so contracted for may be inforced in any court of law or equity in this State.

JOINT DEBTORS.—Under 1899 act creditor may release one or more of his joint debtors without releasing others, except as to the proportionate share of the debtor or debtors so released.

JUDGMENTS become a lein upon the real estate of the judgment debtor from the time they are docketed and a transcript of the docket filed with the recorder of the county. The judgment lein if not discharged, runs for six years. A transcript of this original judgment may be filed in any other county, where real estate for the creditor may be found, and the lein thereon preserved for like period of six years. Satisfaction of judgment may be entered in the clerk's judgment docket, or by an acknowledgement of satisfaction by the judgment creditor, or within one year by the attorney unless a revocation of his authority has been filed. Transcript judgments from justices' courts can be filed in and thereupon become judgments of the district court, and a transcript of all district conrt judgments, filed with the recorder, are a lien upon realty of six years. Justice court judgments are good for six years. Judgments of courts of record by act of 1901 good for 20 years if rendered after 1901, but if rendered between 1891 and 1901. ten years. Judgments may be revived upon petition and scire facias, showing time of rendition. the amount unpaid, and verified by affidavit. The common law govenrs the proof of foreign judgments. The word judgments includes all final orders and decrees and the award of arbitrators under order of the court. Upon failure to answer or plead in a cause, judgment by default will be rendered.

LEGAL NOTICES.—To be a valid notice the newspaper must, if weekly, have been in existence 26 consecutive weeks prior to first publication of notice; if daily for six consecutive months as such. Any news paper published six days of every week, inclusive or exclusive of Sunday, is a "daily newspaper."

LIENS.—Attorneys' Liens: Attorneys at law have a lien upon any money or property in their hands, and upon judgments obtained for any fees for professional services in any court in this State. This lien may be enforced by civil action. Tax Liens: All taxes levied or assessed upon real or personal property are a perpetual lien upon such property until fully paid. Builders and Materialmen, whether skilled or unskilled, have a lien for all work done or materials furnished under contract, expressed or implied, with the owner of any land for improvements made thereon. Sub-contractors in the first degree are those who do work or furnish material under contract with the principle contractor, and all such have equal rights of lien with him. Sub contractors in the second degree are those engaged under a sub contractor and are likewise protected. Sub contractors must record notice of intention to claim a lien within 30 days of the completion of the siructure, and original contractors within 60 days. Suit must be brought to enforce same in 4 months. Claimant, if successful, can have a reasonable attorney's fee taxed as part of the costs of enforcing his lien. Generally: Railroads, tramways, wagon roads, toll roads, water ditches, flumes, acqueducts, resevoirs, bridges, and mines and mining claims are each subject to like liens for all work and material used in their building, repair, or workings. Surveyors, civil and mining engineers are entiled to like liens for their services in and about property. Ranchmen farmers, herders of cattle, boarding house keepers, tavern keepers, livery men, common carriers, and warehousemen each have a lien upon the property or stock in their possession for all claims of rent, hire, board. keeping, care or work, concerning said property. Also mechanics of every grade and class have the right of lien for making or repairing property. State Liens: The State has a lien upon all persons convicted of crime for the fine and costs of prosecution. Executions are a lien upon the personal property of the judgment debtor from the time such execution is delivered to the sheriff.

Actions for assault, battery, false imprisonment, slander or libel, or actions against sheriffs or coroners for commission or omission of official duty (except escapes). and penal actions, in one year. Against officers for escapes in six months. All other personal actions within three years after cause of action accrued. In action on accounts, cause of action shall be deemed to have accrued at time of last item proved. The statute applies to set-offs.

MINORS.—Males attain their majority at twenty one; females at eighteen years.

MORTGAGES. — The entry of satisfaction upon a mortgage or upon the margin of the record thereof, operates as a full release and reconveyance of the real estate named in the mortgage, as effectually as a release deed would have done. Lands sold under decree of forclosure of mortgage may be redeemed by the mortgagor, his heirs, executors, or judgement creditor, as at common law. A release deed is required in the satisfaction of trust deeds. Upon a mortgage debt due in installments, sales may be made from time to time sufficent to meet the amount due with costs. These sales are made upon orders of court. If portions of the estate cannot be sold without injury to the whole, the court may order sale of the whole, with rebate of interest, if equitable, on unmatured balances. Upon cause shown, the court may restrain a mortgagor or other party in possession from committing waste or injury to the premises pending the forclosure of a mortgage. A mortgage of real property shall not be deemed a conveyance, whatever its terms, so as to enable the owner of the mortgage to recover possession without foreclosure and sale. The fact of a deed being a mortgage in effect may be proved by oral testimony. To convey or incumber the homestead both husband and wife must join in the conveyance.

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.—The 1897 legislature passed a forty-five (45) page act in substitution of other acts on negotiable instruments. The act is mostly declaratory of the common law. Except when endorsement bears date after maturity, endorsement is presumed prima facia to have been effected before maturity. When transferred for value without endosement, the transfer vests in transferee the title of the transferer. Holder may sue in his own name. When transferee receives notice of infirinity of defeet in title of negotiator before purchase, he will be deemed a holder in due course only to the extent of the amount paid therefor by him. Every holder is prima facia holder in due course. Every instrument is payable at the time fixed therein without grace. When the instrument falls due on Sunday or a holiday, is payable and should be presented on the next succeeding day. Day of date excluded and date of payment included. Except as otherwise provided, notice of dishonor must be given drawer and to each endorser and any drawer or endorser to whom such notice is not given discharged. Notice may be verbal or written, and by personal delivery or through the mails. Notice to one partner is sufficient to bind firm. Notice should be given to each party when not partners Notice must be given at once on dishonor. Waiver of protest is also waiver of presentment and notice of dishonor. Protest may be made by a notary public or by a respectable resident of the place of dishonor in the presence of two (2) credible witnesses. In determining what is a reasonable time regard is to be had to the nature of the instrument, the usage of trade or business, (if any) with respect to such instruments and the facts of the particular case. To be negotiable an instrument must contain an unconditional order or promise to pay to bearer, or order, a certain sum of money on demand, or at a fixed or determinable time. The sum payable may be in a particular kind of current money; with interest; with exchange; by stated installments; with provision that upon default of payment of any instrument or of interest, the whole shall become due. The instrument may authorize in case of non-payment the sale of collateral securities, or confession of judgment, or waive benefit of any law intended for the advantage of the obligor. An instrument payable on contingency is not negotiable. The date expressed is prima facia the true date. One in possession of an incomplete instrument has prima facia authority to fill in the blanks, but authority must be strictly pursued. An incomplete instrument not delivered is not enforceable. Holder may treat an ambiguous instrument either as a bill or a note. Where capacity of person signing is not clear he is deemed an indorser. A person adding to his signature words indicating that he signs on behalf of a principal, or in a representative capacity, is not liable if duly authorized; but mere words of description without disclosing his principal does not exempt him. A signature by 'procuration" gives notice that agent's authority is limited. Consideration is prima facia presumed. A pre existing debt is a valuable consideration. A holder having a lien on the instrument is a holder for value to the extent of his lien. An accommodation party is liable to a holder for value with notice. Indorsement must be written on the instrument itself or upon a paper attached. It may be restrictive—prohibiting further negotiation, or vesting title for the use of another; equalified—amounting merely to an assignment, or conditional. Two or more payees, unless partners, must all indorse unless one has authority for all. An instrument payable to a person as cashier or other fiscal officer of a bank or corporation is deemed prima facia payable to the bank or corporation, and may be endorsed by the corporation or by the officer. For one to be a holder in due course the instrument must be complete and regular, and taken in good faith for value before overdue, and without notice of any informity in the instrument or defect in title. To constitute notice of an informity or defect, the person must have had actual knowledge or knowledge of such facts that taking it amounted to bad faith. Holder is deemed prima facia holder in due course; but when the title of a person who has negotiated it is shown to be defective, the burden is upon the holder to prove h mself a holder in due course. A drawer may insert an express stipulation negative or limiting his liability. A qualified indorser warrants the genuineness of the instrument; that he has a good title, and that he has no knowledge of any invalidity. An unqualified endorser warrants the instrument valid and subsisting. One indorsing an instrument before delivery is liable as indorser Joint payees or indorsees who indorse are deemed to indorse jointly and severally. Except when excused, presentment for payment, or acceptance on the day when due is necessary to charge drawer or indorser of an instrument. Presentment must be made to all parties personally liable, unless one has authority for all. Every negotiabe instrument is payable at the time fixed without grace. When the day falls on Sunday or a holiday the instrument must be presented on the next succeeding business day. An instrument payable at a bank is equiva'ent to an order to the bank to pay the same for the account of the principal debtor. Except when excused, notice of non-acceptance or non-payment must be given to the drawer and to each endorser or his agent, otherwise they are discharged. Notice may be given by holder or by anyone in his behalf, and may be in writing or oral, personal or through the mails, in any terms sufficient to appraise the parties. Notice must be given to all parties unless they are partners or one is authorized to accept for all. Notice must be given on the next business day after dishonor, or if parties reside in different places, mailed on such day. Waiver of protest is deemed a waiver of formal protest, presentment and notice of dishonor. Protest is required only in case of dishonored bills appearing on their face to be foreign. It is optional in case of other negotiable instruments. Bills drawn and payable within this State are inland, others are foreign. Protest may be made by nortary public or by any responsible resident of the place where the bill is dishonored, in the presence of two witnesses. Parties secondarily liable are discharged by extension of time of payment Payment by a party secondarily liable, unless an accommodation party does not discharge the instrument, but he may again negotiate it. Renunciation of holder's rights against a party must be in writing, unless the instrument be delivered up. Material alteration voids an instrument, except as against those assenting; but holder in due course, not a party to the alteration, may enforce the instrument according to its orginal al tenor. A bill does not operate as an assignment of funds, and drawee is not liable until he accepts. The drawee or indorser may insert the name of the person called referee in case of need, to whom holder will resort if he see fit. Acceptance must be in writing. If written on a paper other than a bill, whether before or after the bill is drawn, it does not bind acceptor except in favor of a person taking the bill for value on the faifh thereof. A qualified acceptance discharges drawer and indorser unless they assent. Assent is presumed unless they dissent. Holder can refuse to receive a qualified acceptance. No presentment for payment is necessary after non acceptance. A protested bill not overdue may be accepted supra protest for honor of any party liable. Maturity is calculated from the date of noting non acceptance, not from date of acceptance for honor. Bill pretested for non payment may be paid supra protest for the honor of any person liable, for one for whose account it was drawn. A note drawn to maker's order is not complete until indorsed by him. A check must be presented within a reasonable time or drawer will be discharged to the extent of the loss cosued by the delay. The bank is not liable to the holder until it accepts or certifies the check. When not otherwise provided by this act, the law merchant prevails. This act applies only to instruments executed on or after July 20, 1897, and it was passed through the efforts of the commission on uniformity of laws. At the time of its passage similar acts on negotiable instruments existed in New York, Connecticut and Florida, and doubless other states have or will shortly follow suit.

POWERS OF ATTORNEY.—Powers of attorney for the conveyance of lands must be acknowledge in the same manner as deeds, and must be recorded in the same county wherein the real property to be conveyed is situate.

SALES IN BULK.—A Sale of any portion of a stock of merchandise otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade, or a sale of an entire stock of merchandise in bulk, is prima facie evidence of fraud as against the seller's creditors unless the seller and the purchaser shall together, at least five days before the sale, make a full deta led inventery showing the quantity, and as far as possible the cost price to the seller, and unless, at least five days before the proposed sale, the purchaser shall inquire for and the seller shall give in writing the names and addresses of and amounts due to each creditor. The purchaser must also, the same length of time prior to the sale, notify each of the seller's creditors of whom he can obtain knowledge, personally or by registered mail of the proposed sale, the cost price of the merchandise and the price proposed to be paid. Giving false information by the seller to the purchaser is punishable by fine and imprisonment. The above does not apply to sales by executors, receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or similar officers.

TRANSFER OF CORPORATION STOCK.—By endorsement on the back of stock and by transfer on the books of the corporation. A transfer by simple endorsement would be good as between the parties, but until its transfer on the books of the corporation, it is liable to attachment in suit against the original holder.

TRUST DEEDS. Before March 5, 1894, trust deeds were used almost exclusively, and by them the property was conveyed to some third party as trustee, and on default in payment of the debt the whole debt was declared due, and the property advertised for sale by the trustee for a period méntioned (generally about thirty days), and then sold at public auction. Such sale was a perpetual bar of the equity of redemption. To remedy supposed abuses an act was passed, and became a law on March 4, 1894, whereby a public trustee was appointed, to whom trust deeds should run. (If any other person is named as trustee in trust deeds hereafter made, said trust deeds shall be treated and foreclosed as mortgages through the courts.) On payment of the debt the public trustee on request shall execute releases of the trust deed, or on default and on request advertise the property four weeks, and then sell the property at public auction, and execute certificate of sale to the purchaser. The grantor in the trust deed, his heirs or assigns, then has six months from date of sale in which to redeem, and his judgment creditors nine months. Creditor may have deed run to himself. If no redemption a deed is made by the public trustee to the purchaser. The allowing of a time for redemption is the chief change made by this act from the old practice under trust deeds. This act does not change the manner of foreclosing trust deeds executed before March 5, 1894. By decision of court of appeals if note is barred by statute of limitations the trust deed or mortgage securing same falls with the note and cannot be enforced in court, but by late decisions of the supreme court the property will still be sold under the trust deed.

UNMARRIED MEN.—The tools, implements, working animals, books and stock in trade not exceeding $300 in value of person not the head of a family, kept and used for purpose of carrying on his trade or business, are exempt. Non residents and corporations probably have no exemption. Purchase price—nothing is exempt where the suit is for the purchase price of the article levied on. See Exemptions.

USURY.—See Interest.

WARRANTS.—By act of March 22, 1899, county orders and warrants, town and city and school orders and warrants and other like evidences or certificates of municipal indebtedness, shall not bear interest to exceed 6 per cent.

WILLS.—Males of 21 and females of 18 may make wills. Any person of 17 may devise personalty if not mentally incapable. The husband or wife cannot devise more than one-half of his or her property away from the other without the other's consent. Wills affecting real estate must be written, signed by testator and attested by two witnesses at the request and in the presence of testator and of each other.

CONNECTICUT.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the State of Connecticut, prepared by JOHN W. JOY, Attorney at Law, Hartford, Conn.

ACTIONS.—In lieu of the common law the plaintiff prefers his complaint, containing a concise statement of his cause of action, and such demand for relief as he supposes himself entitled to.

All distinctions between different forms of action have been abolished, and legal and equitable remedies may be united in the same action,

Actions must be brought in the name of the real party in interest. The bona fide holder of a chose in action, not negotiable, may bring suit in his own name, or that of his assignor, at his option. Gen. Statutes, Revision of 1918, Sec. 5655.

ARRESTS.—Defendants may be arrested in civil actions for all frauds; but bail can be given to the officer.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY.—Su pended when in conflict with U. S. Bankruptcy Law.

BANKS AND BANKING.—Banks may be organized under General Banking Law, see Revision 1918, chapter 202, Public Acts 1919, Chapter 258. Every bank and trust company shall always keep in its banking office, gold and silver coin, bullion, bonds, legal tender notes of the United States, or National bank currency to an amount not less than one-tenth of all its liabilities, except its capital stock, but the bonds of the United States so included in its reserve fund shall never exceed one-twentieth of said liabilities. Every State bank and trust company shall maintain a reserve fund of twelve per centum of its demand deposits and five per centum of its time deposits. No trust company or banking corporation shall declare any dividend except from its net earnings, after deducting all losses, over drafts and obligations suspended or over due, nor make any loan or discount on a pledge of its own stock; nor establish any branch office or agency thereof, or employ any agent or person to make loans or discounts at any other place than the banking house. No bank or trust company shall give credit to any party who shall thereby become liable to it for more than 10 per cent. (unless loan is secured by collateral and then more than 20 per cent.) of its capital stock actually paid in, together with the surplus, and every bank or trust company which shall violate the provisions of this section shall pay to the State not less than $1,000. No bank shall discount any paper made, accepted, or indorsed by any of its executive officers or clerks, or by any partnership of which either is a member, nor make any loans to such persons, nor permit them to overdraw their accounts. When the loans and discounts of any bank to parties in this State shall, in the aggregate, amount to one-half its capital stock, it may loan to parties out of this State, and not otherwise. The stockholders of any bank, at the annual meeting, or at any special meeting which any five stockholders owning not less in all than one hundred shares of stock are authorized to call for that purpose, may examine the books, accounts, securities and expenditures of the bank. In the case of persons married since April 20, 1877, the property rights of the husband and wife are entirely separate and each party has the right to contract with and sue the other in contract or in tort. During life each party may dispose of property without the other party's joining in the conveyance. On the death of either, the survivor, except in certain cases such as abandonment, shall be entitled to the use for life of one-third of all property, real and personal, owned by the other at the time of the death The right to such one third shall not be affected by any devise of the property by will to other parties; where there is no will the survivor shall take such one third absolutely, and if there be no children, or their representatives, the survivor shall take all the estate absolutely up to $2,000 and one half absolutely of the remainder.

No greater rate, however, than 6% can be recovered at law as damages for the detention of money after it becomes payable.

JUDGMENTS.—Judgments are a lien only on such property as has been attached on mesne process. This lien continues two months after judgment on personal property, and four months on real estate. Any person having an unsatisfied judgment may file a certificate in the Town Clerk's office in the town where the real estate is situated, describing the real estate and thereupon he acquires a lien which may be foreclosed like a mortgage.

LIMITATIONS.—Actions on contracts under seal and promissory notes, not negotiable, must be brought within seventeen years after the right of action has accrued. Lands and interests therein may be adversely possessed by holding for fifteen years except against persons under disability, who shall have the right to sue for the same within five years after the removal of such disability. Attachments on land are limited to 15 years unless judgment is obtained. Actions for an account or for a book debt or any contracts in writing except as specified above must be brought within six years after the accrual of a right of action. TAXES.—All property in this State, real and personal, not expressly exempt, is subject to taxation at its present time and actual valuation. Money loaned by inhabitants of this State on mortgages out of the State is taxed by the State itself. All such mortgages are brought to the office of the State Treasurer and by him recorded. A State tax at the rate of 2 per cent for five years can then be paid and all such recorded mortgages are free from all taxation for the length of time for which this State tax is paid. In a similar manner taxes on all choses in action may be paid. Public Acts 1919, chapter 284.

All corporations are taxed 2% on so much of their net income as may be considered to accrue from business done in this state. This amount is determined by taking the proportion of the gross receipts in the State to the total gross receipts, or the property in the State to the total property, according to the nature of the corporation. There is also a tax on miscellaneous unincorporated business.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the District of Columbia, prepared by WILLIAM R. ANDREWS, of the Washington Bar.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—(See Deeds.)

ACTIONS.—(See Courts.)—Every civil action where the amount involved exceeds $100 may be begun in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia by filing in the clerk's office a declaration, bill, petition or libel, or in case of an appeal from the Municipal Court, the papers filed in the cause and a transcript from the Municipal Court docket. At the time of filing a deposit of $15 is required by the clerk, and the marshall requires a fee of one dollar for each defendant served with process. The declaration in a common law action may include all causes of action, in separate counts, against the defendants, except that counts sounding in tort and counts sounding in contract may not be joined where they relate to different transactions. Actions to recover $100 or less must, with some exceptions, be brought in the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia, and formal pleadings are not necessary. Actions to recover amounts in excess of $100 but not exceeding $500 may, with certain exceptions, be brought in either the Supreme Court or the Municipal Court. Non-resident plaintiffs may be required to give bond or security for costs, a cash deposit usually being accepted in lieu of a bond.

ADMINISTRATION.—Administration is granted upon the estates of decedents by the Supreme Court of the District, sitting as a Probate Court. Letters of administration are granted in the following order: 1. To the widow or a child, at the discretion of the court. 2. If no child, to the widow; and next to the widow or children, to a grandchild. 3. To the father. 4. To the mother. 5. To brothers and sisters. 6. To the next of kin. 7. To the largest creditor. Debts of decedents are payable in the following order: After payment of funeral expenses not exceeding $600: 1. Rent in arrear, for which an attachment might be levied at law. 2. If there be a widow and no children, but a father, mother, brother or sister, nephew or niece, the widow receives one-half. The entire personal estate goes to the husband if there be no children.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Deeds of assignment for the benefit of creditors must have annexed an inventory under oath of all property, real and personal, a list of creditors with their addresses, and the amounts of their respective claims. Assignments carry all property save legal exemptions reserved in the instruments.

ATTACHMENTS.—Attachment may issue at commencement or during pendency of any action at law for recovery of specific personal property, or a debt, or damages for breach of contract, if the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall file an affidavit, supported by one or more witnesses, showing the grounds of his claim and setting forth that he has a just right to recover what is claimed in his declaration, and where the action is to recover specific personal property, stating the nature and value of such property and the probable amount of damages, and where the action is for breach of contract setting out, specifically and in detail, the breach complained of and actual damages resulting therefrom, and also stating, either, first, that defendant is a foreign corporation or is not a resident of the District, or has been absent therefrom for at least six months, and has estate or debts owing said defendant in said District; or, second, that defendant evades service of ordinary process by concealing himself or temporarily withdrawing from the District, or, third, that he has removed or is about to remove some or all of his property from the District, so as to defeat just demands against him; or, fourth, that he has assigned, conveyed, disposed of, or secreted, or is about to assign, convey, dispose of, or secrete his property with intent to hinder, delay or defraud his creditors; or, fifth, that the defendant fraudulently contracted the debt or incurred the obligation. A bond, with security approved by the clerk of the Supreme Court, in twice the amount of the claim, must be filed to indemnify defendant against the wrongful suing out of the writ.

Savings banks, trust, loan and mortgage companies are required to report to the Comptroller of the Currency, in like manner with national banks, and are subject to similar visitorial powers by the Comptroller.

In Justice of the Peace courts the first and third Monday are the rule days, while in all other courts the first Monday in each month is rule day; in class of cases above mentioned final judgment, upon defaults, may be entered in vacation as well as term.

The plaintiff's costs usually amount to $5 in a Justice of the Peace Court and $10 in the Circuit Court, in ordinary actions on accounts, exclusive of the costs of taking depositions. Deposit of security is required of non-resident.

ADMINISTRATION.—The County Judge's Court has jurisdiction in probate matters. The place of probate, if decedent die in this State, is the county of his residence at the time of his death, or if he had no residence then the county where he died; if decedent died out of the State, leaving lands or chattels in the State, the place where such lands or chattels are, or if he had no lands or chattels in this State but had debts owing to him here, then the county where such debtors or any of them reside. Claims against an estate must be filed within two years from the time the administrator qualify, except in the case of limited estates (of less than $500 in value), when they must be filed within one year. Actions against an administrator or executor are barred after two years from the time of the granting of letters of administration.

ATTACHMENTS.—Always issue from the court having jurisdiction over amount involved. Before attachment issues a bond in at least double the amount sued for, executed by plaintiff, his agent or attorney, and two good and sufficient sureties or a guarantee or surety company authorized to do business in this State, conditioned to pay cost and damage sustained by the defendant by reason of the wrongful suing out of the attachment, and approved by officer issuing the writ must be filed. Where attachment proceedings are necessary the party forwarding claim should enclose a power of attorney, authorizing the attorney to whom the claim is sent to execute the bond.

BANKS AND BANKING. — Any incorporated town or city with 3,000 inhabitants or more may have a banking institution with corporate powers, the capital, however, to be not less than $50,000. Any place not exceeding 3,000 inhabitants may, subject to approval of State Comptroller, organize a banking institution with a capital of not less than $15,000. Prior to commencing business, the persons interested shall enter into articles of association specifying the object for which the same is formed. These articles must be signed by the persons uniting to form the association and a copy thereof forwarded to the State Comptroller to be filed in his office. The persons forming the association shall under their hands make an organization certificate which shall specifically state: 1st. The name of the association subject to approval of Comptroller. 2d. Place or places of business. 3d. Amount of capital stock and number of shares. 4th. Name, address and number of shares held by shareholders. 5th. The fact that certificate is made to enable such parties to avail themselves of the advantages of this act. The organization certificate must be duly acknowledged before some officer to take the acknowledgment of deeds. On filing those articles of association and organization certificate, the association shall become a body corporate, with the privileges appertaining thereto. Fifty per cent. of the capital stock must have been paid in. No less than five persons are legally qualified to start a bank, and a dissolution can only be effected by a concurrence of a two-thirds majority

Stockholders are individually responsible, equally and ratably, and not one for the other, to the extent of the par value of their stock in addition to the amount invested therein. Banks are required to have on reserve an amount equal to 20 per cent. of their deposits. Banks must half-yearly make a report to the State Comptroller according to the form prescribed by him, verified under oath of president or cashier and attested by the signatures of at least two directors. Each such report shall exhibit in detail, the resources and liabilities of the association at the close of business on any day by him specified, and shall be submitted to the Comptroller within five days after the receipt of a request therefor by him; the Comptroller may further at any time call for special reports whenever in his judgment same may be necessary. In any banking institution, in this State, there must be not less than five directors, each owning, in his own right, at least ten shares of capital stock, each director during his time of service must be a citizen of the United States, and three-fifths of them must have resided in the State at least one year preceding his election, and one of the directors chosen by the board shall be president thereof. Banks not organized under the laws of this State or under the United States banking law, and all persons or corporations doing the business of bankers, are prohibited from using the word "bank" except those doing business prior to this act, and such must append to their name or title whatever used, the words "not incorporated."

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—Are void as to subsequent purchasers and creditors for a valuable consideration and without notice until recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in a book provided for that purpose unless before the acquisition of the right claimed by the subsequent purchaser or creditor the possession of the mortgaged property has been surrendered to and remained with the mortgagee. All mortgages must be foreclosed by bill in chancery, except that if the amount secured by a chattel mortgage does not exceed $100 it may be foreclosed in a justice of the peace court. For other provisions see Real Estate.

CONDITIONAL BILLS OF SALE.—The only statutory provision on this subject is that a conditional bill of sale of property, real or personal, given to secure the payment of a debt shall be deemed to be mortgage.

Sales of personal property providing that title shall not pass until the property is paid for have been sustained by our Supreme Court as against subsequent purchasers and creditors.

CORPORATIONS.—Any "three or more persons" may form a corporation under the laws of Florida. Publication of the proposed charter once a week for four weeks (during which time the charter must be on file in the office of the Secretary of State), is required. The stock must be divided into shares of not less than ten dollars each and must be paid for in money, unless it be stated in the charter that they are to be paid for in labor, services or property at a value to be fixed by the corporators or by the directors at a meeting held for that purpose. A charter fee of two dollars per thousand of capital stock, provided such fee shall not be less than five nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, and the usual recording fees of the clerk of the circuit court and the Secretary of State for recording the charter and affidavit herein after mentioned are provided for. The charter must contain: The name of the corporation and its place or places of business; general nature of business to be transacted; the amount of capital stock authorized; number and par value of shares and terms and conditions upon which it is to be paid for; term for which it is to exist; by what officers the business is to be transacted; time of election of such officers and the names of the officers to conduct such business until the first election; highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation can at any time subject itself, and the names and residences of subscribers and amount of stock subscribed by each. Not less than ten per cent. of the capital stock must be subscribed before incorporation. No corporation shall transact any business until the letters patent and a certified copy of the charter has been recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county of the principal place of business, and an affidavit of the treasurer that ten per cent. of the capital stock has been subscribed and paid, has been made in duplicate and one copy thereof filed in said clerk's office and the other in the office of the Secretary of State, and upon failure to comply with these requirements the stockholders are liable as partners. Stockholders are not liable for the debts of the corporation beyond the unpaid portion of the capital stock, except that a failure to comply with the last mentioned provision renders the stockholders liable for such debts and liabilities as if they were partners. Provision is also made for increasing the capital stock or changing the charter of a corporation.

No foreign corporation shall transact business or acquire, hold or dispose of property until it shall have filed in the office of the Secretary of State a duly authenticated copy of its charter or articles of incorporation, paid the same charter tax as a domestic corporation and received from him a permit to transact business in this State. (Does not apply to any foreign corporation transacting business in Florida on June 1st, 1907, unless such corporation should thereafter increase its capital stock.)

DEPOSITION.—Testimony of witnesses by deposition may be taken in all civil cases where the witness does not reside in the county where the case is pending. A commission is issued, as of course, upon the application of either party upon filing interrogatories and serving a copy and notice upon the other party or his attorney and giving him an opportunity to propound cross interrogatories. Ordinarily one commissioner is selected by the party applying for the commission and he takes the testimony, but the other party may, if he so desires, name a commissioner and these two may name a third. Full instructions as to taking the testimony and returning same are printed on the commission. Ample provision is also made for taking depositions de bene esse.

DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.—As to personal property our statute provides that it shall be distributed according to the law regulating the inheritance of real estate. The order of descent of real property is as follows: First, to the children and their descendants and the husband, if decedent be a married woman and the husband survive her; second, if there be no children or descendants then the property shall go to the surviving husband or wife; third, if there be no children, husband or wife, then to the father; fourth, if there be no father then to the mother, brothers and sisters or such of them as may be; fifth, if there be no mother, brothers or sisters, then the estate shall be divided into two moieties, one of which shall go to the maternal and the other to the paternal kindred in the following order: First, to the grandfather; if there be no grandfather then to the grandmother, uncles and aunts and their descendants, on the same side, or such of them as there be; if there be none of these, then to the great-grandfathers, or great-grandfather if there be but one; if there be no great grandfather then to the great-grandmothers or great grandmother, if there be but one, and the brothers and sisters of the grandfathers and grandmothers and their descendants, or such of them as there be; and so on in other cases without end, passing to the nearest lineal male ancestor, and in want of them to the lineal female ancestors, in the same degree and to the descendants of such male and female ancestors, or to such of them as there may be.

The wife has the option of taking a child's portion or dower in the real estate and one-third of the personalty.

Special provision is made for inheritance from intants, by husband's and wife's kindred for want of others, by half blood and by adopted children.

EXECUTIONS.—Lands, tenements, goods and chattels, equities of redemption in real and personal property and stock in corporations are made subject to levy by statute. All property levied on must be sold at public sale after a publication of notice once a week for four weeks.

One hundred and sixty acres of land, or one half acre in an incorporated town or city, not to include more than the residence and place of business, together with one thousand dollars worth of personal property, is exempted to every head of a family residing within this State. The party desiring to claim his exemptions must file with officer levying a notice to that effect and an inventory of the property. An appraisement is then had. Provision is also made for having the homestead set apart before levy.

STATUTE OF FRAUDS.—Both the fourth and seventeenth sections of the statute have been enacted in this State. Subscriptions to newspapers, periodicals and the like matter, and promises to pay a debt barred by the statute of limitations have been brought within the provisions of the statute of frauds.

GARNISHMENT.—(See Attachment.)

HOLIDAYS.—All Sundays, 1st of January, 22d of February, 4th of July, 3d of June, 26th of April, 19th of January, 25th of December, Thanksgiving Day and General Election Day are, as to presentation and payment of commercial paper, public holidays, and such paper maturing on that day shall be considered as having matured on the next succeeding business day. If such paper mature on Saturday holder must present it prior to twelve o'clock, or on the next succeeding business day. Whenever January 1st, February 22d, July 4th or December 25th, shall fall on Sunday the Monday next shall also be deemed public holiday.

HOMESTEADS.—(See Executions.)

HUSBAND AND WIFE.—Provision is made for the removal of disabilities of married women by decree of the Judge of the Circuit Court upon petition and proof taken. Unless her disabilities have been removed the husband must be joined in all suits by or against her and must join in all conveyances of her property.

All property owned by a married woman prior to her marriage, or acquired after marriage, is declared by our Constitution to be her separate estate and not liable for the debts of the husband without her consent in writing, executed according to the laws respecting conveyances of married women.

A married woman, although a minor, may convey real estate or relinquish her dower rights. The husband must join, and separate examination, as shown in form of acknowledgment, supra, is necessary.

INTEREST.—A maximum rate of ten per cent. may be collected upon special contract; in the absence of special contract the legal rate is eight per cent. Usury forfeits the entire interest. Where over 25 per cent. is charged, principal is also forfeited.

JUDGMENTS.—Are liens on real estate in county where rendered from the entry thereof, and upon real estate in any other county in this state upon the recordation of a transcript of the record in such county. The lien continues until the judgment is barred by the statute of limitations, i. e., twenty years.

LIMITATIONS.—An action is commenced, within the Florida statute, when the summons or other original process is delivered to the proper officer to be served. Civil actions can only be commenced as follows:

Within twenty years.—An action upon a judgment or decree of a court of record within this State; an action upon any contract, obligation or liability founded upon an instrument of writing under seal.

Within seven years.—An action for the recovery of real property, or the possession thereof, and an action upon a judgment or decree of any United States Court or of any State, territory or of any foreign country.

Within five years.—An action upon any contract, obligation or liability founded upon an instrument of writing not under seal.

Within four years.—An action for any article charged in a store account, and any action for relief not specifically provided for.

Within three years.—An action upon a liability created by statute other than a penalty or forfeiture, an action for trespass upon real property, an action for detaining or injuring any goods or chattels, including actions for the specific recovery of personal property, actions for relief on the ground of fraud (action to be deemed to have accrued at the time of the discovery by aggrieved party of facts constituting fraud), and an action upon any contract, obligation or liability not founded upon any instrument in writing.

Within two years.—An action upon a statute for a penalty or forfeiture by another than the State, an action for libel, slander, false imprisonment, assault and battery.

Within one year.—An action by the State for a penalty or forfeiture under a penal act of the legislature.

MECHANICS' LIEN.—Ample protection is afforded laborers, contractors, and material men by our statutes; a lien on the personal property upon which the labor is performed, or for which the materials are furnished and upon the real estate upon which the buildings are, is created by statute.

As to real estate.—Such lien, to be effectual as to real estate, against creditors and subsequent purchasers without notice, must be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court within three months after the performance of the labor.

As to personal property.—There is no lien upon personal property as against purchasers and creditors, unless the person claiming the lien be in possession of the property upon which the lien is claimed. As against the owner the lien is created with the performance of the labor, or furnishing of the materials.

MORTGAGES, FORECLOSURE OF.—All mortgages, except chattel mortgages for a sum not exceeding $100, must be foreclosed by bill in chancery when the note or bond secured, or the mortgage itself provides for it. The mortgagee is allowed a reasonable attorney's fee, and the mortgagor may redeem at any time before the sale. Mortgages are, under our statutes, simply specific liens on the property covered for the amount secured.

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.—The Uniform Negotiable Instrument Law was adopted by our legislature on June 1, 1897.

REAL ESTATE.—No estate or interest of freehold or of a term of more than two years, or any uncertain interest in or out of any messuages, lands, tenements or hereditaments, shall be created, except by deed signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of at least two subscribing witnesses. A scrawl or scroll, printed or written, is sufficient as a seal. Recordation is necessary to make a deed valid as to creditors and subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration and without notice. As to requisites to entitle deeds, mortgages, etc., to recordation, see Acknowledgments.

Mortgages, under our statute as construed by our Supreme Court, are simply specific liens on the property mortgaged. They are probably valid without any subscribing witnesses, except where they are on separate property of a married woman to secure debt of husband, but, as the question has not yet been passed on by the court of highest resort in this State, it is safer to have two subscribing witnesses. All instruments in writing conveying or selling property, real or personal, for the purpose or with the intention of securing the payment of money, shall be deemed and held mortgages and subject to the same rules of foreclosure and to the same regulations, restraints and forms as are prescribed for mortgages.

REPLEVIN.—Whenever any goods or chattels are wrongfully detained by any "person or officer," the person from whom they are detained may have a writ of replevin for the recovery thereof, and of damages sustained by reason of the wrongful caption or detention thereof. The following cases are excepted from the operation of the statute: First, property taken under execution or attachment; second, property taken for taxes; third, property replevied from the defendant (and delivered to the plaintiff); fourth, where plaintiff has not the right "to reduce into his possession the goods taken."

To obtain the writ the plaintiff must make affidavit that the plaintiff is lawfully entitled to the possession of the property, stating its true value and describing it, and that it has not been taken for any tax, assessment or fine levied by virtue of any law of this State, nor seized under any execution or attachment levied against the goods and chattels of such plaintiff liable to execution, and that defendant has possession of and detains same from plaintiff. The affidavit may be made by the plaintiff or "some competent person in his behalf." He must also file a bond in at least double the value of the property as sworn to in the affidavit.

The officer levying the writ is required to hold the property three days, during which time the defendant, by filing a bond in double the value of the property as appraised by the officer, may have the property returned to him. If he fails to do so, the property, at the expiration of the three days, is delivered to the plaintiff.

WILLS.—Any person of sound mind and of twenty-one years of age may devise and dispose of his property, real and personal, by will, except that the head of a family cannot so dispose of his or her homestead. Wills disposing of real estate must be signed by the testator or some person in his presence and by his express directions, and must be attested and subscribed in the presence of the testator by two or more witnesses. All wills of personal property must be signed by the testator or some other person in his presence and by his express directions. No nuncupative will shall be good unless it is proved by the oaths of three witnesses present at the making thereof, nor unless it be proved by said witnesses that at the time of pronouncing the same the testator did desire the persons present, or some of them, to bear witness that such was his will, or to that effect, nor unless such nuncupative will was made in the time of the last sickness of the deceased.

GEORGIA.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the State of Georgia, prepared by L M. Rambo, Attorney at Law, Blakely, Ga.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—In order to authorize the record of a deed or mortgage to realty or personalty, if executed in this State, it must be attested by a judge of a court of record of this State, or a justice of the peace, or notary public, or clerk of the Superior Court, in the county in which the three last named officers respectively hold their appointments, or if subsequent to its execution the deed is acknowledged in the presence of either of the named officers, that fact certified on the deed or mortgage by such officer, shall entitle it to be recorded. When executed out of the State, the deed or mortgage must be attested by or acknowledged before a commissioner of deeds for the State of Georgia, or a consul or vice-consul of the United States (the certificate of these officers under their seal being evidence of the fact), or by a judge of a court of record in the State where executed, with a certificate of the clerk under the seal of such court of the genuineness of the signature of such judge, or by a clerk of a court of record under the seal of the court, or by a notary public of the State and county where executed, with his seal of office attached, or if he have no seal with a certificate under the seal of the court from the clerk of a court of record of the county of the notary's residence certifying to the notary's official character. If the deed or the mortgage be to realty it must be attested by one other witness in addition to the officer mentioned above. A deed or mortgage attested and recorded as provided above is constructive notice of the grantee's title and is admissible in evidence without further proof of its genuineness, unless attacked by an affidavit alleging it to be a forgery.

ACTIONS.—The Superior Courts have general jurisdiction in all cases (with the exception of probate of wills and the administration of estates) and sit not less than twice a year in each County in the State. City Courts established in many of the counties of the State have concurrent civil jurisdiction with the Superior Court, except in cases involving the titles to land, equity cases, and divorce suits. County Courts have concurrent civil jurisdiction with these courts where the amount involved does not exceed five hundred dollars. Justice Courts have jurisdiction for the collection of debts, where the principal sum does not exceed one hundred dollars, and holds monthly sessions. The Court of Ordinary, which meets monthly, has jurisdiction of the probate of wills and the administration of estates, and the property of minors. In the Superior Courts suits must be filed twenty days and served fifteen days before the beginning of the term. Demurrers and answers are filed at the first term and the second term is the trial term. The procedure in the City Courts and in the County Courts is similar except that in some of the City Courts judgment may be taken at the first term. In justice courts suits must be filed and served ten days before the term and judgment may be had at the first term. In courts of record the procedure is by petition, demurrer and answer. No replication or special pleading is required. In justice courts the proceeding is by summons, with bill of particulars attached, and the defendant may defend by demurrer or plea.

AFFIDAVITS.—Any affidavit made out of the State of Georgia before any notary public, justice of the peace, judge of a court of law, or chancellor, commissioner or master of any court of equity of the State or county where the oath is made, or before any other officer of said State or county, who is authorized by the laws thereof to administer oaths, shall have the same force and effect, and be recognized in like manner as if it had been made before any officer of this State authorized to administer the same. In suits brought in a Justice's Court of this State since November 15, 1901, upon an open account, verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff, the plaintiff may obtain judgment without further proof unless the defendant shall file a sworn plea denying the indebtedness, or some part thereof, in which last case he must specify what portion he admits.

ARREST.—Imprisonment for debt is forbidden by the Constitution of the State, This does not prevent arrest and imprisonment of defendants in actions of bail trover where there is a refusal to deliver the property, nor in equity cases upon contempt proceedings for failure to deliver money or property in obedience to an order of the Court.

ASSIGNMENTS AND CREDITOR'S BILL.—Except as prevented by the National Bankruptcy Act voluntary assignments may be made by debtors, who may bona fide prefer one creditor to another, by mortgage or sale, or by collaterals. An assignment made by an insolvent debtor is fraudulent, null and void, when any benefit is reserved to the assignor, or any person for him. Assignees must give bond in double the assets assigned, for the faithful performance of their trust. In case any corporation (not municipal) or trader, or firm of traders, shall fail to pay matured debts and be insolvent, any three or more unsecured creditors, or creditors representing one-third in amount of unsecured debts, may file a creditor's bill, and have a receiver appointed, who shall collect and distribute the assets under the direction of the court, pro rata among creditors, recognizing, however, bona fide liens created before the filing of the bill. Any creditor may become a party to the bill before final judgment. The Georgia Courts have held that the right to file a creditor's bill under this law is not suspended by the National Bankruptcy Act except in cases where the bankruptcy proceedings have intervened or shall intervene within four months after the filing of the bill.

ATTACHMENTS.—Attachments may issue in the following cases: 1. When the debtor resides out of the State. 2. When he is actually removing, or about to remove without the county. 3. When he absconds. 4. When he conceals himself. 5. When he resists a legal arrest. 6. When he is causing his property to be removed beyond the limits of the State. Garnishment may issue under an attachment or where suit is pending or judgment has been obtained. Attachments may likewise issue for the purchase money of property, to be levied upon the same, in the possession of the purchaser; also against a debtor who sells, conveys or conceals his property for the purpose of avoiding the payment of his debts, threatens or prepares to do so, or makes a fraudulent lien on the same. The plaintiff in judgment is required to give bond in double the amount claimed conditioned for the payment of damages in the event he shall fail to recover

BANKS AND BANKING.—Any number of persons, not less than three, may form a corporation for carrying on the business of banking, by filing in the office of the Secretary of State, a declaration in writing signed by each of them, stating their names and residences; the name and style of the proposed corporation; the location and principal place of business; the amount of capital stock, and the number of shares into which it is divided, and the purposes and nature of the business of said corporation. Such declaration must be accompanied by the affidavit of the subscribers, verified by the Ordinary of the County in which it is proposed to do business, that fifteen thousand dollars of the actual stock subscribed has actually been paid in by the subscribers, and is in fact held, and is to be used, solely for the business and purposes of said corporation, and a fee of fifty dollars shall be paid on filing the application, into the Treasury, and the Secretary of State shall not issue any charter before the payment of said fee. When the declaration is filed in the office of the Secretary of State, it shall be his duty upon the application of any one of the subscribers to the same, to certify and deliver to such subscriber, a copy of said declaration and affidavit, and it shall be the duty of the subscriber to cause it to be published in the official organ of the county in which it is proposed to do business, once a week, for four weeks, such certified copy, declaration and affidavit. When said declaration and affidavit shall have been published as provided, any one of said subscribers may apply to the Ordinary of the county aforesaid, to certify the fact of the publication of said declaration and affidavit, and it shall be the duty of the Ordinary to certify the fact of such publication to the Secretary of State, and upon said certificate being filed by the subscribers, in the office of the Secretary of State, he shall issue to the subscribers, their associates and successors, a certificate of incorporation, under the seal of the State, certifying that said subscribers, their associates and successors, are a body politic and corporate, under the name and style designated in the declaration, and said Secretary of State shall then and there record the declaration, affidavit, certificate of the Ordinary and the certificate of incorporation in the order named. No corporation shall be formed under this act, with a capital subscribed in good faith, of less than $25,000, and in every case $15,000 must be paid in cash, by the subscribers for stock, before filing the declaration in the office of the Secretary of State. Necessary blanks will be furnished on application to the Secretary of State. The said corporation shall be liable to its creditors to the extent of its capital and assets and each stockholder shall be individually liable for all the debts of said corporation to the extent of his unpaid shares of stock, and further liable equally and ratably to the depositors for all moneys deposited, in an amount equal to the face value of their respective shares of stock. The Treasurer of the State is examiner of banks, and he, or an examiner appointed by him, must visit every bank, not less than twice a year, not at stated times, and examine the affairs of the bank, and report to the Governor of the State fully as to its financial condition, etc. In 1907 a "bank bureau" was established, of which the State Treasurer is the head, with power to appoint assistants; and his authority over State banking institutions was materially enlarged. In addition banks must under penalty for failure, render four reports of their condition to the Treasurer, which must be published in some local newspaper. These reports are called at the discretion of the Treasurer. The salary of the examiner is $2,500 a year and expenses, to be paid by the banks in proportion to their capital. The reports of the examiner shall be recorded in books kept by the State Treasurer in his office at the capitol, subject to public inspection. Banks are prohibited from making loans to any one person exceeding 10 per cent. of its capital stock and surplus, except upon special securities Loans to officers and directors of the bank must always be upon security.

Although not docketed as above judgments are good as between the parties. Clerk's fee for docketing judgment 10 cents. A judgment becomes dormant after seven years from its rendition, when no execution has been issued upon it and the same is placed upon the execution docket, or when execution has been issued and seven years have expired from the time of the record, upon the execution docket of the court from which the same issued, of the last entry upon the execution made by an officer authorized to execute and return the same. Such judgments may be revived by scire facias, or be sued on within three years from the time they become dormant.

ILLINOIS.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the State of Illinois; prepared by MICHAEL ECKSTEIN, Attorney at Law, Springfield, Ill.

ACTIONS.—Common law mode of procedure and pleading substantially prevails in this State. Amendments are liberally provided for and allowed. Common law and Chancery are separate although the same court (circuit) has jurisdiction over both. Actions may now be brought in the name of the assignee and equitable and bona-fide holder of choses in action non-negotiable, but such assignee must state under oath in his pleading, his ownership and how he acquired title. In such suit all set offs are allowed that may exist, not only against the plaintiff but against the assignor before notice of such assignment is given the defendant. Security for costs must be given by non residents. Except in local actions defendant must be sued in county where he can be found, but if there be more than one defendant all may be sued where one resides, summons may be issued and served on the others in any county or state. Law process, served by reading to defendant and leaving a copy thereof with him. Chancery by reading and giving a copy to defendant or leaving a copy at his usual place of residence with some member of his family over 10 years old and explaining contents. In attachment suits publication for non-residents once a week for three successive weeks required. In chancery suits once a week for four successive weeks, and the first publication must be at least 30 days prior to the first day of the term. Service may be also had by serving non-resident defendant with a copy of bill of complaint not less than 30 days prior to first day of term. In law cases service must be had, declaration and note or copy of account must be filed at least 10 days prior to the first day of the term at which suit is brought to obtain judgment at that term. Affidavit of claim may be filed with suit, which will entitle plaintiff to judgment unless defendant files affidavit of merits disclosing a good defense to the action. Common law suits may be brought before justices of the peace for sums of $300 or less; in county court for sums of $1,000 or less; and in the circuit court in all causes in law and equity.

ARREST.—The defendant may be arrested before judgment under the criminal code if the debt has been fraudulently contracted, or after judgment in tort where the defendant has assigned, removed or disposed of his property with intent to defraud the plaintiff.

After judgment, if execution has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part and an affidavit is filed stating that demand has been made on the debtor and that the affiant verily believes that the debtor has property not exempt which he unjustly refuses to render, or that since the debt has been contracted the debtor has consented or fraudulently disposed of some part of his estate with intent to defraud his creditors and setting up facts tending to show that such belief is well founded. A ca. sa. may issue on obtaining an order from a Judge or Master of Chancery. A ca. sa. may also issue after judgment in an action of tort.

ASSIGNMENTS.—The National Bankruptcy Act of 1898 has suspended the operation of the Illinois Assignment Act.

ATTACHMENTS.—On a matured debt a writ of attachment may be had by a resident or non-resident creditor against the property of his debtor or that of any of several debtors: (1) where the debtor is a non-resident or (2) conceals himself or stands in defiance of an officer so that process cannot be served on him; or (3) has departed or (4) is about to depart from the State with the intention of having his property removed from the State, or (5) where he is about to remove his property from the State to the injury of such creditor, or (6) has within two years fraudulently conveyed or assigned his effects or a part thereof; or (7) has within two years fraudulently concealed or disposed of his property to hinder or delay his creditors, or (8) is about fraudulently to conceal, assign or otherwise dispose of his property or effects, so as to hinder or delay creditors, or (9) where the debt was fraudulently contracted, the statements constituting the fraud being in writing, and signed by the debtor, his agent or attorney. To obtain writ, affidavit of creditor, his agent or attorney must be filed setting forth amount and nature of indebtedness, and also one or more of the above causes of attachment and residence of debtor if known. Bond must be given in double the amount sworn to be due. Provision is made for sustenance of live stock and the immediate sale or perishable property and summoning garnishees. Attachment in aid of pending suit is authorized. All judgments in attachments returnable at the same term and all other judgments against the same defendant, recovered at that term, or at the term when the judgment in the first attachment upon which judgment shall be recovered is rendered, share pro rata in the attached property. The courtmay allow priority, however, where the property is discovered or recovered through the diligence of first attaching creditor. Attachments may issue at any time before judgment in pending suits on filing affidavit and bond as required by attachment act.

BANKS AND BANKING.—Under the Constitution of 1870 all Banking Acts and amendments thereto before becoming effective, must be first submitted to a vote of the entire people of the State at the general election next succeeding the passage of the same, by the legislature and be approved by a majority of the votes cast at such election for or against such law. Under this provision a complete Bank Act has now been adopted, the provisions of which have been practically modeled after the National Banking Act. Application is made by any Association of persons, not less than three desiring to organize a bank, to the auditor of the State for permission to organize, stating the place of business the amount of capital and name under which they desire to organize and the time for which such Association shall continue, which statement shall be under their hands and seals and acknowledged before some officer authorized by law to acknowledge deeds; and the auditor shall issue to them a permit to organize but no permit shall be issued to more than one association of the same name and all persons or associations formed under this act shall have their capital stock divided into shares of One Hundred ($100 00) Dollars each It is then provided that as soon as may be, after receipt of authorization, books of subscription of the capital stock may be opened and when the capital stock shall be fully subscribed for, a meeting of the subscribers be called to determine the number and to elect directors to serve for one year or until their successors are elected. No director shall be elected unless he shall receive votes representing at least a majority of the shares of the Association; voting may be done in person or by proxy; subscribers or stockholders have the right to vote the number of shares owned or subscribed by them for as many persons as there are directors elected or to cumulate such shares in favor of one or more candidates. The directors so elected proceed to the election of one of their number as President and of the necessary number of officers and employees and fix their salaries, and make by-laws for the government of the bank (not inconsistent with the act). Each director takes and subscribes an oath prescribed by the auditor, of fealty and honesty to the bank and that he will not knowingly violate or wilfully permit to be violated, any of the provisions of the act and that he is the owner of at least ten (10) shares of stock not hypothecated or pledged in any way. Suitable books of record of all transactions are required to be kept and the directors are required to furnish to the auditor lists of the stockholders and copies of any of the records that the auditor may require. Annual meeting of stockholders for the election of directors each year are to be held on the first Monday of January, unless some other day shall be fixed by the by-laws of the Association. Any omission to elect directors shall not impair any of the rights of the Association but the existing directors shall hold office until their successors are legally elected and qualified. Vacancy may be filled by two-thirds votes of the remaining directors. Any director who ceases to be the owner of ten (10) shares of the capital stock or becomes in any form disqualified, thereby vacates his place as such director. Directors are to hold regular meetings at least once each month. Provision is made that if any officer, director or employee shall wilfully or knowingly subscribe to or make any false statement, with the intent to deceive any person or persons authorized to examine into the affairs of the bank, he shall be punished upon conviction thereof, by imprisonment of not less than one year or more than ten years. The law then provided that when the directors have organized and the capital stock of the Association shall have been fully paid in and record of the same made before the auditor, the auditor shall make or cause to be made a thorough examination into the affairs of such Association and if satisfied that the law has been fully complied with, he may issue a certificate authorizing the commencement of business, which certificate shall be recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in the County where the bank is organized. Upon the recording thereof the bank may proceed to business. Power is given the auditor in his discretion to withhold the issuing of such certificate if he is not satisfied as to the personal character and standing of the officers or directors elected or appointed; or if he has reason to believe that the bank is organized for any purpose other than that comtemplated by this act.

Every stock holder is liable to creditors over and above the amount of stock held to an amount equal to the respective shares so held for all liabilities accruing while he is such stock holder.

Reports under oath by the President or Cashier of such bank are required to be made on a form prescribed by the auditor, exhibiting in detail the resources and liabilities of such bank, at least once every three months of each year and as often as he shall require. This report is to be published at the expense of the bank in a newspaper published in the city or town where such bank is located, or if none is published at such city or town, in the nearest newspaper published.

A provision is made that the auditor shall as often as he may deem necessary and proper and at least once in each year by examiners make a thorough examination into all the affairs of the bank, who shall have full power to examine any of the officers or employees and shall make a full and detailed report of the condition of the bank to the auditor.

Associations organized under the act are made bodies corporate for the period for which they may be organized, with the right to sue and be sued, to have a common seal, to have the power of carrying as assets the real estate necessary in which to do its banking business and such other real estate to which it may obtain title in the collection of its debts, but the last shall not be carried for more than five years after acquiring title thereto.

No association, person, firm or corporation shall be permitted to become liable for money borrowed including in the liabilities of a company or firm, the liabilities of the several members thereof at any time to exceed fifteen per cent. of the amount of the capital stock of the bank actually paid in and unimpaired and fifteen per cent. of its unimpaired surplus fund, provided that the total liabilities of such person, company or firm shall at no time exceed thirty per cent. of the amount of capital actually paid in and provided, further, that undivided profits shall not be construed as part of the surplus.

The discount of bills of exchange drawn against actually existing values and the discount of commercial or business paper actually owned by the person negotiating the same, shall not be considered as money borrowed. Every loan in violation thereof may be recovered, but every director who shall violate or participate in or assent to such violation or permit any officer or employe to violate any of the provisions hereof shall be held in his personal and individual capacity for all damages which may be sustained.

No loans shall be made to any officer or salaried employe until an application for such loan shall have been first approved, both as to security and amount by the board of directors.

Banks organized under the act are empowered to do a general banking business, except the issuing of bills to circulate as money, and have power to loan money on personal and real estate property and to accept and execute trusts.

The minimum capital stock, according to population, is as follows: in all cities, towns and villages not exceeding one thousand five hundred inhabitants, $15,000; not exceeding five thousand inhabitants, $25,000; between five and ten thousand inhabitants, $50,000; between ten and fifty thousand inhabitants, $100,000; fifty thousand inhabitants or over, $200,000.

In case of the impairment of the capital stock of the bank, the auditor shall give notice to the President to have the impairment made good by the assessment of the stock holders or a reduction of the capital stock of such bank not below the minimum amounts provided for in the creation of such bank.

In case the capital stock shall remain impaired for thirty days after such notice, the auditor is authorized and directed to bring suit and collect from each stock holder, for the use of the bank, his or her pro rata proportion of such impairment by suit in the name of the People, or if from an examination made it appears that such impairment cannot be made good, or that the business is being conducted in an illegal, fraudulent or unsafe manner, he may, in his discretion, without having taken the aforesaid steps, file a bill through the Attorney General in the Circuit Court of the County where such bank is located, in the name of the People of the State against said bank and its stock holders, for the dissolution of the stock holders, for an injunction, and have a receiver appointed. Provision is then made for the action of the Court in the matter by the appointment of receiver, enforcement of liability of stock holders, etc.

The majority in number and amount of the stock holders may at any time after the appointment of a receiver petition the court to appoint any reputable person who is an elector of said County, chosen by them as such receiver, and the Court shall thereupon make such appointment.

Ample provisions exist for changing the name, place of business, increasing or decreasing of capital stock, increasing or decreasing the number of directors or to consolidate such corporation with any other corporation having banking powers.

Provision is also made for closing up the business of any bank or association on depositing with the auditor an amount of money equal to the whole amount of debts and demands against it, including the expenses of the proceeds by resolution passed by a meeting of its stock holders calling for such purpose.

BILLS AND NOTES.—The Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act is in force.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES are invalid as to third parties, if given for longer than three years, unless extended for a further term of not more than one year from maturity, in accordance with statute. Neither are they valid as to third parties, if the property mortgaged is allowed to remain in possession of the mortgagor, unless the mortgage expressly provides that it shall so remain and is acknowledged and recorded as provided by statute. The instrument is to be acknowledged before a justice of the peace in the township where mortgagor resides in counties having a population of two hundred thousand or over, in all other cases before any Justice of the Peace or the County Judge of the County where the mortgagor resided or before the Clerk or Deputy Clerk of any municipal court in such County, and recorded in the recorder's office of the County. If executed by a non-resident, is to be acknowledged by any officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds, and is to be recorded in the county where the property is situated and kept. The mortgagee may lose his lien, as against third parties, if he does not take possession of the mortgaged property within 24 hours after the mortgage is due. As between the parties, a chattel mortgage is good, if it is neither acknowledged nor recorded. Under act approved June 5, 1889, in force July 1, 1889, chattel mortgages on necessary household goods, wearing apparel or mechanics' tools, executed after July 1, 1889, can only be foreclosed in a court of record. This provision does not apply to the sale of furniture by regular dealers on the so-called installment plan. No chattel mortgage, executed by a married man or woman on household goods, is valid unless joined in by both husband and wife. Since July 1, 1895, a note secured by chattel mortgage is void, unless upon its face it states that it is so secured; and the sales under the mortgage shall be made in the county where the mortgagor resides or where the property is situated when mortgaged, upon notice. Maker of note is entitled to same defenses against assignee as against the payee.

Under act in force July 13, 1921, a chattel mortgage is a good and valid lien from the time it is filed for record until ninety days after the maturity of the entire debt or obligation or until ninety days after an extension of the time of payment thereof.

INTEREST.—Legal rate, 5 per cent., but parties may agree up to 7 per cent. Usury forfeits the entire interest. No corporation is permitted to interpose defense of usury.

JUDGMENTS.—Bear 5 per cent. interest. Judgments of courts of record are a lien upon the real estate of the judgment debtor within the county where it is obtained for seven years, provided execution issue within one year; if execution does not issue within the year, judgment ceases to be a lien, but execution may be issued on such judgment at any time within the seven years and becomes a lien from the time of delivery thereof to the sheriff. Judgments may be revived by scire facias in seven years and may be sued upon any time in 20 years. There is no priority of the lien of one judgment over that of another (as to real estate) rendered at the same term of court or on the same day in vacation. As to personal property there is no lien until execution on judgment is placed in the hands of the sheriff. The first execution placed in his hands has priority. Judgments or decrees rendered in other counties in the State may become liens by filing transcripts, etc., thereof with the recorder of the county where judgment debtor has property. Judgments may be confessed in courts of record, by attorney, either in term time or in vacation. Justices' judgments are made liens on real estate by filing transcript thereof in circuit court. Execution may issue on justices judgments at any time within seven years—suits may be brought on such judgment within 10 years.

LIMITATIONS.—Real actions, 20 years; judgments, 20 years; contracts in writing, bonds, promissory notes and bills of exchange, 10 years; unwritten contracts and injuries to real or personal property, 5 years; judgments in court of record, 20 years; before justices of the peace, 10 years. Cause of action arising in foreign State and barred by the laws thereof is barred here.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of Indiana, prepared by BARRETT & BARRETT, Attorneys and Counsellors at Law, Indianapolis, Ind.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—All conveyances of land must be by deed. Every conveyance or mortgage of lands or of any interest therein and every lease for more than three years, must, in order to be of any validity against subsequent purchasers, lessees or mortgagees in good faith and for valuable consideration, be acknowledged and recorded in the office of the recorder in county in which the land lies. To entitle any conveyance, mortgage or other instrument of writing to be recorded, it must be acknowledged by the grantor, or proved before any judge or clerk of a court of record, or a justice of the peace, auditor, recorder, notary public, or Mayor of a city, in this or any other State, or before any commissioner appointed in any other State by the Governor of this State, or before any minister, charge d'affairs or consul of the United States in any foreign country. And to entitle to record in this State, conveyances acknowledged out of the State, but within the United States the same must be certified by the clerk of any court of record of the county in which the officer receiving the acknowledgment resides, and attested by the seal of said court; but an acknowledgment before an officer having an official seal, is sufficient without further authentication. It is best, or preferable, that acknowledgments be taken before a notary or a clerk of a court of record. The officer before whom acknowledgment is taken should state when his commission expires.

ACTIONS.—All distinctions in pleading and practice between actions at law and suits in equity have been abolished. A civil action is commenced by filing in the office of the clerk of the circuit court or superior court a complaint, and causing a summons to issue thereon; and the action is deemed commenced from the issuing of summons. In the circuit and superior courts there must be service of process at least ten days before the first day of the term, or such return day as may have been fixed by the plaintiff, by endorsement on complaint. If defendant is a non-resident, and an affidavit showing such fact is filed, notice by publication must be given, which notice must be published three weeks (21 days) consecutively, the last of which must not be less than 30 days before the day set for the hearing of the cause. Service of summons may be also made outside of the State, but proof of service and of the identity of person served is required. A personal judgment cannot be taken on notice by publication, or on service of summons out of State. In actions before justices of the peace the jurisdiction is limited to $200, and judgment can be entered upon three days' service of notice.

The costs of taking judgment (exclusive of attorney's fees) varies by reason of the sheriff's costs—or the costs of the constable. Ordinarily $10.00 to $15.00 covers costs of suit (where no defense is interposed) in the Circuit or Superior Courts. Before a Justice of the Peace the costs range from $4.00 to $7.50.

AFFIDAVITS.—Affidavits can be taken before any person authorized to administer oaths, but if taken before any person other than a clerk of a court of record, there should be attached a certificate of the clerk of a court of record certifying to the authority of the officer administering the oath. In ordinary cases an affidavit before a notary public having an official seal is accepted.

ARREST.—The constitution forbids imprisonment for debt except in case of fraud. A judgment debtor, upon plaintiff showing by affidavit that the debtor is fraudulently concealing, removing, transferring or withholding his property, may be arrested and held to bail until the property is surrendered or the debt paid, or until the charge can be heard and determined by a court; and the debtor, at the commencement of an action, upon affidavits filed that he is about to leave the State, etc., may also be arrested and held to bail until judgment be obtained.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Any debtor in embarrassed or failing circumstances, may make a general assignment of all property in trust for the benefit of all his bona fide creditors. To be valid this must be by indenture duly signed by the assignor and properly acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments, and filed with the recorder of the county in which the assignor resides, for record within ten days after the execution thereof. The indenture or deed of assignment to contain a full description of the real estate owned by the assignor, and be accompanied by a schedule of personal property, and the assignor to make oath that the indenture and schedule contains a full statement of all his or her property, etc. The assignor selects the assignee, but if creditors representing one half of the liabilities of the debtor petition the court for the removal of the assignee it is made the duty of the court to at once remove the assignee selected by the debtor and appoint a disinterested person. The trustee makes oath and files bond in the court having the assignment and must file a copy of the deed of assignment with the clerk of the court within fifteen days after the date of the execution of the deed. Trustee named failing to act, court may appoint a substitute upon petition. The trustee to make under oath complete inventory of all property coming to his hands, and file in court within thirty days after entering upon his trust; also, cause same to be appraised by two reputable householders; set off to the assignor, if a resident householder, such property as he may select to the value of six hundred dollars; and proceed to collect the rights and credits, and to sell the property, after giving thirty days' notice of time and place, at public auction, or at private sale, for cash, or upon credit, not exceeding two years, subject to approval of the court as to such sales. Dividends are declared pro rata upon all claims allowed by trustee or the court. Trustee's compensation to be fixed by the court. No provision for discharge of debtor from his liabilities.

ATTACHMENTS.—Attachments may be had against the property of a defendant in any of the following cases, viz.: 1. When the defendant is a non-resident of the State, or a foreign corporation. 2. Or is secretly leaving, or has left the State, with intent to defraud his creditors. 3. Where the defendant so conceals himself that a summons cannot be served upon him. 4. Is removing or about to remove his property from the State subject to execution, not leaving enough to pay his debts. 5. Has sold or is about to sell, or has suffered and permitted to be sold, his property subject to execution, with the fraudulent intent to cheat, hinder or delay his creditors. An affidavit is required which must state the nature and the amount of plaintiff's claim, the amount plaintiff ought to recover, and that there exists some one of the grounds for attachment above enumerated. This affidavit can be made by the plaintiff, his agent or attorney. A bond is required conditioned for the payment of costs, and damages if the proceedings be wrongful or oppresive. All creditors who file under the original attachment proceedings share pro rata the proceeds of the attached property.

BANKS AND BANKING.—Banks must be established under a general banking law, except that the General Assembly may charter a bank with branches. To incorporate a State bank in Indiana, the following requirements are necessary: 1. Any number of persons, not less than five, may form themselves into a corporation as a bank of discount and deposit. They shall unite in articles of association, setting forth: 1st. The name assumed by such corporation. 2d. The place where it is to be located, and its operations as a bank of discount and deposit are to be carried on and its business conducted, designating the county, city or town. 3d. The amount of its capital stock; which shall not be less than $25,000, and which shall be divided into shares of $100 each. The names and places of residence of the shareholders and the number of shares held by each. 5th. The number of the directors of the association, which shall not be less than three. The articles of association must be signed by the shareholders. 2. Before such bank is authorized to commence business not less than fifty per cent. of the capital stock must be paid in and the remaining portion must be paid within six months thereafter. The stock holders in every bank or banking company shall be individually responsible to an amount over and above their stock equal to their respective shares of stock for all debts or liabilities of said bank or banking company, made, contracted or incurred during the time such persons were the owners of a portion of the stock of such association, to the extent of the amount of their stock therein, or the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares. The statute further provides that the bank shall keep at all times a correct list of shareholders with their names and addresses, and the number of shares of stock held by each, in the office where its business is transacted, and this list is subject to inspection by any shareholder or creditor of the association. The mode of transferring the stock or shares in a bank organized under the laws of Indiana is regulated by the by-laws of the association. The transfer of the stock on the stock book of the company relieves the holder from liability, except as provided by statute as herein set out. No bank shall receive, directly or indirectly, a greater rate of interest than shall be allowed by law to individuals loaning money. Every bank or banking company shall be required to cease all banking operations within twenty years from the time of its organization, and to close its business promptly thereafter. An officer of any bank cannot act as notary public in the business of the bank under penalty of fine. The president and cashier of banks of discount and deposit must annually make out a sworn statement of the financial condition of such banks, which must be published. A failure so to do subjects the delinquent to a fine of from $25 to $1,000. The Auditor of the State, as often as he deems necessary, must appoint a suitable person to make an examination of any such bank and report its condition to him. Five reports are required yearly to the Auditor from such banks, which must be published. The Auditor has power to call for a special report from any such association.

BANKS (Private).—All banks in Indiana not organized under the National Bank Act, are subject to examination by the Auditor of State of the State of Indiana, and this embraces partnerships as well as individuals engaged in carrying on a banking business. The supreme court of Indiana has sustained the validity of the act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, empowering the Auditor of State to examine private banks.

BULK SALE.—Our Supreme Court has upheld the bulk sale law, which makes it necessary that notice be given all creditors five days before selling out a business, or else a receiver can be appointed to take charge for benefit of creditors.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—To bind third parties must be acknowledged as deeds and recorded within ten days after execution. If a mortgagor of property secured by chattel mortgage is in possession and without the consent of the owner of the claim removes any of the property out of the county where it is mortgaged, or secretes or converts the same to his own use, or sells or transfers any part thereof, he is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding $200.

CONDITIONAL SALES.—The courts of Indiana have upheld conditional sales of personal property. Where there is a written contract providing that title shall not pass until the actual purchase price is paid, the courts hold the contract valid. Care is required, however, in preparing this contract.

CORPORATIONS.—Corporations may be organized under various Indiana laws. There is a separate act governing manufacturing and mining companies, also separate acts governing railroads, electrical railroads, insurance and voluntary associations.

The voluntary association act is very liberal, and under this act corporations may be organized to transact almost any kind of business. The books of the company must be kept in the State. The fees for incorporating are: State incorporation fee one-tenth of one per cent of authorized capital stock.

Secretary of State's fees	$1.50 to $2.50
Recorder's fee	1.00
Auditor's fee	2.00

There is no State license tax. Property of the corporation is assessed the same as individual property.

Parties desiring more definite information can write our correspondent at Indianapolis, Indiana, and will be answered promptly.

DEPOSITIONS. Depositions of witnesses, taken within or without the State, may be taken before any Judge, Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, Mayor or Recorder of a city, Clerk of a Court of Record, or Commissioner appointed by the Court to take depositions; but depositions cannot be taken before any person of kin to either party, or interested in the action. If depositions are taken before an officer not having an official seal, the authority of the official should be authenticated by the certificate of the clerk of a court of record.

DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION.—The property of a decedent dying intestate descends one third to the widow and two-thirds to the children. The widow takes her interest in the real estate in fee simple and the same is not liable for the general debts of the decedent. If there be no widow or children, but be father and mother and brothers and sisters, the property descends one half to the father and mother, and the residue to the brothers and sisters, Children of the half-blood inherit the same as of the whole blood; illegitimate children inherit from and through the mother.

DIVORCE.—Two years' residence in the State and six months in the county is required; residence must be proven by two resident free-holders. Divorce is granted for adultery, habitual drunkeness, cruelty, abandonment for two years, and failure to provide for two years.

EXECUTIONS.—Are a lien on all property real and personal of the judgment debtor in the county from date of issue from Superior or Circuit Court, and a lien on the personal property of the debtor in the township when issued by Justice of the Peace; levy of execution can be made any time after the issue, personal property must first be exhausted before real estate is sold. A resident householder is allowed $600 property as exempt from seizure or sale, but he must make sworn schedule of all his property within or without the State and file same with the officer holding the writ before exemption is allowed.

GARNISHMENT.—(See Attachment.) A creditor upon filing attachment proceedings, may also by filing proper affidavit have a writ of garnishment issued.

HOLIDAYS.—(See Negotiable Instruments.)

HOMESTEADS.—(See Execution.) A debtor is entitled to an exemption of $600 in property, real and personal, to be selected by him.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.—The wife holds her property free from debts of her husband. She may engage in separate business on her own account. She can become surety for her husband or any other person. She can only convey or mortgage her separate real estate by deed or mortgage in which her husband joins. She cannot mortgage her property to secure the debt of her husband or any other person. Married woman may now become surety, the old law being repealed, Act 1919, page 90.

INTEREST AND USURY. Legal rate is 6%, which may be taken in advance; contract rate is 8% which may also be taken in advance; excess is usury, penalty is the rebating of the excess charged.

JUDGMENTS.—Judgments are a lien on real estate for ten years; they may be revived at any time within twenty years. Judgment may be obtained at the first term of court after service, or during term of court after service of summons for ten days, and are a lien upon debtor's real property within the county for the ensuing ten years. An execution issued upon the judgment and in the hands of the proper officer binds the personal property of the debtor from the time the officer receives the writ, but where writs are in hands of different officers, the first levied has priority. Judgments bear 6 per cent. interest from rendition until paid. A judgment of a justice of the peace may become a lien on real estate by filing a transcript of the judgment in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county. A lien may be obtained upon debtor's land in another county by filing a transcript of the judgment in such latter county. Judgments in the United States Courts are liens in the county where the court is held, and may become a lien in any other county, by filing in the clerk's office of such county, a transcript from the U. S. Court.

LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS.—Actions shall be commenced within six years after the cause of action has accrued and not afterwards. 1st. On accounts and contracts not in writing. 2d. For use, rents and profits of real property 3d. For injuries to property, damages for detention thereof or recovering possession of personal property. 4th. For relief against frauds Actions for injuries to person and character must be commenced within two years; for the recovery of property sold on execution brought by the execution debtor or any person claiming under him, on title acquired after date of judgment within ten years.

Upon promissory notes, bills of exchange and other written contracts for the payment of money, ten years. Upon contracts in writing other than those for payment of money, upon judgments of record and for the recovery of the possession of real estate within twenty years. All other actions must be brought within fifteen years. A new promise to take the action out of the statute must be in writing properly signed.

MARRIED WOMAN.—(See Husband and Wife.)

MECHANICS' LIEN.—Any laborer, contractor, architect or material man may have a lien on real estate and buildings thereon for labor or materials done or furnished for the construction or repair of any building if within sixty days of completion of the building a notice of intention to hold a lien is filed. To secure this lien a notice must be filed in the recorder's office within the sixty days immediately preceding the completion of building.

MORTGAGES, FORECLOSURE OF.—A mortgage is foreclosed by an action in the superior or circuit courts. A decree of foreclosure is entered. A certified copy of the decree is issued to the sheriff, who after giving three weeks notice, sells the real estate; the debtor or owner of the equity of redemption or any junior lien holder may redeem within one year. If redemption be made by junior lien holder, he may have the property resold for the redemption money, and the junior lien, upon such second or subsequent sale, the time of redemption is not extended beyond the one year period. During the year of redemption, the debtor or owner of the equity of redemption is entitled to possession.

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.—The uniform negotiable instruments law was adopted by the legislature in 1913, and is now in effect in this state To facilitate their collection, promissory notes should contain the clause "payable without relief from valuation or appraisement laws, and with attorney fees." The provision for attorney's fees has been held to be legally enforceable, notwithstanding a statute of the State forbidding enforcement of any agreement to pay attorney's fees, depending upon any condition therein set forth made a part of any bill of exchange, acceptance, draft, promissory note or other written evidence of indebtedness." The agreement to pay attorney's fees should be explicit and unconditional, otherwise it is void. Commercial paper should also contain the clause, "The drawers and endorsers severally waive presentment for payment, protest and notice of non-payment." Grace is abolished. The Indiana law does not recognize judgment notes. Where the defense of non est factum is pleaded to an action on a promissory note or bill of exchange, the pleading must be verified by affidavit. Strictly, no commercial paper need be protested in order to hold the endorsers, except foreign bills of exchange, but for convenience in notifying parties to be held liable, it is the general custom to protest paper that is dishonored, as the notary is required to mail immediate notices to the several endorsers that the holder looks to them for payment. The holder of any negotiable note or bill of exchange may institute one suit against the maker or any number of parties liable to such holder, but shall not at the same term of court institute more than one suit on such note or bill. The suit must be brought in the county where one of the parties immediately liable resides and may be brought at any time within ten years of the execution of the instrument. The following days have been by legislative enactment declared legal holidays as to commercial paper, to wit: Sunday; January 1st; February 12th; February 22d; May 30th; July 4th; the first Monday in September, commonly known as Labor Day; October 12th; any day appointed or recommended by the President of the United States or the Governor of the State as a day of public fasting or thanksgiving, and the day of any general, national or State election. And when any of said holidays (other than Sunday) comes on Sunday, the Monday next succeeding shall be the legal holiday. When the date of maturity falls upon Sunday or a holiday, the instrument is payable on the next succeeding business day. Instruments falling due on Saturday shall be presented for payment on the next succeeding business day except that instruments payable on demand may at the option of the holder be presented for payment before noon on Saturday when that entire day is not a holiday.

REAL ESTATE.—The statute of Indiana covers all phases of the sale, transfer and ownership of real estate. A statutory form of deed is used The words "convey and warrant" are words of full covenant and embrace a full warranty; the words "release and quit claim" passes the present title, but would not operate upon an after acquired title.

REDEMPTION OF REAL ESTATE.—Real estate sold upon execution, decree or mortgage foreclosure may be redeemed at any time within one year from date of sale by any person holding title or having a lien thereon, by paying the amount for which the property sold with eight per cent. interest thereon from day of sale to date of redemption.

REPLEVIN.—Any person having the right to the possession of personal property may file replevin proceedings. The defendant has the right to give bond and retain the property; if defendant fails to give bond, plaintiff can give bond and take possession. If bond is not given by either party, possession remains in the defendant until cause be tried.

SEALS—Private seals are abolished are not required.

STATUTE OF FRAUDS.—No action shall be brought in any of the following cases: First, to charge an executor or administrator, upon any special promise, to answer damages out of his own estate; second, to charge any person, upon any special promise, to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another; third, to charge any person, upon any agreement or promise, made in consideration of marriage; fourth, upon any contract for the sale of lands; fifth, upon any agreement that is not to be performed within one year from the making thereof. Unless the promise, contract or agreement, upon which such action shall be brought, or some memorandum or note thereof, shall be in writing, and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or by some person thereunto, by him lawfully authorized; excepting, however, leases not exceeding the term of three years.

STAY OF EXECUTION.—Execution may be stayed by the judgment debtor giving freehold security for the payment of the judgment as follows: Sums not exceeding $6, thirty days; over $6 and under $12, sixty days; over $12 and under $20, ninety days; over $20 and under $40, one hundred and twenty days; over $40 and under $100, one hundred and fifty days; over $100, one hundred and eighty days. No stay is allowed on judgments for money received in a fiduciary or breach of official duty, nor to any corporation defendant

SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEEDINGS—After the issuing or return unsatisfied of an execution against a resident of the county, upon affidavit by or on behalf of the plaintiff, stating that the debtor has property (describing it) which he unjustly refuses to apply on the judgment, or stating that any person or corporation has property of such debtor, or is indebted to him, which, with the other exempt property, exceeds the amount exempt by law, such debtor and such person or corporation may be required to appear and answer concerning the same. The proceedings are summary, upon oral examination of parties and witnesses; and proper steps are thereupon taken for applications of debtor's property towards the judgment. If the affidavit further allege that there is danger of the debtor leaving the State, and that there is reason to believe that there is property, etc., which he refuses to turn over, with intent to defraud, the defendant will be arrested and held, unless he give bond for his appearance and that he will not dispose of his property. (R. S. 1908, sec. 8.8 et seq.)

TAXES.—Taxes become a lien on the first day of March of each year; they may be paid in two installments, the first half between January 1st and the first Monday in May, the last half payable on or before the first Monday in November. Assessments for public improvements may be paid on completion of the improvements or upon signing a waiver such assessment may be paid in ten annual installments, interest on deferred payment is computed at 6 per cent. payable semi-annually.

TRUST DEEDS.—(See Mortgages.)

WILLS.—Any person of sound mind and twenty-one years of age, may make a will. Neither husband or wife can, by will, bar the other of the statutory interest in the testator's property. A will must be in writing, signed by the testator, or by some one in his presence with his consent, and attested and subscribed in his presence and at his request and in the presence of each other by two or more competent witnesses; if executed in, but not according to the laws of this State, it shall not be admitted to probate; if executed outside this State, and probated in any other State or county, it may be filed for probate here. A witness to a will can not take more than his statutory share under the will; the remainder reverts to the other legatees. The birth of a child, after making a will, who survives the testator, revokes the will unless provision is made for such issue.

Acknowledgments of married women may be taken in same form as if they were sole, and without examination apart from husband.

ACTIONS.—Are commenced in courts of record by service of a notice on defendant signed by plaintiff or his attorney, stating name of plaintiff, that petition has been filed or when it will be filed (which must be ten days before next term), name of court, nature of cause of action and amount of money or character of relief demanded, and requiring appearance before noon of second day of next succeeding term of court, giving date thereof. This may be served by anyone not a party to the action. Service must be ten clear days before commencement of next term of court if within the county of suit; if without the county and in same judicial district, fifteen days; if without the judicial district, twenty days for each 1,000 miles or fraction thereof, between places of trial and service. Non-resident defendants may be served by publication of notice for four weeks, preceded by filing of an affidavit showing such non-residence, the last publication to be ten clear days before first day of next term. Petition must be filed on or before date named in notice (or case may be dismissed), and must state the facts relied upon for recovery. All forms of action are abolished.

The district court has original jurisdiction of all actions irrespective of amount, whether at law or in equity, and also of all criminal actions except for violations of city ordinances, and of all probate and other proceedings. It has appellate jurisdiction over justice and police courts and may review their proceedings on certiorari or writ of error. A filing fee of $1.50 is payable in advance on initiation of actions, with charges of 50 cents each additional thereto for approval of a bond, issuance of a writ, or making of order (as in injunction). All further costs follow the event of the suit, but in case a defeated defendant cannot be forced to pay them, costs may be taxed to and collected from plaintiff by proper proceedings. The court costs in a default case aggregate about five or six dollars.

Superior courts are authorized by law in cities of 7,000 inhabitants where desired by a majority of voters at the election to which same is submitted. Such court has original jurisdiction concurrent with district court in all civil matters, except probate proceedings and actions for divorce, alimony or separate maintenance. It supersedes the city police court and has exclusive original jurisdiction of all actions, civil and criminal, for violation of city ordinances, and same power as justices of the peace as a magistrate in violations of State laws. All laws applying to district court shall apply to such superior court as to venue, commencement of actions, jurisdiction, process, pleadings, practice, trial, judgment, execution and costs, where not inconsistent with statutory provisions creating court and defining its powers. Costs are about same as in district court.

Municipal Courts are also authorized in certain cities with jurisdiction similar to the Superior Courts. They are in continuous session and a hearing can be obtained with less delay than in the District and Superior Courts.

Justices of the peace have original jurisdiction of all civil actions (except those in equity or involving title to real estate) not involving more than $100, and by written consent of parties such jurisdiction may be increased to amounts not exceeding $300. Five days' notice of suit must be given defendant by written notice signed by plaintiff or his attorney, served as notices of suit in district court. Court costs on default case are $3 to $4. In criminal cases has full power as a committing magistrate, and may try and punish misdemeanors not requiring action by grand jury.

ADMINISTRATION.—May be had in the county of decedent's residence or in which he had property, at any time within five years after death becomes known. The district court has exclusive original jurisdiction in probate, and is always open for transaction of probate business. Notice of appointment of administrator or executor shall be given in manner prescribed by court, and claims may be filed at any time within one year thereafter. If not so filed, claims against estate are barred in the absence of peculiar circumstances entitling to equitable relief. Notice of filing claim should be served on administrator or executor; if allowed by him, no further action is required by claimant; if not allowed are deemed denied; if denied in whole or in part, jury trial may be had to determine the amount due.

Parties are entitled to apply for administration in following order, each class having in succession twenty days within which to make application, viz.: 1. Husband or wife. 2. Next of kin. 3. Creditors. 4. Any other person the court may select.

Unless expressly exempted by will from so doing, executors and administrators must give bond in such penalty as is required by the court, before entering on discharge of duties.

AFFIDAVITS.—Within the State may be taken before judges of the supreme, district, superior or police courts; clerks of such courts or their deputies; county auditors and their deputies; justices of the peace and notaries public, within county of their residence. For special purposes within duties of their offices. State officers, sheriffs, city officers and others are permitted to take affidavits. Without the State may be made before any judge or clerk of a court of record, notary public, or commissioner appointed by the Governor of this State; and the signature, or signature and seal, of such officers is presumptive evidence of the genuineness thereof as well as of the official character of such officer.

ARREST.—No arrest or imprisonment for debt except in case of fraud.

ATTACHMENT.—May be had at or after the commencement of any civil action for recovery of money. Levy may be made upon real or personal property, fifty per cent. greater than amount claimed; bond must be furnished in a penalty double the extent of such possible levy (or three times amount claimed), but never less than $250 in court of record or $50 in justices' court No attachment may issue where less than $5 is claimed to be due. Writ may issue from district, superior or justice courts within their jurisdiction: writ from district or superior courts may be sent to any county in the State and there levied.

On debt already due, attachment may be had on any of following grounds, to be set forth in petition and which shall not be stated in a ternative:

1. That defendant is a foreign corporation, 2. That he is a non-resident of State. 3. That he is about to remove property from State without leaving sufficient remaining for payment of debts. 4. That he has disposed of his property, in whole or in part, with intent to defraud creditors. 5. That he is about to so dispose of his property. 6. That he has absconded so that ordinary process cannot be served on him. 7. That he is about to permanently go out of county and has property therein not exempt from execution, and refuses to pay or secure plaintiff. 8. That he is about to permanently leave State and refuses to pay or secure plaintiff. 9. That he is about to remove property or a part of it from county with intent to defraud creditors. 10. That he is about to place property beyond reach of creditors by converting it into money. 11. That he has property which he conceals. 12. In case of establishment of such bank, the branches thereof shall be mutually responsible for each other's liabilities upon all notes and bills intended to circulate as money. No such bank has been established.

Since July 4, 1917, the State has a department known as the "Banking Department of Iowa." The chief officer of said department is styled "Superintendent of Banking." The effect of such legislation is to provide for not only a superintendent, but for the appointment and removal, salary and expenses of examiners and clerks in said department and to provide quarters, furniture and supplies for such department, and relieving the Auditor of State of all duties in connection with the management of the Banking Department of the State. Every corporation organized under the banking laws of the State is expressly restricted by Chapter 218 of the Laws of the 37th General Assembly in the manner of withdrawing any part of its capital stock, either in the form of dividends or otherwise. No reduction of capital or cancellation of stock can be made under such Act until the same shall first be approved by the Superintendent of Banks. The burglary of bank premises or the entering of such premises with intent to commit a hold-up or "stick-up" or robbery is made a special crime, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for life or for any term not less than ten years. Savings banks are permitted to loan money outside of the State of Iowa, but east of the 100th meridian line, such loans to be made upon unencumbered farm lands worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon.

BILLS AND NOTES—The uniform Negotiable Instruments Act is in force.

BLUE SKY LAW—Investment companies and stock brokers are required to obtain a permit from the Secretary of State before selling or offering for sale in any manner any stocks, bonds or other securities. The provisions of the act do not apply to the securities of the United States, State of Iowa, and other public corporations; or the securities of state, savings or national banks, trust companies, etc.; or promissory notes, mortgages and contracts issued in the ordinary course of business or the stock of any corporation organized under laws requiring that no stock be issued unless the par value is paid in full in cash, or property valued by some officer or commission; or the sale of securities at judicial sale or by administrators or executors.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—May be given to secure a debt but are void as to purchasers in good faith, unless duly acknowledged and recorded. CONDITIONAL SALES.—No sale, contract or lease wherein the transfer of title or ownership of personal property is made to depend upon any condition, shall be valid against any creditor or purchaser of the vendee or lessee in actual possession obtained in pursuance thereof, without notice, unless the same be in writing, executed by the vendor or lessor, acknowledged and recorded the same as chattel mortgages.

FOR PECUNIARY PROFIT.—May be formed by one or more persons to transact any lawful business and may continue twenty years, except railways, savings banks and insurance companies, which may continue for fifty years, with power of renewal. If name of an individual or individuals is adopted as name of corporation, it must be followed by word 'incorporated." Articles of incorporation must be signed, acknowledged and recorded in county where principal place of business is located, and also within five days thereafter, with Secretary of State; each of such officials shall charge a recording fee of fifty cents for each instrument of 400 words or less, and ten cents for each additional 100 words or fraction thereof; in addition the Secretary of State must receive a fee of $25 before issuance of certificate, and an additional $1 per thousand for all authorized stock in excess of $10,000; upon subsequent increase of authorized capital stock a fee of $1 per thousand shall be paid and recording fee of not less than fifty cents at the rate of ten cents per one hundred words.

When presented to the Secretary of State, he may refuse to file such articles if he is of the opinion that they are not in proper legal form or the object is contrary to public policy. The Attorney General is to decide on their legality and the Executive Council is made a Board of Appeal. Upon the recording thereof and payment of fees, certificate issues from Secretary of State and it may commence business. Its subsequent acts shall be valid if within three months from date of certificate it shall cause to be published in a newspaper, as convenient and practicable to principal place of business, once each week for four successive weeks, a notice stating its name and principal place of business, the general nature of business to be transacted, the amount of authorized capital stock and times and conditions of its payment, time of commencement and termination of corporation, by what officers or persons its affairs are to be conducted and the times and method of their election, the highest amount of indebtedness to which it shall at any one time subject itself, and whether private property is exempt from corporate debts. Failure to comply substantially with these provisions render stockholders individually liable.

Corporations are empowered to have perpetual succession; to sue and be sued by corporate name; to have a common seal alterable at pleasure; to render interests of stockholders transferable; to exempt private property of members from liability for corporate debts, to make contracts and acquire and transfer property the same as natural persons; and to establish by-laws and make regulations for managing affairs, but other than these they possess no power not possessed by natural persons.

Stockholders are liable to the amount of unpaid instalments on the stock owned by them or transferred to defraud creditors, but corporate property must be exhausted before individual liability can be enforced.

Corporate franchise may be sold on execution without thereby dissolving the corporation. Courts of equity may appoint receivers for any corporations, at action of attorney-general in name of State, or by stockholders or creditors. Non-user of franchise for two years at any one time shall cause forfeiture of same. Corporations may be renewed by proceedings substantially similar to those required on original incorporation, but opposing stockholders may require purchase of their stock at its real value by those desiring such renewal.

A copy of the by-laws and statements of amount of capital subscribed, amount actually paid in and amount of indebtedness, shall be kept posted in principal place of business, subject to public inspection, and shall be corrected as often as a material change therein occurs. In January of each year the corporation shall file with Secretary of State a list of its officers and directors and any change in place of business.

Changes in articles of incorporation may be made at any annual meeting or a special meeting called for the purpose, but to be valid must be recorded, approved and published as the original articles are. A corporation may be dissolved at any time by unanimous consent of stockholders, or in such manner as is provided in articles, but notice thereof shall be given in same manner as required for organization. All corporations are subject to legislative control; their articles of incorporation, by-laws rules and regulations may be altered, abridged or set aside, and every franchise used or enjoyed may be regulated, withheld or be subject to conditions imposed by general assembly, at any time, if deemed necessary for the public good.

Intentional fraud in failing to comply with articles of incorporation or deceiving public as to means or liabilities and the diversion of funds of corporation to objects other than those in articles and published notice, or payment of dividends without leaving sufficient funds to pay liabilities, are made misdemeanors punishable by fine or imprisonment or both, and shall work forfeiture of corporate privileges Intentional keeping of false accounts is made a misdemeanor, also

Transfers of stock are invalid (except as between the parties) unless regularly entered upon the books of the company; such transfer does not relieve party of any liability created or for acts done prior thereto Stock book must show names and interests of stockholders, amounts paid on stock and all transfers, and shall be open to inspection by any one desiring same.

No corporation, excepting Building and Loan Associations, shall issue stock until the corporation has received a par value therefor. If the corporation proposes to take anything but money for stock, it shall so report to the Executive Council, which body shall pass on value thereof, which valuation is made binding on the corporation.

The value of services performed in effecting the organization and promotion of new steam or electric rail ways and manufacturing industries within the State, and the reasonable discount allowed or commission paid in effecting the sale of bonds, shall be taken into consideration by the executive council in fixing the amount of capital stock that may be issued.

Corporations organized under laws of other States desiring to transact business in this State, shall file with Secretary of State a certified copy of articles of incorporation; same to be accompanied by a resolution of board of directors or stockholders authorizing such filing and authorizing service of process on any of its officers or agents transacting business in this State and requesting issuance of a permit to transact business, such permit to be subject to all provisions of Iowa law. Such application shall contain a statement verified by two of the principal officers, showing total authorized capital; total paid up capital; total value of all assets; total value of money and all other property in use or held as investment in the State of Iowa; total value of money and all other property proposed or expected to be made use of in the State during the ensuing year, and a certified copy of the resolution of the board of directors giving name and address in Iowa of a resident agent on whom the service of original notice of civil suits in the courts of this city may be served. Failing which, or in the event such agent may not be found within the state, service of such process may then be made upon said corporation through the Secretary of the State of Iowa This statement is subject to independent investigation by the Secretary of State. The corporation shall pay a filing fee of $25 upon $10,000 or less of money and property of such company and $1 per thousand of such money or property in excess of $10,000. The same recording fee must be paid as in the case of domestic corporations. If money or property in use in the State is increased, said corporation shall file a sworn statement thereof and pay a filing fee of $1 for each $1,000 of such increase. Doing business without such permit subjects corporation to liability for $100 per day, and its officers and agents are declared guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to fine or imprisonment or both. Corporations, except those engaged in banking business shall make an annual report to Secretary of State as to amount and value of stock, post office address, and names of officers and directors. On payment of one dollar a permit to do business issues good for one year. Non-compliance with these provisions results in dissolution.

Husband may obtain divorce on same grounds, and also if at time of marriage wife was pregnant by another without his knowledge, unless at time of marriage he had illegitimate child or children living which was unknown to wife If ground for divorce exists, court may decree separate maintenance. Allowance of temporary and permanent alimony, and direction as to custody of children, are within the discretion of court, and subject to change thereafter on change in condition of parties. By decree of divorce guilty party forfeits all rights acquired by marriage. Marriages may be annulled in the following cases: When between parties prohibited by law to marry, impotency of either party, where either had husband or wife living at time of marriage if no cohabitation after knowledge thereof and of death of former spouse, insanity or idiocy of either party. Where real estate or where personalty exceeding $200 in value is sold, notice of sale must be published, otherwise notice by posting is sufficient. Sale is at public outcry. All public property is exempt from execution. It shall embrace the dwelling and contiguous land, not exceeding one-half acre in, nor forty acres outside of, a town or city. A person starting to leave the State holds exempt only ordinary wearing apparel of family and $75 worth of other property. Unmarried persons, or non-residents of State, may hold exempt only ordinary wearing apparel and trunk to contain same. No property is exempt from execution issued for purchase money thereof.

Garnishee is entitled to same fees as a witness. Officer may take answer of garnishee, or notify him to appear at a time certain to make answer. Such answer is under oath, and may be controverted by plaintiff, and on the issues formed a jury trial may be had. If garnishee fails to appear and answer, when fees are tendered, he shall be presumed to be indebted to full amount due, but no judgment shall be entered against him without opportunity to show cause against the same. Garnishee may exonerate himself by turning money or property over to officer, or sufficient to satisfy debt. If the plaintiff has or ultimately recovers judgment and it appears that garnishee has money of defendant judgment may be entered against him therefor or to such amount as is necessary to discharge the principal judgment and costs; if he have property of debtor, judgment may be entered for delivery thereof to officer, when it shall be sold as though taken under execution. If debt is not yet due defendant from garnishee, execution shall be suspended until its maturity. If debt is evidenced by negotiable paper, garnishee shall not be held liable unless such paper be delivered or garnishee exonerated or indemnified from all liability thereon. Appeals lie from any action affecting the defendant, garnishee, or any intervenor claiming an interest in the property, but as between garnishee and defendant the judgment is conclusive unless appeal be taken.

But the one-third interest of either in estate of other as survivor (in lieu of dower and curtesy) cannot be made subject of contract between them after marriage, and both must join in conveyance of realty to bar such claim. The property of both is liable for family expenses and education of children. Both must sign same joint instrument to encumber exempt real or personal property. Neither is liable for debts or torts of the other.

All judgments of superior and district courts continue to be a lien on real estate in county for ten years from date when made of record. Execution can be issued thereon for twenty years from date of rendition and become a lien on real estate as soon as levy is made thereunder.

Principal contractor has ninety days, and sub-contractor sixty days, from date of furnishing last item of a continuous account, within which to file such claim for lien; when so filed such claimant is protected against payments made during such time aside from those provided for in written contract governing erection or improvement. But such claim may be filed at any time within two years, if without prejudice to rights of owner or others in good faith relying on absence of such filing. In work on railway, subcontractor has sixty days from last day of month in which work was done to file such claim. Subcontractor must also serve notice of filing claim on owner, only for purpose of preventing payments by him to contractor. So filed, such liens take precedence in order of filing as among themselves and are prior to incumbrances arising subsequent to commencement of improvement, or to garnishments of owner at any time for the contract debts, and cover all the land, all improvements, and, where railroad or other similar work is involved, cover all rolling stock, road-bed, etc. But owner cannot be made liable in excess of contract price, and is protected in payments made in compliance with contract. Miners are given a similar lien on all property of company or owner, used in operation of coal mine.

MORTGAGES, FORECLOSURE OF.—Mortgages on realty are foreclosed only by equitable action in court of record. Chattel mortgages may be so foreclosed, or by notice and sale in manner provided in the instrument, or by notice and sale under statute, by giving proper notice to mortgagee and subsequent purchasers or incumbrancers and by publication of notice.

REAL ESTATE.—Instruments affecting, must be recorded to charge subsequent good faith purchasers or incumbrancers. Every conveyance is presumed to pass all title of the grantor unless contrary intent can reasonably be inferred therefrom; conveyance of greater interest than is held will operate to pass such interest if afterwards acquired by grantor. Adverse possession for ten years (under claim of right or color of title) gives title, except as against minors or insane persons. Trusts arising other than by operation of law must be evidenced as deeds of conveyance. Future estates may be created. Husband and wife may contract as to separate property as though sole, but must join in conveyance of property by the other in order to bar right as surviving spouse. Estates of dower and curtesy abolished; instead, surviving spouse (either husband or wife) takes absolutely an undivided one-third in value of all property; if no issue, such survivor takes one-half. Use of private seals is abolished. Corporate seals must be attached to instruments affecting real estate, but not of necessity otherwise.

REDEMPTIONS.—Sales of personal property and of leasehold interest in realty having unexpired term of less than two years, under general or special execution, are absolute and no redemption is allowed. On sale of real estate, debtor may redeem within one year after sale; for first six months, such right is exclusive; from six to nine months after sale, any creditor whose claim becomes a lien prior to expiration of such nine months may redeem; thereafter and within one year only debtor can redeem. Redemption is made by paying into office of clerk of court the amount necessary to pay debt, interest and costs, and stating what amount (if less than whole claim) will be allowed as a credit on claim if junior lien holder desires redemption thereafter; subsequent redemptions must cover all prior claims so redeeming or included in sale, but senior creditor may redeem from junior without paying such junior creditor's claim. On expiration of year, the last party redeeming, or the purchaser at sale, is entitled to property absolutely.

SALES OF STOCKS OF GOODS, ETC.—IN BULK.—No sale of stocks of goods, wares or merchandise in bulk can be made in a single transaction not in the regular course of business, unless the buyer shall give at least seven days' notice to all creditors.

Can be had when writ of certiorari is desired by giving bond in a sum to be fixed by the court.

Stay of execution may be had if, within ten days after rendition of a money judgment, defendant files bond with one or more sureties, to be approved by the clerk, conditioned to pay such judgment with interest and costs; if less than $100, stay may be had for three months; if more than $100, for six months. No appeal is allowable after such stay is obtained.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS.—When execution has issued and been returned unsatisfied on any judgment, the debtor may be cited to appear before the court, or a referee by it appointed, for examination touching his property; other witnesses may be required to attend and testify; if property is discovered a receiver may be appointed and property ordered delivered to him, or it may be reached on execution. Failure to appear or answer is punishable as a contempt, by imprisonment until requirements of law are complied with by debtor; if it appear to the court that there is danger of escape or concealment of debtor he may be arrested and required to furnish bond for appearance from time to time.

Summary relief by motion on ten days' notice may be had by sureties against principals or co-sureties, by clients against attorneys, and by parties against sheriffs and other officers, for money collected or payments made, to be heard without formal pleadings by the court.

If a spouse, child or parent survive testator, no more than one-fourth of estate can be devised to any corporation not for pecuniary profit. Personal property not in excess of $300 may be bequeathed by verbal will witnessed by two competent persons; if value exceeds $300, it is valid only to that extent; but soldier in service or mariner at sea may dispose of all his estate by verbal will so witnessed. All other wills must be in writing, signed by testator (or by another for him in his presence and at his express direction), witnessed by two competent persons who shall sign their names certifying that it was done in testator's presence and at his request and in the presence of each other. No subscribing witness can derive benefit from will unless there be two other competent witnesses, but if he would be entitled to a part of estate without a will he may take such portion to the extent in value of devise to him therein. Revocation can be had only by cancelation or destruction at instance of testator or by making another will. Trustees appointed by will shall give bond same as executors unless relieved by will. Trusts may thus be created, independent of the immediate probate proceeding, to endure thereafter, and courts have power to appoint new trustees and effectuate purposes of trust.

KANSAS.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the State of Kansas, prepared by J. G. SLONECKER, Attorney at Law, Topeka, Kan.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS within the State must be made before a judge or clerk of a court having a seal, a justice of the peace, notary public, County Clerk, Register of Deeds, or Mayor or clerk of an incorporated city. Every notary public shall add to his official signature the date of the expiration of his commission as notary public. In cases where the acknowledgment is made out of the State it must be made before a Court of record, a clerk or other officer having the seal thereof, a Commissioner of Deeds for Kansas, justice of the peace or notary public, or before any Consul of the United States, resident in any foreign country or port. When the acknowledgment is made before a justice of the peace, some clerk of a court of record must certify to his official position. If acknowledged according to the laws of the State where executed it is good here. No statutory form. (See Real Estate.)

ACTIONS.—Civil actions are begun in the courts by filing a petition and præcipe in the office of the clerk, and causing summons to issue thereon. Security for costs must be given by the plaintiff in each case. Non-resident plaintiffs may deposit a sum of money satisfactory to the clerk, and residents can deposit $15 in lieu of bond for costs. Actions concerning real estate must be brought in the county in which the land, or a part of it, is situated; other actions must be brought in the county in which the defendants or some one of them reside or may be summoned, except actions against foreign corporations and non-residents, and in the latter case the action may be brought in any county where the defendant has property or debts owing to him. Actions against domestic corporations may be brought in the county in which the corporation is situated or has its principal place of business, or in which any of the principal officers reside or may be summoned. If the corporation is an insurance company, the action may be brought in the county where the cause of action or some part thereof, arose; and as to foreign insurance companies the summons may be served upon the State superintendent of insurance Actions for divorce may be brought in the county of which the plaintiff is an actual resident. There, district courts in such county with general original jurisdiction, also justices of the peace. In some counties, city or county courts. The Supreme Court has appellate jurisdiction.

ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES.—Probate courts in each county have jurisdiction of estates. Executors or administrators must give bond in double the amount of the value of the estate, but in the case of executors where the will provides that no bond shall be required the court shall not require any. Letters of administration shall be granted to the widow or next of kin, unless they voluntarily renounce the same. An inventory of the estate must be filed within sixty days with the probate court, and the personal property shall be appraised by three persons appointed by the court. Personal property liable to the payment of debts shall be sold within three months, at least two weeks' notice being required in some newspaper of general circulation in the county. Demands against the estate are divided into the following classes: First, funeral expenses; second, expenses of the last sickness, wages of servants, demands for medicines and medical attendance during the last sickness and expense of administration; third, debts due the State; fourth, judgments rendered against the deceased in his lifetime, but if such judgments are liens upon real estate and the estate be insolvent, such judgments shall be paid without reference to classification except the first two which have precedence; fifth, all demands without regard to quality which shall be legally exhibited against the estate in one year after granting letters of administration; sixth, all demands thus exhibited after the end of one year and within two years. Demands not exhibited within two years are barred, except as to infants, persons of unsound mind or persons imprisoned or absent from the United States, who shall have three years after the removal of their disabilities. If the personal property is insufficient to pay the debts, the executor or administrator shall apply to the probate court for authority to sell the real estate. Notice of this application must be given in such manner and for such length of time as the court designates. The real estate must be appraised and four weeks' notice given in some newspaper of general circulation, and cannot sell for less than two-thirds of the appraised value, and the executor or administrator cannot become either directly or indirectly the purchaser at the sale. The court may order the real estate sold at private sale, in which case it shall not be sold for less than three-fourths of the appraised value. Foreign executors, and administrators with the will annexed, may sell real estate in this State in accordance with the power contained in the will, unless administration upon the estate has been granted in this State; provided, that at the time of such conveyance a copy of such will has been recorded in the office of the probate court in the county in which the land is situated.

AFFIDAVITS.—Affidavits may be made in or out of the State by the same authority and with like authentication as depositions.

ARREST.—A defendant may be arrested in a civil action upon filing an affidavit with the clerk of the court that he has removed or begun to remove his property out of the jurisdiction of the court with intent to defraud his creditors; or has begun to convert his property into cash, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or has property which he fraudulently conceals: or fraudulently contracted the debt. The affidavit must contain a statement of the facts claimed to justify the belief in the existence of one or more of the above, and a bond must be furnished that the plaintiff will pay damages in case the order of arrest is wrongfully obtained.

ATTACHMENT.—The creditor in a civil action for the recovery of money may, at or after the commencement thereof, have an attachment against the property of the debtor, where the debtor or one of several debtors is a foreign corporation or non-resident of the State (but no attachment shall be granted on the ground or grounds in this clause stated, for any claim other than a debt or demand arising upon contract, judgment or decree, unless the cause of action arose wholly within the limits of this State, which fact must be established on the trial), or where the debtor or one of several debtors has absconded with intent to defraud his creditors; or has left the county of his residence to avoid the service of a summons; or so conceals himself that a summons can not be served upon him; or is about to remove his property or a part thereof out of the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; or is about to convert his property or a part thereof into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or has property or rights in action which he conceals; or has assigned, removed or disposed of, or is about to dispose of his property or a part thereof, with the intent to defraud, hinder or delay his creditors; or fraudulently contracted the debt, or fraudulently incurred the liability or obligation, for which suit is about to be or has been brought; or when the damages for which the action is brought are for the injuries arising from the commission of some felony or misdemeanor, or the seduction of some female; or when the debtor has failed to pay for any article or thing delivered, for which by contract he was bound to pay on delivery.

BANKS AND BANKING.—There is no constitutional provision in regard to banks, except banks of issue. The incorporation of banks is provided for in a general law and cannot be incorporated by the legislature. Under the provisions of that law, such banks are authorized "to carry on the business of receiving money on deposit, and to allow interest thereon, giving to the person depositing credit therefor; and of buying and selling exchange, gold, silver, coin, bullion, uncurrent money, bonds of the United States, the State of Kansas, and of the city, county, and school district in which any association shall be organized; of loaning money on real estate and personal security, at a rate of interest not to exceed 10 per cent. per annum and of negotiable notes and notes not negotiable; capital stock shall not be less than $10,000, and all must be subscribed and fifty per cent. paid in before the bank can begin business, and at least ten per cent. more paid in each month, until all is paid. Each bank must at all times have on hand in available funds 20 per cent. of its deposits, one half of which may consist of balances due from good solvent banks and the other half of cash on hands. Liability to bank of any person, company, corporation or firm shall not exceed 15 per cent. of amount of capital and surplus. Private banks are regulated by the same law. Four reports must be made each year to the bank commissioner. These reports are substantially the same as those required of National banks and must also be published. The commissioner must examine each bank at least once each year and oftener if he desires to do so. No dividends shall be paid except out of net profits after deducting losses and bad debts, and at least one-tenth of net profits must be carried to surplus until surplus equals half the capital. Stockholders are individually liable to creditors of the bank to an extent equal in amount to the amount of the stock subscribed by them, together with any amount unpaid thereon. This liability is enforced rigidly by the courts and no sale of the stock will relieve a stockholder from any debt incurred by the corporation prior to the sale of his stock in good faith. Not necessary to advertise a sale of stock to be relieved of subsequent debts if sale is in good faith. Any officer or director assenting to the reception of deposits after he has knowledge that the bank is insolvent or in a failing condition is individually liable for the amount of such deposit. He is also liable to prosecution for larceny under such circumstances. It is made the duty of officers and directors to examine into the condition of the bank, and a failure so to do is held to be equivalent to actual knowledge of its condition.

The legislature of 1909 provided for a voluntary system of guaranty for deposits. Banks may deposit with the State Treasurer bonds or cash amounting to a certain per cent of their deposits and calls may be made by the State Bank Commissioner not exceeding five in any one year, for the purpose of a guaranty fund. If a bank fails it is administered by the banking department and after the assets have been exhausted this guaranty fund is called upon to supply the deficiency.

DEPOSIT GUARANTY FUND — Any bank may participate in the guaranty funds act. Such bank must deposit with the State Treasurer money or funds of the United States, State of Kansas or of any county, township, school district, board of education or city within the State to the amount of $500 for each $100,000 or fraction thereof of its deposits eligible to guaranty (less its capital and surplus).

It shall also pay in cash an amount equal to one-twentieth of one per cent. of its average deposits eligible to guaranty.

In January of each year the commissioner shall make assessments of one-twentieth of one per cent. of the average guaranty deposits of each bank until the cash fund accumulated amounts to $500,000. If the fund becomes depleted the commissioner may make additional assessments of the same size, provided that not more than five shall be made in any one year.

If a bank fails the bank commissioner takes charge and winds up its affairs. He issues to each depositor a certificate bearing 6 per cent. interest. After all assets of the bank have been realized upon, the commissioner draws checks upon the State Treasury, payable out of the guaranty fund for the balance due. If the amount available is not sufficient to pay all such deposits the depositors are paid pro rata and the remainder paid out of the next assessment.

Deposits which are primarily re-discounts and all deposits otherwise secured do not participate, nor does the act apply to a bank's obligation as indorser upon bills re-discounted nor to bills payable, nor to money borrowed temporarily from its correspondents or others. Banks are prohibited from advertising that deposits are guaranteed by the State but are permitted to advertise that deposits are guaranteed by the bank depositors guaranty fund.

BILLS AND NOTES.—The Negotiable Instruments act took effect June 8, 1905. January 1st, February 22nd, May 30th, July 4th, December 25th, First Monday in September and Thanksgiving are holidays.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—Every chattel mortgage or conveyance intended to operate as such, which shall not be accompanied by an immediate delivery and followed by an actual and continued change of possession of the thing mortgaged, shall be absolutely void as against the creditors of the mortgagor and subsequent purchasers and mortgagees in good faith, unless the mortgage or a true copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the register of deeds in the county where the property is at the time, or the mortgagor shall at the time be a resident. And every such mortgage shall be void as against the creditors of the mortagors or subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith after the expiration of two years after same was filed, unless within thirty days next preceding the expiration of said year, and each two years thereafter the mortgagee, his agent or attorney, shall make an affidavit exhibiting the interest of the mortgagee in the property at that time, and the amount yet due thereon. But such affidavit may be filed any time if no purchase or lien in good faith has intervened, or the mortgagee after the year and without affidavit may secure himself by taking possession. Such affidavit shall be attached to and filed with the original mortgage. There is no stipulated time in which mortgage is to be foreclosed. A mortgagee of chattels, after condition broken, may sell on ten days' notice by posted hand-bills. Or, if the mortgage so provides, he may sell at private sale; or if the mortgagee has taken possession (as authorized to do at any time), the mortgagor or a subsequent mortgagee may demand sale on notice as above.

CONDITIONAL SALES.—Conditional contracts, by which the ownership remains in the party proposing to sell until the purchase price is paid, are treated as chattel mortgages and must be filed in the office of the register of deeds in the same manner as such chattel mortgages.

CORPORATIONS.—Corporations are formed under a general statute, but there are separate provisions regulating the different kinds of corporations and to some extent the requirements of their organization. Prospective corporations must apply to the Charter Board, composed of the Attorney General, the Secretary of State, and the State Bank Commissioner, for a charter. A $25 application fee must accompany an application. Before a charter is granted the capitalization fee must be paid of one tenth of one per cent on the first $100,000 and one twentieth of one per cent of all above that amount, together with $2.50 for filing and recording the same. Any increase of capital stock pays a capitalization fee computed in the same manner. The application for charter must set forth: 1. Name desired. 2. The name of the post office where the principal office is to be located. 3. The full nature and character of the business in which the corporation proposes to engage. 4. The names and addresses of proposed incorporators. 5. The proposed amount of the capital stock. The charter must set forth: 1. Name. 2. The purpose for which it is formed. 3. The place or places where its business is to be transacted. 4. The term for which it is to exist (not over 50 years). 5. The number of its directors and the names and residences of those appointed for the first year. 6 The amount of its capital and the number of shares into which it is divided. 7. The names and addresses of the stockholders and the number of shares held by each. The charter may limit the amount of stock any person may own or vote either directly or indirectly. The persons signing the charter must acknowledge the execution of the same in the same manner as the execution of a deed is acknowledged, and the same is then filed with the Secretary of State, and the organization of the corporation dates from the date of filing. Every corporation must commence active operations within one year after filing its charter with the Secretary of State; failure to do so works its dissolution. No corporation can commence business until it files with the Secretary of State an affidavit made by its president and secretary setting forth that not less than twenty per cent. of its capital stock has been paid in actual cash. The name adopted must indicate the nature of the business. The corporate name must begin with the word "the" and end with the word "corporation," "company," "association," or "society," but this does not apply to banks, benevolent or religious societies. There must be at least five directors, three of whom must be residents of the State. Directors must be stockholders, but with a few exceptions no requirement is made as to the number of shares they must own. The treasurer is required to have an office in the State. The annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of directors must be held within the State, but the directors may hold meetings at such places as they desire. The annual statement shall be made by the president and secretary or the managing officer of each corporation for profit doing business in Kansas, excepting banking, insurance, and railroad corporations in February of each year, showing a complete detailed statement of the condition of such corporation, on the thirty-first day of December preceeding. The statement shall set forth and exhibit: First, the authorized capital stock; second, the paid-up capital stock; third, the par value and the market value per share of said stock; fourth, a complete and detailed statement of the assets and liabilities of the corporation; fifth, a full and complete list of the stockholders, with the post-office addresses of each and the number of shares held and paid for by each; sixth, the names and post-office addresses of the officers, trustees or directors, and manager elected for the ensuing year, together with a certificate of the time and manner in which such election was held: failure to file this report within ninety days from time fixed works a forfeiture of the charter; also to file with the Secretary of State as soon as any transfer, sale, or change of ownership of any of the corporation stock is made as shown upon the books of the company, giving the name and shares of the new stockholder or stockholders, the number of shares so transferred, and the par value and the amount paid on such stock. The capital stock can be increased to an amount not exceeding three times the original amount fixed in the charter. Capital may also be decreased. Preferred stock can be issued if 75% of the holders of common stock consent. Dividends cannot be declared from any source other than that which results from profits. The corporation can borrow money not to exceed the amount of its capital Stock. Corporations, except banks, insurance companies and building and loan associations, are subject to a franchise tax upon the amount of their capital stock, varying from $10 where the capital stock is $10,000 or less to $2,500 where the capital stock is $5,000,000 or more. Foreign corporations doing business in this State are subject to the same tax upon that portion of their capital invested or used in the State. There are laws regulating banks, insurance companies, railroads, and other such corporations, and also regulating more in detail the manner in which corporations organized under the laws of other States may do business within this State. (See Banks, also Trust Companies.)

Corporations other than building and loan associations trust companies, insurance companies and banks are authorized to issue stock without nominal or par value.

DEPOSITIONS.—May be taken before any officer authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds, provided he is not a relative or attorney for either party, or interested in the action. They are taken on notice, or a commission may be appointed by the court.

DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION.—The homestead is the absolute property of the widow and children—one-half in value to the widow, and the other half to the children, when both survive. The homestead cannot be divided or sold by an action for partition until all the children attain majority. One-half of all real estate owned by husband during coverture, and not conveyed by husband and wife, nor sold at judicial sale, and not necessary to pay debts, goes to the wife in fee simple; except of land sold by husband whose wife never resided in the State. Remaining estate goes to the surviving children, and living issue of prior deceased children, children taking per stirpes, in equal shares or, if none, to the widow. For want of wife or child the whole estate goes to the parents. The rules applicable to widow of deceased husband apply to husband of deceased wife. Illegitimate children inherit from the mother, and also from the father, if his recognition has been general and notorious, or in writing. When a child would inherit from either parent, such parent will inherit from the child. Personal property descends in the same way as real estate. Inheritance taxes are provided for in varying percentages for different classes of heirs or devisees. (See Exemptions.)

DIVORCE.—Divorces are only granted by district court for the following causes: Former marriage, one year's abandonment, adultery, impotency, pregnancy of wife by other than her husband, extreme cruelty, fraudulent contract, habitual drunkenness, gross neglect of duty, conviction of felony, and an action may be commenced to declare the marriage void for want of capacity of understanding of the parties. The plaintiff must have resided in the State one year, and sue in the county of residence. In case of service by publication, a certified copy of petition and notice, within three days after first publication, must be mailed to the defendant, and such service must be proved by affidavit, or the plaintiff must make affidavit that the residence of the defendant is unknown. Each party may testify. The wife's name may be changed and the custody of the children awarded to her. A decree of alimony has the same effect, and may be enforced as any other money judgment. Divorce is no bar to future marriage. Proceedings to reverse decree of divorce must be commenced within six months after its rendition, during which time it is bigamy for either party to marry. Alimony may be sued for without divorce. The county attorney of each county is made divorce proctor, and it is his duty to appear and defend in each case.

EXECUTIONS.—May be ordered as soon as judgment is obtained. It is the duty of the justice, without any order, to issue execution within ten days from rendition of judgment. Personal property levied on must be appraised, and advertised for ten days, and sold at auction to the highest bidder. There is no stay of execution in the district court, except where a case is taken to the supreme court on appeal, and then only upon the giving of proper bonds. In justices' courts, by filing bond, stays of execution are granted as follows: On any judgment for $20 and under, thirty days; over $20 and under $50, sixty days; over $50 and not exceeding $100, ninety days; over $100, one hundred and twenty days. The legislature of 1893 enacted a law providing for the redemption of real estate sold on execution or order of sale, giving the debtor eighteen months in which to redeem. It provides that where there are several creditors, that after the sale the debtor shall have twelve months, and if he fails to redeem, then creditors may redeem from each other for three months. The debtor is entitled to possession of the property during the period provided for redemption, and no receiver can be appointed unless he commits waste. Any contract waiving a right of redemption is invalid. This law does not apply to contracts in existence at the time the law took effect.

EXEMPTIONS.—Homestead of 160 acres of farming and, or of one acre within an incorporated town or city, with buildings thereon, unlimited in value. Every person residing in this State, and being the head of a family, shall have exempt from seizure upon attachment or execution, or other process issued from any court in this State; family Bible, school books, and family library; family pictures and musical instruments used by the family; all wearing apparel of the family, all beds, bedsteads and bedding used by the debtor and his family, one cooking stove and appendages, and all other cooking utensils, and all other stoves and appendages necessary for the use of the debtor and his family; one sewing machine, spinning wheel, and all other implements of industry, and all other household furniture not herein enumerated, not exceeding $500; two cows, ten hogs, one yoke of oxen and one horse or mule, or in lieu of one yoke of oxen and horse or mule, a span of horses or mules, and twenty sheep and their wool; necessary food for the support of such stock for one year; one wagon, two plows, drag, and other farming utensils, not exceeding $300; grain, meat, vegetables, groceries, etc., for the family for one year; the tools and implements of any mechanic, miner, or other person, kept for the purpose of carrying on his business, and in addition thereto stock in trade not exceeding $400 in value; library, implements, and office furniture of any professional man. Also personal earnings of the debtor earned during three months preceding the garnishment or attachment, and three months' pension money where such earnings or pension money is necessary for the support of the debtor's family. A lien on the homestead may be created by husband and wife joining in the mortgage, also for material used in improvements thereon. Residents, not the head of a family, have tools, implements, and stock in trade up to $400, exempt from execution.

FRAUDS—Statute of.—Gifts of chattels made in trust for the donor are void. Gifts or grants of any kind of property with intent to hinder and delay creditors are void. Sales of land not in writing with no charge of possession or partial payment are void.

HOLIDAYS.—(See Bills and Notes.)

HOMESTEADS.—(See Exemptions.)

HUSBAND AND WIFE.—(See Married Women.)

INTEREST.—Legal rate, six per cent., but ten per cent. may be agreed upon. Excess of ten per cent. is forfeited, and in addition thereto there shall be deducted from the amount due for principal, with lawful interest, an amount equal to the interest contracted for in excess of ten per cent.

JUDGMENTS of courts of record are liens on real estate of debtor within the county, but lose their priority over subsequent judgments unless execution is issued and levied within one year after judgment. The lien can be extended to other counties by filing certified copies of judgment. Lien continues for five years, and may be revived within one year thereafter; but the issuance of execution prevents the judgment from becoming dormant until the expiration of five years from date of issue of each execution. Justices' judgments become liens on filing transcript in District Court of the county in which they were rendered.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS.—An action for the recovery of real property, sold on execution or by executors, administrators or guardians, brought by the execution debtor, or the heirs, ward or guardian, or any claiming under them after date of judgment or order of sale must be within five years after the deed is recorded. To recover by holder of tax deed within two years, and against holder of tax deed within five years after recording of tax deed. Other actions for recovery of real property, within fifteen years after the cause of action accrues. On official bonds and contracts in writing, five years. Contracts not in writing, three years. Trespass, detinue, replevin, injuries not arising on contract and relief on the ground of fraud, two years. Action for libel, slander, malicious transaction or false imprisonment upon a suit for penalty or forfeiture, except where the statute enclosing it, described a different limitation, one year. Action for any other relief not before provided for, five years. Any agreement for a different time for the commencement of actions from the times mentioned, is void.

MARRIED WOMEN have same rights as men concerning property and business, and may carry on trade, sue and be sued, and sell or convey their real estate, precisely as their husbands can. The estates of dower and curtesy have been abolished. Homestead is absolute property of widow and children, and widow takes in fee simple one-half of all other real estate owned by the husband during coverture, unless she joined in the conveyance thereof, or same was sold at judicial sale.

MECHANICS' LIENS—Are allowed for mechanics, laborers, contractors and material men, for buildings, improvements and repairs.

MORTGAGES and conveyances of real estate, to be valid against subsequent bona fide purchasers, must be duly acknowledged and recorded within the county. Are foreclosed by suit only, in which all parties in interest are made parties defendant. Mortgages may be discharged on margin of the record by mortgagee or attorney or assignee in presence of the register or by an independent release duly acknowledged and recorded. Wife must join in all mortgages except those for purchase money. By an Act of the Legislature, which took effect May 18, 1893, real estate sold under foreclosure of mortgage is subject to eighteen months redemption, but for purchase money mortgages the redemption period is six months. This act does not apply to mortgages executed prior to the date the act took effect. When a mortgage is assigned, the assignment should be acknowledged and recorded. If the assignment was executed prior to March 15, 1899, it can be recorded whether acknowledged or not, and under the law must be recorded within four months from that date.

REAL ESTATE.—All instruments of writing for the conveyance or incumbrance of real estate within this State, executed and acknowledged, or proved in any other State, Territory, or country, in conformity with the laws of such State, Territory, or country, or in conformity with the laws of this State, shall be as valid as if executed within the State. Husband and wife must join in conveyance of real estate. Grantors need not attach any seal or scroll to their signatures and no witnesses are necessary, unless grantors are unable to write. Corporations convey by deed sealed with the corporation seal and signed by the president, vice-president, presiding member or trustee. (See Acknowledgments, Discounts, Executions Mortgages, etc.)

REDEMPTION.—(See Executions and Mortgages.)

REPLEVIN.—The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of specific personal property may claim the immediate delivery of the same by filing affidavit and giving bond. Property replevined must be held by the officer taking it twenty-four hours, during which time the party from whom the property is taken may give bond to the plaintiff for not less than double the amount of the value thereof conditioned for the return of the same or its value in case it shall be adjudged the plaintiff is entitled thereto, and thereupon may have the property returned to him.

SALES IN BULK prohibited unless notice is given to creditors.

SEALS.—Use of seals is abolished, except as to corporations and officers

STAY OF PROCEEDINGS.—(See Executions.)

TAXES are assessed as of March 1st in each year. Real estate taxes become a lien November 1st. One-half of both personal and real must be paid on or before December 20th, the other half on or before the 20th of the following June. In default of payment real estate is sold the following September. Deed issues in three years unless sooner redeemed.

TRUST DEEDS—As mortgages, are not used.

TRUST COMPANIES.—Trust companies may be organized to receive moneys in trust, to perform any duties committed to them by any person, corporation or company, or by the order of any court, to take and accept by grant, bequest or otherwise, any real or personal estate, and execute legal trusts in regard to the same and to execute or guarantee bonds required in any proceeding in law or equity, to act as the agent for the investment of money for other persons and as registering and countersigning agent, to act as guardian of infants or insane persons, to guarantee the fidelity and performance of duty of persons holding places of public or private trust, and to certify and guarantee title to real estate. The capital stock shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars nor more than one million dollars, and twenty per cent. must be paid in before the company b gins business. The majority of the directors must be residents of the State of Kansas and each of them must hold not less than one thousand dollars of stock. Such companies are under the supervision of the bank commissioner.

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS.—Uniform Warehouse Receipt Act.

WILLS.—Any person of full age and sound mind and memory, having an interest in real or personal property, may give and devise the same to any person by last will and testament lawfully executed, subject, nevertheless, to the rights of creditors. Wills must be in writing, signed at the end by the testator, or another in his presence and by his express direction, and subscribed in his presence by two or more competent witnesses who saw him subscribe or heard him acknowledge it. Compliance with these requirements should appear in the witnessing clause. A will executed without this State in the mode prescribed by the law, either of the place where executed or of the testator's domicile, is effectual in this state provided it is in writing and subscribed by the testator. Every will, when admitted to probate, shall be filed in the office of the probate court, and recorded.

KENTUCKY.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the State of Kentucky, prepared by W. WORTHINGTON, Attorney and Counselor at Law, Lexington, Ky.

ARREST.—A defendant may be arrested at or after the commencement of an action upon plaintiff's affidavit showing the nature, amount and justice of his claim, and that the defendant is about to depart from this State with the intent to defraud his creditors, and has concealed or removed his property or so much thereof from this State that the process of the court after judgment can not be executed; or that the defendant has money, or securities for money, or evidences of debt, in the possession of himself, or of others for his use, and is about to depart from this State without leaving property therein sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's claim. Plaintiff must give bond to pay all damages not exceeding double the amount sued for.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY.—There is no provision for the discharge of an insolvent debtor unless debts are paid in full. A general assignment for benefit of all creditors may be made and claims are proven as in the case of a decedent's estate, except that no other person than the claimant is required to make affidavit. The Trustee must give bond and settle his accounts in two years. If a debtor in contemplation of insolvency and with a design to prefer a creditor shall sell or transfer to him any property subject to execution, or confess judgment in his favor, or do any kindred act, it may be made to operate as a general assignment for benefit of all general creditors, if suit shall be brought asking that relief within six months after the act is done. The National Bankruptcy Law affects assignment laws of the States, and when appealed to suspends said State laws. The assignment is an act of bankruptcy.

ATTACHMENTS.—In actions for the recovery of money the plaintiff may have an order of attachment against the property of the defendant; first if he be a non-resident of the State or a foreign corporation; second, if he has been absent from the State four months; third, or has left the county of his residence to avoid the service of a summons or so conceals himself that it cannot be served upon him; fourth, if he is about to remove his property from the State without leaving enough to satisfy plaintiff's claim; fifth, has sold or is about to sell or dispose of his property with a fraudulent intent to cheat, hinder, or delay his creditors; sixth, if the defendant has not enough property, subject to execution, to satisfy plaintiff's debt and if its collection will be endangered by the delay in getting judgment and return of no property found on an execution. In order that the lien created by levying the attachment may prevail against purchasers, notice thereof must, under a recent act, be recorded in the county clerk's office. As under Kentucky law attaching creditors get preference when attachment is sustained by the court, the bankrupt law affects the provisions above.

BANKS AND BANKING.—State banks are created by articles of incorporation filed with the Secretary of State. State banks are requested to be examined at least once and may be examined twice a year by one of the State Examiners of Banks, and are required to make reports showing capital stock, assets and liabilities to the Banking Commissioner whenever he calls for same, which must be not less than twice, and not more than five times each year; and such reports shall be published in some newspaper printed and having a general circulation in the city or town where the bank is located. No statutory law exists outside the peculiar provisions of each separate bank charter prescribing the liability of the holder of shares of the capital stock, but hereafter charters can only be acquired under the general law. Stockholders must pay par for the stock, and, in addition, those in new banks will be liable for as much more if necessary, to pay debts.

BILLS AND NOTES.—The Negotiable Instruments Law is in force.

BUSINESS UNDER ASSUMED NAME.—Except corporations or partnerships where the true name of one of the partners appears any business operating under an assumed name other than the real names of the individuals conducting such business is required to file in the clerk's office of the county where such business is conducted a certificate duly acknowledged, setting forth the name under which such business is or is to be conducted or transacted, and the true or real full name of the person or persons owning, conducting, or transacting the same, with the post office addresses of said person or persons.

DEEDS.—To be effectual against purchasers without notice or creditors deeds must be recorded in the county clerk's office of the county in which the property conveyed or the greater part thereof is situated, and must be acknowledged by the grantor before an officer authorized to take the acknowledgments. Married women may convey any real estate which they own or in which they have an interest, but the same is not effectual unless acknowledged before a proper officer; conveyance may be by joint deed of husband and wife or by separate instruments, but in the latter case the husband must have previously conveyed. Deeds must show source of title.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—Deeds executed in this State by married women or other persons may be admitted to record On the acknowledgment, before the proper clerk or notary public, by the party making the deed, or on the certificate of the clerk of the county court or this State, or a notary public, that the same has been acknowledged or proved before him, as required by this section. Deeds executed out of this State by married women or other persons are admitted to record when the same shall be certified under his seal of office by the clerk of a court, or his deputy, or by a notary public, mayor of a city, or secretary of state or commissioner to take the acknowledgments of deeds, or by a judge, under the seal of his court, to have been acknowledged before him in the manner above mentioned for acknowledgments.

No particular form of certificate is now prescribed, but the following is the usual form:

I,..... ....., (here insert name of officer and statement of his office, and if a notary public the following, whose commission as such expires....day of....., 191..,") do hereby certify that the foregoing instrument of writing from..... etc. to.....etc., was this day produced before me in my said county and state by the parties, and was by.....and....., known by me to be persons who have subscribed the same, acknowledged before me to be their act and deed; all of which is now certified to the proper office for record.

EXEMPTIONS.—A debtor is allowed a homestead exemption, out of real estate only, not to exceed in value $1,000, and also certain specified personalty, ninety per cent. of salary or wages of $75.00 a month or less; and $67.50 of wages more than $75.00 a month, as against the claims of creditors, except where such amounts have been expressly waived in a mortgage.

HOLIDAYS.—The following days are declared holidays and are treated and considered as Sunday for all purposes regarding the presenting for payment or acceptance, and of protesting for and giving notice of the dishonor of bills of exhange, bank checks and promissory notes, placed by law upon the footing of bills of exchange: the 1st day of Jan , the 22d day of February, the 30th day of May, the 4th day of July, the 25th day of December, October 12, known as Columbus Day and the first Monday in September known as Labor Day, of each year, and all days appointed by the President of the United States or by the Governor of this State as days of fasting or thanksgiving. If any of the above named days shall occur on Sunday, the next day thereafter is observed as a holiday, but bills of exchange or other paper may be presented for payment or acceptance on the Saturday preceding such holiday and proceeded on accordingly.

INTEREST.—The legal rate of interest in this State is six per cent. All contracts made for a greater rate are void to the extent of the excess. The amount loaned may be recovered with legal interest, but if the lender refuse, before suit brought, a tender of the principal, with legal interest, he shall pay the costs of any suit brought on such contract or assurance. Judgments bear legal interest from date, except that a judgment does not bear a greater rate of interest, than provided for in the contract sued on. Interest may be recovered upon open accounts from maturity, or from date, if agreed to be paid, but in all cases it must be plead. In the absence of an agreement or any fixed date of payment the allowance of interest is submitted to the jury, trying the case.

MORTGAGES.—All mortgages must be executed and acknowledged same as deeds. The wife must join to bar dower. Mortgages can only be foreclosed by decree of court of equity. All mortgages must be recorded, and except as to parties and creditors having actual notice, take effect only from the time they are lodged for record in the county clerk's office, and no mortgage or conveyance can be recorded unless the source of title is given, and if the title is derived by deed or other written instrument, the date of such deed and the book and page where recorded must be stated therein.

MECHANICS' LIENS.—Statutory liens are given to mechanics, laborers, contractors and material men for buildings, improvements and repairs, which must be asserted within six months after such material is furnished or labor done.

SALES OF MERCHANDISE IN BULK.—All sales of an entire stock of merchandise in bulk by a merchant, engaged in business in this State, are fraudulent and void as against creditors of the seller, unless the purchaser shall, at least five days before the consummation of the sale, in good faith, for the purpose of giving notice to the creditors of said seller make inquiry of the seller as to the names and places of residences of creditors of said seller, and unless the purchaser, at least five days before the consummation of said sale, shall notify or use reasonable diligence to cause to be notified personally or by registered letter all of the creditors of said seller. The names of the creditors of the seller are required to be given to the purchaser of the seller in writing and any false statement, knowingly and wilfully made by the seller to the purchaser, is a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment.

WILLS.—Every person of sound mind over twenty-one years of age may make a will. Two subscribing witnesses necessary unless will is wholly in testator's handwriting. Will proved before and admitted to record by county court of testator's residence; if he has no place of residence in this commonwealth and land is divised, then the will is probated in the county where the land or a part thereof lies. Will of non-resident valid as to personalty in this State if executed according to the law of the domicile. When a will of a non-resident relative to property within this commonwealth has been proved in another State an authenticated copy of the certificate of probate may be offered for probate in this State, and the court will presume in the absence of contrary evidence the will was duly executed and admitted to probate as a will of personalty in the county of testator's domicile and admit such copy as a will of personalty in this commonwealth, and if it appears from such copy that the will was proved in a foreign court in a manner to be a valid will of lands in Kentucky, such copy may be admitted to probate as a will of real estate.

LOUISIANA.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of Louisiana, prepared by ROLLA A. TICHENOR, Attorney and Notary Public, Rooms 608 & 610 Audubon Bldg , New Orleans, La.

ACTIONS.—The common law, as modified by statute, prevails in the trial of the criminal cases. The commercial law obtains, with such rare modifications as have been made by statute. Civil matters are regulated by the Civil Code, and our procedure by the Code of Practice.

All suits are commenced by petition and citation; the former must contain a clear, concise statement of the cause of action; citation may be personal, or at domicile on an inmate. When a defendant is an absentee, a non-resident, or cannot be found, then he may be brought into court by attachment of property; but the judgment in such case only effects the property attached; if, however, an absentee or non-resident be a necessary party to a suit involving real estate, then he may be brought into court having jurisdiction by a curatar ad hoc to represent him.

The conservatory remedies are of arrest, when the debtor is about leaving the State permanently without leaving in it property sufficient to pay the debt; it can only last pending suit and up to judgment; no citizen of another State or Territory can be arrested for debt, unless he has absconded from his own State; of attachment, which issue when the debtor is about leaving the State permanently, when he resides out of the State, when he conceals himself to avoid citation, when he has mortgaged, assigned or disposed of his property, or is about doing so to defraud his creditors, or place it beyond their reach; of sequestration, when a lein exists on the property or ownership is claimed; to prevent concealing parting with, or disposing of movable property pending suit, and to prevent waste and dilapidation or improper conversion; of provisional seizure, where proceedings are in rem; to enforce landlord's privileges for rent on movables; and laborers' wages on farms and plantations and against crops; and injunction, a remedy similar in every respect to that of the common law. These remedies issue on ex parte affidavits, and upon proper bond to respond in damages for abuse of writ Parol evidence is incompetent to prove any debt or liablility upon the part of a party deceased, except it consist of the testimony of at least one creditable witness besides the plaintiff. That the plaintiff in his petition shall state his cause of action articulately, that is to say, he shall, so far as practicable, state each of the material facts upon which he bases his claim for relief in a separate paragraph, separately numbered. The petition must be verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff. The defendant, in his answer, shall either admit or deny specifically each material allegation of fact contained in plaintiff's petition. The answer must be verified by the affidavit of the defendant.

AFFIDAVITS.—To accounts. (See Claims, Proof of, etc

ARREST.—Seldom resorted to, as it only secures the presence of the debtor. (See Actions.)

ASSIGNMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF CREDITORS.—Does not exist in this State.

ATTACHMENTS.—(See Actions.)

BANKS AND BANKING.—Banks, under State laws, may be private, in which case the parties composing are liable, without restriction, for all obligations; and corporate, where stockholders are only liable for the amount of their respective shares of stock; a banking corporation must be composed of at least five persons —its charter may endure for ninety-nine years; it must show the amount of capital, number of shares, and the names and places of residence or the stockholders; the name and domicile of the corporation; its managers must all be citizens of this State; the corporation is vested with all necessary powers; can acquire and hold all real property necessary for the transaction of business; but can hold other real estate not to exceed ten years. Stock must be fully paid up within twelve months, and no loan can be made on pledge of the bank's own stock; may issue paper money. Savings, safe deposit and trust banks, without power to issue bank notes, but with the right to do a general banking business, may be organized with a capital of not less than $100,000; no matter what the capital is, at least $100,000 shall be paid in cash before the bank shall begin business, except that in cities and towns of not more than 30,000 population the capital stock may be $50,000, all paid up. Under all circumstances the stock must be paid for in cash. No stock shall be issued except for cash; such banks are authorized to except and execute trusts of any kind, and may be appointed by the State or United States Courts administrator, executor, tutor of minors, curator of insane persons, syndic, receiver, trustee or assignee, in the same manner and to the same extent as natural perons may be appointed; and the acts of such banks when so appointed shall in all matters pertaining to the the subject matter of the appointment be subject to the control of the Court. Money deposited in any bank of the State by married women or minors may be drawn out by the person making the deposit without the necessity of an authorization from any other person. No corporation shall use the word "trust" as part of its name, except such corporations as report to and are examined by the Bank Examiner. No loan can be made to any corporation, except building and loan or homestead associations, by the president or an officer of the bank unless 50 per cent. of the capital stock of the lending corporation has been paid, where the officer of the bank is a stockholder or director of the lending corporation. Each director of a bank must own in his own right at least stock of the par value of $100, and each bank must have at least five directors, who must take an oath before entering upon their duties. Dividends may be paid from the surplus of a bank, provided that it is not reduced to less than 50 per cent. of the capital With the assent of two-thirds of the stockholders, all the assets of a bank may be sold to another bank. No loan of money or pledge of property can be made except by resolution of the Board of Directors, and no officer or director can borrow money from the bank except by resolution of the Board of Directors. The advertised capital shall always be the same as the actual paid in capital, and deposits on which more than 5 per cent. is paid shall be classed as borrowed money. Checks cannot be certified unless the drawer has the amount to his credit represented by the check, and directors must have the books of the bank examined by competent authorities at least twice a year.

BILLS AND NOTES.—The Negotiable Instruments Law is in force.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES are now permitted, under Act 198 of 1918 on the following movables: lumber, logs, staves, crossties, bricks, live stock all kinds of vehicles and the equipment, accessories and parts thereunto belongings, all kinds of machinery, oil well casting, line pipes, drilling rigs, tanks, tank cars, iron and steel safes, adding machines, cash registers, musical instruments, store fixtures and shelving, buildings on lea ed grounds, farming implements, tractors, slips, barges, dry docks or any kind of water crafts or materials to be used in the construction thereof, and all other movable property named herein, for debts or for money loaned or to secure future advances, or to guarantee the performance of any other contractual obligations, by complying with the provisions of this act. The act creating the mortgage must be recorded in the parish in which the property is situated, and it is made a misdemeanor to fraudulently defeat the mortgage by disposing of the property mortgaged, or removing same from the parish in which the mortgage is recorded.

CLAIMS, PROOF OF, ETC.—By Act No. 31 of 1890, the Legislature introduced an important change in regard to the confirming of judgments by default. Hereafter it is important that all claims sent to attorneys for collection should be supported by affidavit as to correctness, made before a Commissioner of Louisiana or other competent authority. By act 140 of 1896 vouchers and acknowledgments may now be taken by any notary public of any State, territory or district, and when under his official seal shall have same favor and effect as if taken or made by or before a Louisiana Commissioner in such State territory or district.

CONDITIONAL SALES.—It is provided by statute that a conditional sale of railroad or street railroad equipment or rolling stock shall be valid as against third persons, provided the sale shall be evidenced by an instrument duly acknowledged and recorded and provided that each locomotive engine or car so sold shall have the name of the vendor, lessor or bailor plainly marked on each side thereof, followed by the word owner, lessor or bailor, as the case may be.

Except as above provided by statute, conditional sales of personal property, where the contract attempts to reserve title in the vendor until the full and first payment of the purchase price of movables sold and delivered, have been uniformly held invalid as to third persons by the Supreme Court, on the ground that the sale becomes complete by delivery where it is the intent of the purchaser to buy and the vendor to sell. Every conditional sale, however, is decided with regard to the peculiar circumstances surrounding the transaction, and it may well be expected that conditional sales, where title is reserved in the vendor, and where only a small payment has been made, will in the future be upheld by the Courts as against third parties with real or constructive notice.

CORPORATIONS.—May be organized for all purposes other than the business of banking, insurance, pipe line or common carrier with a subscribed capital of not less than $3,000.00. Three or more persons are necessary to a valid act of incorporation. Every act of incorporation or charter must contain the name and title of the corporation; the place chosen for its domicile; a description of the purposes for which it is established; the amount of the capital stock; the number of shares; the amount of each share; the time when, and the manner in which payments on the stock shall be made; a designation of the officer on whom citation shall be served; the method of electing officers and of liquidating the Company's affairs. Foreign corporations must file with the Secretary of State a declaration of its domicile and give a power of attorney to some person residing within the State on whom service of judicial process may be served. If this declaration is not filed and power of attorney given any corporation other than a commercial one may be sued in any parish of the State wherein the cause of action arose, in which event citation is served on the Secretary of the State.

COSTS OF COURT—Are paid in New Orleans in cash, always in advance; and each document and all testimony must be properly paid for before filing; in country parishes a deposit is required.

DEEDS.—Deeds to real estate take effect against third persons only after they are filed for record in the office of clerk of court in the parish where the real estate is situated.

There are two kinds of deeds which may be recorded. (1) "An Authentic Act," which is a deed passed and executed by the vendor and vendee before a notary public or other officer of like authority, in the presence of two witnesses, free, male and age at least fourteen years, or three witnesses if the party be blind.

All proces verbals of sales of property made by the sheriff or other persons authorized by law to sell the property under judicial process, signed by the sheriff, or such person, and the purchaser and two witnesses, are authentic acts. All authentic acts may be introduced in evidence with no other formality, if it appear that the act is in the above form.

A deed by "Private Act" may be recorded and introduced in evidence, if it be signed by the parties and two witnesses, and the principals acknowledge in the presence of an officer authorized to administer oaths and two witnesses that they executed the deed.

This acknowledgment should be signed by the parties, the officer and two witnesses, and attached to the deed. Usually the acknowledgment appears right following the signatures and a part of the instrument.

DESCENT AND INHERITANCE.—Property descends first to heirs of the body, without distinction of sex or primogeniture, and though born of different marriages, in equal shares. If one dies without descendant, but a father and mother, brothers and sisters or descendants of these, then the estate passes one-half to the father and mother and one half to collaterals. If the father or mother only survive, then the collaterals inherit three fourths of the estate; and among collaterals, beginning with first cousins, he who is in the nearest degree excludes all others; if there are several in the same degree, they share equally. Children and their descendants, and father and mother are forced heirs in the sense that the law reserves a certain portion of the estate which cannot be willed away from them. Realty in Louisiana left by a non-resident decedent is distributed according to the law of this State; the personalty according to the law of the decedent's last domicile. A community of acquests or gains exists in every marriage, of right, unless the contrary is stipulated by marriage contract, which must be made before the marriage except as to persons married elsewhere and then removing to Louisiana for permanent domicile, who shall have the right within one year to make a valid marriage contract. This community consists of all property accumulated and acquired during the marriage, except such as is acquired by either spouse by donation to one specifically or by inheritance.

DIVORCES.—Absolute divorce can be obtained only where the husband or wife has been sentenced to an infamous punishment or has been guilty of adultery, but a separation a mensa et thro may be obtained for any of the following causes, which may be followed by a judgment of final divorce after the expiration of one year: 1 In case of adultery on the part of the other spouse. 2. When the other spouse has been condemned to an infamous punishment. 3. On account of the habitual intemperance of one of the married persons, or excesses cruel treatment or outrages of one of them toward the other, if such habitual intemperances or such ill treatment is of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable. 4. Of a public defamation on the part of one of the married persons towards the other. 5. Of the abandonment of the husband by his wife or the wife by the husband. 6. Of an attempt of one of the married persons on the life of the other. 7. When either spouse has been charged with an infamous offence and shall actually have fled from justice.

DOWER under the civil law consists of the effects which the wife brings to the husband to support the marraige, and must be settled by contract before marraige. It is a charge upon the estate of the husband for its return to the wife or her heirs at the dissolution of the marriage.

EVIDENCE.—All persons of proper understanding are proper witnesses except that the husband and wife cannot testify for or against each other except where one acts as agent for the other, in which case testimony may be given in all matters connected with the agency. In criminal cases the accused may testify in his own behalf. Either husband or wife is a competent witness in prosecution for bigamy by statute, and by judicial decision the wife is a competent witness to prove a personal injury inflicted by her husband maliciously.

EXECUTIONS OF JUDGMENTS.—The necessary writ for executions may issue immediately upon judgments becoming final in all cases where there is no appeal. In Justice's Courts, in county parishes and the City Courts in New Orleans within ten days, and in the District Courts within ten day after signing judgments, when they become final, a suspensive appeal may be taken from judgments of the District Court on furnishing good and solvent bond, with surety residing within the jurisdiction of the Court; no proceedings can then be taken in execution of judgment until the appeal has been heard. Thereafter and within a year an appeal may be taken, but the judgment may be executed in the meantime; on reversal of judgment, the plaintiff would be responsible; but any sale of property in execution of such judgment would be valid. From judgments of the Justice Courts and City Courts no appeal can be taken after ten days, but if the party cast cannot give the bond to pay the judgment, the appeal may be taken on a bond for costs, but such an appeal does not stay execution.

EXEMPTIONS.—Are exempt from seizure the linen and clothes belonging to the debtor or his wife, bedding and bedstead; those of his family, his arms and military accoutrements, the tools and instruments, and books and sewing machines necessary for the exercise of his or her calling, trade, or profession by which he or she makes a living; the rights of personal servitude, of use and habitation; of usufruct estate of minor child; the income of dotal property; the salary due an officer, laborer's wages and recompense for personal service; the cooking stoves and utensils thereof; the plates, knives, forks and spoons; dining table and dining chairs; wash tubs, smoothing irons and ironing furnaces; family portraits belonging to the debtor; and the musical instruments played and practiced on by any member of the family. The vender's privileges are not affected by these exemptions. In addition a homestead of 160 acres of land with the home, not exceeding $2,000 in value or of $1,000 to the widow and minor children in necessitous circumstances, is allowed under statutory conditions provided.

GARNISHMENT is one of the modes provided to aid in the execution of judgments or attachments of property and effects in the hands of third persons, belonging to the defendants, by compelling such party to declare, under oath, what he holds belonging to the debtor. Wages earned out of this State and payable out of this State shall be exempt from attachment of garnishment in all cases where the cause of action arose out of this State, and it shall be the duty of garnishees in such cases to plead such exemption unless the defendant is actually served with the process.

HOLIDAYS.—The legal holidays are Sundays, January 1st and 8th, February 22d, Good Friday, June 3d, July 4th, November 1st, December 25th, Thanksgiving Day, all general election days, and in the parish of Orleans, Mardi Gras, and the first Monday of September. In cities and towns having a population of more than 15,000 every Saturday from 12 o'clock to 12 o'clock midnight.

INSOLVENCY. — The Federal Bankruptcy Act of 1898, as amended by the Act of 1903, has superseded the insolvency laws of the estate, but an honest but unfortunate debtor who is not insolvent, may obtain a judicial respite from his creditors, not to exceed three years on due notice to all creditors. The question of the respite is voted on at a meeting of the creditors held for that purpose, at which meeting a majority in number and amount control, the minority being forced to yield to the majority.

INTEREST.—The legal rate is five per cent., the highest conventional rate is eight per cent. Any stipulation for a higher rate after maturity is usury and forfeits the entire interest. Any rate before maturity can be collected if embodied in the face of the obligation by way of discount. In the absence of any stipulation as to interest all debts bear five per cent. from maturity.

JUDGMENTS—Are barred by limitation of ten years from day of rendition; they may be revised by citation served previous to expiration of ten years. Entered in the mortgage office of any parish they operate as a judicial mortgage on all property of the debtor within the parish for ten years, subject to renewal by re inscription. Attorneys are given a privilege on all judgments obtained by them, whether for money or property, and any written agreement between attorney and client by which the former is to receive part of the result of the suit as his fees, when in writing and notice to the defendant prevent a settlement by the defendant direct with the plaintiff, unless the claims of the attorney are first satisfied.

LICENSES.—Licenses are enforced upon all trades, callings and professions for revenue, but drummers for commercial houses cannot be forced to pay license.

MARRIAGES.—Among collateral relations, marriage is prohibited between brother and sister, whether or the whole or the half blood, whether legitimate of illegitimate, between uncle and niece, between aunt and nephew, and also between first cousins. No marriage contracted in contravention of the above provisions in another State by citizens of this State, without first having acquired a domicile out of this State, shall have any legal effect in this State. No officer whose duty it is to issue a marriage license shall do so until he shall have received an affidavit from one of the parties to be married to the effect that he or she is not related to the other party within the degree prohibited hereinbefore. Marriages contracted between persons within the degrees prohibited under the laws of this State previous to July 5, 1904, shall be deemed valid in this State if valid where performed, but marriages within the prohibited degrees afterwards performed shall be invalid in the State. It is a misdemeanor for persons domiciled in the State of Louisiana, between whom marriage is prohibited by existing laws, on account of relationship between the prohibited degrees, to return to this State and reside permanently, after having contracted marriage in another State, without first having acquired a domicile in that State. Intermarriage between persons of the white and colored (or negro) race is prohibited and such marriages produce no civil effect.

MORTGAGES.—Mortgages are conventional, judicial and legal; a conventional mortgage is granted by act, hypothecating designated property for a stated consideration to secure the debt; usually it is made to import confession of judgment; and may be foreclosed summarily, and on ex parte order of Court; a judicial mortgage results from the recordation of a judgment, and affects all property situated within the parish in which it is recorded a legal mortgage is one granted by law, as that in favor of minor or his tutor's property. A judicial mortgage can only be enforced by execution. A legal mortgage necessitates a suit to fix rights. In general, corporations formed for carrying on some public work can mortgage all their property, both real and personal, including their franchise. Lessors who, under the terms of their leases are obligated to make improvements on the leased property, may mortgage their lease, together with the buildings, constructions and improvements erected by them, and to issue bonds secured by said mortgage. Any person, firm or corporation engaged in the publication and circulation of a newspaper may issue bonds, notes or other evidences of debt and secure same by mortgage and pledge of the plant, equipment, name and good will of the newspaper. By constitutional amendment adopted in November, 1908, loans made upon mortgages of real estate and the notes evidencing such loans, made by life insurance companies to their policy holders upon the security of the policies, and all notes or written instruments evidencing such loans, are exempt from taxation.

PARTNERSHIPS.—Commercial partnerships are governed by the general law of partnerships; each partner is liable for total debts. Ordinary partnerships are such as are not commercial, and each partner is bound only for his virile share of the debts.

PROMISSORY NOTES AND BILLS.—The negotiable instruments law is now the law of Louisiana All are prescribed by five years for maturity, whether negotiable or not, but such prescription may be interrupted by written acknowledgment. The negotiable instruments law has been amended so as to require all acceptances of bills of exchange to be in writing.

REPLEVIN is technically unknown to our law; for remedy, see Actions Conservatory Writs, Sequestration.

STATUTE OF FRAUDS.—Also technically unknown. All contracts in reference to real estate must be in writing. Promises to pay the debt of another must be in writing.

TAXES.—Redemption. Property sold for taxes may be redeemed within one year on reimbursement of price paid at tax sale, with 20 per cent., besides interest and costs. No officer whose duty it is to assess or collect taxes shall either directly or indirectly purchase any property sold for taxes. An inheritance tax of 2 per cent. on direct inheritances to ascendants and descendants, and 5 per cent. to collaterals and strangers, is levied on all property not before taxed; but no tax shall be levied where the estate, directly descending or ascending, is below $10,000 and the tax is not levied on bequests for educational, religious or charitable institutions.

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS.—The uniform law of warehouse receipts recommended by the conference of commissioners on uniform State laws has been in force in Louisiana since January 1, 1909.

WILLS.—Are nuncupative, mystic or sealed, and olographic. Nuncupative and mystic wills are executed before notaries and witnesses, and the forms prescribed are sacramental and must be observed under pain of nullity. A nuncupative will by private act is subject to very slight formalities, and they may be proved dehors the instrument. For the olographic will no form is required, other than it be entirely written, dated and signed by the testator. All persons above sixteen years of age and of sound mind can make valid testaments. Foreign wills, duly probated, will, on production of duly authenticated copies of such will, and probate, be received, and ordered registered and executed in this State. Foreign executors and administrators must give bond to qualify. Women are now competent witnesses to wills.

MAINE.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the State of Maine, prepared by ERNEST E. NOBLE, Attorney and Counselor at Law, Portland, Me.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—Acknowledgments may be made in this State by the grantors, or one of them, or by their attorney executing the same before a justice of the peace, notary public or women otherwise eligible under the constitution and appointed for the purpose by the Governor. Outside the State and within the United States, before any clerk of a court of record having a seal or any notary public. Outside the United States before a minister, a consul of the United States or notary public in any foreign country. The seal of the Court or the official seal of the notary to be affixed to the certificate of acknowledgment. Deeds are to be signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of one witness. As between parties acknowledgment of a deed is not necessary. Since the change in our laws of descent the form of conclusion of our deeds has been as follows: .....wife (or husband) of the said.....joining in this deed as grantor and relinquishing and conveying.....rights by descent and all.....other rights in the above described premises, have hereunto set.....hands and seals etc.

ACTIONS.—Civil actions are commenced by original writ, which may be issued either in term time or vacation. If the parties reside in the State, writs may be made returnable in the county in which the plaintiff or defendant resides. If plaintiff does not live in the State, writ must be made returnable in the county where defendant resides. Suit can be maintained against non-resident if he has property in the State and it is attached on the original writ, and notice given as ordered by the court. If non-resident defendant does not appear and defend, the judgment is good only so far as that specific property is concerned, but creditor can take the whole of said property, if necessary, in satisfaction of his debt.

ADMINISTRATION AND INTESTATE SUCCESSION.—Upon the death of any person intestate the judge having jurisdiction grants administration to the widow, husband, next of kin, or husband of the daughter of the deceased, or two or more of them as he thinks fit. Dower and curtesy are abolished, the husband and wife taking in fee as by Rule 1, below: The law which abolished dower led to a change in the form of conclusion of deeds (for which see Deeds). Real and personal estate descend by the same rules. These rules are as follows: Rule 1. If he leaves a widow and issue, one-third to the widow. If no issue, one-half to the widow. And if no kindred, the whole to the widow. And to the widower shall descend the same shares in his wife's real estate. There shall likewise descend to the widow or widower the same shares in all such real estate of which the deceased was seized during coverture, and which has not been barred or released. In any event, one third shall descend to the widow or widower free from payment of debts. Rule 2. The remainder of which he dies seized, and if no widow or widower, the whole, shall descend in equal shares to his children, and to the lawful issue of a deceased child by right of representation If no child is living at the time of his death, to all his lineal descendants: equally, if all are of the same degree of kindred: if not, according to the right of representation. Rule 3 If no issue, it descends to his mother and father in equal shares. Rule 4. If no such issue or father, it descends one-half to his mother. If no such issue or mother, it descends one-half to his father. In either case, the remainder, or if no such issue, father or mother, the whole descends in equal shares to his brothers and sisters, and when a brother or sister has died, to his or her children or grandchildren by right of representation. Rule 5. If no such issue, father, brother or sister, it descends to his mother. If no such issue, mother, brother or sister, it descends to his father. In either case, to the exclusion of the issue of deceased brothers and sisters. Rule 6. If no such issue, father, mother, brother or sister, it descends to his next of kin in equal degree; when they claim through different ancestors, to those claiming through a nearer ancestor, in preference to those claiming through an ancestor more remote. Rule 7. When a minor dies unmarried, leaving property inherited from either of his parents, it descends to the other children of the same parent, and the issue of those deceased; in equal shares if all are of the same degree of kindred; otherwise, according to the right of representation. Rule 8. If the intestate leaves no widower, widow or kindred, it escheats to the State.

ARREST.—Any person, whether a resident of the State or not, may be arrested and held to bail, or committed to prison on mesne process on a contract express or implied, if the sum demanded amounts to ten dollars, or on a judgment on a contract, if the debt originally recovered and remaining due is ten dollars or more, exclusive of interest, when he is about to depart and reside beyond the limits of the State, with property or means of his own exceeding the amount required for his immediate support, if the creditor, his agent, or attorney makes oath before a justice of the peace, to be certified by said justice on said process, that he has reason to believe and does believe that such debtor is about so to depart, reside, and take with him property, or means as aforesaid and that the demand, or principal part thereof, amounting to at least ten dollars, is due to him On judgments on contracts made before April 17, 1887, executions issue against property and against the body, on contracts made since that date, they issue only against property. In actions of tort arrest can be made on the original writ, or on the execution; but married women cannot be arrested in either case.

BANKS AND BANKING.—The banks are of three classes. The National Banks, the State Savings Banks and the State Trust and Banking Companies.

The National Banks are, of course, carried on under the National Banking Act.

Savings Banks organized under the State laws may receive deposits not exceeding $2,000 from any one depositor, on which dividends are paid. No deposit can be accepted at a regular guaranteed rate of interest.

They are not required to pay any depositor more than fifty dollars at any one time, nor in any one month, unless upon ninety days notice. They may also carry on safe deposit vaults.

Trust and Banking Companies are organized under special charters granted by legislature. They have usually all the powers and rights of National and Savings Banks combined, and various other rights which give them a working charter superior to either the National or Savings Banks in this State.

Trust and Banking Companies subject to the same supervision and control as the Savings Banks, and their more liberal charters give them a control of the banking business which is increasing.

BILLS AND NOTES.—No grace allowed unless expressly stipulated in the instrument except on draft or bill of exchange payable at sight. Acceptance and waiver of demand and notice must be in writing to be valid.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—No mortgage of personal property is valid except between the parties, unless possession is taken and retained by mortgagee, or the mortgage is recorded by the clerk of the city, town or plantation in which the mortgagor resides when the mortgage is given. Foreclosed by notice. After which the mortgagor has sixty days in which to redeem. On loans for less than $200 secured by mortgage or pledge of personal property, interest to be specified therein is allowed at the rate of 3 per cent. a month not exceeding three months, and thereafter, not exceeding the rate of 15 per cent per annum. Renewals not exceeding 15 per cent. per annum. Also $3.00 allowed for actual expenses of making the loan.

DIVORCE AND VOID MARRIAGES.—In addition to the divorce laws of Maine certain marriages are absolutely void without process and certain marriages, legal at the time of ceremony, may become dissolved without process. The following are void without process: First, marriages with insane person or idiot. Second, marriage contracted while either of the parties has a former wife or husband living and not divorced: Third, marriages within certain degrees of relationship. The sentence of either party to imprisonment for life, and confinement under it dissolves the bonds of matrimony without legal process. The following are the causes for divorce: Adultery, impotence, extreme cruelty, utter desertion continued for three consecutive years next prior to the filing of the libel, gross and confirmed habits of intoxication from the use of intoxicating liquors, opium or other drugs, cruel and abusive treatment, insanity when in consequence thereof the libelee has been committed to and confined in a state asylum for the insane for fifteen consecutive years next prior to the filing of the libel and is found to be incurable. Non-support is also ground for divorce on the part of the wife. Jurisdiction is as follows: Where the parties were married in the State or cohabited here after marriage: or if the libellant resides here when the cause of divorce accrued, or had resided here in good faith for one year prior to the commencement of the proceedings, or if the libelee is a resident of this State.

INSOLVENCY.—Insolvency Law superseded by National Bankrupt Law. For full text of law see page 742.

INTEREST.—In the absence of an agreement in writing the legal rate of interest is six per cent. No usury laws. (See also Chattel Mortgages.)

LIMITATION.—Actions on simple contracts must be brought within six years after cause of action accrues. On specialties, judgments of courts of record, and witnessed notes, within 20 years. Slander and libel, false imprisonment, and assault and battery, within two years. The time that debtor resides out of the State is not reckoned. Debt barred by limitation in any State, Territory or country, while all parties were residents therein, is barred here. Any foreign corporation, having constantly an officer or agent resident in this State, on whom service of any process may be made, shall be entitled to the benefit of all provisions relating to limitation of actions, the same as domestic corporations.

LEASES.—Leases for more than seven years are invalid against third persons unless acknowledged and recorded at Registry of Deeds. There is no tenancy from year to year in this State. A tenant for years holding over his lease becomes tenant at will and his tenancy is terminated upon thirty days notice by either party.

WILLS.—Any person of sound mind, 21 years of age, can dispose of real and personal property by will signed by him or by some person at his request. Three disinterested witnesses are required. The testator may by will waive all bonds usually required by the Probate Court from executors or trustees. After acquired property passes by will if the intention of the testator is so expressed, a posthumous child of testator takes the same share of the father's estate as though his father had died intestate. A widow or widower of a testator may waive the provisions of a will and take the same share of the testator's estate as though there had been no will.

ACTIONS.—Civil actions in Maryland follow closely the English Common Law form and procedure. With the exception of ejectment, replevin, scire facias and attachment. They can be instituted either by a titling with the request to have the defendant summoned, or by filing the declaration stating the cause of action. The service of summons must be a personal one and, must be issued from a court having jurisdiction over the county where the defendant resides or the one where he carries on a regular business or employment, or unless having been first sued in that county, the Sheriff returns a "non est" on the summons, he may then be sued in any county where he can be found. Local action must be brought in courts having jurisdiction where the property in dispute is located or found. An ezecutor may be sued either where he resides, or where he obtained administration.

Corporations of this State may he sued where the certificate of incorporation is filed, except that railroad companies, insurance companies and surety companies may be sued on where they have an agent residing and doing business Foreign corporations are liable in any court in this State upon any transactions therein at the suit of any one, and they may be sued by a resident of this State in any court of this State by service upon the agent required by law to be designated for the purpose of receiving process.

ADMINISTRATION.—Letters of administration upon estates of decedents (see Courts) may be granted to two or more persons with the consent of the person first entitled. If the intestate leave a surviving husband or wife, as the case may be, and a child or children, administration may be granted to either the surviving husband or wife, or to a child in the discretion of the court. Next to a surviving husband or wife or child, in the order of administration stands a grand-child. In default of any of the foregoing relatives, those in the ascending line are taken. (See Art. 93, Sec. 20, et seq., Md Code Public Genl. Laws.) If the party entitled to administration be out of the State it is unnecessary to give him notice of the application for letters.

Where non-residents die, leaving real estate in Maryland, but no personal estate therein, letters may be granted for the purpose of giving notice to creditors, in order to enable the conveyance of a clear title by the heirs.

ARREST.—There is no arrest or imprisonment for debt. It is, however, a criminal offense to obtain money or other property under false pretenses. A party convicted of a criminal charge may be imprisoned until fine and costs are paid.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Assignment of choses in action can be made in writing, signed by the person authorized to make the same, and by virtue of such assignment, can maintain suit or issue execution in his own name, and in the same manner as assignor might have had before the assignment. In all suits instituted in courts of this State, by non-resident plaintiffs, the defendant can demand security for the court costs of that suit to be deposited with the clerk before the case is tried. Under the recent Acts of 1900, Chapter 382, this rule security for costs can be laid not only against non-resident plaintiffs, but against resident plaintiffs who are assignees of, or stand in place of, non-resident plaintiffs, thus preventing assignments of claims by non residents to residents of our State, for the purpose of avoiding depositing security for costs in advance.

Assignments of personal property in all cases where the vendor, mortgagor or donor is to remain in possession of the property, except as between the parties themselves, no title of property will pass or change to any purchaser, unless made by bill of sale or a chattel mortgage acknowledged and recorded, or unless it be a sale or gift accompanied by delivery.

ATTACHMENTS.—Attachments, in this State, may be obtained in following cases: 1. On judgment by way of execution, obtained on the mere written order of the plaintiff or his attorney. 2. On warrants against a non-resident of this State notwithstanding the plaintiff be a non-resident; also against an absconding debtor, and one may become an absconding debtor without leaving the State. Obtained upon proper affidavit to the claim and the non-residence or departure of defendant, 3. On original process, issued upon affidavit to the indebtedness, and upon oath of the plaintiff or some one in his behalf, that the defendant is about to abscond from the State, or that he has fraudulently disposed of, or concealed his property or is about to do so; or that the debt was fraudulently contracted; or that the defendant has fraudulently removed his property out of the State, or is about to do the same. Bond must be given by the plaintiff in double the sum claimed before this attachment will issue. 4. On two non est proceedings as in the case of absconding debtors. 5. Attachments against non-resident and absconding debtors may be issued for in cases arising ex contractu, where damages are unliquidated and also in cases of torts. In all such cases the declaration shall be filed, setting out in detail the matter giving rise to the attachment, verified by affidavit in addition to a bond in double the amount of the claim 6. In all cases under second and third although the debt has not matured. (Act 1894, Chap. 648.)

A non-resident of the State of Maryland may avail himself of all attachment remedies allowed by law of the State. By Act of 1902, Ch. 324, a claimant of attached property may, upon the filing of a bond by him for double value, have the same discharged and surrendered to him.

BANKS.—Any number of persons, not less than five citizens of the United States, and a majority of them citizens of this State, may associate to establish a bank. The aggregate amount of capital stock for any bank shall not be less than $10,000 in towns or villages having less than 1500 inhabitants, and shall not be less than $20,000 in towns, villages, or cities having more than 1500 and less than 3500 inhabitants. Said requirements as to capital stock are graduated upward until finally it is stipulated that the capital stock shall not be less than $200,000 in any city having more than 150,000 inhabitants. Said bank may start business when one-half of the capital provided for in this section, i. e. Section 20 of Chapter 219 of the Acts of 1910, shall have been paid in full, and the remaining one-half to be paid one year from the date of the bank's organization. This provision, however, does not apply to any bank in existence at the date of the passage of the Act, or to any person or co-partnership then engaged in banking business in Maryland. Persons associated to establish a bank under this article shall make, sign and acknowledge written articles of incorporation in triplicate containing (1) declaration that the persons associate for the purpose of forming a banking corporation under the Act; (2) the name of such bank, which shall not be similar to that of any other bank in the same County or City; (3) the particular village, town city or county where such bank is to be located; (4) the amount of capital stock which shall be divided into shares of not less than $10,000; (5) the period for which the bank is organized, not exceeding forty years.

The articles of incorporation shall be executed before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments, after they have been approved in writing by the Bank Commissioner, who shall have power to make such changes as he may deem necessary. After one of the judges of the judicial circuit in which the bank is to be located has approved that the articles of incorporation are framed in accordance with existing laws, one copy shall then be filed for record in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the County in which the bank is to be located (if in Baltimore City, in the Superior Court of Baltimore City). Another copy shall be filed with the Bank Commissioner, who shall issue his certificate therefor, and another copy shall be filed with the State Tax Commissioner. Upon making and filing of the articles of incorporation, and upon paying the bonus and other taxes required by the State of Maryland, the bank shall become a body corporate with all appropriate and necessary powers. Whenever a bank notifies the Bank Commissioner after its articles of incorporation have been filed that its capital has been duly paid in, and if the bank has complied with all the requirements authorizing it to commence business, the Bank Commissioner shall examine into the condition of such bank, and shall, upon ascertaining that all the requirements have been complied with give to such bank a certificate that it is authorized to commence business. The affairs of a State bank shall be managed by a board of not less than five directors, the majority of whom shall be residents of Maryland and shall be elected by the stockholders, and shall hold office for one year and until their successors have been elected and qualified. Any State bank organized under the State Banking Act is given power to reorganize under the Laws of the United States as a National bank, and any National bank authorized to dissolve, and which shall have taken the necessary steps to effect a dissolution, may reorganize under the State Act upon the consent in writing of the owners of two-thirds of the capital stock of such bank, and with the approval of the Bank Commissioner.

A State bank may also conduct a savings department.

SAVINGS INSTITUTIONS.—An association for carrying on the business of savings banking may be formed by not less than fifteen citizens of the United States, the majority of whom must be citizens of the State of Maryland, who shall enter into articles of association which shall state the name by which the savings institution is to be known, the village, town, or city and county where such bank is to be located, the names and residences of the members thereof, the date on which it is proposed to commence operations, the number of directors proposed to manage the association's affairs, and the names and residences of the directors who shall serve the first year. The articles of association shall be executed in duplicate before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments, after they have been approved in writing by the Bank Commissioner, and shall then be submitted to one of the judges of the judicial circuit in which the savings institution is to be located, in order that he may determine whether the said articles are framed in accordance with existing laws. No savings institution shall out of its net earnings in the course of one year declare or pay any dividend or interest to its depositors unless there shall be reserved and set aside as a guarantee fund an amount equivalent to at least one-eighth of one per cent. per annum on the whole amount of deposits then held, until such guarantee fund shall amount to at least three per cent on the whole amount of deposits. The guarantee fund shall at all times be maintained for the protection of depositors, and shall never be impaired by the payment of any interest or dividend.

The treasurer of every savings institution without capital stock shall annually, within twenty days after the last of December, make a report to the Bank Commissioner showing accurately the condition thereof at the close of business on the said last day of December.

TRUST COMPANIES.—Eleven or more persons, citizens of the United States, a majority of them citizens of Maryland, may form a corporation to be known as a trust company. Articles of incorporation shall be acknowledged under the hands and seals of such persons, and shall contain (1) the corporate name; (2) the place where its business is to be transacted; (3) the amount of its capital stock, and the number of shares, the par value of which shall not be less than $50.00 each; (4) the name residence, and P. O. address of each member of the corporation; (5) the term of its existence not exceeding forty years; (6) a declaration that each member of the corporation will accept the responsibilities and faithfully discharge the duties of a director, if elected as such.

The minimum capital stock of such trust company shall be $100,000.00 but such minimum is only available where the corporation is located in a city or town with a population not exceeding 25,000 inhabitants. Then there follows a graduation of capital requirements upwards, according to the population of the home city, until $500,000 00 is reached, which is the general required amount of capital. The articles of incorporation shall be executed in triplicate before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments, after they have been approved in writing by the Bank Commissioner, and said articles shall then be submitted to one of the judges of the judicial circuit in which the trust company is to be located, for his approval as to the conformity of the articles to existing laws. One copy shall then be filed for record with the clerk of the Circuit Court in the county in which the trust company is to be located, or in the Superior Court of Baltimore City if the company is located in said city. One copy is to be filed with the Bank Commissioner, and one copy to be fied with the State Tax Commissioner. The trust company can have no legal existence until the three said copies have been so filed. A notice of intention to organize such trust company shall be published at least once a week for four weeks in a newspaper to be designated by the Bank Commissioner, and such notice shall specify the names of the proposed incorporators, the name of the proposed corporation, and the location of the same. After receiving a certificate of authorization from the Bank Commissioner, the corporation thereby springs into existence, with powers to prosecute the usual trust company business, as set forth in Clauses 1 to 10 of Section 145 of Chapter 219 of the Laws of 1910. The affairs of such corporation shall be managed by a board of directors of not less than eleven or more than thirty.

BANK COMMISSIONER.—Any bank or trust company may amend its articles of association by a vote of two-thirds of its capital stock. Every bank and trust company shall make to the Bank Commissioner not less than five reports during each calendar year, at such times as the Bank Commissioner shall require. The forms of such reports shall conform as nearly as practicable to that required of National banks, and shall exhibit in detail and under proper heads the resources and liabilities of the bank or trust company up to any past date specified by the Bank Commissioner. Any bank, savings institution or trust company may consolidate with any other bank, savings institution or trust company with the consent of the Bank Commissioner.

Every bank shall keep on hand at all times a cash reserve of at least five per cent. of its deposits, payable on demand, and an additional reserve of ten per cent. on such deposits, which last reserve may be kept on deposit in such bank or banks, or trust company or trust companies of the State of Maryland or elsewhere, of good standing. Every trust company shall keep on hand a reserve of at least ten per cent. of its deposits, payable on demand, and an additional reserve of five per cent. of the amount on such deposits, which additional reserve may be kept on deposit in any bank or banks, or trust company or trust companies, as the board of directors may direct, or in the form of registered bonds or public stock of the United States or the State of Maryland or Baltimore City, or of the bonds of any county or municipal corporation of this State, which shall be approved by the Bank Commissioner. The total liabilities of any person, co-partnership or corporation to any bank or trust company for money borrowed shall at no time exceed twenty per cent. of the amount of capital or surplus of such bank or trust company.

The Board of Public Works of the State of Maryland shall appoint a Bank Commissioner, who shall have supervisory power over all State banks. In case of the failure of such institutions, said commissioner shall act as temporary receiver of the same.

BILLS OF LADING.—The Uniform Bills of Lading Act is in force in Maryland, by virtue of Chapter 336 of the Laws of 1910.

BILLS AND NOTES.—The Uniform Negotiable Instrument Act is in force.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—Must be acknowledged and recorded in county where mortgagor or grantor resides, or when he resides out of the State where the goods and chattels are, within twenty days after execution. There must also be an affidavit made by the mortgagee or vendee or his agent, that the consideration named is true and bona fide. Fraudulent removal or sale of articles covered by such a mortgage is punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both.

CLAIMS, PROOF OF.—All claims should be fully itemized, and give all credits to which the defendant may be entitled. The names of all firms and the partners composing them should be furnished. All claims exceeding $50 on open accounts should be doubly probated; the affidavit may be made before a judge of a court of record of the United States, or of any State, district or Territory of the United States; before any commissioner appointed by the Governor of Maryland, to take acknowledgments, or before a notary public. If made before a judge, he must be certified by the clerk under the seal of the court, and the court must be certified as a court of record. The commissioner of deeds or a notary public must affix his official seal. The form of the affidavit to entitle the plaintiff to judgment before a court or justice of the peace when affixed to an account is prescribed by the Maryland law and must be followed whenever it is executed outside the state. (See Speedy Judgment Act.)

CONSIGNMENTS.—Any factor, commission merchant, or consignee or agent, or clerk or servant of any such who converts to his own use any provisions or other property, or proceeds of same, is guilty of misdemeanor; fine not more than one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both; and failure to pay over proceeds within five days after receiving money, and demand made by party entitled, is prima facie evidence of conversion.

CORPORATIONS—May be organized under the General Incorporation Law, banks excepted, there being special provision as to them under Article 3, Section 19, et seq.. Maryland Laws. Municipal corporations require a special act of the Legislature. Section 11 of Article 23, of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, provides that corporations may be formed in Maryland for one or more lawful purposes. There are required three incorporators adult persons, of whom one at least must be a citizen of the State of Maryland, and who shall sign and acknowledge before some officer competent to take acknowledgements for deeds for land situated in the State of Maryland. The certificate must state that the incorporators associate themselves with the intent of forming a corporation shall give the name of the proposed corporation, which name shall be such as to indicate that it is a corporation, i.e., begin with the word "The" and end with the word "Company" or "Corporation," or the title shall contain the word "incorporated"; the purposes of the corporation, the place in the State of Maryland where the principle office will be located; the total amount of capital stock, if any, the number of them, the par value of the shares, and the restrictions, if any, imposed on the transfer of the shares, and if there is to be preferred stock the certificate shall state how much of said stock is to be preferred, with the powers and qualifications of the preferred stock; the number of the trustees, directors or managers, who shall not be less than three, and the names of those who shall act for the first year until their successors are duly chosen and qualified, and also any provisions which may be desired for the purposes of defining limiting and regulating the powers of the corporation and of the directors and stockholders or any class of the stockholders, provided such provisions are not contrary to the Laws of the State of Maryland.

The certificate must be certified by one of the Judges of the Judicial Circuit wherein the principal office of said corporation will be located to be in conformity with the law. That certificate is delivered to the Tax Commissioner, who records it, and who then delivers it or a copy of it to the Clerk of the Circuit or Superior Court to be there recorded. At the same time there will be paid to the State Treasurer for the use of the State of Maryland (except by cemetery companies, benevolent companies or railroad companies and building associations) a bonus tax of one eighth of one per cent. upon the amount of capital stock which said company is authorized to have, and a like bonus upon any subsequent increase of capital stock. When such certificate has been executed and acknowledged as above indicated, and delivered to the State Tax Commissioner, with the recording fees, and the bonus tax, if any, shall be paid, the incorporators and their successors shall thereupon be a body corporate.

The powers of such corporation are such as to enable it to carry on its operations within the State of Maryland, and as far as the laws of other States, Territories, District or possessions of the United States or of any foreign country permit, it shall have therein all the powers granted to it in the State of Maryland; such powers being those set forth in the certificate of incorporation, and which may be appropriate to promote and attain the objects and purposes for which the corporation was formed. No minimum or maximum capital stock required, and no part of the capital stock need be paid in upon organization.

The Maryland method of incorporating, it is submitted, is most simple, and is attended with very little expense and very little inconvenience.

FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.—Foreign corporations or those organized or chartered elsewhere than in the State of Maryland are presumed, from the fact of engaging in business in the State of Maryland, to assent to the provisions of the Maryland Laws regulating foreign corporations, and any person or corporation, whether resident or non resident of the State of Maryland, may sue any foreign corporation in the judicial circuit in which the principal office of said foreign corporation in the State of Maryland may be, or where it regularly transacts business or exercises franchises.

Every foreign corporation which has a usual office or place of business in the State of Maryland, except insurance companies, or any corporation that may not have a usual place of business but is engaged in the construction or repair or of building bridges, railways or railroads or structures of any kind shall, before doing business in this State, file with the Secretary of State, who shall record the same: 1. A certified copy of its charter or certificate of incorporation. 2. A certificate, to be renewed annually before April 1st in each year, showing the corporate name, the names and addresses of its President, Treasurer, Secretary and members of its Board of Directors; its principal office in the State of Maryland; the amount of its capital stock; names and addresses of its share holders in this State, and the number of shares held by each; the name and address of its resident agent, and its willingness so long as any liability remains outstanding against it in this State, that the authority of such agent shall be continued until a substitute is appointed and certified to. A fee of twenty-five dollars is payable by every foreign corporation to the Secretary of State at the time of filing the original papers required by this Section before the Secretary of State can issue the certificate setting forth that the corporation is entitled to do business in this State. There is a penalty upon every officer of every such foreign corporation which fails to comply with the provisions of this law, and no suit can be maintained in any court of this State until it has complied with the requirements of this Article.

Every foreign corporation shall be subject to taxation upon its real and personal property situated in this State, and there is a franchise tax as to certain corporations (see Art. 23, Sec. 70, Code, P. G. L. of the State of Maryland) to wit, the sum of $25 for every full $50,000 capital employed by the corporation in this State up to $500,000.

TAXATION.—Shares of stock of Maryland corporations are subject to a State and County or City taxation in accordance with the actual value of said shares, the tax being payable by the corporation.

COURTS.—In all civil controversies, when the amount claimed does not exceed $100,, the justice of the peace has jurisdiction.

Justices of the Peace (People's Court) may enter up judgments by confession, either upon voluntary appearance of the defendant, or upon the written authority of defendant, attested by at least one witness. Plaintiff must make affidavit to the amount of his claim. (These provisions not to affect any note or agreement for judgment dated prior to July 1st, 1912).

Partnership of parties, incorporation of a body corporate and the representative character of any parties suing or being sued and the genuineness of any signature purporting to be the signature of the defendant upon any paper filed as a cause of action, shall be taken as admitted, unless denied under oath in writing by the opposite party before the hearing of such case, in all cases before a J. P. (People's Court)

The Orphans' Court of Baltimore City or of one of the several counties as the place of residence may be, has jurisdiction over the probating of wills, granting letters testamentary and of administration appointing guardians and general supervision over the estates of decedents and infants. Maryland adheres closely to the old common law dual system of separating equity or chancery cases from the regular civil cases entitling jury trials. In the counties the Circuit Courts have separate dockets, and sit as courts of law until that docket is finished, and then as courts of equity. In Baltimore City the Municipal Courts are the Circuit Courts Nos. 1 and 2, to transact the equity cases The Baltimore City Court, Court of Common Pleas and Super or Court, whose jurisdiction is common law cases for any amounts above $100. The Criminal Court for trying that class of cases, and the Supreme Bench, a court of very limited jurisdiction, at present. The Court of Appeals, the court of last resort, and has appellate jurisdiction from final judgments and decrees from the lower courts.

EXECUTION.—May issue on judgment of justice of the peace at any time within three years.

A judgment of a justice can be made a lien upon real property of twelve years' duration by being recorded in the clerk's office of the superior court of Baltimore City or in the office of the circuit court for a county.

On judgments of a court of record execution may issue within twelve years, unless stayed by supersedeas, which may be done for six months.

Before the expiration of twelve years any judgment can be revived for twelve years longer by scire facias

EXEMPTIONS.—One hundred dollars of property of each defendant shall be exempt from execution, except in cases of breach of promise to marry, or seduction. No wearing apparel, books or tools of mechanics, shall be taken in execution, excepting, however, books kept for sale. One hundred dollars of the wages or hire of any laborer or employee shall be exempt from attachment.

FRAUDS, STATUTE OF.—In the following cases no action shall be maintained unless in writing:

1. To charge an executor or administrator upon any special promise to answer damages out of his own estate
2. To charge any person under a promise to answer for the debt, default or miscarriage of another and the consideration for such a promise need not be in writing.
3. To charge any person upon an agreement made in consideration of marriage.
4. Upon any contract for the sale of lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any interest in or concerning them.
5. Upon any contract that is not to be performed within one year from the making thereof.

No contract for the sale of goods, wares or merchandise, for fifty dollars or more, shall be valid, unless the purchaser accepts and receives part of the goods, or gives something in earnest to bind the bargain, or in part payment thereof, or some note or memorandum thereof is made and signed, by the party to be charged thereby or by his agent.

Specific performance of a contract to convey real estate may be enforced after the death of the contractor by a bill in equity.

HOLIDAYS.—The 1st day of January, the 22d day of February, the 30th day of May, the 4th day of July, the 12th day of September, the 12th day of October, the 25th day of December, Good Friday, and all days of general and congressional elections throughout the State, all special days appointed by the Governor or by the President of the United States to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and Fasting, etc., are bank holidays.

Any note or other evidence of indebtedness falling due on Sunday or a bank holiday is payable the following secular day.

All Saturdays, after noon, are made by statute bank holidays for purposes of payment, acceptance or protest of negotiable paper.

Courts are not held on legal holidays nor on the day designated for the choice of Presidential election.

HOMESTEAD.—There is no homestead law in Maryland; $100 is exempt on execution.

INSOLVENCY.—National Bankrupt Law supersedes in many respects the State insolvent law.

The National law, however, does not embrace the voluntary insolvency of corporations.

INTEREST.—Legal rate six per cent. Excess above this is unenforceable.

JUDGMENTS.—A judgment of a court of record or a magistrate's judgment if recorded, is a lien upon the real estate of defendant in the county wherein the judgment is rendered, and can be transferred from one county to another to bind the defendant's real estate by recording in such other county a certified copy of the docket entries (Act 1890, chap, 314) from the date of its rendition or recording as well on after-acquired property as that held at the date of the judgment. Also on all leasehold interests and terms of years and chattels real of the defendants in lands, except leases from year to year, and leases for terms of not more than five years and not renewable. Also upon the equitable interest of the defendants in land. But a judgment is no lien upon personal property, though the execution issued thereon becomes a lien from the time of the delivery of the writ into the hands of the sheriff. The lien of a judgment continues for twelve years. All judgments by confession on verdict or by default, are so entered as to carry interest at the rate of six per cent., from the time they were rendered. (37 Md., 443.)

JUDGMENT ACT—SPEEDY.—In Baltimore City, (Acts of 1898, Chapter 123, Section 312, etc,) and some of the counties of this State, the law provides for certain actions ex contractu for a more speedy recovery of a judgment where there is no real and substantial defence. This is only applicable to suits where the causes of action are contracts, either in writing or not, expressed or implied, provided the plaintiff files with his declaration an affidavit stating the true amount of the defendant's indebtedness over and above all discounts, and also files as an exhibit the contract, bond, promissory note or other writing or account, by which the defendant is so indebted, if the action is founded upon a contract in writing; but if verbal or implied, shall file the statement of the indebtedness thereunder and the additional oath that he (the plaintiff) has personal knowledge of the matters therein stated. If complying with these provisions, he is entitled to a judgment by default, any time after fifteen days from the return day to which the defendant was summonsed, unless the defendant pleads a good defense under oath, that every plea so filed is true, and that he expects to sustain them at the trial, and further stating the amount of the claim he admits owing and the amount deposited accompanied with the certificate from his attorney, stating that he advised the defendant to file the pleas; and as an additional obstacle in the way of any unjust and unsubstantial defence, if the defendant disputes the claim, and judgment is rendered against him for the amount disputed, a counsel fee is allowed the plaintiff by the court of not less than $25.00 or more than $100.00.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.—See Courts.

LIMITATIONS.—Three years are allowed on actions of account, assumpsit, on the case, debt on simple contract, or for rent in arrear, detinue, replevin, trespass for injury to real or personal property, and all actions for illegal arrest or false imprisonment. Actions for libel or slander, assault and battery, must be brought within one year from the time right of action accrued.

Twelve years are allowed on specialties, bonds or judgments. Limitations do not begin to run in favor of debtor absenting himself from the State, or absent when the cause of action accrues.

In actions brought for negligence causing death for the benefit of husband, wife, parent or child, the suit must be brought within one year from the death.

MORTGAGES. FORECLOSURE OF.—Mortgages of real estate may be foreclosed by sales under the assent thereto in the consent clause authorizing the mortgagee to make sales upon any default. The mortgagee or his attorney or agent, before proceeding shall file a bond in the court of equity for the county in which sale is to be made, with such penalty as the judge or clerk may approve, to abide by any decree of any court of equity as to said sale—and such sale shall be reported to said court so that persons interested may have objections heard. The mortgage customarily provides for the length of advertisement prior to sale, but in the absence of such stipulation, twenty days is the statutory time.

In Baltimore city foreclosure is had by a decree of an equity court under a clause consenting to such decree in the instrument.

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.—The Negotiable Instruments Act is in force

REAL ESTATE.—(See acknowledgment.)

REAL ESTATE BROKERS.—In the absence of special agreement to the contrary, if a real estate broker employed to sell, buy, lease or otherwise negotiate real or leasehold estates or mortgages, or loans thereon, procures in good faith a purchaser or seller, lessor or lessee, mortgagor or mortgages, borrower or lender, as the case may be, and the person so procured is accepted as such by the employer and enters into a valid, binding and enforceable contract in terms acceptable to the employer, and such contract is accepted by the employer and signed by him, the broker shall be deemed to have earned the customary or agreed commission, whether or not the contract entered into be actually put into effect, unless the performance of such contract be hindered by any act of the broker.

RECORDING DEEDS, ETC.—Deeds and mortgages of land must be recorded within six months from date in county or city, or all the counties and city, where land lies. Where two or more deeds or mortgages convey same lands or chattels real, first preferred, if made bona fide and on good and valuable consideration. Absolute deeds recorded after six months from date have same validity against grantor, his heirs or executors, his or their creditors becoming so after recording, and all purchasers with notice, as if recorded within that time.

REDEMPTIONS.—(See Foreclosure of Mortgages and Taxes)

REPLEVIN.-In actions for the recovery of specific personal property, plaintiff may obtain immediate possession upon affidavit, by giving bond with sureties; but defendant may retain possession by giving similar bond.

SALES.—The Uniform Sales Act is in force in Maryland, by virtue of Chapter 346 of the Laws of 1910.

SEALS.—The Maryland Code contains no provision as to what shall constitute a private seal, consequently the adhesive wafer is still in use, a scrawl is sufficient.

STAY.-On judgment rendered by a justice of the peace a stay of execution for six months may be had by the defendant within two months after rendition by filing a supersedeas, signed by the defendant with one surety.

A stay for six months on a Circuit Court judgment or decree of judgment of the Court of Appeals may be had within two months after rendition by a confession of judgment with two sureties by the defendant for the amount of debt and costs before a Justice of the Peace of the County where the judment was rendered, or if a Court of Appeals judgment, a Justice where the defendant resides, which said confession is to be signed by the said Justice and returned to the Court in which said judgment or decree was rendered, for record. In Baltimore City the clerks of the several law courts take supersedeas.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.—On affidavit or other proof by judgment creditor, within time for issuing execution or attachment, that it is probable that judgment debtor has property or credits that would be liable, and is concealing or has concealed or disposed of same to evade effect of judgment. Court wherein judgment is entered shall issue order requiring debtor to attend and be examined in open court or before a standing commissioner or examiner, and any person or corporation having property or being indebted to the judgment debtor may be likewise examined, and the court may pass such order as will subject property or credits of judgment debtor to the effect of the judgment. Refusal to attend or answer, punishable as contempt. No excuse that answers may tend to show fraud, but such answers cannot be used in criminal proceedings as evidence.

TAXES.—Taxes are levied on the third Tuesday of April of each year and are in arrear and bear interest from the first day of the following January.

In Baltimore city they are levied upon January 1st in each year, and bear interest from 31st of July following.

Whenever a collector of taxes finds it necessary to make sale to collect taxes, the owner has twelve months after such sale within which to redeem his property.

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS.—The Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act is in force in Maryland, by virtue of Chapter 406 of the laws of 1910.

WILLS.—Any person capable of executing a valid deed or contract, and of the full age of twenty-one years if a male, and of eighteen years if a female, may dispose of his or her property by will, which shall be in writing and signed by the testator or some other person for him, in his presence and by his express direction, and shall be attested and subscribed in the testator's presence by two or more credible witnesses. A will or testamentary instrument is also held valid in Maryland and shall be admitted to probate in any Orphans Court in the State if the same be made according to the forms required by the law of the place where the same was made, or by the law of the place where the testator was domiciled when the same was made.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of Massachusetts, revised by HERBERT L BAKER, 20 Pemberton Square, Boston, Mass.

ARREST.—In order to procure an arrest on mesne process in an action on contract, the plaintiff must make an affidavit and prove to the satisfaction of a Master in Chancery or other prescribed magistrate: 1. That he has good cause of action and reasonable expectation of recovering a sum amounting to twenty dollars exclusive of all costs which have accrued in any former action. 2. That he believes and has reason to believe that the defendant has property, not exempt from being taken on execution, which he does not intend to apply to the payment of the plaintiff's claim. 3. That he believes and has reason to believe that the defendant intends to leave the State, so that execution, if obtained, cannot be served upon him; or (instead of the second and third) that the defendant is an attorney-at-law, and that the debt is for money collected by him for the plaintiff, which he unreasonably neglects to pay over. No person shall be arrested upon mesne process in an action of tort unless the plaintiff or some one in his behalf makes affidavit that he believes and has reason to believe that he has good cause of action against the defendant, a reasonable expectation of recovering at least one-third of the damages claimed in the writ, and that the defendant intends to leave the State so that execution cannot be served upon him. No arrest can be made on mesne process in a civil action for libel or slander, and no woman can be arrested on mesne process except for tort.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY.—The insolvent law is in many respects similar to the United States bankrupt law, enacted in 1898, and has no jurisdiction over debts contracted outside the State unless the same are proved in the insolvency proceedings. But an assignment to trustee to divide property among creditors can not be avoided by attaching creditor and only by assignee in insolvency. Any person owing $100 or more may obtain relief; and any creditor may apply within ninety days after commission of act of insolvency for seizure and distribution of estate. Assignee is chosen by majority in value, and may be required to give bond. Proof of debts must be substantially according to statute form, mere affidavit of indebtedness not allowable. Original notes and bills of exchange must be annexed to proof. The oath may be made before justice of the peace, notary public or commissioner. Assent of majority in number and value filed within six months from date of assignment necessary for discharge if assets do not pay fifty per cent. or more, otherwise discharge granted without assent. Attachments made more than four months prior to first publication of notice of issuing warrant in case of voluntary proceedings and more than four months prior to first publication of notice of filing petition in involuntary proceedings are not dissolved by assignment in insolvency. The insolvent may file an offer of composition with creditors, and will be confirmed if assented to by a majority in number and value of creditors, if it be for payment of not less than fifty per cent., or if less than fifty per cent., of three-fourths in number any value. The Massachusetts Insolvency Laws are suspended by the United States Bankruptcy Act of 1898 except as to estates of deceased persons. No assignment of wages is valid unless in writing, for a period not exceeding two years from the date thereof, which must be stated as of the date of its execution, nor unless to secure a debt for an amount stated in the assignment. Acts of 1911, Chapter 727, paragraph 15. Said assignment not valid against trustee process unless recorded. A standard form is provided, a copy of which must be given to assignee. That no assignment or order for wages to be earned in the future to secure a loan of less than $200 is valid against the employer of the assignor until the employer accepts same and the assignment with the acceptance have been filed and recorded with the clerk of the city or town where the assignor resides. No assignment or order for wages to be earned in the future is valid when made by a married man, unless a written consent of his wife is attached thereto. No assignment of future earnings is valid against trustee process, unless before service of the writ upon the alleged trustee the assignment is recorded.

No assignment is binding on the employer of the assignor until a copy of the assignment and a written account stating the balance due and all the sums of money received by the assignee together with date of every payment and whether it is interest, principal or charges has been furnished to him. A copy of the assignment must be delivered to the assignor by the assignee at the date of execution of the assignment.

No assignment of wages for a loan of $300 or less shall be valid unless it states with substantial accuracy the actual amount of the loan, the time for which the loan is made, the rate of interest to be paid, and the expense of making and securing the loan, if any. Nor shall it be valid unless said assignment is in form and purport as prescribed in chapter 390, acts 1906, and in amendment thereof, no such assignment or order shall be valid for a period exceeding one year from the making thereof. (Acts 1912, chapter 675.)

Prepared by PHILIP S. DICKINSON, Counselor-at-law, 2038 Penobscot Bldg., Detroit, Michigan.

ACCOUNTS AND CLAIMS.—In actions on open account, an itemized statement of the account sued on may be verified by affidavit of plaintiff or by his agent having knowledge of the facts, and a copy of the affidavit and statement annexed thereto served on the defendant with the summons or declaration, by which suit is commenced in the Circuit or Justice's courts, and same will constitute, when filed, prima facie evidence of the plaintiff's demand, unless the defendant with his plea files an affidavit denying the account. Defendants' set-off may be in like manner verified and filed in such action. The affidavit should show the individual names of the plaintiffs and the defendants, and if either party is a co-partnership, or corporation, foreign or domestic, should contain an averment of such relation, and individuals comprising the partnership, and should state the amount of the indebtedness upon the account due over and above all legal set-offs. It should be sworn to, in this State, before a Notary Public, etc., (see affidavits); out of the State, before a Notary Public of any other State with his seal of office affixed or accompanied by a certificate of the Clerk of a Court of Record of the county where the affidavit is made, showing that such Notary Public is authorized to administer oaths under the law of such State, or it may be sworn to before a Commissioner, appointed by the Governor of this State.

ACTIONS.—Personal actions substantially as at common law. All real actions except ejectment, actions on the case for waste and for private nuisances and trespass on lands have been abolished. Partition of lands held by tenants in common, etc., may be had by bill in chancery and between heirs or their assigns by petition to Probate Court. Actions survive as at common law, and in addition thereto, the following: Actions of replevin and trover; actions for assault and battery; false imprisonment; for goods taken and carried away; for negligent injury to the person, and for damages to real or personal property—which comprise damages to specific real or personal property only. Where either party to any action that survives dies pending suit, the death of such party should be suggested on the record, and his executor or administrator may thereupon appear and take upon himself the prosecution or defense of the action as the case be. Dower may be assigned by Probate Court or by bill in equity or recovered by ejectment. See Uniform Sales Act in force.

AFFIDAVITS.—Taken out of this State, to be used in judicial proceedings in this State, may be sworn to before a Notary Public or Justice of the Peace and authenticated by the certificate of the Clerk of a Court of Record, showing that such Notary is authorized to administer oaths in said State, or before some Judge of a Court having a seal and certified to have been taken and subscribed before him, specifying time and place, and that his signature and his membership and the existence of such court must be certified by the Clerk thereof under seal. In United States Circuit and District Courts, the affidavit must be sworn to before a United States Commissioner, or before a Notary Public, having a seal which should be affixed thereto. Is taken in this State before any Justice, Judge or Clerk of a Court of Record, Circuit Court Commissioner, or any Notary Public (Notary must certify to date of expiration of his commission), Justice of the Peace or any Register in Chancery, or before some Judge of a Court having a seal and certified to have been taken and subscribed before him specifying time and place; and his signature and membership of such Court, and the existence of such Court must be certified by the Clerk thereof under seal. Any affidavit, oaths and depositions to be used in any pending cause in any Court of Record may be also taken before any Commissioner appointed by such Court for that purpose. State senators and representatives in State legislature by virtue of their office may administer oaths, take depositions and acknowledgments.

ARRESTS.—Upon process from the Circuit Courts by capias, where an order for bail is obtained, and in Justices' Courts by warrant upon affidavit showing the facts of the case, in all actions ex delicto for torts. Also under THE FRAUDULENT DEBTOR'S ACT by warrant—in actions commenced against any debtor where final judgment is obtained, and wherein by affidavit it appears that the judgment debtor fraudulently contracted the debt, for which the judgment was obtained; or has assigned, concealed or disposed of his property, or is about to remove his property out of the jurisdiction of the Court where suit is brought with intent to defraud his creditors. Also in actions to recover damages for breach of promise to marry, for money collected by any public officer, or for misconduct or neglect in office or in any professional employment. NO ARREST can be made in actions on contracts, except as above stated. The body of the defendant may be taken by a capias ad satisfaciendum from the Justice and Circuit Courts, issued after the return unsatisfied of the writ of execution against the goods and chattels, (lands and tenements Circuit Court fifa) of any judgment debtor, where the action was commenced by capias or warrant, or where action is in tort. Any judgment debtor arrested on such final process from Circuit Court may be released by giving to the Sheriff a satisfactory bond for the jail limits, and any person arrested on capias, as commencement of suit, may be released on giving the required bail for appearance in the action and for special bail therein.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Voluntary may be made by any person, partnership or corporations for the benefit of creditors, but must be without preferences in the assignment itself, and convey all the property of the assignor, not exempt from execution. Preferences by mortgage or transfer before or at the time of such an assignment are sustained in this State, if for valuable consideration, in good faith, and without notice of the assignment being made or contemplated by assignor. The instrument of assignment, an inventory of the assigned property, a list of creditors of the assignor, and a bond given with sufficient sureties for the faithful performance of the trust running to the assignor, must be filed by the assignee. The assignee must, within ten days, give notice to the creditors to prove their claims within ninety days. The Circuit Court in Chancery has supervision of the property, and of all matters relating to the assignment, and the assignee is subject to its orders; both the assignor and the assignee may be subject to examination under oath as to the subject matter of the trust. If a bond is not filed, as required, or there is any other non-compliance with the law, any creditor, if he so elect, may apply to the Circuit Court in Chancery, having supervision of the assignment, for the appointment of a receiver and for the enforcement of the trust as required by the statute. Assignments confer upon the assignee right to recover all property, or rights or equities in property which might be reached by any of the creditors. The assigned property shall be sold at public auction or at private sale, in one parcel, or separate, or in such manner as the court may direct on application for that purpose. All sales shall be for cash. It is the duty of the assignee to apply to the court within ten days after completion of the inventory for an order directing the disposition of the assigned property. Notice thereof to be given in writing to all creditors. Assignment transfers the rights of the assignor only, in the property assigned; such property remains liable to any lien or encumbrance thereon, which is valid as against the assignor except transfers, conveyances or encumbrances fraudulent as against creditors. No discharge whatever is given the assignor's creditors being at liberty to proceed against the assignor or his subsequently acquired property for the debt whether proved or not unless it is fully paid by dividends from the assigned estate. (See National Bankruptcy Act.)

ATTACHMENTS.—Writ may be issued as commencement of suit, and any goods and chattels, land and tenements, of the debtor, subject to execution, may be attached in actions on contract, express or implied, when the plaintiff or some one on his behalf makes an affidavit (and attaches it to the writ) stating: 1. The amount due as near as may be, and that the indebtedness is upon contract, express or implied. 2. That the defendant has absconded or is about to abscond from the State, or is concealed therein to the injury of his creditors; or that he has assigned, disposed of or concealed any of his property, or is about to do so, or that he has removed or is about to remove any of his property from the State, with intent to defraud his creditors; or that he fraudulently contracted the debt concerning which the suit is brought; or that he is a non-resident of this State, and has not been a resident for three months immediately preceding the time of making the affidavit, or that the defendant is a foreign corporation. Writs of attachment also may issue in actions on contract previously commenced by making the requisite affidavit and filing it in the action. Writs of attachment also may issue from the Circuit Courts in actions brought therein, before the maturity of the debt, upon the order of a Circuit Judge, made upon an affidavit showing ground as above required and reasons for the immediate issue of such writ; instead of stating that such indebtedness is due such affidavit shall state when it shall become due; and judgment, in such cases, cannot be taken until the debt shall have matured. Actions of tort also may be commenced by writ of attachment against non-residents and foreign corporations, when the cause of action has arisen or may hereafter arise in this State, or where the cause of action has accrued or shall hereafter accrue during the time that the plaintiff in such action shall have been a bona fide resident of this State; such writ shall be in the same form as such writs in suits on contract, and the proceedings shall be the same as in such writs; but there must be annexed to the writ before its execution, (and before the order prescribing the amount of property that may be attached) an affidavit by the plaintiff, or some other person authorized and having a knowledge of the facts, stating and describing the cause of action, that the defendant is a non-resident or foreign corporation, and that the cause of action arose in this State or accrued to the plaintiff at a time when such plaintiff was a bona fide resident of this State, and that the defendant is carrying on business in or is the owner of property within this State at the date of the affidavit; and before any property shall be attached in such cases an order must be endorsed thereon by a Circuit Court Commissioner of the county where the suit is commenced, or by any Circuit or Supreme Court Judge prescribing the amount of property that may be attached; if the defendant has a manager, agent, superintendent or other principal representative, in the county where the suit is brought, the process may be served upon him. The affidavit required in actions commenced by attachment is the basis of jurisdiction, and any substantial defects therein may be fatal to the proceedings, if taken advantage of by the defendant, where he is personally served, and if materially defective and the defendant not served the proceedings are void. In attachments from justices' courts, a bond must be filed on commencement of the suit by plaintiff, running to the defendant, and with sufficient sureties, indemnifying him against all damage in case judgment should not be recovered or the writ otherwise dismissed, and to the Sheriff (in Circuit Court process) to his satisfaction before attaching the property.

INSOLVENCY.—Any insolvent debtor may be released from arrest or imprisonment if he shall petition the Circuit Court to permit him to make an assignment of his property and for a discharge, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 142 or 143 of the Revised Statutes. Such petition may be presented to a judge of the Circuit Court, or to a Circuit Court commissioner, with an affidavit, account and inventory, which shall be subscribed and sworn to by such insolvent before such officer, who shall issue an order requiring all the creditors of such insolvent to show cause, if any they have, why an assignment of the insolvent's estate shall not be made, and he be discharged from his debts. On the day specified in such order or any subsequent day appointed the petition and proofs shall be heard. The matter may be tried before a jury upon demand of any creditor, and the insolvent may be examined under oath touching his estate or debts, and if it shall be found that the insolvent is justly and truly indebted, and has honestly and fairly given a true account of his estate and conformed to the matters required of him in said chapters, the officer before whom the application shall have been made shall direct an assignment of said insolvent's estate to such person or persons as shall be nominated as assignees by petitioning creditors having a major part of the debts, and in case they neglect to nominate, such officer shall appoint the assignee. The discharge granted shall not be valid, if the insolvent shall have wilfully sworn falsely in his affidavit annexed to his petition, or on his examination, in relation to any material fact concerning his estate or his debts, or if after presenting his petition he shall sell, assign or dispose of his property or collect any debts due him, or if he shall secrete any part of his estate or fraudulently conceal the name of any creditor, and for other causes specified in the chapter referred to. If such insolvent be imprisoned in a suit upon any debt or liability in which he is exempted from imprisonment by virtue of such discharge, he shall be discharged therefrom. No debt, demand, judgment or decree against any insolvent discharged under Chapter 206 of Howell's Statutes of Michigan, shall be affected or impaired by such discharge, but shall remain valid and effectual against all the property of such insolvent acquired after execution of his assignment. In circuit courts are valid for ten years; in justices' courts, six years. Any judgment of any justice court is appealable to the Circuit Court of the same county, only in cities of over 100,000 population. Judgments in justices' courts may be taken by transcript to the Circuit Court, and on filing transcript in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court with his affidavit showing the amount due, same shall be deemed a judgment of the Circuit Court; execution may issue and be levied on real estate, and all proceedings supplementary to execution may be taken as if the judgment had been originally rendered by the Circuit Court. Judgments in justices' courts for less than $20, exclusive of costs, may be removed by transcript to the docket of any justice of the peace in the State of Michigan, and when therein docketed execution may issue thereon, as if judgment was originally rendered before such justice. Cognovits or warrant of attorney to take judgment upon any promissory note must be separate and distinct instruments from the note itself. Defendants may appear before justice of the peace and confess judgment with or without process. Judgments bear the same rate of interest as the instrument or contract upon which they are founded, and if not any rate specified they bear 5 per cent. Judgment by default may be obtained in justices' courts in from six to ten days; and where plaintiffs are non-residents and begin suit by short summons within four days of service of process is obtained and no plea is interposed. In Circuit Courts judgment by default may be obtained in fifteen days after service of declaration, if the court is in session daily, and no appearance, plea or demurrer is entered by defendants. If an issue is formed the time when judgment can be obtained depends on locality of court and the number of cases having priority of trial. In the counties of Wayne, Kent and Saginaw there is more delay by reason of the crowded dockets than in other circuits. If suit is upon promissory notes or other instruments for the payment of certain sums of money, the case may be noticed for trial and inquest, and if defendant neglects to file an affidavit to the merits, judgment may be taken on any date after the first day of the term

LIMITATIONS.—1. In real actions. Five years after right of action or entry accrues, when defendant claims title under deed of executors, administrators, guardians, sheriffs, or other ministerial officers, or by a sheriff on a mortgage foreclosure sale, or under deeds on sale by virtue of any judgment, decree or process of a court of competent jurisdiction in this State. Ten years when defendant claims title under tax deed. Fifteen years in all other cases

2. In Personal Actions. Two years.—Actions for slander and libel, trespass on land, assault and battery and false imprisonment, and against physicians, surgeons and dentists for malpractice. Three years.—Actions against sheriffs for misconduct of themselves or deputies, and in actions to recover for personal injuries. —Four years in actions against sureties in guardian bonds from date of guardian's discharge. Six years.—All actions on contracts, express and implied not under seal, actions for waste and arrears of rent, actions of replevin and trover, and for taking, detaining or injuring goods and chattels, judgments of the justices of the peace and all other actions on the case. Ten years.—Actions on judgments or decrees of courts of record in the United States, and all actions of debt on sealed contracts. Fifteen years.—Actions to foreclose mortgage on real estate after due or after date of last payment thereon. In case of mutual and open accounts current, the statute begins to run from the date of the last item proved in such account. Statute is suspended during the absence of defendant from the State; and in personal actions, if at the time when the cause of action accrues the person entitled to bring it is within the age of twenty-one years, in sane or imprisoned in the State prison (or a married woman as to real actions) or absent from the United States or from the British Provinces of North America, such person may bring the action within the times respectively limited after the disability shall be removed, and as to real actions, five years after removal of disability. Part payment on contract or demand, or an acknowledgment or promise in writing to pay same will stop running of the statute. If a party liable dies within or thirty days after the time above limited in personal actions, claim may be provedagainst his estate at any time within two years after letters testamentary or of administration are issued. Fraudulent concealment of the cause of action by party liable from the knowledge of party entitled, action may be brought within two years after discovery of cause of action. While any case in Court of Chancery is pending and undetermined, time not to be computed as part of period in any personal action for the debt or matter in dispute in any such chancery case. Suits for penalties or forfeitures brought in name of people, two years after offense.

MORTGAGES AND DEEDS of real estate to be valid against creditors and subsequent purchasers (a tax of one-half of one per cent must be paid on all mortgages before they can be recorded) must be recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the county where the real estate is situated, and to be recorded must be executed by grantors, in the presence of two subscribing witnesses and the execution thereof, acknowledged before any judge, clerk or commissioner of a court of record or before a Notary Public, justice of the peace or master in chancery within this State, and the officer taking such acknowledgment shall endorse thereon a certificate of the acknowledgment thereof, and the true date of making the same under his hand. (Notary to certify date of expiration of his commission.) If any mortgage or deed shall be executed in any other State, territory or district of the United States, such deed may be executed according to the laws of such State, territory or district, and the execution thereof may be acknowledged before any judge of a court of record, notary public, justice of the peace, master in chancery, or other officer authorized by the laws of such State, territory or district to take the acknowledgment of deeds there, or before any commissioner appointed by the Governor of this State for such purpose. The officer taking such acknowledgment shall attach thereto the seal of his office, and if such acknowledgment be taken before justice of the peace, or other officer having no seal of office, such mortgage or deed or other conveyance or instrument shall have attached thereto a certificate of the clerk or of a proper certifying officer of a court of record of the county or district, or of the Secretary of State or territory within which such acknowledgment was taken, under the seal of his office, that the person whose name is subscribed to the certificate of acknowledgment was at the date thereof such officer as he is thereon represented to be; that he is well acquainted with handwriting of such officer, and that he believes the signature of such person to such certificate of acknowledgment to be genuine, and that the deed is executed and acknowledged according to the laws of such State, territory or district. If any deed or mortgage is executed in any foreign country, it may be executed according to the laws of such country, and the execution thereof may be acknowledged before any notary public therein, or before any minister plenipotentiary, minister extraordinary, minister resident, charge d'affaires, commissioner or consul, vice consul, charge d'affaires or consular agent of the United States, resident therein; such acknowledgment shall be certified thereon by the officer taking the same under his hand, and if taken before a notary public, his seal of office shall be affixed to such certificate. Acknowledgment of any married women to a deed of conveyance or other instrument affecting real estate may be taken in the same manner as if she were sole. Unless mortgages or deeds are acknowledged and witnessed as required, they will not be admitted to record in the office of the Register of Deeds of any county in this State. The forms of acknowledgment as provided by statue to establish laws uniform with the laws of other States may be used, when executed and acknowledged, they should be recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the county where the land is situated and will thereupon be constructive notice to all parties dealing in respect to such land of the title or encumbrance thereby affected. Mortgages on real estate may be foreclosed by advertisement of a notice required by law under the power contained in the mortgage. Such advertisement must be published in a newspaper, printed and circulated in the county where the land is situated, once a week, for twelve successive weeks prior to the date of the sale, and in such foreclosure, the mortgagor or his heirs, grantees, administrators or assigns may redeem the premises sold, or any parcel thereof at any time within one year from the date of the sale by paying to the purchaser, his executors, administrators or assigns the sum which was bid therefor at such sale with the interest from the date of sale. Such mortgages may also be foreclosed by bill in chancery, and may be sold under decree obtained therein six months from the date of filing the bill. Mortgagor may redeem from such sale within six months. Where there are any equities to be determined and disposed of it is preferable to foreclose in Chancery.

She may join her husband (or his heirs if he be deceased) in the conveyance of his real estate to bar dower or homestead rights. Cannot be deprived of dower except by such conveyance, or by will wherein she is provided for in lieu of dower, and elects to accept the provisions of such will. As to personal estate of which her husband dies possessed, if intestate, all her own and his wearing apparel and ornaments and all household furniture and also $200 in value of other personalty she may select. Entitled to allowance for support pending administration and if without issue of personal estate, she is entitled to $3,000; if more in value, one-half of the excess; if there are children or their issue she only gets one-third; if no children or their issue living and neither parents of deceased husband nor brother or sister, or any of their issue living the whole of the excess goes to the widow. But such societies not doing business outside of the county in which they are organized or contiguous counties are not subject to this law, and are termed "Home" societies in contradistinction to the others, which are known as "Nationals." But under the laws of 1891 the "Home" associations are put under control of the State.

Calls may be made on each bank for reports as calls are made for reports by national banks. If a bank is found insolvent or its continuance in business is hazardous to creditors or depositors, or it fails to comply with legal requirements, summary provision made for its liquidation at the instance of the examiners. Each bank assessed 1-40 of 1 per cent. of its total assets each year for maintenance of banking department. Any person or firm doing banking business required to incorporate. No state corporation shall carry on state banking business except in compliance with this act. Provision for incorporation under general law and for amendment as well. Capital stock must be paid up in money. Guarantee of deposits provided for. On proper application any existing state bnak may become a guaranteed bank. After May 15, 1915 this is to be no longer optional; all banks must then be governed by the regulations pertaining to the depositors' guarantee fund. This fund is made up by a deposit with the State Treasurer of designated securities to the amount of $500 for every $100,000, or fraction thereof, of its average deposits subject to guaranty (less capital and surplus) not less than $500 for any bank. In case of insolvency of any bank this fund is to be available to pay depositors.

Guaranty does not apply to banks obligations as endorser on bills rediscounted, nor to bills payable, nor to money borrowed, nor to deposits bearing a greater rate of interest than 4 per cent. per annum. No guaranteed bank, except savings banks, permitted to receive deposits continuously for six months in excess of ten times its paid up capital and surplus. Strict provisions as to examination and reports, and as to character of assets considered in making up statements. No bank permitted to accept as collateral or purchase its own capital stock, unless necessary to prevent loss in case of previously contracted debts; and, in such case, unless full payment is made, stock must be sold within twelve months. This does not apply to executors, guardians or other trustees, or persons holding stock as collateral security. But funds in the hands of such trustees shall be liable. Strict requirements as to keeping up cash reserve, and numerous other provisions for protection of creditors, depositors and stockholders — all under the direct supervision of the examiners who have authority to have insolvent banks liquidated, and who must make annual reports to the Legislature. The Act of 1914 creating the State Banking Department is construed to repeal the provisions of the code requiring banks to make reports to the auditor.

Banks required to give notice to administrator or executor of deceased persons of deposits of money and papers held for the deceased. Directors must hold regular meetings and keep a complete record. Every bank with a paid up capital of as much as $100,000 may do business as a trust company and act as administrator, guardian, receiver, etc , and may execute bonds in legal proceedings and perform other duties of a trust company. Banks may establish a special mutual loan department. Interest on such loans not to exceed 8%. A bank is not permitted to allow the use of its name by others in making loans. (See also Corporations.)

BILLS AND NOTES are carefully defined as to terms, effect, negotiability and protest for the most part in accordance with the law merchant. Very careful provisions are made to give validity, effect and negotiability to all notes and bills, the uniform negotiable instrument act passed in a number of the States having been adopted. Makers, drawers and endorsers are absolutely liable, and want or failure of considera tion and offset as a general rule are prohibited, especially as against third persons or innocent holders. The old law authorizing defence to be made against bona fide holders is repealed. But the provisions of the act of 1916 do not apply to negotiable instruments made and delivered prior to its taking effect. The statute is very explicit and provides that in any case not provided for, the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, shall govern and all laws inconsistent with the act are repealed. All bills over $20.00 protestable; foreign draw 10% damages, domestic 5%. Bills and notes for a sum certain payable only in money are entitled to three days of grace. When a married woman joins her husband, describe her as his wife; no other form or separate examination is necessary.

ADMINISTRATION.—Estates of deceased persons are administered upon and settled in the Probate Court, which issues letters of administration. In granting letters of administration, priority in right is granted as follows: First, to the husband or wife; second, to one or more of the distributees of the estate, according as the discretion of the court, or judge or clerk thereof in vacation, may direct. Non-residents are not allowed to administer upon estates of deceased persons. Executors and administrators are required to give bond with two or more securities, residents of the county issuing letters of administration. Such bonds are for an amount double the estimated value of the estate. Where the testator provides that his executor shall not be required to give bond, yet it is within the discretion of the court to require the giving of such bond, if any cause is shown. The court or clerk is required by law to publish in some newspaper in the county wherein letters testamentary or of administration have been granted, a notice of the granting of the same, stating the date thereof, and requiring all persons having claims against the estate to exhibit them to the executor or administrator within six months after the date of such letters, or they may be precluded from the benefits of such estate; and that if such claims be not exhibited in one year from the time of the publication of such notice, they will be forever barred. Demands against the estate of a deceased person are divided into classes, and are paid by the executor or administrator, so far as he has assets, in the order in which they are classified. If there be not sufficient assets to pay the whole of any class, the demands in such class shall be paid pro rata. The classification and priority of demands against deceased persons are as follows: First, funeral expenses; second, expenses of last sickness, wages of servants and claims for medicine and medical attendance during last sickness of deceased; third, all debts, including taxes due this state or any county or incorporated town or city therein situated; fourth, all judgments rendered against deceased in his lifetime, and judgments rendered upon attachments levied during the lifetime of the deceased; fifth, all demands, without regard to quality, which shall be legally exhibited against the estate within six months after the granting of first letters on the estate; sixth, all demands exhibited after the end of six months and within one year after letters have been granted. The period of one year begins to run from the date of the letters where notice is published within ten days after the granting of the same, and in all other cases the year begins to run from the date of publication of notice.

Executors and administrators are required by law to make their first settlement at the first term after the end of six months from the date of the letters and the second at the first term after the end of one year from the date of the letters. If the estate is not closed in one year, they are required to make annual settlements.

Any person having demands against an estate should serve upon the executor or administrator a notice in writing, stating the amount and nature of his claim, with a copy of the instrument of writing or accunt upon which the claim is founded, and such claim shall be then considered legally exhibited from the date of its service. Before a claim can be allowed against an estate, the claimant must file an affidavit with such claim, stating that to the best of his knowledge and belief he has given credit to the estate for all payments and offsets to which it is legally entitled, and the balance claimed is justly due and unpaid. The claimant is required to prove his claim as in ordinary cases, if contested, but the court hears and determines all demands in a summary way without the form of pleading. The court may refuse to grant letters on estates not greater in amount than allowed by law to the widow, widower or minor children under sixteen years of age

ASSIGNMENTS.—Assignments may be made for the benefit of creditors, but every such assignment shall be by deed and for the benefit of all the creditors of the assignor in proportion to their respective claims. Every provision providing for the payment of one debt of liability in preference to another shall be void. Assignments must be proved, or acknowledged and certified, and recorded as conveyances of real estate. At the time of executing the deed of assignment the assignor must make a statement in writing, verified by affidavit, setting forth the general nature and full value of the estate and effects assigned, which shall be filed with the deed of assignment, and the assignee, within three days after the filing of such deed and statement, must give bond. Within fifteen days after the execution of the deed of assignment the assignee must file a full and complete inventory under oath of all the property and effects assigned. The court shall then appoint two disinterested persons as appraisers to appraise the assigned property, which appraisement shall be made under oath and filed within five days after the same shall have been completed. The statute provides for notice to creditors, proving of claims and payment of dividends. An assignor is not discharged from liability by reason of the assignment. Property assigned is disposed of under orders of the Circuit Court of county where assignment is made. Court may order compromise of claims. Employees of assigned corporations have preference for labor claims.

ATTACHMENTS.—Attachment may be sued out on affidavit alleging that party is guilty or about to do one of the 13 prohibited acts. Bond must be given in double the amount sued for except in cases against non-residents when no bond is required, but the attachment will be dissolved by entry of appearance by defendant unless bond is given. A non-resident may attach against another non-resident, but wages cannot in such case be garnished unless personal service is had against the defendant.

BANKS AND BANKING.—Five or more persons in any county in the State may associate themselves together by articles of agreement, to form a bank. The capital stock must be fully paid up. In those cases where the bank is to be located in a village or town where the population is 3,000 or less, the capital stock may be $10,000, one half paid. In larger towns a larger minimum capital stock is provided for, but all must be paid up in full. Statements of the condition of the bank are required. Banks and trust companies are under the direction of the State Banking Department, at the head of which is a Banking Commissioner appointed by the Governor. He has supervisory power over all of the banks and trust companies and may under certain conditions close and take possession of a bank. In other cases he reports the facts as he finds them to the Attorney-General, who takes appropriate proceedings When a bank has been taken possession of by the State Banking Commissioner the courts are prohibited from entertaining suits against it. Private banks are required to have a minimum capital of $5,000 and are also under the supervision of the Commissioner. All banks and trust companies are regularly examined by an examiner. The use of signs, advertising, letter heads, bill heads, etc., indicating that a place is the office of a bank, except by a National Bank, Federal Reserve Bank, or regularly organized state bank, is prohibited by law. Violation of this law constitutes a misdemeanor.

BILLS AND NOTES.—The Negotiable Instruments Act is in force.

BLUE SKY LAW.—The sale of stocks, bonds and other securities, except by certain well defined companies or persons, is prohibited, unless permission has first been obtained from the State Banking Commissioner. This law is not as drastic as that of some of the States, but is sufficiently severe to prevent the sale of many fraudulent securities. Before granting permission to sell, statements under oath are required and examinations may be made by the Banking Department of the books and properties of the proposed company or person applying for permission.

BULK SALES.—Sale of stock of merchandise in bulk is prohibited unless the vendee at least seven (7) days before the sale receives from the vendor a written statement of the names and addresses of creditors, and amount of indebtedness, and the vendee gives each creditor at least seven ( ) days notice by registered mail or by telegraph of the proposed sale; otherwise the transaction shall be fraudulent and void as against creditors. Any vendee who shall fraudulently fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of the law shall, upon application of any of the creditors, become a receiver, and be held accountable to such creditors for all the merchandise and fixtures coming into his possession. The law does not give any creditor a lien on the merchandise except the goods sold and delivered by such creditor. No suit can be instituted under the Act against any vendee after the expiration of ninety days from the date of the delivery of the merchandise.

EXECUTION.—Issued by justice of the peace is a lien on goods and chattels of debtor from time it is indorsed by the constable, can be levied only on personal property, and is returnable in thirty days. Transcript of judgment filed in Circuit Court becomes lien on real estate in that county. When issued by Circuit Court is returnable at next term, and may be issued to any county in the state. Evidences of debt and books of account may be levied on under execution from Circuit Court and sheriff, or other person appointed by court as receiver, may collect same.

If it shall be made to appear to the court, by affidavit or other satisfactory evidence, that there is reasonable grounds to believe that a judgment debtor against whom an execution has been issued and returned unsatisfied, has property subject to execution, or has conveyed or attempted to convey his property with a design to defraud, hinder or delay his creditor, such creditor is entitled to an order of court requiring defendant to appear in court to undergo an examination touching his ability and means to pay anddischarge said judgment, and neglect or refusal of debtor subjects him to attachment and punishment for contempt.

EXEMPTIONS.—When owned by any person other than the head of the family, the following property is exempt: 1. Wearing apparel. 2. Necessary tools and implements of trade of any mechanic whilst carrying on his trade. When owned by the head of the family, the following property is exempt: 1. Ten head of choice hogs, ten head of choice sheep and the product thereof in wool, yarn or cloth; two cows and two calves; two plows, one ax, one hoe, one set of plow gears, and all necessary farm implements for the use of one man. 2. Two work animals, and feed of value of $25. 3. The spinning wheels and cards, one loom and apparatus necessary for manufacturing cloth in a private family. 4. All the spun yarn, thread and cloth manufactured for family use. 5. Any quantity of hemp, flax and wool, not exceeding twenty-five pounds each. 6. All lawyers, physicians and ministers of the gospel in the active practice of their profession shall have the privilege of selecting such books as shall be necessary to their profession in lieu of the foregoing property, and doctors of medicine in lieu of other property may select their medicines.

Each head of a family, at his election, in lieu of the property mentioned under the first two heads, may select any other property, real, personal, or mixed, or debts and wages not exceeding in value $300.

Nothing is exempt from judgments for taxes.

GARNISHMENT.—Wages due employees are subject to garnishment, but if the defendant is the head of a family, only 10 per cent. can be reached. No exemptions are allowed an execution debtor who is about to leave the State.

HOMESTEADS.—Consisting in the country, of not more than one hundred and sixty acres of land and appurtenances, and not to exceed the value of $1,500; and in cities having population of forty thousand or more, of not more than eighteen square rods of ground of the value of $3,000; and in cities and villages having ten thousand and less than forty thousand inhabitants, of thirty square rods of ground, of the value of not more than $1,500; and in cities of less than ten thousand, not more than five acres of ground, of total value of $1,500, are exempt from execution.

INTEREST.—Legal rate, 6 per cent.; parties may contract in writing not to exceed 8 per cent. Usury invalidates liens securing the debt; may be recovered by suit from the lendor. Open accounts bear interest from the time payment is demanded. Interest may by agreement be compounded annually.

MARRIED WOMEN.—Must join their husbands in all conveyance of real estate belonging to him in order to release dowor. A married woman can now sue and be sued the same as if unmarried. All personal and real property including rights in actions, belonging to a married woman before her marriage, or acquired by her during coverture, together with the income thereof, is her separate property, under her sole control, and cannot be taken for her husband's debts, and so remains unless she authorizes her husband, in writing, to sell, encumber or otherwise dispose of it for his own benefit; but such property is subject to payment of debts contracted by her before marriage, or of any debt of husband created for necessaries for wife or family. Husband still has right of curtesy in wife's real estate, but it seems that her husband need not join in conveyance of her statutory separate real estate.

TRUSTS.—Laws of this State prohibit Trusts under heavy penalty and by fine and imprisonment.

Preferences can only be given absolutely without reserving any power of revocation. Joint or joint and several debtors can prefer joint creditors only out of joint property, individual creditors out of separate property. The assignment is void if it give preferences dependent upon condition or contingency; if it tend to coerce any creditor to release or compromise; if it provide for the payment of any claim known by the assignor to be false or fraudulent, or for the payment of more than is justly due; if it reserves any interest to the assignor for his benefit before all his existing debts are paid; if it confer any power upon the assignee which if exercised might prevent or delay the immediate conversion of the assigned property; if it exempt him from liability for neglect of duty or misconduct.

In case of failure of the assignor to make the same, the assignee may within thirty days or such further time as he may be granted cause the same to be made and delivered to the judge of the district court. Upon failure of the assignee to make such inventory, the district judge on the motion of any person interested may cause him to be removed. The assignee within thirty days must enter into a bond to secure the faithful performance of his trust, in an amount and with such securities as approved by the judge of the district court. If the decedent leave a surviving husband or wife and more than one child living, one-third to the husband or wife and the remainder in equal shares to the children, but if there be no child of the decedent living at his death, the remainder goes to all his lineal descendants, and if all the descendants are in the same degree of kindred to the decedent, they share equally, otherwise they take according to the right of representative. If the decedent leaves no surviving husband or wife, but leave issue, the whole estate goes to such issue, and if such issue consists of more than one child living, or one child living and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, then the estate goes in equal shares to the children living, or to the child living, and the issue of the deceased child or children by right of representative. If the decedent leaves no issue, the estate goes one-half to the surviving husband or wife, and the other half to the decedent's father and mother in equal shares, and if either be dead the whole of said half goes to the other If there be no father or mother, then one-half goes in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of the decedent, and to the children of a deceased brother or sister by right of representative. If the decedent leave a surviving husband or wife, and neither issue, father, mother, brother nor sister, the whole estate goes to the surviving husband or wife. If the decedent leave neither issue, husband, wife, father, mother, brother nor sister, the estate goes to the next of kin in equal degree, excepting that when there are two or more collateral kindred in equal degree, but claiming through different ancestors, those who claim through the nearest must be preferred to those claiming through an ancestor more remote If the decedent leave several children, or one child, and the issue of one or more children, and any such surviving child dies under age, and not having been married, all the estate that came to the deceased child by inheritance from such decedent, descends in equal shares to the other children of the same parent, and to the issue of any such other children who are dead, by right of representative.

If the officer is provided with a seal no authentication is required, otherwise required.

Acknowledgment of deeds in the State may be taken by a judge, or clerk of the court, a notary public, or justice of the peace.

ACTIONS.—The code provides that there shall be but one form of action, known as a civil action, and the distinction between actions at law, and suits in equity, is abolished as to form.

It must be brought in the name of the real party in interest, except action by an executor, administrator, guardian, trustee of express trust, etc.

Jurisdiction: Justice court has civil jurisdiction not involving more than two hundred dollars; county court, not involving more than one thousand dollars; district court is of general jurisdiction. Action is initiated by bill of particulars in justice court and by petition in the county or district court. In either court a summons is issued by the court, or its clerk, and is served by a sheriff or constable on the defendant. No prescribed initial costs. Each item of costs is fixed by statute. An initial cost of two dollars in the county court, and five dollars in the district court is usually charged. Non-residents are required to give security for costs. Officers may demand costs in advance as made.

Statute of limitations begins to run at the date of the summons first regularly served; in case of constructive service, at the date of first publication.

Other than specific performance of contract to convey, all actions concerning real estate must be brought in county or counties, where land lies.

When suit is properly begun in one county, summons may then be issued to any county in the State. Personal actions must be brought in the county in which defendant or some of the defendants reside, or may be summoned. Non residents may be proceeded against in any county in which they have property.

ADMINISTRATION.—County court, in addition to its other jurisdiction, has exclusive jurisdiction of all matters touching the settlement of the estate of deceased persons. Domestic and foreign wills are ineffective to pass title to property until proved and allowed by this court. Time within which claims must be filed is fixed by the court, but may not be less than six months, nor more than eighteen months in the first instance. Notice of time fixed must be published. Uncontested claims may be allowed on proof by ex parte affidavit. Contested claims must be supported by oral or deposition evidence. Representatives are required to give bond to the court in such sum as fixed by the court for the use and benefit of all parties in interest.

The county court grants letters testamentary in the following order: (1)—to widow or next of kin, or both, or some suitable person, suggested by widow or next of kin (2)—in case of thirty day default in such appointment to one or more of the principal creditors, if any such are competent and willing to take it. (3)—in default of these, to such other person or persons, as the County Judge may think proper—the executor or administrator is required to make inventory of real and personal property, within three months. The debts of the decedent are payable in the following order: (1)—necessary funeral expenses; (2)—expenses of last sickness; (3)—debts having preference by laws of the United States; (4)—debts due to other creditors.

Before letters testamentary are given an executor, he must show he is legally competent and must give bond with sufficient sureties conditioned to truly account for all moneys and pay all debts, and to carry out all orders of the probate court. An administrator likewise must give bond with same conditions. Foreign administrators and executors, who have given sufficient bond in their own State, may be licensed by the district court, here to sell real estate, and the furnishing of further bond, is discretionary with the district court

AFFIDAVITS—May be administered before any judge in the State, justice of peace, notary public, county clerk, or by any person authorized by the laws of any other State to administer oaths. Affidavits may be used to verify pleadings, to prove service of summons, notice or other process in an action, to obtain a provisional remedy an examination of witnesses, a stay of proceedings or, upon motion, and in any other case permitted by law.

ATTACHMENTS—May issue against defendant's property at or after commencement of action founded on contract, express or implied: First, when he has absconded with intent to defraud creditors; second, when defendant is a non-resident, or foreign corporation; third, when he has left the county to avoid service of summons; fourth, when he prevents service of summons by concealing himself; fifth, when he is about to remove his property with intent to defraud his creditors; sixth, when he is about to convert his property into money for the purpose of placing beyond the reach of creditors; seventh, has property or rights which he conceals; eight, has or is about to assign, remove or dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors; ninth, fraudulently contracted the debt.

To obtain the writ, affidavit must be filed giving the nature of the claim; that it is just, and the existence of one of above-mentioned grounds. An undertaking in double the amount of the claim is required conditioned that the plaintiff shall pay all damages the defendant sustains if attachment is wrongfully issued, except when defendant is a non-resident or foreign corporation, when no undertaking is required. Attachment may issue before claim is due on filing the necessary affidavit, obtaining an order of court, and giving the necessary undertaking, when one of the following grounds exists: First, when debtor has sold or disposed of his property with intent to defraud or hinder and delay creditors; second, when he is about to dispose of his property with such fraudulent intent; third, when he is about to remove the whole or a material part of his property with the intent or with the effect of defrauding his creditors, or hindering and delaying them in the collection of their debts.

BANKS AND BANKING.—HOW INCORPORATED—Banks are incorporated under the general incorporation law of the State and not by act of the legislature, which provides that any number of persons may associate themselves together and become incorporated for the transaction of any lawful business. The articles of incorporation must be acknowledged as deeds and recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which its business is to be transacted.

And further: "In all cases of claims against corporations and joint stock companies the exact amount justly due shall be first ascertained, and after the corporate property shall have been exhausted, the original subscribers thereof shall be individually liable to the extent of their unpaid subscription, and the liability for the unpaid subscription shall follow the stock."

CAPITAL REQUIRED.—In cities and villages having a population of less than 1,000 inhabitants, a paid-up capital of $5,000 is required; where the population is more than 1,000 and less than 1,500, a paid-up capital of $10,000 is required; where it is less than 2,000 and more than 1,500, a paid-up capital of $15,000 is required; where it is less than 3000 and more than 2,000, a paid-up capital of $20,000 is required; where it is less than 5,000 and more than 3,000, a paid-up capital of $25,000 is required; where it is less than 10,000 and more than 5,000, a paid-up capital of $30,000 is required; where it is more than 10,000, a paid-up capital of $50,000 is required.

Commercial paper six months past due cannot be included in the assets of such bank. These reports must be transmitted to the State Auditor within 5 days after requested, and a summary of such report in any form prescribed, must be published in a newspaper where such banking business is transacted, at the expense of the bank, and proof of publication transmitted to the Auditor.

SPECIAL REPORTS.—In addition to the four reports above provided for, the Auditor, Treasurer and Attorney-General, or any two of them, are authorized to call for special reports whenever, in their judgment, it is necessary.

PENALTIES FOR FAILURE TO MAKE REPORTS AND FOR MAKING FALSE REPORTS.—A fine of $50 for each day it delays to make or transmit such report is imposed on every bank; and every person wilfully and knowingly making any false statement or entry in the books of the bank, or knowingly subscribing, or exhibiting false papers, with intent to deceive any person authorized to examine into the affairs of the bank, or making, or publishing any false statement of the amount of the bank's capital, assets or surplus, is guilty of felony and will be fined not to exceed $10,000 and imprisoned not less than one nor more than five years.

STATE BANK EXAMINER.—Duties, powers, etc. A State Bank Examiner is appointed who is required to examine the affairs of any bank, firm or individual transacting banking business at least once in each year, at the expense of the bank. Such Examiner has power to make a thorough examination into all the papers and affairs of the bank, or the individuals transacting banking business, to administer oaths and examine on oath any individual banker and the officers, agents, partners and clerks of such bank, touching any matter affecting the subject of inquiry. He can summon, and by attachment compel, the attendance of any inhabitant of the State to testify under oath before him in relation to the affairs of such bank, and he is required to make full and detailed report of the condition of each bank examined to the Auditor.

RESERVE REQUIRED AND LIMIT OF LIABILITIES. — Every bank, firm or individual engaged in the banking business is required, at all times, to have on hand as a reserve, in available funds, an amount equal at least to 15 per cent. of its deposits and immediate liabilities, provided however, that in cities having a population of 25,000 or over, this reserve must be 20%; in cities having a population of 100,000 or more, such reserve must be 25%. Banks conducting exclusively savings bank business shall have on hand as a reserve 10% of their deposits and immediate liabilities. The total liabilities of any corporation or firm to any bank, for money borrowed, shall not at any time exceed 20% of the capital. And in no case can the total liabilities of the stockholders exceed 50% of the paid-up capital.

RECEIVING DEPOSITS WHILE INSOLVENT.—No bank or individual engaged in banking, can accept or receive on deposit, with or without interest, any money, bank bills or notes when such bank or individual is insolvent. Any violation of this provision is punished as provided for making false statements.

APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER. — Whenever it appears to the Auditor, State Treasurer, or Attorney-General, or any two of them, that the reserve of any bank is below the amount required by law and that the bank has failed for 30 days to make such reserve good, or that such bank is not the owner of property of the amount required in order to transact banking business, or is conducting its business in an unsafe and unauthorized manner, or that the interests of its depositors are being jeopardized, they shall communicate the facts to the Attorney-General, who is required to proceed in the Supreme or District court for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of and wind up such banking business.

BILLS AND NOTES.—The uniform Negotiable Instruments Act was passed by the Legislature of 1905, and takes effect August 1st, 1905. Days of grace are abolished on all paper made and accepted after that time. Legal Holidays are January 1, February 22, April 22 (Arbor Day), May 30, July 4, the first Monday in September (Labor Day), Thanksgiving Day, December 25, and any day that may hereafter be made a legal holiday. If a legal holiday falls on Sunday the succeeding day shall be a holiday, and any negotiable paper maturing on such holiday shall be payable or presentable for acceptance or payment on the secular or business day next succeeding.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. — The owner of goods and chattels may mortgage the same for valuable consideration and the mortgage creates a lien upon the chattels mortgaged from the time the mortgage is filed in the office of the county clerk of the county wherein the mortgagor resides, or in case he is a non-resident of the State, in the office of the clerk of the county wherein the mortgaged property may be. Such mortgages need not be the recorded, but original, or a copy, must be left on file and indexed under the name of the mortgagor and mortgagee for the inspection of the public. It may be so filed even though not acknowledged and will then be as valid as if the same were spread upon the records of the county. Every such mortgage ceases to be valid as against the creditors of the mortgagor, or purchasers or mortgagees in good faith after the expiration of five years from the date of the last filing and may be re-filed from time to time. If the mortgagee does not take possession of the chattels mortgaged, but relies upon constructive notice by the filing of his mortgage, the burden of proof is upon the mortgagee to show the bona fides and valuable consideration for the mortgage. Chattel mortgages may be foreclosed whenever so provided in the mortgage by advertisement, published in some newspaper printed in the county in which such sale is to take place, or, when there is no newspaper printed therein, by posting notices at least at five public places in said county 20 days prior to the date of sale. Every such notice must specify: 1st, the date of the mortgage and where recorded; 2d, the names of the mortgagor and mortgagee and assignee of the mortgagee, if any; 3d, the amount claimed to be due at the time of the first publication; 4th, a description of the mortgaged property; 5th, time and place of sale. The sale must be between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., in the county where the mortgage was first recorded, or in any county where the property may have been removed by consent of the parties, and shall be in view of the property. The rights of a vendor who has been induced by fraud to part with his goods has a superior right to the mortgagee under a mortgage executed by the fraudulent vendee where the only consideration for the mortgage is a preceding indebtedness and no new consideration is given to support the mortgage, in such case replevin may be brought by the vendor against the mortgagee.

CONDITIONAL SALES.—Are valid for five years against purchaser or creditor of vendee, if in writing duly signed, and a copy filed in the office of the county clerk of county of vendee's residence, accompanied by affidavit of vendor, his agent or attorney, showing: First, names of vendor and vendee; second, description of property; and third, the true interest of the vendor therein.

CORPORATIONS.—Corporate powers can only be conferred by general laws. The general act provides that any number of persons may incorporate for the transaction of any lawful business with the following powers: First, succession by its corporate name; second, to sue and be sued; third, to make and use a common seal; fourth, to hold personal estate, also such real estate as necessary to the legitimate business of the corporation; fifth, to render interest of stockholders transferrable; sixth, to appoint such subordinate officers and agents as the business of the corporation shall require; seventh, to make such by-laws, consistent with statute, as its affairs may require. Prior to commencing business articles must be adopted, signed, acknowledged and filed with the secretary of state and of domestic corporations with the county clerk of the proper county; also, except mutual insurance companies, building and loan companies, loan and investment companies, and banking companies, which must be filed with the state auditor and banking board. Articles must fix the highest amount of indebtedness to which corporation may be subjected, which shall not exceed two-thirds of the capital stock. Such limitations not to apply to risks of insurance companies, bank deposits, nor the notes, bonds or debentures of loan and trust companies, if secured by transfer of real estate mortgage or trust deed of twice their value, nor apply to the guaranty of payment after transfer, if so secured.

Before commencing business, notice must be published four weeks containing: First, name; second, principal place of business; third, nature of business; fourth, authorized capital stock and the time and condition of payment; fifth, commencement and termination of corporate life; sixth, highest indebtedness corporation may assume; seventh, by what officers affairs conducted. By-laws must be posted, with officers' names, at place of business. Annual statement of all existing indebtedness of corporation, signed by president and majority of directors, must be published. Failure to do so subjects stockholders jointly and severally to the payment of all debts after exhausting corporate assets.

Corporations for the transaction of certain classes of business are subject to further and different requirements and regulations too numerous to be included herein. When the corporation is legally organized and conducted, there is no liability of stockholders other than for the full payment of corporate stock, except stockholders in banking associations, who are subject to double liability.

DEFICIENCY JUDGMENTS.—Section 894 of the Code providing that anyone liable on a debt secured by real estate mortgage might be made a party defendant, and section 847, providing that in a suit to foreclose such mortgage the court might after the sale of the mortgaged property render a judgment for the deficiency remaining unsatisfied against such defendants as were personally liable therefor, were repealed by act of 1897

The same act contains the following:

Sec. 2. That section numbered 848 of the Code of civil procedure of the State of Nebraska, which reads as follows: "After such petition shall be filed, while the same is pending, and after a decree rendered thereon, no proceeding whatever shall be had at law for the recovery of the debt secured by the mortgage or any part thereof, unless authorized by the court;" shall be amended so as to read as follows: "After such petition shall be filed, while the same is pending, and after a decree rendered thereon, no proceedings whatever shall be had at law for the recovery of the debt secured by the mortgage or any part thereof."

DEPOSITIONS.—May be used, (1) when the witness does not reside in the county where the action is pending, or is absent therefrom. (2) when, from infirmity or imprisonment the witness is unable to attend court, or is dead. Depositions may be taken in this State, before a judge or clerk of the supreme or district court, a probate judge, justice of the peace, notary public, mayor or chief magistrate of the city or a master commissioner or someone empowered specially. Notice upon the adverse party of the taking of depositions is necessary. This notice should give names of witnesses. A certificate of the officer taking the deposition must be annexed thereto showing that the witness was properly sworn, etc.

DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION.—Subject to debts, real estate descends:

1. One fourth in fee to husband or wife, if survivor is not the parent of all the children.

2. One third in fee to husband or wife, if survivor is the parent of all the children and there are two or more children.

3. One half in fee to the husband or wife, if the survivor is the parent of all the children and there is only one child surviving or its issue.

4. One half to the husband or wife where no children.

5. Where no husband or wife survives.

No person shall be entitled to a divorce from any cause arising in this State who has not had actual residence in this State for at least one year next before bringing suit for divorce with a bona fide intention of making this State his or her permanent home, unless the marriage was solemnized in this State and the applicant shall have resided therein from the time of the marriage to the time of filing the petition. No person shall be entitled to a divorce for any cause arising out of this State unless the petitioner or defendant shall have resided within this State for at least two years next before bringing suit for divorce, with a bona fide intention of making this State his or her permanent home. A petition or bill of divorce, alimony, and maintenance may be exhibited by a wife in her own name, as well as by a husband, and in all cases the respondent may answer such petition or bill without oath. No person shall be entitled to a divorce unless the defendant shall have been personally served with process, if within this State, or with personal notice duly proved and appearing of record, if out of this State, or unless the defendant shall have entered an appearance in the case; but if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court by the affidavit of the petitioner or of his or her attorney that the petitioner does not know the address or residence of the defendant, and has not been able to ascertain either, after reasonable and due inquiry and search, continued for three months after the filing of the petition, the court or judge in vacation shall authorize notice by publication of the pendency of the suit for divorce, to be given in a manner as provided in other cases under the code of civil procedure. A decree of divorce shall not become final or operative until six months after trial and decision except for the purpose of review, by proceedings in error or by appeal; and for such purpose only the decree shall be treated as a final order as soon as rendered: provided that if proceedings in error or by appeal shall have been instituted within said six months the said decree shall not become final until said proceedings are finally determined. If no such proceedings have been instituted, the district court may, at any time within said six months, vacate or modify said decree; but if said decree shall not have been vacated or modified, unless proceedings are then pending with that end in view, the original decree shall at the expiration of six months become final without any further action of the court.

EXECUTIONS.—Lien only after levy. Should be levied on personal property and corporate stocks first, and real, when no personal, or inadequate. Before sale of personal property, notice must be published ten days, of real estate thirty days, continuously for required period. Execution may be stayed on giving undertaking, as follows: Under ten dollars, sixty days; under fifty dollars, ninety days; under one hundred dollars, six months; over one hundred dollars, nine months. Following exemptions are allowed heads of families: Two contiguous lots in towns, if occupied as a home, not exceeding two thousand dollars in value; one hundred and sixty acres of land, so occupied, not exceeding same value. In addition, if a farmer, team and equipment for farming; if a merchant or professional tools or books for trade or profession. All heads of families who have neither lands, town lots or houses subject to exemption as a homestead have exempt from forced sale on execution five hundred dollars in personal property. Ninety per cent. of wages exempt except for necessaries furnished in support of family. If title to homestead is in wife it is exempt, and in such case the head of family is not entitled to exemption of five hundred dollars in personalty. A conveyance of homestead must be signed by both husband and wife.

FRAUDS, STATUTE OF.—Contracts required to be in writing and signed by person to be bound: First, agreements not to be performed within one year; second, to answer for the debt of another; third, contracts upon consideration of marriage; fourth, for the sale of goods of the value of fifty dollars or more, unless purchaser accept part of the goods or pay part of the purchase price; fifth, every estate or interest in lands, except leases not exceeding one year, from the making thereof, must be evidenced by writing signed by party to be bound.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.—The husband acquires no interest in the separate property of the wife by marriage. They may sell and deal in the real and personal property on their own account, the same as if unmarried. A personal judgment against a married woman on her note, is not binding on her, unless she has declared her intention to charge her separate estate and her separate estate is not liable for a joint note of herself and husband unless she has declared her intention to bind her separate estate.

INTEREST.—Where no rate of interest is specified in a contract or in cases where interest is allowed by law, the rate is 7%; parties may contract for interest at any rate up to 10% and make it payable in advance. All judgments and decrees bear 7%, except on all contracts where a higher rate up to 10% is stipulated for the decree or judgment will draw such higher rate. If interest is contracted for in excess of 10% it is usurious; all of the interest is forfeited, interest payments go to discharge the principal, and in any suit founded upon such a contract no matter what the defense may be the plaintiff is adjudged to pay all costs. Open accounts commence to draw interest six months after the date of the last item unless provided otherwise by contract.

JUDGMENTS.—A judgment is a lien upon the lands and tenements of the judgment debtor within the county where such judgment is rendered from the first day of the term at which it is rendered, provided however, that judgments by confession, and judgments rendered at the same term at which the action is commenced, become a lien on such lands only from the day on which they are rendered. All other lands, as well as goods and chattels of the debtor, are bound from the time they may be seized in execution. When a judgment is rendered in any district court in the State a transcript thereof may be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court in any other county of the State, and it thereby becomes a lien upon the property of the debtor in any county in which such transcript may be filed, in like manner as in the county where the judgment was rendered; an execution may be issued on said transcript as on the original judgment. Execution may issue to any county in the State at any time within 5 years after the rendition of the judgment or the issue of the last execution. After 5 years from the issue of an execution the judgment becomes dormant, but limitation never runs against it, and if unpaid, it may be revived with all its original force and effect by an order of the court wherein it was rendered after reasonable notice to the judgment debtor.

LIMITATION.—Actions upon contracts and instruments in writing and foreign judgments may be brought within five years after the cause of action arises. Open accounts and contracts not in writing and implied contracts are barred in four years. Actions for the recovery of real estate, including the foreclosure of mortgages may be brought within ten years. Part payment or acknowledgment in writing revives the debt and the statute commences to run anew from such payment, acknowledgment or promise.

MECHANICS' LIENS.—Persons who perform labor, furnish material, machinery or fixtures for buildings by virtue of express or implied contract with the owner, or by sub-contractors to the principal contractor, may acquire a lien, the former by filing with the county clerk within four months a statement showing the labor performed, the material or machinery furnished, with a description of the land on which the same was placed, or labor done. The latter by filing a like statement within sixty days. The lien expires within two years if suit is not brought. The lien takes precedence over claims subsequent to the furnishing of material or labor.

MINORS become of age at 21 for males, and 18 for females. Marriage of a female between the ages of 16 and 18 years, ends her minority.

MORTGAGES, FORECLOSURE.—If executed by the husband and wife, a mortgage on the homestead is good. Forelosure must be brought within ten years from time debt became due, or from the date of last payment or new promise made. Mortgage can only be foreclosed by suit in equity. Mortgagor entitled to stay of same, after decree for nine months upon making written request within twenty days. Statutes permitting judgment for deficiency repealed. This may be obviated by bringing suit on note without foreclosure and without losing mortgage security.

REPLEVIN.—Will lie where affidavit filed: First, describing property; second, that plaintiff is the owner, or has special ownership, stating facts; third, that property is wrongfully detained; fourth, that it was not taken in execution against the plaintiff, or for any fine, tax or amercement, or on replevin. If taken on execution, or for fine, tax or amercement, and was exempt, it should be so stated. When affidavit is filed the writ issues. Property is taken, but will not be delivered to plaintiff unless undertaking is executed within twenty-four hours to the defendant for double the value of the property, conditioned to duly prosecute the action, pay costs and damages, and to return property if judgment is against him. Where possession is not obtained, the action may proceed as one for damages, as for conversion.

REPORTS.—Nebraska Reports vols. 1 to 96 inclusive, and Nebraska Unofficial Reports 1 to 5.

TAXES.—Are a lien from current year from Oct. 1st, County and State taxes are due October 1st, but not delinquent, and do not draw interest until May 1st of the following year, and property cannot be sold for taxes until the first Monday in November thereafter. When property is sold for taxes it may be redeemed for a period of two years by paying the same with fifteen per cent. Purchaser may take tax deed, or foreclose his tax lien and sell the property to pay the same at end of two years. Until property is sold and sale confirmed the right to redeem exists. An inheritance tax law was passed by legislature at session of 1901.

TRUST DEEDS.—If as security, must be foreclosed as a mortgage. Are rarely used as security in this State. See Webb v. Hoselton, 4 Nebraska 308.

WILLS.—Every person, man or woman, of full age and sound mind, may make. Must be signed by testator in presence of two witnesses, and by them signed in the presence of the testator and of each other. Every will is construed to convey all the estate of deviser which he could lawfully devise, unless it clearly appears from the will that he intended to convey a less estate. Both domestic and foreign must be proved and allowed in this State before they become effective to pass title to property. Foreign will admitted to probate in this State on exemplified record of its foreign probate. Probate in resident county of domestic will, and in any county where testate owned property if foreign will, will be effective as to property throughout the State.

ACTIONS.—There is but one form of action in this State, which is regulated by the Code of Civil Procedure, the distinction between law and equity proceedings having been abolished. Civil actions are commenced by the service of a summons, and such service must be made personally on the defendant, or on a person designated to receive such service. When the defendant is a resident of the State, but cannot be found, he is reached by substituted service. Service may also be made on a defendant without the State or by publication, in conformity to an order made by a judge of the court in many instances, chief of which are the following: When defendant is a domestic or foreign corporation, or being a natural person is a non resident, or where after diligent inquiry he remains unknown, or the plaintiff cannot ascertain whether or not he is a resident; when the defendant is a resident, but has departed from the State with the intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid service or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent; when the defendant, though an adult resident of the State, has been continuously without the State for more than six months next before the granting of the order, without designating a person to receive service; where the complaint demands judgment annulling a marriage, or for a divorce, or a separation where the action is brought to exclude the defendant from a vested or contingent interest in, or lien upon, specific real or personal property, or to enforce, define, limit or regulate such lien, or when the action otherwise affects such property where defendant is a resident or a domestic corporation and summons has been issued to sheriff within sixty days preceding application to avoid statute of limitations. Non-resident plaintiffs may be required to give security for costs in the sum of $250 to be applied to the payment of the costs, if any, awarded against him; or to give an undertaking executed by one or more sureties, which must be to the effect that they will pay upon demand, to the defendant all costs which may be awarded to him in the action, not exceeding a sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least $250. In actions authorized by State law against stockholders of corporation or joint stock company to which defendant is a stockholder.

ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES.—Letters of administration are granted in the following order:—1. To the surviving husband or wife; 2. To the children; 3. To the father; 4. To the mother; 5. To the brothers; 6. To the sisters; 7. To the grandchildren; 8. To any other next of kin entitled to share in the distribution of the estate; 9. To an executor or administrator of a sole legatee named in a will whereby the whole estate is devised to such deceased sole legatee; 10. To the public administrator of the City of New York or the county treasurer in other counties; 11. To the creditor first applying. A husband is liable as administrator for the debts of his wife only to the extent of the assets received by him. The personal estate of an intestate after the payment of debts is distributed as follows:—1. One-third to the widow, the residue in equal portions among the children, and such persons as legally represent the children if any of them have died before the deceased; 2. If no children, nor any legal representative of them, then one-half of the whole surplus shall be allotted to the widow, and the other half distributed to the next of kin of the deceased, entitled under the provisions of this section; 3. If the deceased leaves a widow and no descendant, parent, brother or sister, nephew or niece, the widow shall be entitled to the whole surplus; but if there be a brother or sister, nephew or niece, and no descendant or parent, the widow shall be entitled to one-half of the surplus as above provided, and to the whole of the residue, if it does not exceed two thousand dollars; if the residue exceeds that sum, she shall receive in addition to the one-half, two thousand dollars, and the remainder shall be distributed to the brothers and sisters and their representatives; 4. If there be no widow, the whole surplus shall be distributed equally to and among the children, and such as legally represent them; 5. If there be no widow, and no children, and no representatives of a child, the whole surplus shall be distributed to the next of kin, in equal degree to the deceased, and their legal representatives; 6. If no children, and no representatives of them, and no father and leaves a widow and a mother, the half not distributed to the widow shall be distributed in equal shares to his mother and brothers and sisters, or the representatives of such brothers and sisters; and if there be no widow, the whole surplus shall be distributed in like manner to the mother and to the brothers and sisters, or the representatives of such brothers and sisters; 7. Should the deceased leave a father and no child or descendant, the father shall take one-half if there be a widow, and the whole if there be no widow; 8. If the deceased leave a mother, and no child, descendant, father, brother, sister or representative of a brother or sister, the mother, if there be a widow, shall take one-half, and the whole if there be no widow; 9. If the deceased was illegitimate, and leave a mother and no child or descendant or widow, such mother shall take the whole and shall be entitled to letters of administration in exclusion of all other persons. If the mother of such deceased be dead, the relatives of the deceased, on the part of the mother, shall take in the same manner as if the deceased had been legitimate, and be entitled to letters of administration in the same order. The shares of descendants or next of kin of equal degree to deceased, are equal. If of unequal degree, the surplus is apportioned according to their respective stocks, those taking in their own right receiving equal shares, and those taking by representation receiving the share of their parent. No representation is admitted among collaterals after brothers' and sisters' descendants. Relatives of the half-blood take equally with those of the whole blood in the same degree, and their representatives take in the same manner as the representatives of the whole blood. Descendants and next of kin begotten before death but born thereafter, take in the same manner as if born in the lifetime of the deceased. The distribution of property of deceased persons applies to the personal property of married woman dying, leaving descendants. The husband of any such deceased married woman shall be entitled to the same distributive share in the personal property of his wife to which a widow is entitled in the personal property of her husband, and no more. The payment of debts of deceased are made in the following order: 1. Debts entitled to a preference under the laws of the United States; 2. Taxes assessed on the property of the deceased previous to his death; 3. Judgments docketed and decrees entered against the deceased according to the priority thereof; 4. All recognizances, bonds, sealed instruments, notes, bills and unliquidated demands and accounts. Preference shall not be given in the payment of a debt over other debts of the same class, except those specified in the third class. The surrogate may authorize the executor or administrator to compromise or compound a debt or claim. Claims against the deceased must be presented to the executor or administrator with vouchers, and verified within six months from the date of first advertisement for claims. An executor or administrator may account in one year and be compelled to account in eighteen months from his appointment.

AFFIDAVITS.—The officers authorized to take affidavits within this State are judge, clerk, deputy clerk, or special deputy clerk, of a court, a notary public, mayor, justice of the peace, surrogate, special county judge, special surrogate, county clerk, deputy county clerk, special deputy county clerk, or commissioner of deeds, within the district in which the officer is authorized to act; and, when certified by the officer to have been taken before him, may be used in any court, or before any officer or other person.

Affidavits to be used in this way may be taken in any other State or county before any officer authorized by the laws of this State to take acknowledgments. (See Acknowledgments,) That authority includes in any other State or territory, or the Dominion of Canada, any officer who, by the laws thereof, is authorized to take acknowledgments or proofs of deeds of real property therein, which fact with the others must be certified by the Secretary of State, or by the clerk, register, recorder or prothonotary of the county in which the officer making the original certificate resided, or by the clerk of the court of record of that county. The form of authentication should be the same as required on deeds.

ARREST.—A defendant may be arrested in an action brought for either of the following causes: 1. To recover a fine or a penalty. 2. To recover damages for a personal injury; for an injury to property, including the wrongful taking, detention or conversion of personal property; for breach of promise to marry; for misconduct or neglect in office or in a professional employment; for fraud or deceit; or to recover a chattel, where it is alleged in the complaint that the chattel, or a part thereof has been concealed, removed or disposed of, so that it cannot be found or taken by the sheriff, and with intent that it should not be so found or taken or to deprive the plaintiff of the benefit thereof; or to recover for money received, or to recover property, or damages for the conversion or misapplication of property, where it is alleged in the complaint that the money was received, or the property was embezzled or fraudulently misapplied, by a public officer, or by an attorney, solicitor or counselor, or by an officer or agent of a corporation or banking association in the course of his employment, or by a factor, agent, broker, or other person in a fiduciary capacity. Where such allegation is made, the plaintiff cannot recover unless he proves the same on the trial of the action: and a judgment for the defendant is not a bar to the new action to recover the money or chattel. 3. To recover money, funds or property held or owned by the State, or held or owned officially or otherwise for or in behalf of a public or governmental interest by a municipal or other public corporation, board, officer, agency, custodian or agent of the State, or of a city, county, town, village or other division, subdivision, department or portion of the State, which defendant has without right obtained, received, converted or disposed of; or to recover damages for so obtaining, receiving, paying, converting or disposing of the same. 4. In an action upon contract, express or implied, other than a promise to marry, where it is alleged in the complaint that the defendant was guilty of a fraud in contracting or incurring the liability; or that he has, since the making of the contract, or in contemplation of making the same, removed or disposed of his property with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to remove or dispose of the same with like intent; but where such allegation is made, the plaintiff cannot recover unless he proves the fraud on the trial of the action; and a judgment for the defendant is not a bar to a new action to recover upon the contract only.

ATTACHMENTS.—Writs of attachment are granted in the following cases: First, breach of contract, express or implied, other than a contract to marry; second, wrongful conversion of personal property; third, an injury to person or property in consequence of negligence, fraud or other wrongful act. To entitle the plaintiff to such a warrant, he must show, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the judge granting the same, as follows: First, that one of the causes of action specified above exists against the defendant. If the action is to recover damages for breach of a contract the affidavit must show that the plaintiff is entitled to recover a sum stated therein, over and above all counter claims known to him. Second, that the defendant is either a foreign corporation or not a resident of the State, or if he is a natural person and a resident of the State that he has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of a summons, or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent; or if the defendant is a natural person or a domestic corporation that he or it has removed, or is about to remove property from the State with intent to defraud his or its creditors; or has assigned, disposed of or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose or secrete property with like intent; or where for the purpose of procuring credit or the extension of credit, the defendant has made a false statement in writing under his own hand or signature, or under the hand or signature of a duly authorized agent, made with his knowledge and acquiescence as to his financial ability or standing; or where the defendant, being an adult and a resident of the State, has been continuously without the State of New York for more than six months next before the granting of an order of publication and has not designated a person on whom service of a summons can be made; or a designation so made no longer remains in force; or service upon the person so designated cannot be made within the State after diligent effort. The judge before granting the warrant must require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, with sufficient sureties, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment or if the warrant is vacated, the plaintiff will pay all costs which may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least two hundred and fifty dollars. But this section does not apply to a case where the action is brought against a public officer, etc., for peculation, or where it is specially prescribed by law that security may be dispensed with or where the security to be given is specially regulated by law. The plaintiff procuring the warrant must within ten days after the granting thereof cause the affidavits upon which it was granted to be filed in the office of the clerk.

BANKS AND BANKING.—A banking department is established, charged with the execution of the laws in relation to banking associations and individual bankers, formed or transacting business under the laws of the State saving banks, trust, loan, mortgage, security guarantee or indemnity companies or associations, etc. Quarterly reports are required be made to the Superintendent of the Banking Department by banking associations and individual bankers, which must be published by him. Savings banks, trust companies and safe deposit companies are obliged to render semi-annual reports. The superintendent has power to cause deficiency appearing in the reports to be made good within sixty days, in default of which he shall refer the matter to the attorney general, who shall institute such proceedings against them as are now authorized in case of insolvent corporations. Wilful false swearing in respect to reports is perjury. A failure to make such a report within ten days after it is required subjects the delinquent to a penalty of $100 for every day such report is omitted or withheld, and in that event, or whenever the superintendent has reason to suspect the report is imperfect or the bank is unsound, it is his duty to make, or have made, an examination of its affairs, the report whereof shall be published. The superintendent makes an annual report to the Legislature. Five or more persons may become a bank by making, acknowledging and filing in the office of the clerk of the county where such bank is to be established and in the office of the Superintendent of Banks a certificate in duplicate which shall state: First, the name by which such bank is to be known; second, the particular city, town or village where its operations of discount and deposit are to be carried on; third, the amount of its capital stock, which shall not be less than $25,000 in any village whose population does not exceed 2,000, and not less than $50,000 in any city, village or town whose population exceeds 2,000 but does not exceed 30,000, and not less than $100,000 elsewhere; fourth, the names and places of residence of the stockholders and the number of shares held by each; fifth, the dates at which such corporation shall commence and terminate; sixth, the number of directors, not less than five, and the names of the stockholders who shall be directors for the first year. Every individual banker shall file in the office of the Superintendent of Banks a certificate stating the town, city or village in which he resides. Violation is punished by fine of $1,000 All the capital stock of a bank must be paid in before commencement of business. Every bank must hold its annual election of directors on second Tuesday in January or within ten days thereafter No person qualified as a director of a bank having capital of $50,000 or over, unless he holds stock therein of at least $1,000 value, nor of a bank having capital of less than $50,000, unless he holds stock therein of at least $500 value. Stockholders are liable for the contracts, debts and engagements of the bank to the extent of the amount of their stock therein, at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares, but no person who has in good faith and without any intent to evade his liability as a stockholder, transferred his stock on the books of the corporation, when solvent, to any resident of this State of full age previous to any default in the payment of any debt or liability of the corporation, shall be individually responsible. Persons engaged in the business of banking not subject to the supervision of the superintendent, and not required to report to him, are prohibited from making use of any office sign having thereon any artificial or corporate name or other words indicating that such place or office is that of a bank, or from using any letter heads, etc., indicating that the business is that of a bank, under forfeiture of $1,000. This provision does not apply to persons engaged in the business of banking prior to October 1, 1892.

BILLS AND NOTES.—Uniform Negotiable Instrument Law is in force. No damages on protested bills.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES AND CONDITIONAL SALES.—Every mortgage or conveyance intended to operate as a mortgage of goods and chattels, which shall not be accompanied by immediate delivery, and be followed by an actual and continued change of possession of the things mortgaged, shall be absolutely void as against all creditors of mortgagor (whether the debt was contracted before or after the making of the mortgage), and subsequent purchasers and mortgages in good faith, unless the mortgage, or a true copy thereof, shall be diligently filed with the town or city clerk of the town or city wherein the mortgagor resides, if a resident of the State, or, if he is not, wherein the goods are, at the time of the execution thereof; if there are two or more mortgagors then the mortgage, or a certified copy, must be filed where each mortgagor resides; in the City of New York, in the office of the register of said city; in other cities and town, wherein a county clerk's office is kept in such office, and after one year from such filing it shall cease to be valid against such third persons; unless, within thirty days preceding the expiration of each and every term of one year, from the first filing, a statement describing the mortgage and stating the names of the parties, the time when and the place where filed, and the interest thereby claimed by virtue thereof in the property mortgaged, be again filed in the same office, unless the mortgagor has become a resident of another town or city within the State, or, if he is not, wherein the goods were at the time of the execution of the mortgage, when it must be filed in that place; each filing must be in the office of the place of residence of the mortgagor, if he is then a resident of the State, but if not, then in the place where the mortgage was originally filed. After the original filing, or the first subsequent filing of a copy in the place of a new residence, the renewal may be made by filing of statement only.

Chattel mortgages may be discharged by the filing of a certificate of payment or satisfaction, signed and acknowledged by the mortgagee, his assignee or legal representative

CORPORATIONS.—Three or more persons, of lawful age, may form a corporation for any lawful business purpose or purposes, other than a corporation provided for by the banking, insurance, railroad and transportation corporation laws. At least two-thirds of the incorporators must be citizens of the United States, and at least one a resident of this State. A certificate of incorporation must be made by the incorporators, and filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and a duplicate original certificate or copy, certified by the Secretary of State, must be filed in the office of the clerk of the county where the principal place of business is to be located. The fee for filing the certificate of incorporation in the Secretary of State's office is 25 dollars, and for recording, fifteen cents per folio. The county clerk's fee for filing is six cents, and for recording ten cents, per folio. In addition to these fees there must be paid to the State Treasurer, before the certificates can be filed, an organization tax of one-twentieth of one per cent. upon the capital stock authorized. Each business corporation must have a capital stock of at least five hundred dollars, and the shares must not be less than five nor more than one hundred dollars each. The directors must not be less than three in number.

COURTS.—Justices' Courts have jurisdiction to the amount of $200. County Courts have jurisdiction in civil actions in the amount of $2,000; also over the enforcement of liens. Surrogates' Courts have jurisdiction over the probate of wills, granting of letters testamentary and of administration, the appointment of guardians, and generally over the estates of decedents and infants. The Supreme Court has general jurisdiction in matters of law and equity throughout the State, with trial terms for the trial of jury cases and special terms for the hearing of motions and equity cases in each county. Its original jurisdiction is unlimited. In the State there are four judicial departments. In each department there is an appellate division of the Supreme Court, consisting of seven judges in the first department and five in each of the others, designated by the Governor, having appellate jurisdiction over matters arising at trial and special term and at County and Surrogates Courts. In the city of New York there are Municipal Courts in each borough of the city, with jurisdiction in the sum of $1,000, and a City Court, with jurisdiction to the amount of $2,000. The Court of Appeals is the court of last resort, and has appellate jurisdiction from final judgment rendered by the appellate divisions.

DEEDS.—Must not be under seal. The word "seal" or "L. S." being enough, except for corporations, and must be acknowledged and recorded in the office of register or county clerk within which the property is situated. (See Acknowledgments.) Short forms of deeds or mortgages are provided for by the real property law, being Chapter 547, Laws of 1896.

DEPOSITIONS.—Depositions taken without the State for use within the State. This subject is regulated by the Code of Civil Procedure, Sections 887 to 913. Where it appears by affidavit on the application of either party that the testimony of one or more witnesses not within the State, is material to the applicant, a commission may be issued to one or more competent persons named therein, generally to attorneys; authorizing them, or any one of them to examine the witness or witnesses named therein under oath, upon the interrogatories annexed to the commission; to take and certify the deposition of each witness; and to return the same and the commission, according to the directions given in or with the commission. The applicant or any other party to the action may be thus examined. C. C. P., Section 887. Where an issue of fact joined in an action is pending in the Supreme Court, Court of the City of New York, or a County Court, the parties may stipulate in writing, or the court to which or the judge to whom an application for a commission is made, may in its or his discretion, direct in the order, that a commission issue without written interrogatories, and that the deposition be taken upon oral questions; or that a commission issue to take the depositions of one or more witnesses, designated in the order, upon written interrogatories, or that an open commission issue. In the case of an open commission written notice of the time and place of taking a deposition, specifying the name of the witness and the person before whom it will be taken, must be served by the party, at whose instance it is taken, upon the attorney for the adverse party. The time for serving such a notice must be at least five judicial days before the deposition is taken and one judicial day, in addition, for each fifty miles, by the usual route of travel, between the residence of the attorney of the adverse party, and the place where the deposition is to be taken. But depositions taken in either of the cases last mentioned cannot be taken where the adverse party is an infant, or the committee of a person judicially declared to be incapable of managing his affairs, by reason of lunacy, idiocy or habitual drunkenness; or where the testimony is to be taken elsewhere than in the United States or in Canada. Nor can the applicant be examined in his own behalf as prescribed in these sections except by consent of the parties. By written stipulation or by the direction of the court or judge an open commission may issue to examine upon oral questions any witnesses who may be produced by either party on a day specified therein. The Code of Civil Procedure provides in sections 900, 901 and 902 full instructions for the manner of taking, certifying and returning depositions.

In so far as depositions taken within the State for use in a foreign State or country, the Code prescribes as follows: Where a commission to take testimony within the State has been issued from a court of another State or of a foreign country in which the action, suit or special proceeding is pending, or where a notice has been given or other proceeding has been taken for the purpose of taking testimony within the State pursuant to the law of the State or country wherein the court is located, the Supreme Court or the County Court, or a judge of either court, shall in a proper case, on the presentation of a verified petition, issue a subpoena to the witness commanding him to appear before the commissioner named in the commission; or before a commissioner within the State, for the State, Territory or foreign country in which the notice was given or the proceeding taken, or before any officer designated in the commission or notice by his title of office, at a time and place specified in the subpoena to testify in the action, suit, or special proceeding. If the witness fails to obey the subpoena or refuses to subscribe his deposition, the court or judge issuing the subpoena shall, if it is determined that a contempt has been committed, prescribe the punishment, as in the case of a recalcitrant witness in the supreme court. The officer before whom a witness appears in cases above specified takes the testimony in writing, and must annex thereto copies of all books and papers produced, or such parts thereof as are required, and must certify and transmit to the court in which the action, suit or special proceeding is pending, as the practice of that court requires.

DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.—(See Administration.)

DIVORCE.—An action may be maintained, by the woman, to procure a judgment, declaring a marriage contract void, and annulling the marriage where: First, the plaintiff had not attained the age of sixteen years at the time of the marriage; second, the marriage took place without the consent of her father, mother, guardian, or other person having the legal charge of her person; third, it was not followed by consummation or cohabitation, and was not ratified by any mutual assent of the parties, after the plaintiff attained the age of sixteen years. Either party may have the marriage annulled for either of the following causes, existing at the time of the marriage: That, first, one or both of the parties had not attained the age of legal consent; second, the former husband or wife of one of the parties was living, and that the marriage with the former husband or wife was then in force; third, one of the parties was an idiot or a lunatic; fourth, the consent of one of the parties was obtained by force, duress or fraud; fifth, one of the parties was physically incapable of entering into the marriage state. But an action can be maintained under this subdivision only where the incapacity continues and is incurable.

Divorce is granted for the defendant's adultery where, first, both parties were residents of the State when the offense was committed; second, where the parties were married within the State; third, where the plaintiff was a resident of this State when the offense was committed and is a resident thereof when the action is commenced; or fourth, where the offense was committed within the State, and the injured party, when the action is commenced, is a resident of the State; the actual inhabitancy of the State by the wife makes her a resident for the purpose of the action. Upon annulment of marriage, or a divorce, appropriate adjudication is made as to the legitimacy of the children, the custody of whom is usually awarded to the innocent party, and for the support and maintenance of the wife and children by the husband, enforced by exacting security or sequestrating his property. In an action alleging adultery the co-respondent may defend against the charges against him, and if successful, have judgment dismissing those charges with costs. The defendant in a divorce is prohibited from marrying again. Separation is granted by a judgment permitting the parties to live separate from each other, and compelling the husband to support the wife and children for, first, cruel and inhuman treatment of the plaintiff by the defendant; second, such conduct on the part of the defendant towards the plaintiff as may render it unsafe and improper for the former to cohabit with the latter; third, the abandonment of the plaintiff by the defendant; or fourth, where the wife is the plaintiff, the neglect or refusal of the defendant to provide for her where, first, both parties are residents of the State when the action is commenced; second, where the parties were married within the State and the plaintiff is a resident thereof when the action is commenced; or third, where the parties, having been married without the State, have become residents of the State, and have continued to be residents thereof at least one year, and the plaintiff is such a resident when the action is commenced.

EXEMPTIONS.—The statute exempts from levy and sale under an execution the following personal property when owned by a householder: All spinning wheels, weaving looms, stoves put up or kept for use in a dwelling-house, one sewing machine, the family bible, family pictures, school books, other books of family library not exceeding in value $50, the family seat or pew in place of public worship, ten sheep, their fleeces and yarn and cloth therefrom, one cow, two swine and necessary food for them, all necessary food actually provided for family use and sixty days' supply of oil, candles and fuel, all necessary family wearing apparel, beds, bedsteads, bedding and cooking utensils, one table, six chairs, six knives, six forks, six spoons, six plates, six teacups, six saucers, one sugar dish, one milkpot, one teapot, one crane, pair handirons, coal scuttle, shovel, pair tongs, one lamp, one candlestick, the tools and implements of a mechanic necessary to his trade not exceeding in value $25. In addition to the foregoing, except as against execution upon judgment for purchase price of any exempt article or for work of a domestic, necessary household furniture, working tools and team, professional instruments, furniture and library not exceeding in value $250, together with ninety days' necessary food for team. One fourth acre of land set apart as family burying ground. A lot of land and buildings thereon not exceeding in value $1,000, occupied by a householder having a family, or by a married woman, may, under certain formalities of recording, be designated as an exempt homestead, except as against a debt contracted before designation. Also, the equipments, pay, bounty and pension of a person in military or naval service of a State or the United States. Property purchased with pension money continues exempt so long as the money can be traced into it.

FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.—Every foreign stock corporation, other than a banking or insurance company, as a condition to doing business in this State, must procure from the Secretary of State a certificate that it has complied with all the requirements of the law to authorize it to do business in this State, and that the business to be carried on in this State is such as may be lawfully carried on by a corporation incorporated under the laws of New York for such or similar business The penalty for doing business in this State without such certificate is that the corporation cannot maintain any action in this State upon any contract made by it in this State before it shall have procured such certificate. A law enacted by the Legislature of 1900 also apparently makes it a misdemeanor for persons to carry on business in this State as a foreign corporation without obtaining authority to do so (Chap. 216, Laws of 1900).

To obtain such certificate, it is necessary for the corporation to file in the office of the Secretary of State a sworn copy, in the English language, of its charter or certificate of incorporation, and a statement under the corporate seal setting forth the business which the company is engaged in carrying on, or which it proposes to carry on, within the State; the place within the State which is to be its principal place of business, and designating a person upon whom process against the corporation may be served within the State, with the address, street and street number, if any, or such person or other suitable designation of hid place of business. The person so designated must have an office or place of business at the place where the corporation is to have its principal place of business within the State. Such designation continues in force until revoked by an instrument in writing, filed in like manner, designating some other person. If the person designated dies or removes from the place where the corporation has its principal place of business, another person must be appointed, or the Secretary of State may revoke the authority of the corporation to do business in this State. The fee for filing the above papers with the Secretary of State is eleven dollars ($11.00). A foreign corporation must also pay a license tax or fee of one-eighth of one per cent. on the amount of capital stock employed by it in the State during the first year it carried on business in the State; and a receipt for this license fee must be obtained from the State Treasurer within thirteen months from the time when the corporation commences to carry on its business in the State. If his receipt is not obtained within the time prescribed, the corporation is not permitted to maintain any action in any of the courts of this State.

GARNISHMENT.—Where a judgment has been recovered and where an execution issued upon said judgment has been returned wholly or partly unsatisfied, and where any wages, debts, earnings, salary, income from trust funds or profits are due and owing to the judgment debtor or shall thereafter become due and owing to him, to the amount of $12 per week, the judgment creditor may apply to the court in which said judgment was recovered and upon satisfactory proof of such facts by affidavit or otherwise the court, if a court not of record, a judge or justice thereof must issue, or if a court of record, a judge or justice must grant an order directing that an execution issue against the wages, debt, earnings, salary, income from trust funds or profits of said judgment debtor, and on presentation of such execution by the officer to whom delivered for collection to the person or persons, from whom such wages, debts, earnings, salary, income from trust funds or profits are due and owing to the judgment debtor, said execution shall become a lien and a continuing levy upon the wages, earnings, debts, salary, income from trust funds or profits due or to become due to said judgment debtor to the amount specified therein which shall not exceed 10 per centum thereof, and said levy shall be a continuing levy until said execution and the expenses thereof are fully satisfied and paid or until modified as hereinafter provided, but only one execution against the wages, earnings, debts, salary, income from trust funds or profits of such judgment debtor shall be satisfied at one time and when more than one execution has been issued or shall be issued pursuant to the provisions of this section against the same judgment debtor, they shall be satisfied in the order of priority in which such executions are presented to the person or persons from whom such wages, debts, earnings, salary, income from trust funds or profits are due and owning.

HOLIDAYS.—New Year's Day (January 1) Lincoln's Birthday (February 12), Washington's Birthday (February 22) Memorial Day (May 30), Independence Day (July 4), Labor Day (first Monday of September), Columbus Day (October 12). Christmas Day (December 25), any general election day (first Tuesday after first Monday of November), any appointed Thanksgiving Day (usually last Thursday of November), are public holidays, and all Saturday afternoons are half holidays. For presentment of negotiable papers falling due on Saturday, see §585 Negotiable Instruments Act Besides being holidays considered as Sundays for the purposes above stated, all these public holidays and half holidays are considered the same as Sundays "for all purposes whatsoever, as regards the transaction of business in the public," State and county offices.

INTEREST.—Legal rate, 6 per cent. since January 1, 1880; the legal rate was formerly 7 per cent. A person paying a greater rate may recover the excess in an action brought within one year. All contracts, etc., wherein there be, or agreed to be, reserved or taken a greater rate of interest, are absolutely void, except in the hands of innocent third parties. Corporations cannot plead usury. Usury is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a penitentiary or county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $500, or by both. Banks taking a greater rate forfeit the entire interest. By a recent law, however, interest at any rate, as may be agreed between the parties, can be charged on call loans of $5,000 or more, on collateral security.

JUDGMENTS.—A judgment of a court of record, after being docketed in the clerk's office of the county where recovered, or upon transcript therefrom in any other county, and a judgment of a justice's court for at least twenty-five dollars, after being so docketed within six years after its recovery, is for ten years from its recovery, a lien upon the debtor's real estate situated in the county where the judgment is so docketed. After the ten years its lien is renewed from the time of issuing and filing notice of an execution upon it, and as a debt such a judgment continues for twenty years. It may not be sued upon in the court in which it was recovered without consent of the court, by the original party to it, but can be by his transferee. Personal property is bound by a judgment from the time of the delivery of an execution issued upon it to the proper officer of the county where it is situated, except as against purchasers in good faith and mortgagees before an actual levy.

LIMITATIONS —Within forty years; actions for the recovery of real property, by the people of the State. Within twenty years: an action on a final judgment or decree of a court of record; an action upon a sealed instrument; an action to recover real property, by a party other than the people. Within six years: an action upon a contract obligation or liability, express or implied; except a judgment or sealed instrument. An action to recover upon a liability created by statute; except a penalty or a forfeiture. An action for damages for injuries to person or property, except as elsewhere specified. An action to recover a chattel. Equitable actions based on fraud. An action to establish a will. Where the will has been lost, concealed, or destroyed, the cause of action is not deemed to have accrued, until the discovery, by the plaintiff, or the person under whom he claims, of the facts upon which its validity depends. An action upon a judgment or decree rendered in a court not of record except a decree heretofore rendered in a surrogate's court of the State. Within three years: an action against a sheriff, coroner, constable, or other officer, for the nonpayment of money collected upon an execution. An action against a constable for any liability incurred in his official capacity except for an escape. An action upon a statute, for a penalty or forfeiture, when the action is given to the person aggrieved, or to that person and the people of the State. An action against an executor, administrator, or receiver, or against the trustee of an insolvent debtor, appointed, as prescribed by law, in a special proceeding instituted in a court or before a judge, brought to recover a chattel, or damages for taking, detaining or injuring personal property, by the defendant, or the person whom he represents. An action to recover damages for a personal injury, resulting from negligence. Within two years: an action to recover damages for libel, slander, assault, battery, seduction, crim. con., malicious prosecution or false imprisonment. An action upon a statute, for a forfeiture or penalty to the people of the State. Within one year: an action against a sheriff or coroner upon a liability incurred by him, by doing an act in his official capacity, or by the omission of an official duty; except the non-payment of money collected upon an execution. An action against any other officer, for the escape of a prisoner, arrested or imprisoned by virtue of a civil mandate. Limitations do not run during the time the defendant is without the State. Part payment or an acknowledgment or promise in writing signed by the party to be charged thereby, revives the right of action. In an action brought to recover a balance due upon a mutual, open, and current account, where there have been reciprocal demands between the parties, the cause of action is deemed to have accrued from the time of the last item, proved in the account on either side.

MARRIAGE.—Parties contemplating marriage must procure a license from city or town clerk where the ceremony is to be solemnized. Marriages need not be solemnized by a clergyman or even by designated public officials. Parties to the marriage may execute a contract in which they declare themselves bound as husband and wife which should be witnessed and acknowledged before a Justice of the Supreme Court. This instrument should be recorded the same as a deed and such a marriage carries with it all the privileges and responsibilities of the marriage state. The so-called "Common Law" marriage is abolished. The age of consent is 18 years. Illegitimate children are legitimized by the subsequent marriage of their parents, but legitimization does not affect or divert interests vested or created before marriage. Illegitimate children can only inherit from the mother.

MARRIED WOMEN.—Married women now occupy in practically all respects the position of femes sole. They may enter into separate contracts and may receive property separate and distinct from their husbands. A contract made by a married woman does not bind her husband or her husband's property, except for necessaries. A husband is liable for his wife's debts contracted before marriage only to the extent of the separate property actually received from her. When real estate is conveyed to a husband and wife, without specifying the contrary, they receive it as tenants by the entirety with the rights of survivorship.

MECHANICS' LIENS—Any person, firm, corporation or association who, as contractor, laborer or material man, performs labor or furnishes materials for the improvement, by the erection, alteration or repair of any structure upon, connected with or beneath the surface of, or by doing work upon, or furnishing materials for the permanent improvement of any real property, including lands, tenements and hereditaments, corporeal and incorporeal, bridges, trestle-work and connected railroad structures, oil or gas wells and connected fixtures and structures, leases or rights to use or operate lands for production of oil or gas, and municipal rights and franchises for street railways and structures used therewith with the consent or at the request of the owner, which term includes the owner of the fee of a lesser estate, a lessee for years, a vendee in possession under a contract for purchase, every person holding any right subject to sale under execution upon judgments enforcing liens, holders of such railway franchises, and a purchaser at judicial sales from the time thereof, as to which last, if the purchase is not completed, the lien made under his consent attaches to any deposit made by him, may have a lien for the principal and interest of the value or agreed price, of such labor or materials, upon the real property and the improvement, upon filing in the office of the clerk of the county where the property is situated, of the prescribed form, verified, notice, which may be filed at any time during the progress of, or within ninety days after the last item of work done or material furnished, to the extent of the interest of such owner, which lien extends to the interest owned at the time of, or transferred by general assignment within thirty days before, filing of the notice, and follows any property removed with the owner's consent after the filing; but, in case of work done for, or materials furnished to a contractor or sub contractor, is limited to the sum earned at or after, and unpaid at the time of the filing, and less any payments made in good faith to contractor or other lienor before service of copy on owner, and no assignment of a contract or of the amount payable to a contractor, or order drawn by him on his employer, is good against a lien, except from the time of the filing of the assignment or order. If a contract for sale of land with a building loan or any modification thereof is not in writing and filed within ten days after execution, the interest in the real property of each party to the contract is subject to all liens filed thereafter, and a lien is not affected by a modification of such a contract after performance of labor or furnishing of materials. An assignee of a lien is protected against any payments to his assignor, or the cutting off of his lien by suit without making him a party by filing his assignment and serving copy. Liens for labor or materials for a public improvement under contract with the State or a municipal corporation, similar to mechanics' liens, upon the moneys applicable to the construction of such improvement, to the extent of the amount due or to become due under the contract, may be had by filing similar notice with the financial officer of the municipal corporation at any time before and within thirty days after completion of the improvement and its acceptance by the corporation.

REPLEVIN.—The plaintiff may, when the summons is issued, or at any time afterwards, and before the service of the defendant's answer, or, where judgment is taken by default, for want of an appearance or pleading before the entry of the final judgment, cause the chattel to recover which the action is brought, to be replevied by the sheriff of the county where found. He must deliver to the sheriff an affidavit and undertaking with a written requisition, indorsed upon or annexed to affidavit. The affidavit must show that plaintiff is the owner or entitled to possession of the chattel, that it is wrongly detained by the defendant, the cause of the detention, that it was not taken from the plaintiff by virtue of a warrant for the collection of a tax, assessment or fine to the State or United States, or, if so, taking it was unlawful. That it has not been seized by virtue of an execution or warrant of attachment against the property of plaintiff or any person from or through whom the plaintiff has derived title to the chattel, since the seizure thereof; or, if it has been so seized, that it was exempt from the seizure by reason of facts specified, or that its detention is unlawful by reason of facts which have subsequently occurred, and its value. Defendant may within three days after the chattel is replevied secure the return of the same by serving upon the sheriff a notice with an affidavit that he is the owner or lawfully entitled to possession, together with an undertaking in double the value of the chattel. At any time before the chattel is actually delivered to either party, if a third person claims as against the defendant, a right to the possession existing at the time it was replevied, he may deliver an affidavit to the sheriff making such claim. In that case if the sheriff is not indemnified he may deliver the chattel to the claimant.

SEALS.—(See Deeds.)

STATUTE OF FRAUDS—All executory agreements in respect to lands, excepting leases for one year or less, or which by their term are not to be performed within one year from the making thereof, or to answer for the debt, default or miscarriage of another, or for sale of goods, chattels or things in action for the price of fifty dollars or more, unless the buyer accept and receipt part of such goods, or the evidences or some of them of such things in action, or at the time pay some part of the purchase money, are invalid unless in writing, signed by the party to be charged.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.—An order for the examination of judgment debtors may be obtained at any time before ten years after the return unsatisfied of the execution issued in a court of record upon a judgment of not less than $25. Property discovered thereunder may be reached through the appointment of a receiver.

WILLS.—Males of eighteen years of age and females of sixteen may make wills of personal property. Real property can be devised only by persons twenty-one years of age. A will must be subscribed by the testator, at the end thereof, in the presence of each of the attesting witnesses, or shall be acknowledged by him to have been so subscribed to each of the attesting witnesses. The testator at the time of making such subscription, or at the time of acknowledging the same, shall declare the instrument so subscribed to be his last will and testament. There shall be at least two attesting witnesses, each of whom shall sign his name as a witness, at the end of the will, at the testator's request. The witnesses must also write opposite their names their respective places of residence. Every person who shall sign a testator's name to any will by his direction, shall write his own name as a witness to the will. Whoever shall neglect to comply with either of these last two provisions shall forfeit fifty dollars, but such omission shall not affect the validity of any will, nor shall any person liable to said penalty be excused or incapacitated on that account from testifying respecting the execution of such will. Nuncupative wills can be made only by soldiers when in actual military service, and sailors when at sea. A will of real or personal property, executed as prescribed by the laws of the State, or a will of personal property, executed without the State and within the United States, the Dominion of Canada, or the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as prescribed by the laws of the State or country where it is or was executed, or a will of personal property executed by a person not a resident of the State according to the laws of the testator's residence may be proved in the State of New York. The right to have a will admitted to probate, the validity of the execution thereof, or the validity or construction of any provision contained therein, is not affected by a change of the testator's residence made since the execution of the will.

On the first day of October, 1921, the Civil Practice Act enacted as chapter 1925 of the Laws of New York, May 21st, 1920 goes into effect. This act is a procedural reform of the old Code of Civil Procedure.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of North Carolina, prepared by COUNCILL & YOUNT, Attorneys at Law, Hickory, N. C.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS may be taken within this State by any judge or clerk of a court of record, or by any justice of the peace or notary public. In other States by any commissioner of deeds for North Carolina, and clerks of any court of record in such States, and by a notary public.

ARREST.—The defendant may be arrested, as hereinafter prescribed, in the following cases: (1) In an action for the recovery of damages, on a cause of action not arising out of contract, where the defendant is not a resident of the State, or is about to remove therefrom, or where the action is for an injury to person or character, or for injuring, or for wrongfully taking, detaining or converting property; (2) in an action for a fine or penalty, or for seduction, or for money received, or for property embezzled or fraudulently misapplied by a public officer, or by an attorney, solicitor or counsellor, or by an officer or agent of a corporation or banking association, in the course of his employment as such, or by any factor, agent, broker or other person in a fiduciary capacity, or for any misconduct or neglect in office, or in a professional employment; (3) in an action to recover the possession of personal property, unjustly detained, where the property or any part thereof has been concealed, removed or disposed of, so that it cannot be found or taken by the sheriff, and with the intent that it should not be found or taken, or with the intent to deprive the plaintiff of the benefit thereof; (4) when the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt, or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought, or in concealing or disposing of the property, for the taking, detention or conversion of which the action is brought, or when the action is brought to recover damages for fraud or deceit; (5) when the defendant has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with the intent to defraud his creditors. But no woman shall be arrested in any action, except for wilful injury to person, character or property; and no person shall be arrested on Sunday. An order for the arrest of a defendant must be obtained from the court in which the action is brought, or from the judge thereof. The order may be made where it shall appear to the court or judge thereof, by the affidavit of the plaintiff, or of any other person, that a sufficient cause of action exists, and that the case is one of those above provided for. The order shall require the sheriff to arrest the defendant and hold him to bond in a specified sum, and must be served before the docketing of any judgment in the action. Before making the order, the court or judge shall require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, with sufficient security, payable to the defendant, to the effect that if defendant recover judgment, the plaintiff will pay all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which shall be at least one hundred dollars. It may be made to accompany the summons, or to issue at any time afterwards, before judgment.

The defendant at any time before execution shall be discharged from arrest, either upon giving bail or depositing with the sheriff the sum mentioned in the order of arrest. The sheriff is required to deposit said sum with the clerk of the court. It is provided, further, that "if a claim arising upon a contract heretofore made be not presented within the time limited in the notice, it is barred forever," with the exception that if it is a contingent obligation or not due it may be presented within one month after it shall become due or shall have become absolute.

An execution against property is issued on præcipe by the clerk and directed to the sheriff of the county. It must be issued within five years from the rendition of the judgment or within five years from the issuing of a previous execution on a judgment, and commands the sheriff that of the goods and chattels he cause to be made the money specified in the writ, or, from want of goods and chattels, to be made of the lands and tenements of the debtor. In all other cases the writ of execution first delivered to the officer shall be first satisfied.

The officer shall levy first upon the personal property, and if none can be found then upon the realty of the debtor. Property mortgaged may be levied upon and sold subject to such mortgage.

If real estate is levied upon, the sheriff must call three disinterested householders who are residents of the county as appraisers; but if the words "and waive the appraisement," or other words of similar import, shall be inserted in the mortgage, or written contract, the court may order sale without appraisement, but in such case no order of sale shall issue for six months after the date of judgment. Personal property seized upon execution is sold upon ten days' notice, which is given by publication in a newspaper printed in the county and posting two notices in the township where the sale is to be had. When such affidavit has been filed by or on behalf of the plaintiff a garnishee summons shall be issued, and within twenty days after service of it the garnishee may file with the clerk of the court an affidavit to the effect that he is in no manner indebted to the defendant, and has no property of any kind in his possession or under his control belonging to such defendant or in which he is interested, and upon the filing of such affidavit the proceeding shall be deemed discontinued unless within twenty days thereafter plaintiff serve notice on the garnishee that he elects to take issue on such affidavit, in which case the matter shall stand for trial as other civil actions

If the garnishee shall fail to make the affidavit above provided, and shall in fact be indebted to the defendant or have property belonging to him, he shall make an affidavit setting forth the facts in reference to such indebtedness or property, but if he fails to do so the court will render judgment against him for the whole amount of the judgment which the plaintiff shall recover against the defendant, together with all costs; and in all cases of trial between the plaintiff and the garnishee costs shall be awarded to the plaintiff and against the garnishee in addition to his liability if the plaintiff recover more than the garnishee admits by his answer, and if he do not the garnishee shall recover costs of the plaintiff; and the costs in every such case shall include an attorney's fee of twenty-five dollars, to be taxed in favor of the prevailing party.

INJUNCTIONS.—When it appears by petition that plaintiff is entitled to relief demanded, and such relief consists in restraining commission or continuance of some act which, during litigation, would produce injury to plaintiff; or, when during litigation, it appears that the defendant is doing, threatens, or is about to do some act in violation of plaintiff's rights, and tending to render judgment ineffectual, an injunction may be granted to restrain such act. Injunctions may be granted at commencement or during pendency of action, before judgment, by district court or judge thereof, or in his absence from county by probate judge. No injunctions, unless provided by special statute, shall operate until party obtaining same shall give an undertaking, executed by one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by clerk of court granting injunction, in amount fixed by court or judge, conditioned to secure party enjoined, against damages he may sustain, if it be decided that injunction ought not to have been granted.

INTEREST.—If no rate is contracted for, six per cent. per annum is recoverable. The highest rate per cent. which it shall be lawful for any person to contract for or receive shall be ten per cent. per annum, and at same rate for a shorter time and not exceeding one year's interest in all, may be deducted from the loan in advance by agreement. If a higher rate than ten per cent. is received or contracted for, all such interest is forfeited, but none of the principal. After breach of contract, the rate contracted for continues. As against insolvent estates no greater rate than seven per cent may be allowed by county court, and this without reference to contract. Judgments bear six per cent. unless the contract on which judgment is based bears a greater rate, in which case the judgment may be taken for the rate named in the contract, not exceeding, however, ten per cent. per annum.

JUDGMENTS, LIEN OF REAL ESTATE, FOR HOW LONG, ETC.—Judgments of courts of record, of this State and courts of the United States rendered within the State, shall be liens on all real estate of the debtor within the county in which the judgment was rendered from the first day of the term at which the judgment was rendered; but judgments by confession and judgments rendered at the same term during which the action was commenced shall bind such lands only from the date of rendition. An attested copy of the journal entry of any judgment, together with a statement of the costs taxed against the debtor in the case, may be filed in the office of the clerk of the District Court of any county, and such judgment shall be a lien on the real estate of the debtor within that county, from the date of filing such copy. Judgments are good for five years from the rendition, and may be renewed by having an execution issued within the five years, and every five years thereafter.

LIENS.—For work done or material furnished in building, altering or repairing buildings or structures, a lien attaches to the realty. There is also a lien for planting trees and hedges and building fences and sidewalks. Such liens are preferred to all other liens after the commencement of the work of construction giving rise to the lien. If the work is done or material furnished under contract with the owner, trustee, agent, husband or wife of the owner, the lien may be filed at any time within four months after the last of the work is done or the last of the material furnished. The lien above named is acquired by filing with the clerk of the district court a statement setting forth the amount claimed, the items thereof as nearly as practicable, the name of the owner, the name of the contractor, the name of the claimant, and description of the property subject to the lien, verified by affidavit.

If the work is done or material furnished under subcontract with the contractor, the lien must be filed within sixty days after the last of the work is done or the last of the material furnished, and, in addition to the filing of the sworn statement above mentioned, a notice in writing of the filing of such lien must be served upon the owner, if he can be found, and if not, after filing an affidavit with the clerk of the district court setting forth the fact that he cannot be found, it may be served by delivering a copy of the statement to the occupant of the land, and if unoccupied, then by posting a copy of such statement on the land. A lien may also be acquired by taking a note for the indebtedness, and filing such note together with a sworn statement to the effect that it is given in payment of the indebtedness for material furnished or labor done and performed.

Action to enforce a mechanic's lien must be brought within one year from and after the filing of the lien in the office of the clerk of the district court.

No lien attaches for lightning rods, nor does any lien attach to lands acquired under the provisions of chapter 5 of the revised statutes of the United States, where the indebtedness is contracted prior to the issuing of a patent.

Indorsement must be of the entire instrument but may be special or in blank. Every person negotiating an instrument by delivery or by a qualified indorsement warrants that it is genuine, that he has good title, that all prior parties had capacity to contract, and that he has no knowledge of any fact which would impair the validity of the instrument or render it valueless. Presentment for payment is not necessary in order to charge the person primarily liable on the instrument; presentment to be sufficient must be made, by the holder or by some person authorized to receive payment, at a reasonable hour on a business day, and place, to the person primarily liable on the instrument. Every instrument is payable at the time fixed therein without grace, except when it falls on Sunday or a holiday, then on the next succeeding business day. Notice of dishonor may be given either to the party himself or to his agent in that behalf. Protest may be made by a notary public or by a respectable resident of the place where the bill is dishonored in the presence of two or more creditable witnesses The "Negotiable Instruments Law," is in force in this State

PENALTY.—A person taking, receiving, retaining, or contracting for any higher rate of interest than twelve per cent. per annum, shall forfeit all the interest so taken, received, or contracted for; it being the incident of mining of the law, not to provide for. feiture of any portion of the principal.

All instruments of conveyance of real property must be recorded with the registrar of deeds of the county in which the real property affected thereby is situated.

REPLEVIN —An order of replevin is issued upon affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, showing: First, description of the property; second, that the plaintiff is the owner of the property or has a special ownership or interest therein, stating the facts in relation thereto, and that he is entitled to the immediate possession; third, that the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant; fourth, that it was not taken under an execution, on any order of attachment against the plaintiff or for the payment of any tax, fine, amercement assessed against him. or by virtue of an order of delivery issued under article ten of the statute, or any other mesne or final process issued against the plaintiff; or, fifth, if taken on execution or any order of attachment against the plaintiff, that it is exempt by law from being so taken; sixth, actual value of the property, and where several articles are claimed, the value of each shall be stated as nearly as practicable.

The order is not issued until an undertaking is filed with the clerk on the part of the plaintiff with sufficient sureties in not less than double the value of the property, to the effect that the plaintiff will duly prosecute his action and pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against him and if the property be delivered to him that he will return the same to the defendant if return thereof be adjudged. When the order is issued at the same time with the summons, they are returnable on the same day, and if issued after the summons, it is returnable twenty days after date of issuance. The order is executed by the sheriff taking possession of the property and delivering a copy of the order to the defendant. or leaving it at his usual place of residence. The defendant may recover and retain possession within twenty-four hours after service of the order by executing an undertaking with one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the sheriff, in not less than double the amount of the value of the property, to the effect that the defendant will deliver the property to the plaintiff if such delivery be adjudged, and pay all damages that may be awarded against him. If this undertaking is not given within twenty-four hours the sheriff delivers possession to the plaintiff. Judgment is for possession; if possession cannot be had, for the value of the property and damages for its detention and costs

The liability for taxes is fixed by the ownership of real property on the first day of January of each year, and personal property on February 1st. and the assessment begins on the first Monday in February of each year, and assessors' returns are made on or before the first Monday of May annually to the county clerks of the various counties. All property is taxed at its actual cash value.

Taxes become delinquent if unpaid on the third Monday of December and third Monday of June, one-half on each date, of the year after which such taxes shall have been assessed, and there shall be added as a penalty one per cent. on the amount thereof, on the first day of each month for the first three months, and two per cent. a month to be added on the first day of each month for the second three months. and five per cent. per month shall be added on the first of each month thereafter until the taxes are satisfied. Taxes upon real property are a perpetual lien thereon. The maximum rate of general State tax is three and one-half mills on the dollar.

TESTIMONY.—No person is disqualified as a witness, in either civil or criminal cases, by reason of his being a party to, or interested in, the event of the action, or on account of any religious belief, or by reason of his conviction of a crime. This rule of evidence extends to actions for divorce as well as all others, and even the admissions of the parties are received.

In criminal cases the failure of the accused to testify cannot be alluded to in argument or construed as any evidence of guilt. No party will be allowed to testify in his own behalf in respect to any transaction or communication had personally by such party with a deceased person, when the adverse party is the executor, administrator, heir at law, next of kin, surviving partner, or assignee of such deceased person, when they have acquired title to the cause of action immediately from such deceased person; or from transactions when the other party thereto is deceased; or of transactions with a deceased partner or joint contractor in the absence of his surviving partner or joint contractor; in all cases, however, when the deceased's deposition has been taken, and is used on the trial, the adverse party may testify.

The following persons are incompetent to testify: Persons of unsound mind, children under ten years of age, except in the discretion of the court, husband and wife for or against each other except in cases of agency or joint interest, but in no case concerning communications made during marriage; nor an attorney clergyman, or physician, with reference to confidential communication made to them, unless the party offers himself as a witness, in which case the communications to such attorney, clergyman or physician, on the same subject are admissible.

Depositions, in order to be read in evidence must be on file at least one day before the case is called for trial.

TRIAL IN ACTION FOR RECOVERY OF REAL PROPERTY.—In all actions for the recovery of real property one trial only shall be granted as a matter of right, but the party against whom the judgment is rendered may receive a new trial in the same manner and for the same reason as new trials are awarded in other cases.

WILLS.—Every person over the age of 18 years of sound mind may, by last will, dispose of all of his or her real and personal estate. A married woman may dispose of her separate property by will without the consent of her husband, and may alter or revoke the will in like manner as if she were single. A will executed by an unmarried woman is revoked by a subsequent marriage, and is not revived by the death of her husband. Nuncupative and olographic wills are recognized by statute; the former to be valid, the estate bequeathed must not exceed in value the sum of one thousand dollars and must be proved by two witnesses who were present at the making thereof, one of whom was asked by the testator at the time to bear witness that such was his will. The decedent must, at the time, have been in the actual military service in the field and in actual contemplation, fear or peril of death, or the decedent must have been at the time in expectation of immediate death from an injury received that same day. An olographic will must be subscribed at the end thereof by the testator himself, or some person in his presence and by his direction; the subscription must be made in the presence of two attesting witnesses, each of whom must sign his name at the end of the will at the testator's request and in his presence. The execution of a codicil referring to a previous will has the effect to republish the will as modified by the codicil. No will or revocation is valid unless executed either according to the laws of Oklahoma or according to the law of the place in which it is made, or in which the testator was at the time domiciled. If, after making a will, the testator marries, and the wife survives the testator, the will is revoked, unless provision has been made for her by marriage contract. The revocation of a will revokes all of its codicils.

The clerk of the court must issue the writ of attachment upon receiving an affidavit, by or on behalf of plaintiff, showing: 1st. That the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff, specifying the amount of such indebtedness over and above all legal set-offs or counter-claims upon a contract for the payment of money; and 2d, Either (1) that the payment of the same has not been secured by any mortgage, lien, or pledge upon real or personal property; or (2) that the same was secured by a mortgage, lien or pledge, as the case may be, but that such security has been rendered nugatory by the act of the defendant; or (3) that the defendant is a non-resident of the State; 3d. That the sum for which the attachment is asked is an actual bona fide existing debt, due and owing from the defendant to the plaintiff; or fourth, that the plaintiff's cause of action against defendant is one to recover a sum of money as damages, specifying the amount thereof, arising out of a breach of a contract expressed or implied, other than a contract of marriage, whether made in this state or elsewhere, and that the defendant is a non resident of the state; and fifth, that the attachment is not sought, nor the action prosecuted, to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant. Upon filing the affidavit with the clerk, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have the writ issue as soon thereafter as he shall file with the clerk his undertaking, with one or more sureties, in a sum not less than one hundred dollars and equal to the amount for which the plaintiff demands judgment and to the effect that the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, if the same be wrongful or without sufficient cause, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking. With the undertaking the plaintiff shall also file the affidavits of the sureties, from which affidavits it must appear that such sureties are qualified, and that taken together they are worth double the amount specified in the undertaking over all debts and liabilities and property exempt from execution. No person not qualified to become bail upon an arrest is qualified to become surety in an undertaking for an attachment. The rights or shares which such defendant may have in the stock of any association or corporation, together with the interest or profits theron and all property in the estate of such defendant, not exempt from execution, is liable to be attached. An attachment cannot be had upon a claim not due. An affidavit for an attachment may be made by the plaintiff, or his agent or attorney. Sureties on an attachment bond must be householders or freeholders in the State. Property attached may be returned to the defendant upon his giving a counter undertaking to redeliver or to pay the demand. Unless a general assignment is made for the benefit of creditors under the State law, before judgment is rendered on attachment, attaching creditors do not share pro rata, but are paid in the order of their attachment.

BANKS AND BANKING.—Banks may be organized under the laws of the State for the purpose of conducting general banking business. By constitutional provision they may not issue certificates or notes or other evidences of obligation to circulate as money. The capital stock must not be less than $15,000 in villages cities and communities having a popuation of 1 000 or less; in cities, villages and communities having a population of over 1000 and not over 3000 a minimum of $25,000 in cities having a population of over 3000 and not over 75000, a minimum of $50,000; in cities having a population of 75,000 and upwards, a minimum of $200,000; provided, however that this shall not apply to any incorporated State bank now in existence in this state; provided further, that in cities having a population of 50 000 or more, when the banking house of such bank is located at least two miles, by usual route of travel from the central post office of such city, the banks may be organized with a minimum capital of $50,000. Capital stock must be fully subscribed and one-half paid in before business is begun. The remaining one-half subscription must be paid within six months from the date of the authorization to do business. There is provided a State Banking Department, and a State superintendent of Banks and Examiners. Directors must own at least $500.00 worth at par of stock.

Trust companies may also do a Banking Business and are under the supervision of the banking department. The amount of capital stock required is the same as for other banking corporations. Private banking concerns are permitted, but the person or persons conducting the same must comply with the provisions of the State Banking Act and are under the Banking Department supervision. A bank may hold real estate for the purpose of a banking house to carry on its business, and as a source of income from the same building; or such as may be conveyed to it in satisfaction of previously contracted debts; or such as may be purchased by it at sale under judgments, decrees or mortgage foreclosures under securities held by it. Receiving a deposit by any owner or officer of a bank knowing it to be insolvent is a felony. No bank may loan to any individual, firm, company or corporation nor permit the same to become indebted to such bank in a sum exceeding twenty per cent of the capital paid in and the surplus fund of said bank. The liability of the individual members of a firm or company shall be included in the liability of such firm or company. A bank may loan not to exceed fifty per cent of its capital, surplus and commercial deposits upon notes secured by mortgages or other forms of real estate security, but any loan secured by mortgage or lien on real estate must not exceed fifty per cent of the actual cash market value of such real estate. No bank may employ its funds in trade or commerce by buying or selling ordinary goods, chattels, wares and merchandise or owning or operating industrial or manufacturing plants. Since February 24, 1915, no state bank has been permitted to invest any of its assets in the capital stock of any other corporation except the stock of a Federal Reserve Bank; or to invest an amount not exceeding the aggregate of 10 per centum of its paid-in capital stock and surplus in the stock of one or more banks or corporations chartered or incorporated under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof, and principally engaged in international or foreign banking, or banking in a dependency or insular possession of the United States either directly or through the agency, ownership or control of local institutions in foreign countries, or in such dependencies or insular possessions, including the stock of one or more banks or corporations chartered or incorporated under the federal reserve act. No bank shall loan any of its funds to its officers, directors or employees, nor to any company firm or corporation in which its officers or directors are interested, without the approval of a majority of the board of directors. Every state bank and all banks acting as reserve agents for the Oregon State Banks shall have on hand at all times, in actual money of the United States, an amount equal to fifteen per cent of its total demand deposits and ten per cent of its total time and savings deposits but three-fourths of such required reserve may be demand deposits in other banks or trust companies, approved by the Superintendent of Banks. No bank or trust company may be a reserve bank unless it has an unimpaired paid-up capital and surplus of not less than $75,000.00. Each bank must make statements and reports to the Banking Department whenever required, and shall be examined at least twice a year. Banks may have a savings department but banks having commercial, trust and savings business must keep separate books for each department, and all savings deposits shall be kept segregated from other moneys and funds, and can only be loaned on or invested in certain classes of securities. Banks may require notice of withdrawal of savings deposits of from thirty days to six months.

Branch state banks are not permitted since February 13, 1917, unless in operation prior to that date, except that if National Banks, operating under Acts of Congress, are permitted to open branch banks in this State the Superintendent of Banks may authorize State Banks to operate branch banks on the same terms as are granted to National Banks; further, the Superintendent of Banks may authorize a bank, organized or transacting business under the laws of this State and possessing a capital and surplus of $1,000,000 or more, to establish branches in foreign countries or dependencies or insular possessions of the United States for the furtherance of foreign commerce of the United States, and to act, if required to do so as fiscal agents of the United States. Foreign banks maintaining one or more offices in this State must maintain at each office a capital equal to the amount required to organize a State Bank, and a foreign bank or banker must maintain in this State a capital and surplus equal to at least ten per cent of the deposit liabilities of such foreign bank or banker. A bank cannot open or transact business until it has received a charter from the Superintendent of Banks. Every bank, banker or corporation in this State doing business under the general banking act shall be known as a State Bank. No owner, officer, agent clerk or employee of any bank shall certify a check unless the amount thereof actually stands to the credit of the drawer on the books of the bank. A duly certified check is a valid obligation of the bank in the hands of a holder in due course.

The annual meeting of stockholders of a State bank shall be held on the second Thursday of January in each year; it may be adjourned not to exceed thirty days, and the Superintendent of Banks must be notified of the adjourned date. There must be at least four regular meetings of the Board of Directors in each year to be held on or before the fifteenth day of January April, July and October respectively. Every state bank may purchase and hold so much of the capital stock of the Federal Reserve Bank as will qualify it to membership in and may become a member of the Federal Reserve Bank. No state bank shall issue any share of stock until the par value of such share has been actually paid in, in cash. Every bank shall have an examining committee of not less than two stockholders, who are not officers, appointed by the Board of Directors at the first meeting in January.

BILLS AND NOTES.—The "Uniform Negotiable Instrument Law" is now in force in this State. (For full text see page 748.) All days of grace allowed by the custom of merchants are abolished in this State. Damages on protested bills are allowed as follows: When payable without the limits of the United States, 10 per cent., which, with the principal and interest, is in full of all other damages, charges and expenses; when payable in another State or Territory, 5 per cent. together with costs and charges of protest. The holidays are: Sundays, January 1, February 22, May 30, July 4, the first Monday in September, October 12, Christmas, a day of a general or special election, and fast or thanksgiving days appointed by law. Whenever any legal holiday other than a Sunday falls upon Sunday, the Monday following shall be and is observed as such holiday. Negotiable instruments payable on a holiday become due the next business day.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—Mortgages of personal property or copies thereof may be filed with the county clerk in the county where the mortgaged property may be at the time of execution of such mortgage, and unless filed shall be void as against subsequent purchaser or mortgagee in good faith, if not accompanied by immediate change of possession on the giving of mortgage. When the consideration of the mortgage is less than five hundred dollars, the mortgaged property may be sold by the sheriff or any constable of any county in which such mortgage has been filed, upon the written request of the mortgagee, or agent or attorney, and the same can thus be foreclosed without suit. A mortgage of personal property must be acknowledged in the same manner as mortgages or deeds of real property, and is both filed and recorded in the office of the County Clerk.

CORPORATIONS.—Any three or more persons may incorporate themselves for the purpose of engaging in any lawful enterprise, business pursuit or occupation, by making, subscribing and acknowledging as deeds are acknowledged, written articles of incorporation in triplicate, and by filing one of the said articles in the office of the Secretary of State, one in the office of the county clerk of the county where the business is located, causing the same to be recorded in such offices and one to retain in its custody. These articles shall specify: 1. The name assumed by the corporation and by which it shall be known, and the duration of the corporation, if limited. 2. The enterprise, business, pursuit or occupation in which the corporation purposes to engage. 3. The place where the corporation purposes to have its principal office or place of business. 4. The amount of the capital stock of the corporation. 5. The amount of each share of such capital stock. 6. If the corporation is formed for the purpose of navigating any stream or other water, or making or constructing any railway macadamized road, plank road, clay road, canal or bridge, the terminal of such navigation, road, canal or site of such bridge. The stockholders of all corporations and joint stock companies shall be liable for the indebtedness of said corporation to the amount of their stock subscribed and unpaid and no more, and the assignee of any such unpaid stock stands in the same relation, but the liability of the transferrer does cease to any who are creditors of the corporation at the time of such transfer The State shall not subscribe to or be interested in the stock of any company, association or corporation nor shall it ever assume the debts of any county, town or corporation unless such debts have been created to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or defend the State in war. The Legislature has adopted a form as to the certificate of acknowledgment of a corporation, which is as follows:

"On this —— day of ————, '9—, before me appeared —— —, to me personally known, who being duly sworn (or affirmed) did say that he is the President (or other officer or agent of the corporation) of (describe the corporation) and that the seal affixed to said instrument is the corporate seal of said corporation, and that said instrument was signed and sealed in behalf of said corporation by authority of its Board of Directors, and said —— acknowledged said instrument to be the free act and deed of said corporation.

"In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my official seal this the day and year first in this my certificate written."

A sale, lease, assignment, transfer or conveyance of the business affairs and property as a whole of any corporation may be made with the consent of the stockholders thereof holding of record as much as two-thirds of the issued capital stock.

Corporations, whether domestic or foreign, may sue and be sued in the same manner as other persons, with the proviso that a foreign corporation is required to appoint a resident agent upon whom summons may be served. If no resident agent has been appointed, or having been appointed has removed from the State, and a successor has not been designated, service may be made upon the Corporation Commissioner, or in case of a defendant insurance company, upon the Insurance Commissioner. Furthermore before such foreign corporation can transact business in this State they are required to file certified copy of their articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State, and are required to pay a fee similar to the fee for the original incorporation of any corporation with a like amount of capital stock, and thereafter are required to pay an annual license graded according to the capitalization. As to what constitutes "transacting business," the Oregon courts have followed the general trend of modern decisions of sister states.

CURTESY AND DOWER.—The widow of every deceased person is entitled to dower, or the use, during her natural life, of one half part of all the lands whereof her husband was seized of an estate of inheritance at any time during the marriage, unless she is lawfully barred thereof, which she may be by joining in a deed of conveyance with her husband, or by separate deed to her husband's grantee, or by jointure. If any lands be devised to a woman, or other provision be made for her the will of her husband, she shall make her election whether she will take the lands so devised or the provisions so made or whether she will be endowed by the lands of her husband; but she shall not be entitled to both unless it plainly appears by the will to have been so intended by the testator. When a widow shall be entitled to an election, she shall be deemed to have elected to take such jointure, devise, or other provision unless within one year after the death of her husband she shall commence proceedings for the assignment or recovery of her dower. The widower of every deceased person shall be entitled as tenant by curtesy to the use, during his natural life, of one-half part of all the lands whereof his wife was seized of any estate of inheritance, at any time during the marriage although such husband and wife may not have had issue born alive, unless he is lawfully barred. Estates by the curtesy may be admeasured, assigned and barred in the same manner that dower may be admeasured, assigned and barred; and, as far as practicable, all other laws of this state applicable to dower shall be applicable, in like manner and with like effect, to estates by the curtesy.

DEEDS.—All deeds must be acknowledged by two persons as witnesses.

INTEREST.—The rate of interest in this state shall be 6 per centum per annum and no more, and shall be payable in the following cases:—1. On all moneys after the same become due; provided that open accounts shall bear interest from the date of the last item thereof. 2 On judgements and decrees for the payment of money from the date of the entry thereof unless some other date is specified in said judgement or decree. 3. On money received to the use of another and retained beyond a reasonable time without the owner's consent, expressed or implied. 4 On money due from the settlement of matured accounts from the day the balance is ascertained. 5. On money due or to become due where there is a contract to pay interest and no rate is specified; provided, however, that on contracts interest up to the rate of ten per centum per annum may be charged by express agreement of the parties, and no more. A person or corporation may by taking out a license similar to a pawnbroker's license make short loans not to exceed $300 to any one individual and charge interest therefor not to exceed 3 per centum per month. Usury forfeits the original sum to the common school fund, and costs of action shall be charged against any person seeking to enforce a usurious contract. A contract to pay 8 per cent. per annum and to pay the taxes is valid. Judgments bear interest at 6 per cent., but judgments and decrees for money upon contract bearing more than 6 per cent. and not exceeding 10 per cent. per annum shall bear the same interest borne by such contracts.

JUDGMENTS.—In courts of record, if no defense is made within ten days after service of summons, judgment may be taken against the defendant when service is had within the county where the action is brought; if service out of the county, then twenty days. For want of answer, judgment may be entered in justice's court seven days after service of summons on the defendant. From the date of docketing a judgment in the circuit or county courts, and a transcript from a judgment of a justices or district court to the circuit, such judgment is a lien upon all the real property of the defendant within the county or counties where the same is docketed, and also upon all real property which the defendant may afterwards acquire therein during the time an execution may issue thereon. A judgment of a federal court within this State may be made a lien the same as a judgment of the State court by having such judgment recorded in the county where the land is situated upon which a lien is desired. The lien of a judgment continues for 10 years, and may be renewed on motion made before the expiration of that period for another 10 years, and may be thus renewed indefinitely. In actions upon written instruments which provide for a reasonable attorney's fee to be paid by the maker thereof in case suit or action is instituted to collect the same, the plaintiff, if successful, may recover such sum for attorney's fees as may be fixed by the court as reasonable, but a stipulation in the instrument fixing the amount will not be enforced. In addition to a reasonable attorneys' fee allowed in a note or contract sued upon, our law has a regular statutory fee for all cases in the Circuit Court, namely, $5.00 for defaults and $10.00 in all cases in which a trial is had either of law or fact, and in all cases in the Justices and District Courts a fee of $2.50 if judgment goes by default, and $5.00 if a trial is had either of law or fact. As between judgments obtained at the same term of court the priority thereof is determined by the date of the docketing of judgments in the "Judgment Lien Docket." An attorney cannot satisfy a judgment after 3 years but he may issue execution thereon and keep it renewed unless his authority has been revoked. In a suit in which an attachment is levied, and which said attachment is released by giving an undertaking upon obtaining judgment, the judgment shall run against the defendant and against the sureties on the bond which was given to release the attachment.

LIMITATIONS.—Within ten years, an action for the recovery of real property, or for the possession thereof; and no action shall be maintained for such recovery unless it appear that the plaintiff, his ancestor, predecessor, or grantor was seized or possessed of the premises in question within ten years before the commencement of such action; an act on upon a judgment or decree of any court of the United States, or any state or territory within the United States; an action upon a sealed instrument. Within six years, an action upon a contract or liability, expressed or implied, excepting those mentioned above; an action upon a liability created by statute, other than a penalty or forfeiture; an action for waste or trespass upon real property; an action for taking, detaining, or injuring personal property, including an action for the specific recovery thereof. Within three years, an action against a sheriff, coroner, or constable, upon a liability incurred by the doing of an act in his official capacity, and in virtue of his office; or by the omission of an official duty; including the nonpayment of money collected upon an execution. But this section shall not apply to an action for an escape. An action upon a statute for penalty or forfeiture, where the action is given to the party aggrieved, or to such party and the state, except where the statute imposing it prescribes a different limitation. Within two years, an action for assault, battery, false imprisonment, for criminal conversation, or for any injury to the person or rights of another, not arising on contract and not herein especially enumerated; provided, that in an action at law based upon fraud or deceit, the limitation shall be deemed to commence only from the discovery of the fraud or deceit. An action upon a statute for a forfeiture or penalty to the state or county. Within one year, an action against a sheriff or other officer for the escape of a prisoner arrested or imprisoned on civil process; actions for libel and slander. An action upon a statute for a penalty given in the whole or in part to the person who will prosecute for the same, shall be commenced within one year after the commission of the offense; and if the action be not commenced within one year by a private party, it may be commenced within two years thereafter, in behalf of the state, by the district attorney for the county where the offense was committed or is triable. An action for any cause not hereinbefore provided for shall be commenced within ten years after the cause of action shall have accrued. In an action brought to recover a balance due upon a mutual open and current account, where there have been reciprocal demands between the parties, the cause of action shall be deemed to have accrued from the time of the last item proved in the account on either side; but whenever a period of more than one year shall elapse between any of a series of items or demands they are not to be deemed such an account. No acknowledgment or promise shall be sufficient evidence of a new or continuing contract, whereby to take the same out of the operation of this title, unless the same is contained in some writing, signed by the party to be charged thereby; but this section shall not alter the effect of any payment of principal or interest. Whenever any payment of principal or interest has been made or shall be made upon an existing contract, whether it be bill of exchange, promissory note, bond, or other evidence of indebtedness, if such payment be made after the same shall have become due, the limitation shall commence from the time the last payment was made. No mortgage upon real estate shall be a lien or any incumbrance, or of any effect or validity, after the expiration of ten years from the date of the maturity of the obligation or indebtedness secured or evidenced by such mortgage, or from the date to which the payment thereof has been extended by agreement of record. If the date of the maturity of such obligation or indebtedness is not disclosed by the mortgage itself, then the date of the execution of such mortgage shall be deemed the date of the maturity of the obligation or indebtedness secured or evidenced by such mortgage. After ten years have elapsed from the date of the maturity of any mortgage upon real estate, or from a recorded extension thereof, such mortgage shall conclusively be presumed to be paid, satisfied, and discharged, and no action, suit, or other proceeding shall be maintainable for the foreclosure of the same.

MECHANICS' LIENS.—The usual mechanics' lien is allowed. That of original contractor must be filed within 60 days after the completion of the contract, that of a material man, within 30 days after date of last work performed. Suit must be brought within six months to foreclose the same.

Liens of Blacksmith, Makers and Repairers of Vehicles, and Machinist. Every person, firm or corporation who has expended labor skill or materials, including automobile tires, upon any chattel, or has furnished storage for said chattel, at the request of its owner, reputed owner, or authorized agent of the owner, or lawful possessor thereof, shall have a lien upon said chattel for the contract price for all such expenditure or in the absence of such contract price, for the reasonable worth of such expenditure for a period of one year from and after such expenditure, notwithstanding the fact that the possession of such chattel has been surrendered to the owner, or lawful possessor thereof. But to make such a lien effectual, a lien statement must be recorded with the county clerk where the labor was performed or the material expended within sixty days.

SALES IN BULK.—Every sale made of the entire stock or made out of the ordinary course of business is a sale in bulk, and in all cases of a sale in bulk the purchaser must demand from the seller a written statement, under oath, containing the names and addresses and amounts due of all his creditors. It is then the duty of the purchaser to notify in writing, or personally, each of the creditors at least five days before the time appointed for the consummation of the sale of the fact that he is about to purchase a certain stock of goods and that the money will be paid at a certain time and place. A false affidavit made by the seller is perjury and punishable accordingly.

SUCCESSION.—Real property descends, subject to the rights of dower and curtesy and to debts of the deceased, to the children in equal shares, and to the issue of any intestate child by right of representation; if there are no lineal descendants real property descends to the surviving husband or wife; if intestate leaves no wife or husband, the real property descends in equal proportions to the father and mother; if there are neither lineal descendants husband wife nor father real property descends to the mother; and in case there are neither lineal descendants, husband, wife nor mother it descends to the father; if there are neither lineal descendants, husband, wife father nor mother, real property descends in equal shares to brothers and sisters and to the issue of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation; if there are neither lineal descendants, husband, wife, father, mother, brother nor sister real property descends to the next of kin in equal degree except that when there are two or more collateral kindred in equal degree, but claiming through different ancestors, those who claim through the nearest ancestor are preferred to those who claim through a more remote ancestor; when any child dies under the age of twenty-one and leaves no husband, wife or children, any real property which descended to such child descends to the heirs of the ancestor from whom such real property descended the same as if such child had died before the death of such ancestor; if there are no lineal descendants or kindred real property escheats to the State of Oregon. Personal property descends the same as realty except that where there are no issue a surviving husband or wife takes it all. In case there is a surviving wife or husband and living issue the surviving wife or husband takes half and the issue half.

WILLS.—Every person of 21 years and upwards, may by last will, devise his or her real property, saving the widow or husband her or his dower or curtesy. Every person over 18 years may dispose of goods and chattels by will. A married woman may dispose of her real estate by will, subject to the husband's right as tenant by curtesy. The will must be subscribed by the testator in the presence of two witnesses who must also subscribe. The will of an unmarried person is revoked by his or her marriage. A surviving or posthumous child not mentioned by will takes as in case of intestacy.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the State of Pennsylvania, prepared by MORRIS, WALKER & BOYLE, Attorneys at Law, Pittsburgh, Pa.

ARREST.—In actions on contract the defendant may be arrested if he is about to fraudulently remove his property out of the jurisdiction of the Court, with intent to defraud his creditors, or fraudulently conceals it, or unjustly refuses to apply some right in action or interest in public or corporate stocks, money or evidence of debt to the plaintiff's judgment, or has fraudulently contracted the debt, or is about to quit the State without leaving sufficient real or personal estate to satisfy the demand. No female can be arrested for debt.

ASSIGNMENTS.—A deed of assignment for benefit of creditors to be valid must be recorded within thirty days of its date in the county in which the assignor resides. Corporations for public internal improvement cannot make such assignment without the consent of those to whom they owe debts for the construction of such improvement, whether as contractors, workmen, or laborers. Preferences except for labor are void. Assignees must give a bond in double the appraised value of the assigned property. They may be cited to file an account after the expiration of one year. All claims are paid pro rata, excepting liens and wages. Wages of miners, mechanics and laborers are entitled to be first paid to the extent of $200.

By the act of June 4th, 1901, provision is made for voluntary or involuntary insolvency corresponding to the United States Bankruptcy Act.

BANKS AND BANKING.—Cashiers of banks incorporated under the General Banking Act of 1876 must publish a semi-annual statement of condition. Dividends are declared quarterly or semi-annually, and on each dividend day the cashier must make a full and accurate statement of the condition of the bank, which must be entered at length in a book provided for that purpose. Books, etc., of banks are subject to legislative inspection and examination at all times. Cashiers are prohibited from engaging in any other occupation. Loans are prohibited on the stock of the corporations. Stockholders are liable for debt to the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof in addition to the par value of such shares. The passage of this act, and of the United States bank law, appear to have rendered obsolete the acts of March 31, 1860, and May 13, 1861, to establish a system of free banking in Pennsylvania. These acts provided for banks of issue on a similar plan to the National banks. By act of June 30, 1885, provident institutions, savings institutions, and savings banks chartered under the laws of Pennsylvania are permitted to renew and extend their charters, corporate rights and franchises for the period of twenty years. The act provides that no such institution, having no capital stock, which renews or extends its charter, etc., under the provisions of the act, shall thereafter be allowed the privileges of a bank of discount, nor be allowed to loan any money received on deposit, except upon first mortgage or lien of real estate within the Commonwealth, upon the bonds or securities of the United States or of Pennsylvania, or upon county, city, borough, township or school bonds of any county, city, borough, township, or school district within the commonwealth, or any other good and valid securities. By act of May 8th, 1907, all State banks and trust companies must maintain a reserve fund of 7½ per cent. on time deposits and of 15 per cent. on deposits payable on demand.

The act of June 19, 1911 provides for the licensing and regulating of private banking, and imposes penalties for the violation thereof.

Act of 1913, ¶338 provides that banks chartered under the law of Pennsylvania are hereby authorized to pay interest upon deposits payable on demand, upon time deposits, and upon daily balances of deposits subject to check.

Act of 1913, ¶354, provides method of distribution of the assets, etc., of any trust company in the course of its liquidation by legal process or otherwise.

Act of 1913, ¶294, confers the status of a depositor as to preference over other creditors, to persons firms or corporations accepting from bank or trust company its check in payment of a depositor's check.

Act of 1915, ¶476, provides for conversion of co-operative banking associations into banks of discount and deposit.

Act of 1915, ¶878, requires banks and fiduciaries to make reports to Auditor-General of deposits to which access has not been had by depositor, and dividends not paid, within seven years,—such deposits to escheat in seventeen years, and dividends to escheat in six years.

BILLS AND NOTES.—Since January, 1896, no days of grace are allowed. Damages allowed on protest of domestic bills, 5 to 10 per cent.; on foreign bills, 10 to 20 per cent. January 1, February 22, Good Friday, July 4, first Monday of September, first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, December 25, and every Saturday after 12 o'clock m. until 12 o'clock midnight, each of which Saturdays is designated as holidays, and any day appointed by the Governor of the State or the President of the United States for fasting, thanksgiving, or for general cessation of business, are public holidays, and paper falling due on any of said days or on Sundays shall be deemed to fall due on the secular day next succeeding. Whenever January 1, February 22, July 4, or December 25 occurs on Sunday, the following Monday is a holiday, and all paper falling due on such Monday is due and payable on the next secular or business day succeeding. The 30th day of May is also a holiday, but when that day falls on Sunday, the preceding day, and not Monday, is regarded as a holiday. Twelfth day of October, Columbus Day, a legal holiday.

The Negotiable Instruments Law, substantially as adopted in many other States, was adopted by Act of May 16, 1901, going into effect Sept. 1, 1901.

Section 137 of the Negotiable Instruments Law has this addition: Provided, that the mere retention of such bill by the drawee, unless its return has been demanded, will not amount to an acceptance; and provided further, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to checks. (Act, April 27, 1909.)

BILLS OF LADINGS.—A uniform Bills of Lading Act similar to the one adopted by several other States was passed on June 9th, 1911.

INTEREST.—Legal rate, 6 per cent. Usurious interest cannot be collected, and, if paid, may be recovered if sued for in six months.

LIMITATIONS.—Contracts, notes, unsealed instruments, six years. Acknowledgment, coupled with promise to pay, revives debt; and the promise may be implied if the acknowledgment is plain, express and there is nothing to negative such implication.

Actions on sealed instruments must be brought within twenty years. The payment of judgments and mortgages will be presumed after twenty years, but this presumption may be rebutted by positive proof of non-payment. Minors, both male and female, attain majority at twenty-one years.

MARRIED WOMEN.—A married woman may not become accommodation indorser, maker, guarantor, or surety for another; she may not convey nor mortgage her real property unless her husband join in the deed or mortgage; she may not sue her husband except for divorce or her separate property or support in case of desertion, nor may she be sued by him except for divorce. In all other respects she has the same privileges and liabilities as a femme sole. A married woman may now make conveyances of real estate to her husband as if she were a feme sole. All conveyances of real estate heretofore made by any married woman to her husband which have been duly signed acknowledged and delivered by her are validated and made good in law.

Act of March 27, 1913, authorizes a husband to sue his wife to recover his separate property and a wife to sue husband for her separate property.

MECHANICS' LIENS.—Act of June 4, 1901, the entire Mechanics' Law Lien has been codified and proper procedure indicated.

Any SUBCONTRACTOR intending to file a lien must give to the owner written notice to that effect, together with a sworn statement setting forth the contract under which he claims. Such notice and statement must be served at least one month before the claim is filed, and within three months after the last of his work was done or materials furnished, if he has six months within which to file his claim, and within forty-five days thereafter if he has but three months within which to file it. It is also necessary for SUBCONTRACTORS in cases of alterations and repairs to give written notice on or before the day the claimant completed his work or furnished the last of his materials, of his INTENTION to file a claim.

A contractor is not obliged to serve notice of his INTENTION to file a lien. But after filing the lien, he must give notice to the owner within thirty days after the date of filing of the fact, giving the court, number and term and date of filing.

RECORDING OF DEEDS AND MORTGAGES.—Deeds and conveyances made within the State must be recorded within three months, and deeds and conveyances made and executed without the State must be recorded within six months to be valid against any subsequent purchaser for a valid consideration or against a mortgagee or judgment creditor of the grantor. Mortgages have priority of lien according to their date of record, except a purchase money mortgage, which has a lien from its date, if recorded within thirty days.

REPLEVIN.—Plaintiff in replevin must give bond in double the value of the goods claimed, and defendant may, except in cases of distress for rent, retain possession of the property by giving a counter-bond in the same amount, in which case the title to the property remains in defendant and the suit in replevin determines only the damages, if any, for retaining the goods.

Replevin does not, except in cases of distress for rent, lie for goods taken in execution in the hands of a sheriff or constable. A party claiming the goods must file a property claim and the question of title may then be determined by sheriff's interpleader.

STAY OF EXECUTION.—On judgments before justices of the peace or aldermen, where the defendant is a freeholder or enters bail absolute in double the amount of debt,, interest and costs, a stay of execution may be had for three, six and nine months respectively, where the judgment is above $5.33 and less than $20, above $20, and not exceeding $60, above $50, and not exceeding $300, except that these provisions do not apply to judgments obtained for wages for manual labor.

Stay of execution may be had for six, nine and twelve months respectively on judgments up to $200, from $200 to $500, and from $500 upwards, in actions on contract, except actions on judgments, mortgages, and bail for stay of execution.

STOCK TRANSFER.—On May 5, 1911, an Act was passed to make uniform the law of transfer of shares of stock in corporations

Act of 1915, ¶ 28, imposes a tax of two cents per $100 or fraction thereof, face value, on sales, agreements to sell, or memoranda of sales of stock, and upon deliveries or transfers of certificates or shares of stock in domestic or foreign corporations, partnerships, or joint-stock associations.

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS.—The act of June 7, 1911, is an addition to the act of March 11, 1909. Any person, firm or corporation issuing, pledging, selling, transferring, endorsing, delivering, or in any way passing, the title to any paper, not issued by a warehouseman or anybody operating a warehouse or other place for the storing of goods, and not being a warehouse receipt, but made in the likeness as to the design or contents of a warehouse receipt, and calculated to induce any person to beleive such a paper to be a warehouse receipt, and thereby shall obtain from any person, firm or corporation, any chattel, money, promissory note, check, or other negotiable instrument, or valuabe security—such offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding $5,000, and undergo an imprisonment not exceeding 3 years, or either, or both, in the discretion of the court.

WILLS.—A will may be made by any person of sound mind and twenty-one years of age. It must be in writing and must be signed by the testator unless prevented by the extremity of his last illness, or by some person in his presence and at his express request. Wills must be proved by two competent, but not necessarily subscribing, witnesses. Bequests or devises to charity must be made at least one calendar month before death and must be attested by two credible and disinterested witnesses. Noncupative wills are valid under certain restrictions.

And this applies whether conveyances are absolute, by way of mortgage or in trust. Releases of dower and curtesy must be acknowledged. Married women's acknowledgments taken in the same manner as if sole. The form of acknowledgment commonly used is as follows:

(Name and title of officer.)

Form of acknowledgment used in case of corporations:

State of..... }
County of..... }

A. D. 19..., personally appeared (name and title of officer of corporation authorized to acknowledge), to me known, and known by me to be the party executing the foregoing instrument, and acknowledged said instrument, by him executed in his said capacity, to be his free act and deed and the free act and deed of (name of corporation in question).

In foreign countries, before any ambassador, minister, charge des affairs, consul, vice consul or commercial agent of the United States, or by a commissioner appointed and qualified in the country where such deed or instrument is executed.

ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES.—Upon the admission of a will to probate, letters testamentary are granted by the probate court to the executor named in the will. If, however, he is dead, incapable or unwilling to act, letters testamentary are issued to an administrator with the will annexed, appointed by this court. In cases of intestacy, letters of administration are granted to the husband, the widow or the nex of kin, as of right, if a fit and proper person. Bond or faithful performance of duty is required of an administrator and of an executor in double the value of decedent's personal estate except in one case, that of a husband administering upon the personal estate of his deceased wife. And in this case, he is not obliged by law to render any inventory of the estate. All claims against an estate should be filed within six months following the first advertisement of the qualification of the executor or administrator. Claims against the estate of a deceased person, to become payable at a future date are, as against the estate, deemed to be due at the time of death of such person. If the estate is insufficient to pay his debts, after the costs of settling his estate and deducting such property as is set off and allowed to the widow and family by law, the estate shall be applied to paying his debts in the following order: ( ) Necessary funeral charges; (2) necessary expenses of last illness; ( ) debts due to United States; (4) debts due to this State, and State and town taxes; (5) wages of labor performed within six months before death of deceased (not exceeding $100 to any one person); (6) other debts filed within six months after first notice of qualification of executor or administrator; (7) all other debts.

AFFIDAVITS may be sworn to before any officer qualified to administer an oath. Affidavits subscribed and sworn to outside of Rhode Island to be used in the courts here must contain the due certification of the officer or magistrate before which the affidavits were subscribed. Affidavits are not required to follow any set form, but are commonly written in the first person.

ARRESTS (CIVIL),—Writs of arrest issue from the superior court and any of the district courts in actions of trover, detinue, trespass, trespass on the case, trespass and ejectment, and trespass quare clausum fregit; in actions wherein the defendant is about to leave the State without leaving therein real or personal estate on which an execution that may be obtained in such case can be served; and in acttons wherein the defendant about to be arrested has committed fraud in fact, involving moral turpitude or intentional wrong, either in contracting the debt upon which the case is founded, or in concealing or secreting his property or in disposing of the same.

ASSIGNMENTS FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS.—Assignor files with the assignee a sworn itemized statement of all assets, and the amount, kind, value and location thereof, and a list of creditors with their residences and amounts due each of them. The assignee must give public notice of his qualification to all creditors to present claims and to all debtors to make payments to such assignee, in some newspaper published in the county in which such assignor resides or is located, and such assignee shall also notify creditors in like manner by mail. One fifth in amount of the creditors of the assignor, by petition to the superior court, may require assignee to give bond to the superior court with good surety, in the amount of the total value of all property conveyed by the deed of assignment, conditioned on the faithful performance of his duties. Such assignee may be required to make itemized sworn report in writing to the superior court of all his doings under his trust.

ATTACHMENTS.—Writs of attachment, both original and mesne, issue from the superior court, and from each of the district court commanding the attachment of any real or personal property owned by the defendant. Such writs must contain the affidavit of the plaintiff in the cause, his agent or attorney that he (the plaintiff) has a just claim against the defendant that is due, upon which he (the plaintiff) expects to recover in such cause a sum sufficient to give jurisdiction to the court to which the writ is returnable Attachments may be placed upon the defendant's personal estate in the hands or possession of any person, copartnership or corporation as trustee of the defendant, as also upon his stock or shares in any banking association or other incorporated company. Executions issue 24 hours immediately after entry of judgment. They can be stayed only by court order. In default of goods and chattels, or real estate, execution may issue against the body of debtor in cases where fraud is alleged, and for recovery of costs in actions in trespass and ejectment.

BANKS AND BANKING.—Fifteen or more persons, all of whom are citizens and residents of this State, may associate themselves for the purpose of incorporating a bank, a savings bank or a trust company. There is a Bank Commissioner, and the banks of the State are subject to careful supervision. At least twice in every year he must visit and examine all banks incorporated in this State, and annually report to the General Assembly their condition and make any recommendations concerning their methods as he may think proper. All banks and trust companies, at least five times in a year (oftener if the Bank Commissioner requires it) must make a full report to him, over the signatures and oaths of certain of their officers, and attested by at least three of their directorate, showing their financial condition at the close of business on a day he specifies. Savings banks at least twice a year (or upon his request) is obliged to make a report to him signed and sworn to by its president or treasurer, showing their condition at the close of business on a day he has specified. The laws of the State limit bank investments to certain kind of property and securities.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES are invalid as to persons other than the parties, their executors and administrators, unless the mortgagor take and retain possession of the mortgaged property, or unless the mortgage be recorded in the city or town in this State where the mortgagor resides, or, if he lives outside of Rhode Island, then the recording should take place in the city or town where the property is. And this taking and retaining possession and recording must occur within five days of the signing of the deed. Chattel mortgages usually contain a power of sale, authorizing the mortgagee, upon condition broken, to foreclose without the formality of going to the courts.

CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATES.—See, title Administration of Estates.

CORPORATIONS.—Those to carry on ordinary business or to engage in manufacturing are created under a general law. Insurance, railroad and canal companies, and those seeking to take property under eminent domain must be specially chartered by the General Assembly. The former may be formed by any three or more persons of lawful age who join together by articles of association. These show the agreement of the parties to start a corporation, and set forth the name the proposed concern is to take, the kind of its business, where it is to be located, and the amount and kind of the capital stock. The articles of association must be signed by the corporators, acknowledged after the manner of a real estate deed in this State, and filed with the Secretary of State. Before filing this, it is necessary to pay the General Treasurer the fee required by law for incorporation, which is $100, if the capital stock of the concern does not exceed $100,000. The fee is 1-10 of 1% of the capital stock when this is above $100,000. When the steps outlined have been taken, the Secretary of State issues a certificate of incorporation to the corporators, under which they may organize in corporate form and start business at once Banks and trust companies are the only corporations obliged to make reports as to the conduct of their business, profits made and such like matters.

The members of every incorporated manufacturing company are jointly and severally for all its debts and contracts, limited to the shares they have paid up to the par value thereof, until the whole amount of the capital stock fixed by the charter, or by vote of the company in pursuance of the charter or of law, shall have been paid in and a certificate thereof have been recorded in the office of the clerk of the town or city where the factory is. If the president and directors, treasurer and clerk, or any of them, after the expiration of ten days after payment of the last installment of the capital stock, shall refuse or neglect to make, sign and swear to a certificate of the kind named, and have it recorded as aforesaid, they shall jointly and severally be liable for all debts of the company contracted after the expiration of the ten days and before the certificate shall be recorded.

COURTS.—There is a Supreme Court, a Superior and twelve District Courts. Besides each city and town has its own Probate Court, and each town council has the right itself to act as a probate court or to elect a judge of probate to take over this function. In Providence the Municipal Court is the probate court.

The Supreme Court has revisory and appelate jurisdiction over the lower State courts. It may issue extraordinary and prerogative writs and processes necessary for the furtherance of justice. It has jurisdiction of petitions for trials and new trials, bills or exceptions and appeals.

The Superior Court has original jurisdiction of suits and proceedings in equity. Before it come petitions for divorce, all actions at law where title to real estate is in issue, except actions for possession of tenements let or held at will or by sufirance; actions at law in which the amount sued for exceeds $500, and cases appealed from the different probate courts, and actions brought in the district courts wherein claim of a jury trial is made. This court has the same authority as the Supreme Court to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, and quo warranto.

The District Courts each have jurisdiction in civil causes when the ad-damnum or sum sued for does not exceed $500.

The Supreme court is in session at Providence from the first Monday in October to the second Monday in July in every year, and at such other times as said court shall deem proper, with a recess from the third Monday in February to the first Monday in March. The Court may hold sessions at other places within the State whenever it may deem advisable.

The Superior court sits at Providence for the counties of Providence and Bristol from the third Monday in September until the second Monday in July following. It sits at stated times at other cities and towns. The District Courts differ in the time of their sessions for civil business, but are always open for criminal.

DEEDS.—See titles Acknowledgments and Seals.

DEPOSITIONS.—Except in equity cases, any justice of the supreme or superior courts, notary public or justice of the peace, may take depositions to be used in any civil suit or proceeding, in which he is not interested, nor counsel, nor the attorney of either party, and which shall then be commenced or pending in this State, or in any other state, or in the District of Columbia, or in any territory, government or country. In equity cases, testimony may be taken by deposition or orally before a commissioner or commissioners appointed by order of the court.

Depositions may be taken without this State to be used in the courts in this State, upon an order obtained on motion from the particular tribunal in which the case is pending, and when ordered shall be taken either by the person and in the manner and with the formalities required by the laws of the state, district, territory or counry, in which the same shall be taken; or else shall be taken, if taken in any other state, district, or territory of the United States, before a commissioner appointed by the governor of this State, or before a judge, chancellor, notary public, justice of the peace or civil magistrate of such state, district or territory, respectively, or, if taken out of the United States before a residential official of the United States, or if the deposition be in the military or naval service of the United States, before certain military and naval officers named by the statutes of Rhode Island.

DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION.—Real estate left by persons dying without a will passes as follows: 1. To children or their descendants. 2. To parents equally, or to surviving parent. 3. To brothers and sisters, and their descendants. In default of these, in equal moieties to the paternal and maternal kindred: 1. To grandparents equally. 2. To uncles and aunts, or their descendants. 3. To great grandparents great uncles and great aunts, and their descendants; and so on without end. If the title of the intestate came "by descent, gift, or devise from the parent or other kindred of the intestate, and such intestate die without children, such estate shall go to the kin next to the intestate of the blood of the person from whom such estate came or descended, if any there be." Personal estate, not bequeathed, is distributed as follows: 1. One-half to the widow of person dying without issue. 2. One-third to the widow when there is issue living. 3. The remainder is distributed in manner provided for the descent of real estate, but without regard to the person from whom such personal estate came or descended. Upon the decease of a married woman all her personal property goes to her surviving husband.

DIVORCE.—Actual residence in this State for at least two years previous to the time the petition is brought is necessary, unless the respondent has been domiciled within the State during two years, and has been personally served with process. Divorces (absolute) are granted by the superior court upon the following grounds: Marriage originally void or voidable by law, when party is for crime deemed civilly dead (i. e., convicted of murder or arson), or from absence may be presumed to be dead; impotency, adultery, extreme cruelty, willful desertion for five years of either of the parties, or for a shorter period of time, in the discretion of the court; for continued drunkenness, for the habitual, excessive, and intemperate use of opium, morphine, or chloral; and for neglect and refusal, for the period of at least one year next before the filing of the petition, on the part of the husband to provide necessaries for the subsistence of his wife, the husband being of sufficient ability; and for any other gross misbehavior and wickedness, in either of the parties, repugnant to and in violation of the marriage covenant.

DOWER AND CURTESY both exist as at common law.

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY.—See title Workmen's Compensation; Employers' Liability.

EXECUTIONS.—See titles Attachments and Exemptions.

EXEMPTIONS.—There is no homestead law. The following personal property is exempt from all attachment and execution; the necessary wearing apparel of a debtor or his family; the working tools of a debtor in his usual occupation; the household furniture and family stores of a housekeeper in the whole not exceeding $300, the bibles, school books and other books in use in the family not exceeding in value $30, one cow and one and one half tons of hay of a housekeeper; one hog and one pig of a housekeeper and the pork of the same when slaughtered; debtor's interest in a pew and burial lot; wages due a seaman; debts secured by bills of exchange or negotiable promissory notes; salary or wages due not exceeding $50, except when the cause of action is for necessaries furnished the defendant; the salaries and wages of the wife and minor children of a debtor; interest in any policeman's or fireman's pension fund.

HOLIDAYS.—See title Negotiable Instruments.

INTEREST.—The legal rate is 6 per cent, but a higher rate may be charged if the agreement is in writing. The interest on loans of money exceeding $50 must not go beyond a maximum of 30 per cent. a year. The interest on loans not exceeding $50 must not go beyond a maximum of 3 per cent for the first six months, and 1½ per cent. thereafter Judgments draw interest at 6 per cent., as do open accounts from the date they fell due.

LIMITATIONS.—Accounts and other unsealed contracts, including promissory notes, six years. Sealed instruments and judgments, twenty years An oral promise to pay an outlawed debt, or a partial payment made upon the same, brings the matter once more within the statute. In determining the question whether an account is within the six year limit, the date of the last item governs in cases where book-debts are sued for.

MARRIED WOMEN may make all contracts that they could lawfully make if single or unmarried Practically all of their old time disabilities have been removed by statute. They may engage in business on their own account, make contracts and be contracted with, and sue and be sued either at law or in equity with or without the joinder of their husband as a party.

MORTGAGES on real estate are executed like other deeds, and should be recorded. They commonly contain a power-of-sale covenant. This gives the mortgagee, or those standing in his place, after default by the motgagor respecting any provision of the mortgage, the right to foreclose, without resorting to the courts for this authorization. If a mortgage deed be assigned and the assignee assumes the mortgage debt therewith, the original power of sale passes also. Mortgages are discharged by a written release, which does not have to be acknowledged. It must, however, be put on record at the proper record office.

MECHANICS' LIENS.—The usual mechanics' liens are in force. Those of original contractors must be filed within four months after the claim is due, if the work was done under written contract; or within six months, if the work was done under contract not in writing. The liens of materialmen must be filed within sixty days after the material in question is placed upon the land. Suit in equity must be begun within twenty days after claimant files his account.

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.—The uniform negotiable instruments act, already adopted by a majority of the states, is in effect. Days of grace (except on sight drafts) are abolished. When negotiable instruments fall due on Sunday, a legal holiday or on Saturday after 12 M., they are payable on the next business day. The legal holidays are January 1, February 22, the second Friday in May (Arbor Day), May 30, July 4, the first Monday in September (Labor Day), October 12, the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November (Election Day), the last Thursday in November (Thanksgiving), and December 25.

NOTARIES PUBLIC are appointnd by the Governor for the term of three years. Their number is not limited by law. Women are not appointed to the office. The fee for a commission is five dollars. In practice, nearly all acknowledgments are taken before notaries. Acknowledgments upon papers to be used ou side of Rhode Island should have the certification of the secretary of state of this state or that of the clerk of any court of record in the state, that the particular notary's commission is in force at the time of taking the acknowledgment in question.

PLEADING AND PRACTICE both follow the common law, very largely. The exceptions to this rule are a few changes in procedure made by statute. Amendments to pleadings are freely allowed as to matters of form. Pleadings need not conform to any particular phrasing: it is enough if they set out the necessary elements of the different actions.

REPLEVIN follows the usual rule of common law. The plaintiff is obliged to give bond, with two sureties, to the officer taking the goods in question, in double the value of the same.

SALES OF GOODS.—The statute of frauds is applied to all contracts of sale, whether to take place in the future or not, of the value of $500 or more, requiring in cases where there has been no delivery of the goods or any part thereof, no payment on account, etc., that suit cannot be brought unless there is some note or memorandum of the transaction signed by the party to be charged, or his agent.

SALES IN BULK of entire stocks of merchandise (including fixtures), made out of the ordinary course of business, and all sales in bulk, are fraudulent and void, as against all creditors of the transferrer at time of sale or transfer, unless the transferee demands from and receives of the transferrer a written list of all the transferrer's creditors (with addresses and amounts due), which list must be certified under oath as true to the best of deponent's knowledge It is then the transferee's duty to notify the creditors personally or by registered letter, at least five days before the transfer is to take place.

SEALS are not necessary to the validity of any deed or writing conveying real estate or any title therein. They need not be used in the case of wills. They are still retained upon general release and bonds.

TAXES on real estate are for the "full, true and fair cash value" of the property. When subject to mortgage, real estate is taxed to the mortgagor. Unpaid taxes are a lien on real estate until collected, unless the property be aliened, and in that case, they are a lien for but two years. Redemption allowed with one year from date of sale by paying purchase price and 20 per cent, additional.

WILLS.—All persons over the age of twenty one, who are of sound mind, may dispose of real and personal property by wills. All persons of eighteen years of age may make wills conveying their personal estate. No set attestation clause need be used. It is necessary, however, that all wills be signed in the presence of at least two witnesses. These witnesses must sign in the testator's presence and in the presence of each other, and at the testator's request. Seals are not necessary. Marriage after making a will acts as a revocation of the instrument.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION: EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY.—Since October 1 1912, this State has had a Workmen's Compensation Act. By its provisions employers lose the three great defenses that they had at common law; that the employee was himself negligent, that the injury or death was caused by the negligence of a fellow employee that the employee assumed the risk of the injury. Now the only defence employers may set up when an injury or death has taken place in their factory or work shop is that the injury or death was occasioned by the employee "by his wilful intention to bring about the injury or death of himself or of another, or that the same resulted from his intoxication while on duty." The act does not apply to employers who employ five or less workmen, yet even such employers may elect to become subject to it. The act does not relate to persons engaged in domestic service or agriculture but to all others. The injury complained of must have kept the person injured from work for two weeks, or he can have no compensation for it. The employer is obliged to pay for the hospital and medical charges for the first two weeks after an workman has been injured but not after this time.

If a workman is killed by an injury, the employer must pay his dependents (those wholly dependent on his earnings) a weekly payment equal to one half of his weekly wages or salary, but not more than ten dollars nor less than four dollars, for three hundred weeks (practically six years) from the date of the injury. If a workman is totally incapacitated for work by reason of any injury, the employer must pay him a weekly sum equal to one-half of his weekly wages or salary, but not less or more per week than the sums just mentioned, for a time not to exceed five hundred weeks: if partially incapacitated from work, the compensation of a workman is the same as that just spoken of, the time limit being three hundred weeks, instead of five hundred.

BANKS AND BANKING. — EXAMINATION OF BANKING AND OTHER FISCAL CORPORATIONS—The office of the State Bank Examiner was formerly created, but no examiner was appointed thereunder. On petition of the banks, an act was passed which was approved the 23rd day of February, 1906, whereby an examiner was to be appointed immediately upon the approval of the act, such appointment to be made by the Governor, who might advise with the Executive Committee of the South Carolina Bankers Association. It is his duty to examine the banks yearly and to make such special examinations as he may be requested by the petitioning stockholders. His term of office shall be four years and he is empowered to appoint two assistants. A charge is made for this examination. The party appointed must, by the act, be an expert accountant and a man accustomed to banking business. The Act does not apply to national banks. Under this Act, an examiner was appointed who has performed his duties. The quarterly statements shall be sent to State Bank examiner within 10 days from the date they are received and shall be in such form as may be required by such officer. Any bank which fails to make report within the time given, without excuse satisfactory to the bank examiner, shall be subject to a fine of $10.00 per day for each day's delay collectible by said officer in any court of competent jurisdiction.

The Bank Examiner is required to make at least one examination each year of each branch bank in this State. All branch banks must indicate on their stationary, checks, drafts, notes, etc., that they are a branch bank, together with the name and place of business of the parent bank.

Every bank or banking institution shall set aside to its surplus account not less than one-tenth of its annual net earnings each year, until its surplus shall be equal to twenty-five per centum of its capital stock. The State Bank Examiner is required to enforce this law

The Bank Examiner shall have the right at any time upon the request of a majority of the directors of any bank or trust company, to take and retain sole possession and control of the property and business of such corporation for not exceeding thirty days, provided however, that during the said time, the said corporation shall have the right either to resume business or with the consent of the examiner, to obtain from the presiding judge an order authorizing such corporation to liquidate its affairs under the sole supervision and control of the examiner and subject to the order of said court; and that no action or proceeding against said corporation or its stockholders shall be instituted except in the cause in which the order of liquidation was granted.

BANKS, HOW INCORPORATED UNDER GENERAL LAWS.—Under the act of 1896 there is no distinction in the incorporation of banks from the incorporation of any other corporation. All corporations are organized under a general law. (See Corporations.)

LIMITATIONS OF BANKS.—The act of 1897 limits the amount that a bank can loan to a customer to one-tenth part of its capital stock actually paid in, and surplus. A loan for a larger amount must be authorized by a two-thirds vote of the board of directors of the bank. The same law provides that no officer (including director) of a bank shall borrow therefrom except on a good security approved in writing by two-thirds of the whole board of directors; no officer shall become endorser upon any credit made to another officer of the bank. A loan to a director of more than one-tenth part of the capital stock of any bank actually paid in and its surplus is prohibited. Banks may act as administrators, guardians, etc.

Banking corporations are authorized to invest three-fourths of their capital stock and deposits in real estate mortgages. Acts 1913, page 37

All banks or banking associations, chartered and doing business under the laws of this State shall pay to the proper tax collecting officer of the county, city or municipality in which such bank may be located all taxes that may be assessed in this State as provided by law, upon its shares in the hands of its stockholders Acts 1913 page 20.

Any bank, banking association or trust company chartered and engaged in the banking business under the laws of this State may associate itself with any national reserve association of the United States, or any branch thereof under any law now existing, or hereafter enacted by the Congress of the United States; and may invest such part of its capital or surplus thereof as may be necessary to acquire and preserve its membership in such association. STOCKHOLDERS' LIABILITY.—Article 9, section 18, State Constitution, provides, 'That stockholders in banks or banking institutions shall be liable to depositors therein, in a sum equal in amount to their stock over and above the face value of the same."

Section 2660, Code of 1912. RETURN REQUIRED OF BANKS.—On Wednesday of every week each bank must transmit to the Comptroller General an account of the bank notes of such bank in circulation and also an account of the amount of gold and silver coin and bullion in the possession of the bank or subject to its control; since each bank is liable to a forfeiture of $500 for every week, after four successive weeks, that its issue of bank notes shall exceed three times the amount of gold and silver coin and bullion in the possession of the bank. These reports are to be sworn to by the president or cashier of the institution. Failure to file the report shall make the bank liable to a fine of $100 a day. All institutions doing business in this State in lending money and receiving deposits are required, under penalty of forfeiture of their charter, to publish in a newspaper, at place of business, at the end of every 3 months, a correct report of the condition of such institution by the president or cashier, under oath, verified by 3 directors. By an act approved 19th February 1904, this provision is made to apply to all private banking institutions whether chartered or not, and any person, firm or partnership conducting the business of lending money and receiving deposits. Violation of this act is to be punished by a fine not less than $100.00 or more than $1,000.00 or imprisonment at hard labor for a period of not less than three months or more than a year, or both. It is a felony for any president, director, manager or cashier, or other officer of a banking institution to receive deposits or trusts, or to create any debts of such corporation after he becomes aware that such corporation is insolvent, and also makes him personally liable. Banks have power to vest from time to time such part of their capital not exceeding one-half of the amount originally subscribed, in stock of State or United States.

Any banking corporation or trust company with a bona fide capital of at least $25,000.00 cash paid in, which has been chartered under the laws of this state, may act as guardian, trustee, receiver, assignee, executor or administrator.

Any person who shall draw and utter any check, draft or order upon a bank, banking house, person, firm or corporation with which or whom he has not, at the time sufficient funds to meet the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Thirty days is allowed within which the drawer may deposit with the drawee sufficient funds to pay the check and costs, in which case the prosecution ends.

And a transcript of said summons and de-

ARREST.—The defendant, except females, in a civil action may be arrested in the following cases:—In an action for damages in a cause of action not arising out of contract, where the defendant is not a resident of the State, or is about to remove therefrom, or where the action is for an injury to the person or character, or for injuring or wrongfully taking, detaining or converting property. In an action for a fine or penalty; or a promise to marry; money or for property embezzled or fraudulently misapplied by a public officer, or agent of a corporation, by an attorney, solicitor, or counsellor, in the course of his employment as such; or by any factor, broker, agent, or other person in a fiduciary capacity, or for any misconduct or neglect in office, or in a professional employment. The order of arrest may be granted by the court in which the action is brought, upon an affidavit that one of the foregoing causes exist. But no female shall be arrested in any action, except for a wilful injury to person, character or property.

ASSIGNMENTS—An insolvent debtor may in good faith make an assignment in trust for the benefit of his creditors, which assignment may provide for any subsisting liability of the assignor which he might lawfully pay, whether absolute or contingent. Such assignment shall be void if any preference is therein made, but the debtor is not relieved from liability for any unpaid balance due his creditors. Such assignment must be in writing and subscribed by the assignor, or his duly authorized agent, and must be acknowledged or proved, and certified in the same manner as in case of real property, and must, with an inventory of all the debtor's property not exempt, be filed for record in the office of the register of deeds in the county where such assignor resides, or if a non-resident, in the county where he had his principal place of business. The inventory must also be verified by the affidavit of the assignor to the effect that the same is true and just in all respects. An assignment does not dissolve an attachment previously made, or other valid lien acquired.

ATTACHMENTS.—An attachment may be issued at the time of the issuing of the summons or at any time thereafter, provided, however, that personal service of the summons must be made within thirty days thereafter, or publication of the summons commenced within that time where personal service cannot be made,

"In all actions against a corporation created by or under the laws of any other territory, State, government, or country, which has not complied with the laws of this State relative to the appointment of agent upon whom service of process may be made or against a defendant who is not a resident of this State, or against a defendant who has absconded or concealed himself, or whenever any person or corporation is about to remove any of his or its property from this State, or has assigned, disposed of, secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of, or secrete any of his or its property with the intend to defraud creditors."

In justice court the undertaking must be furnished by the plaintiff with two or more sureties in the sum of at least fifty dollars, and not more than $250.00 to abide the event of the suit, etc., as hereinafter stated. In circuit court such undertaking must be in at least the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, and at least the amount of the claim if over two hundred and fifty dollars, conditioned to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment, or the attachment be set aside by the order of the court, the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages that he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum named in the undertaking. In circuit court one surety is sufficient.

Real and personal property, debts, moneys, credits, and bank notes may be attached or levied on under execution, there being no process of garnishment. For the purpose of attachment, an action is deemed to be commenced when the summons is issued.

Shares may be transferred by indorsement by the signature of the proprietor or his attorney or legal representative and delivery of the certificate, but such transfer is not valid except as between the parties thereto until the same is so entered upon the books of the corporation as to show the names of the parties by and to whom transferred, the number or designation of the shares, and the date of transfer. Unless otherwise provided for in articles, may purchase, hold and transfer shares of its own stock, from its surplus profits, may purchase for non-payment of assessments at sale thereof after due service of notice, may also purchase, by the unanimous consent in writing of all its stockholders, in such manner, and for such price as they may unanimously agree upon. Dividend belongs to such person in whose name the stock stands upon the books on the day when it becomes payable. Directors must be elected annually by ballot represented by majority of stockholders, and unless otherwise provided for in the by-laws, must be on the first Tuesday in June. Must be not less than three or more than eleven directors, and must be holders of stock in amount to be fixed in by laws. At meetings or elections stock may be represented in person or by proxy. Each stockholder is individually and personally liable for the debts of the corporation to the extent of the amount that is unpaid upon the stock held by him. Any creditor of the corporation may institute joint or several action against any of its stockholders that have not wholly paid the capital stock held by him, and in such action the court must ascertain the amount that is unpaid upon the stock held by each stockholder, and for which he is liable, and several judgments must be rendered against each in conformity therewith; the liability of each stockholder is determined by the amount unpaid upon the stock or shares owned by him at time such action is commenced, and such liability is not released by any subsequent transfer of stock. And in no other case shall the stockholders be individually and personally liable for the debts. The term "stockholder" applies not only to such persons as appear by the books to be such, but also to every equable owner of stock, and to every person who has advanced installments or purchase money of stock in the name of a minor, so long as the latter remains a minor, and also to every guardian or trustee who voluntarily invests any trust funds in the stock, the trust funds shall not be liable, nor the person for whose benefit the investment is made, but the responsibility of the guardian or trustee shall continue until his ward or cestui que trust becomes competent and able to control the funds. When shares of stock are owned by non-residents of the State the officers may, before entering a transfer upon the books, or issuing certificates thereof to the transferee, require from the attorney or agent of the non-resident owner, or from the person claiming under the transfer, an affidavit or other evidence, that the non-resident owner was alive at the date of the transfer, and if the same be not furnished, may require a bond of indemnity with two sureties satisfactory to the officers, or it not satisfactory, one approved by the circuit judge of the county, conditioned to protect the corporation against any liability to the legal representatives of the owners of the shares, in case of his or her death before the transfer. If these conditions be not complied with neither the corporation or any officer thereof shall be liable for refusing to enter the transfer on the books No foreign corporation, except those created for religious or charitable purposes, shall transact any business within the State, acquire, hold, or dispose of property, or sue or maintain any action at law in any of the courts of the State until it shall have filed in the office of the Secretary of State, a duly authenticated copy of its charter or articles of incorporation. Such foreign corporation is required to appoint a resident agent within the State duly authorized to accept service of process in any action in which said corporation may be a party, and service upon such agent is taken and held as due and personal service upon such corporation. A duly authenticated copy of the appointment of such agent is required to be filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State and Register of deeds of the county where such agent resides, and no action can be commenced or maintained on any contract, agreement or transaction made or entered into in the State by such corporation unless it has fully complied with the provisions of this law, and it is declared to be unlawful for any person to act within the State as agent or officer of any corporation unless such agent for service has been appointed, and every person so acting as agent or officer is deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof may be fined and imprisoned. Every corporation of this state which is not doing or carrying on business within the state, shall appoint a resident agent whose residence shall be that of the doweree of the corporation.

EXEMPTION.—The statutes provide for the exemption from the levy and sale under process of law of a homestead and $750 in personal property to the heads of families. The benefit of the statutes exempting personal property, however, must be claimed as by law provided. Personal property to the value of $300 is exempt to persons not heads of families.

GARNISHMENT.—Any creditor is entitled to proceed by garnishment in any court having jurisdiction of the subject of the action, against any person, including a public corporation, who shall be indebted to or have any property whatever, real or personal, in his possession or under his control, belonging to such creditor's debtor, in the cases, and under the conditions prescribed by the statute. Provision is made for an affidavit for garnishment, the issuance and service of a garnishee summons, discharge of the garnishee under certain conditions, and for judgment against the garnishee or the principle defendant under the usual conditions. No judgment will be rendered upon a liability of garnishee arising by reason of his having drawn, accepted, made, indorsed, or guaranteed, any negotiable bill, draft, note, or other security, or by reason of any money or other thing received or collected by him as sheriff, or other officer, by force of an execution or other legal process in favor of the principle defendant, or by reason of any money in his hands as a public officer, and for which he is accountable to the defendant merely as such officer, or by reason of any money or other thing owing from him to the defendant, unless before judgment against the defendant, it shall become due absolutely and without depending upon any future contingency.

INTEREST.—Legal rate of interest is seven per cent., but parties may contract in writing for any rate not exceeding twelve per cent., except that interest on loans secured by mortgage on real estate is limited to ten per cent., inclusive of commissions Violation of any provision of the usury law is a misdemeanor, punishable by fine, not exceeding $500, and forfeits all interest except that no forfeiture is provided for in case of violation of the statute limiting to ten per cent. interest and commissions on loans secured by real estate mortgage. Interest on open accounts run from date of last item charged. Judgments draw seven per cent. interest.

LIMITATIONS.—Actions to recover real property, on sealed instruments, and on judgments, twenty years; contracts other than the above, trespass, on real estate, trover, detinue, and replevin, and criminal conversation, injury to persons, or rights of another not arising on contract, and not hereinafter enumerated, six years; actions against sheriffs, coroners, and constables as such, except escapes, three years; libel, slander, assault, battery, false imprisonment, two years; against sheriffs, etc., for escape, one year; all other actions for relief, ten years. In open and mutual accounts it is deemed to have accrued from date of last item. Time of defendant's absence from State not included. Any new promise to be binding must be in writing. Persons under disabilities, except infants, may bring action within one year after removal of same, provided that the time is not extended more than five years. Infants may bring the action within one year after attaining their majority.

MORTGAGES.—Of real estate must be in writing, and must be acknowledged in the same manner as a deed. In case of the mortgage being on the homestead, the husband and wife must both join, otherwise the person in whose name the property stands only needs to sign his name. Mortgages containing a power of sale may be foreclosed by advertisement, otherwise in circuit court. Unless filed in the office of the register of deeds, chattel mortgages are void as against creditors and subsequent purchasers in good faith; must be filed in the county where the property is situated. Containing a power of sale may be foreclosed by advertisement, otherwise in circuit court. Mortgagee has possession of the premises during the year of redemption after sale. A chattel mortgage taken by an insurance company is void unless written on paper distinct from application.

SALES AND SALES IN BULK.—The uniform sales act and the uniform sales in bulk act, are both in force in this State.

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS.—The uniform act governing warehouse.

TENNESSEE.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the State of Tennessee, prepared by CHAMBERS & BOWLEN, Attorneys at Law, Chattanooga, Tenn.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—(See Deeds.)

ACTIONS.—Actions in the Courts of Law are commenced by summons; in Chancery Courts by bill in equity. Bonds for costs in the sum of $250 are required in every case, except where the plaintiff makes oath that he is on account of his poverty unable to bear the expenses of the suit.

ASSIGNMENTS.—General assignments must be for the equal benefit of all creditors, and no preferences are allowed. Any clause inserted giving preference to a particular creditor is nugatory and does not vitiate the assignment. Conveyances of a debtor's property made within three months before a general assignment, and in contemplation thereof to secure particular creditors, are void, and the property attempted to be conveyed will become assets to be ratably shared by all the creditors. But a debtor can execute a mortgage or deed of trust to secure a loan if made contemporaneously with the loan. A bona-fide sale to a creditor is not void. Creditors not named in the deed of assignment share equally with those named. Any confession of judgment by a debter, or permitting judgment by default or collusion within three months preceding a general assignment, and in contemplation thereof, is void. The debtor making a general assignment shall annex thereto a complete inventory, under oath, of all his property of every description, and the trustee or assignee shall also be entitled to any other of the debtor's property not embraced in the schedule and not exempt from execution. Every assignee to whom property exceeding the value of $500.00 is conveyed in trust for the benefit of creditors, unless released by them in writing, shall give a bond in an amount equal to the value of the property, and shall take and subscribe an oath that he will faithfully perform all the duties imposed upon him by law, and by the deed or assignment; that he will make a perfect inventory of the property assigned, and that he will make a complete report of his sales and of all moneys received and securities taken. Failure to give bond does not invalidate the assignment but subjects the assignee to removal.

By Act of General Assembly of Tennessee, passed Feb. 20, 1913, and by Act passed April 15, 1919, married women were emancipated from all disabilities of coverture; estates by the entireties are preserved; husband's right to courtesy retained; and wife given homestead of $1,000 in her property, providing husband has no property.

ATTACHMENTS.—Causes of attachment are: 1st, where the debtor or defendant resides out of the State. 2d, where he is about to remove or has removed himself or property from the State; 3d, where he has removed or is removing himself out of the county privately; 4th, where he conceals himself, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him; 5th, where he absconds or is absconding or concealing himself or property; 6th, where he has fraudulently disposed of, or is about fraudulently to dispose of, his property; 7th, where any person, liable for any debt or demand, residing out of the State, died leaving property in the State. Subsequent attaching creditors do not share ratably with the first attaching creditors. Future wages or salary cannot be garnisheed.

Supreme court has decided that foreign corporations domesticated in Tennessee are not subject to attachment as a non resident.

BANKS AND BANKING.—Banks are chartered under the general incorporation law of the State. Any five or more persons, over the age of twenty-one years, may apply to the State for a charter of incorporation, by signing and acknowledging an instrument, setting forth the purposes for which the charter is desired. This instrument, when properly probated, with the application, probates and certificates, is to be registered in the county where the principal office is to be situated, and also registered in the office of the Secretary of State; and a certificate of registration, given by the Secretary of State, under the great seal of the State, shall, when registered in the register's office of said county, with the fac simile of said seal, complete the formation of the bank as a body politic. Each stockholder shall be liable for the amount of stock subscribed by him, and after the same has been paid, he shall not thereafter be liable for any debts or liabilities of the corporation, except as now provided by general statutes regulating liabilities of corporations and stockholders therein. The original subscriber to stock is liable for the amount of his subscription until the same is paid-up, whether he retains or assigns the stock; but the assignee of such unpaid stock is first liable, and if the amount cannot be collected from him, then the assignor, who was the original subscriber, is liable. Monthly statements under oath are required to be made to the Comptroller of the State. The Secretary of State must make a quarterly examination of all the banks, and make a report, which must be published by the Comptroller. Banks are at all times subject to legislative examination. No loan shall be made to any stockholder until he shall have paid the full amount of his shares of stock. One who receives a deposit, knowing of the insolvency of the bank, whereby the same is lost, is guilty of felony. If any officer of a bank shall borrow, or otherwise procure any assets not legitimately owned by the bank to be exhibited to the Secretary of State, as a portion of the property of said bank, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. An act of the General Assembly, passed April 10, 1893, provides, that there shall be issued to banks and banking associations, now chartered, or which may hereafter be chartered, under the laws of this State, circulating notes, upon certain terms and conditions set out in said act. The bank or banking association desiring to have circulating notes issued to it under this act, shall deposit with the State Treasurer, United States bonds, Tennessee State bonds, or county bonds of any county in this State, whose bonded indebtedness does not exceed five per cent. of its taxable value, and on whose bonds the interest has been regularly and promptly paid for the last five years. The amount of circulating notes issued shall be 90 per cent. of the market value of the bonds so deposited.

By the Act, Chapter 8, approved February 2, 1921, any Tennessee bank is authorized to invest in the stock of other corporations principally engaged in international or foreign banking, not exceeding in the aggregate, ten per centum of its paid capital stock and surplus. By Chapter 8, approved March 21, 1921, any Tennessee bank has the option to charge exchange on what are commonly called in banking language, "Cash Items," By Chapter 152, approved April 11, 1921, it was enacted, "That no bank should be liable to a depositor in damages because of the non-payment through mistake or error and without notice of a check which should have been paid, unless the depositor shall allege and prove actual damage by reason of such non-payment."

BILLS AND NOTES.—The "Uniform Law on the Negotiable Instruments" is in force in this state. Days of grace have been abolished. When the day of maturity falls on Sunday, or on any of the following holidays: January 1st, February 22d, July 4th, December 25th, Good Friday, Decoration Day, Memorial Day, May 30th, Feb. 12th, Lincoln Day, Nov. 11th, Victory Day; or on any day appointed by the Governor of this State, or by the President of the United States, as days of fasting or thanksgiving, or on any days set apart by law for holding county, State or national elections throughout the State, then the next succeeding business day is to be substituted. Instruments falling due on Saturday are to be presented for payment on the succeeding business day, except that instruments payable on demand may, at the option of the holder, be presented for payment before 12 o'cock, noon, on Saturday, when that entire day is not a holiday.

Any person who shall, with fraudulent intent, obtain money, property or credit by check, draft or order shall be guilty of a misdemeanor if the amount is $30 or less, and guilty of a felony if the amount is over $30, providing written notice is mailed to drawer's last known place of residence informing him that he has no funds to meet said draft or check which he may make good in seven days; a failure to make it good in seven days is prima facia evidence of fraudulent intent.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—Chattel mortgages may be made on all personal property not consumable in the use, and must be registered in order to be good as against creditors.

CONDITIONAL SALES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Conditional Sales of personal property are valid, if in writing. The vendor, obtaining possession upon default of the vendee, must advertise the property and sell the same at public auction. Where the title is retained under such written or printed contract it is a misdemeanor for the purchaser without having paid for same and without the consent of the seller, to sell, dispose of or conceal said property.

Any person who shall remove from the State any personal property, the title to which was retained at the time of the sale, shall be guilty of a felony, unless the seller agrees in writing to such removal.

CORPORATIONS.—A foreign corporation, proposing to do business in this State, is required to file with the Secretary of State a certified copy of its charter, and cause an abstract of the same to be recorded in the office of the register of each county, in which it proposes to do business. The act of the Legislature makes it unlawful for any foreign corporation to do, or attempt to do, any business, or to own or acquire any property in this State, without having first complied with the above requirements. A violation of the act subjects the offender to a fine of not less than $100, or more than $500, at the discretion of the jury. It is sufficient to authenticate such copies so filed by the certificate of the secretary or secretaries of such corporations, and by attaching thereto the corporate seal. When a corporation shall have complied with the foregoing provisions, it may then sue and be sued in the courts of this State, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of this State, as fully as if it were created under the laws of Tennessee.

Tennessee creditors of an insolvent non-resident corporation have priority in the distribution of assets over non-resident corporation creditors.

Both domestic and foreign corporations, on or before the 1st of July of each year, must prepare and file in the office of the Secretary of State a written sworn statement giving the name of the corporation with its principal place of business in the State of its creation and also in Tennessee; the amount of authorized capital stock and the amount of stock issued and outstanding, the names of its officers and directors and the nature and character of its business. The corporation is required to pay to the Secretary of State a fee proportionate to the capital stock, and in default of the making of the statement and paying the fee, is subjected to a penalty of $500.

DEEDS.—Deeds must be signed and acknowledged by the grantor. If not acknowledged before a duly authorized officer, the signature of the grantor must be attested by two witnesses and proof made by them of the execution.

DEPOSITIONS.—Notice must be given to the opposite party or his attorney, of the time and place of taking and of the names of the proposed witnesses; to the party, if resident in the county where the court sits; if not so resident, to his attorney. Presence or cross examination by opposite party or attorney at the taking dispenses with notice.

When witnesses reside out of the State or more than one hundred and fifty miles from the place of trial, either party may take deposition on interrogatories filed with the clerk, and notice of the same to the attorney of the opposite party not less than ten days wherein to file cross interrogatories; after which the deposition may be taken on copy of the chief and cross-interrogatories, issued and certified by the clerk.

They may be taken by any judge, justice of the peace, mayor, clerk of any court, commissioner of Tennessee, notary public in Tennessee, or other person appointed and commissioned by the court or clerk, not being interested, of counsel, or related to either of the parties. Depositions can be taken before a notary public in another State, his certificate showing the date of the commencement and expiration of his commission.

EXECUTIONS.—Executions are issued from judgments of Justices of the Peace unless stayed or appealed on or before the third day after judgment. In courts of record thirty days from date of judgment or end of term.

GARNISHMENT.—Debts due or not due owing to the defendant, property of any kind belonging to the defendant in the hands or control of a third person may be subjected to attachment by garnishment. In aid of execution, an officer, after making a nulla bona return upon the writ, may serve a garnishment first as if an attachment had issued. Ninety per centum (90%) of the salary, income, or wages of every person earning a salary or wages or drawing an income of $40 per month or less, and who is eighteen years of age or upwards, or is the head of a family and a resident of the State of Tennessee is exempt from attachment or garnishment. If such person is earning a salary in excess of $40 per month $36 shall be exempt.

HOLIDAYS.—(See Bills and Notes.)

INTEREST.—Legal rate, 6 per cent. That hereafter it shall be lawful to contract for any rate of interest not exceeding 8 per cent. per annum, provided that the rate of interest be in writing and expressed in the face of the instrument creating the debt or obligation. An instrument showing usury on its face cannot be sued on. The taking of usury is a misdemeanor. If usurious interest has been paid the same may be recovered by action at the suit of the party from whom it was taken, or his representative; or it may be subjected by any judgment creditor of such party to the satisfaction of his debt.

JUDGMENTS.—Decrees and judgments for money, when rendered in Courts of Record and in the county where defendant lives, are liens on all the lands he owns, "and of which he holds the legal title," anywhere in the State, which lien continues for one year; but if defendant does not reside in the county where judgment is had, it is not a lien on any of his lands until it is registered in the county where the debtor resides if he resides in the State, if not then it is registered in the county where the land lies. An execution upon such decree or judgment is a lien on defendant personally from the first day of the term of court at which the judgment was rendered. Judgments of magistrate's courts are not a lien on either real or personal property, and an execution under such is a lien only from date of its levy.

LIMITATIONS.—Accounts, notes, bonds, and contracts generally, six years; judgments, ten years. In mutual accounts the statute runs from the date of the last item. Liens on realty retained in favor of vendor's on the face of a deed, also mortgages, deeds of trust and assignments of realty executed to secure debts, are barred, unless suit is brought within ten years from the maturity of the debt.

PROOF OF CLAIMS.—Every written contract, instrument or signature purporting to be executed by the party sought to be charged, his partner, agent or attorney in fact, and constituting the foundation of an action, is conclusive evidence against such party, unless the execution thereof is denied by plea under oath. An account coming from another county or State, verified by the oath of the plaintiff before a notary public, a commissioner of the State of Tennessee, or a justice of the peace (with the certificate of the clerk of the county court that such justice is an acting justice within his county.) is conclusive against the party sought to be charged, unless he shall deny the account by plea under oath.

SALE OF MERCHANDISE IN BULK.—A Sale of any portion or part of a stock of merchandise otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade shall be presumed to be fraudulant as against the creditors of the seller, unless the seller and purchaser shall at least five days before the sale make a full and complete inventory; and unless the purchaser shall at least five days before the sale, in good faith, make full, explicit inquiry as to the names and places of residence of each and all creditors of the seller, and unless the purchaser shall at least five days before the sale notify seller's creditors of the sale.

ACTIONS.—Every suit is a special action on the case and there is no distinction between law and equity as to form of suit.

ADMINISTRATION.—The County Court has the general jurisdiction of a probate court. The District Court has appellate jurisdiction and general control in probate matters over the County Court. Administration on a live person's estate is void, but the bond of the executor or administrator may be recovered upon. Wills are admitted to probate and letters testamentary or of administration granted in the county where the deceased resided, if he had a domicile or fixed place of residence in the State; if he had no such place of residence in the State but died in the State then either in the county where his principal property was at the time of his death or in the county where he died: if he had no such place of residence in the State and died without the limits of the State then in the county in Texas where his nearest kin may reside; if he had no kindred in Texas then in the county where his principal estate was situated at the time of his death. Applications for letters testamentary or of administration must be filed within four years after the death of the testator or intestate. No will can be admitted to probate after the lapse of four years from the death of the testator, unless it be shown that the party applying for such probate was not in default in failing to present the same for probate within that time. A written will produced in Court may be proved by the written affidavit of one of the subscribing witnesses thereto taken in open Court and subscribed by the witness; if all the witnesses are non-residents of the County or those residents of the County are unable to attend Court it may be proved by the testimony of any one or more of them taken by deposition; if none of the witnesses are living it may be probated on proof by two witnesses of the handwriting of the subscribing witnesses and also of the testator, which proof may be either by affidavit taken in open Court and subscribed by the witnesses or by deposition; if the will was wholly written by the testator it may be probated on the proof of two witnesses of his handwriting, which proof may also be made by affidavit taken in open Court and subscribed by the witnesses or by deposition. A written will which cannot be produced in court upon the proof of that fact may be proved in the same manner as stated above and the same amount and character of testimony is required to prove such will as is required to prove a written will produced in Court. No nuncupative will can be proved within fourteen days after the death of the testator nor can such will be probated after six months have elapsed from the time of speaking the testamentary words unless the same or the substance thereof has been committed to writing within six days after making such will nor can any such will be probated unless it be made within the time of the last sickness of the deceased at his habitation or where he has resided for ten days next preceding, except when the deceased is taken sick away from home and dies before he returns to such habitation. To probate a nuncupative will it must be proved by three creditable witnesses that the testator called on some person to take notice or bear testimony that such is his will. Before admitting a will to probate it must be proved that the testator was at least twenty one years of age or was married; that he was of sound mind; that he is dead; that the court has jurisdiction of his estate; that citation has been served and returned in the manner and for the length of time required by law; that the testator executed the will with the formalities and solemnities required by law; that such will has not been revoked by the testator. A certified copy of a will probated in another State or country may be filed and recorded in this State and it then has the same force and effect as the original will if probated in this State. Letters testamentary or of administration may be granted to any person who is over twenty-one years of age and of sound mind and to a surviving husband and wife who is under twenty-one years of age. Letters testamentary or of administration are granted to persons in the following order: 1. To the person named as executor in the will. 2. To the surviving husband or wife. 3. To the principal devisee or legatee. 4. To any devisee or legatee. 5. To the next of kin, the nearest in order of descent first and so on. 6. To a creditor of the deceased. 7. To any person of good character residing in the county. The executor or administrator must within one month after receiving letters publish in some newspaper printed in the county where the letters were issued a notice requiring all persons having claims against the estate to present the same within the time prescribed by law, which notice shall be published once a week for four successive weeks. Claims not presented within twelve months are postponed as to payment until the claims which have been presented within that time and allowed and approved have been first entirely paid. Claims are classed and have priority of payment as follows: 1. Expenses of funeral and last sickness. 2. Expenses of administration and expenses incurred in the preservation of estate. 3. Claims secured by mortgage or other lien. 4. Claims legally exhibited within one year. 5. Claims legally exhibited after one year Claims are paid as follows: 1. Expenses of funeral and last sickness. 2. Allowances to widow and children. 3. Expenses of administration. 4. Other claims in the order of their classification A claim must be accompanied by affidavit in writing that the claim is just and that all legal offsets, payments and credits known to affiant have been allowed: if the affidavit is made by a person other than the owner of the claim it shall further state that the affiant is cognizant of the facts contained in the affidavit. Claims must be presented to the administrator and allowed by him and then approved by the Court. The testator may provide in his will that no other action shall be had in the County Court in relation to the settlement of his estate than the probating and recording of his will and the return of an inventory, appraisement and list of claims of his estate, and in such case any person having a debt or claim against the estate may enforce the payment by suit against the executor, and when judgment is recovered execution shall run against the estate of the testator or in the hands of the executor, but no such executor is required to plead to such a suit until the expiration of twelve months from the probate of the will.

AFFIDAVITS.—Affidavits may be made before the following officers: (1) Within this State before a judge or clerk of a court of record, justices of the peace or notary public. (2) Without this State but within the United States before a clerk of a court of record having a seal, a notary public, or a commissioner of deeds appointed under the laws of this State (3) Without the United States before a notary public or minister, commissioner or charge d'affaires of the United States resident in and accredited to the country where the affidavit is taken, or any consul-general, consul, vice-consul, commercial agent, vice commercial agent, deputy consul or consular agent of the United States resident in that country. Affidavits must be in writing and signedby the party making the same. In civil statutes or judicial proceedings affidavits may be made by either the party or his agent or attorney.

ALIENS.—Persons not citizens of the United States cannot acquire and own lands in Texas without becoming bona fide inhabitants of the State, except that they can acquire lands under foreclosure of liens or in satisfaction of debts, but in such case the land must be alienated within two years. Aliens can inherit land in this State if the laws of their country accord the same rights to citizens of this country.

ARREST.—No imprisonment for debt in this State.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Assignments must be for the benefit of all creditors and all attempted preferences are void. Every assignment must be acknowledged and recorded same as deeds of real property, and the next to it must be an inventory containing: 1. A complete list of all creditors. 2. The place of residence of each creditor. 3. The sum owing each creditor and the nature of the debt. 4. The true consideration for each indebtedness and the place where the indebtedness arose. 5. A statement of all judgments, mortgages, collateral and other security for the payment of any debt. 6. Inventory of all the debtor's estate at the date of the assignment, including both real and personal property and the encumbrances thereon and all vouchers and securities relating thereto and the value of the estate. 7. The assignment must be sworn to by the debtor The assignor can retain all property which is exempt from execution by the laws of this State. The list and inventory is not conclusive except as against the debtor making the same. A debtor may make an assignment for the benefit of such of his creditors only as will consent to accept their proportional share of his estate and discharge him from their respective claims, but the debtor will not be discharged from liabilities to a creditor who does not receive as much as one-third of the amount due him. Within thirty days after the execution of the assignment notice of the appointment of the assignee must be given in some newspaper printed in the county where the assignee resides and the notice must be published for three consecutive weeks. The notice must also be given as far as possible by mailing to each creditor Creditors consenting shall make known to the assignee their consent in writing within four months after publication of the notice, and no creditor not consenting shall receive benefit under the assignment. The assignee must be resident of the county in which the assignor resides or in which his principal business was conducted and he must execute a bond for the faithful discharge of his duties. Creditors consenting to the assignment must within six months from the first publication of the notice of the appointment of the assignee file with the assignee a statement of the nature and amount of their claims against the debtor, supported by affidavit of the creditor, his agent or attorney, that the statement is true, that the debt is just, and that there are no credits or offsets that should be allowed against the claim except as shown by the statement. Property fraudulently sold by assignor passes by the assignment and may be recovered by the assignee. Failure to attach inventory will raise a presumption of fraud but does not vitiate the assignment; the assignor may be examined. Verified claims must be allowed by the assignee unless contested. Unmatured claims will be discounted and collateral securities estimated by the assignee, and only the difference between such sum and the debt shall be allowed. The assignee may, on application of the assignor or one or more of the creditors, upon reasonable notice by publication or otherwise, be removed by the judge and a substitute be appointed. When an assignee has funds enough to pay ten per cent. of the debts he is required to make a pro rata distribution among the creditors, and the assignee is entitled to a reasonable compensation for his services and costs and expenses, including attorney's fees.

ATTACHMENTS.—Judges and clerks of the District and County Courts and Justices of the Peace may issue writs of original attachment upon the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, making an affidavit in writing stating: (1) That defendant is justly indebted to plaintiff and the amount of the demand, and (2) that the defendant is not a resident of the State or is a foreign corporation or is acting as such, or (3) that he is about to remove permanently out of the State and has refused to pay or secure the debt, or (4) that he secretes himself so that the original process of law cannot be served on him, or (5) that he has secreted his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors, or (6) that he is about to secrete his property for the purpose of defrauding his creditors, or (7) that he is about to remove his property out of the State without leaving sufficient remaining for the payment of his debts, or (8) that he is about to remove his property or a part thereof out of the county where the suit is brought with intent to defraud his editors, or (9) that he has disposed of his property in whole or in part with intent to defraud his creditors, or (10) that he is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors, or (11) that he is about to convert his property or a part there of into money for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors, or (12) that the debt is due for property obtained under false pretences. The affidavit shall further state that the attachment is not sued out for the purpose of injuring or harassing defendant and that the plaintiff will probably lose his debt unless such an attachment is issued. Attachments cannot issue until suit is filed—may be issued on debt not yet due, but no judgment can be entered until debt becomes due. Plaintiff must give bond with security. The officer may demand indemnity from the plaintiff. Levy is made in the same manner as all writs of execution. Personal property remains in the hands of an officer until final judgment, unless replevined or sold as provided by law. When an attachment is levied upon real estate the officer must immediately file with the county clerk of the county in which the real estate is situated a copy of the writ together with a copy of so much of his return as relates to the land in said county, and the clerk must enter in a book to be kept for that purpose the names of the plaintiffs and defendants in attachment, the amount of the debt, and the return of the officer in full. Should the attachment be quashed or otherwise vacated, the Court in which the attachment suit is pending must cause a certified copy of said order to be sent to the county clerk of a county or counties in which the real estate levied upon is situated, and said clerk must enter in the book aforesaid the names of the plaintiffs and defendants and record the order of the Court in full. If the real estate levied upon is situated in any county than the one in which the suit is pending, then in case of failure to make the record aforesaid the attachment lien shall not be valid against subsequent purchasers for value and without notice and subsequent lien holds in good faith. The county clerk of every county must keep a well-bound book for the record of the matters aforesaid, and must keep a direct and reverse index in which shall be entered the names of all the plaintiffs and defendants in the various attachments recorded by him, and the order of the Court aforesaid must be indexed in the same manner. Clerks of the County Court receive the same fees for recording the matter herein provided for as are allowed them for recording deeds, to be paid by the plaintiff. Sheriffs receive a fee of $1.00 for making the copy and return herein provided for.

DEPOSITIONS.—The testimony of witnesses with in or without the State may be had by deposition. Instructions for taking and certifying depositions will be found in the commission accompanying the written interrogatories.

DESCENT.—All property acquired by either husband or wife during marriage except that which is acquired by gift, devise or descent, is the community property of the husband and wife and during coverture may be disposed of by the husband only.

All property owned or claimed by the husband before marriage, that acquired by him after marriage by gift, devise or descent, and also all increase of lands thus acquired are his separate property. All property owned or claimed by the wife before marriage and that acquired by her after marriage by gift, devise or descent and also the increase of all lands thus acquired by her, are the separate property of the wife.

Upon death of husband or wife the community property goes to the survivor if there be no children, but if there be children or their descendants the survivor takes one-half and the children or their descendants the other half.

As to separate property the rule is as follows: where the intestate leaves no surviving husband or wife the property goes: 1. To his children or their descendants. 2. If there be no children then to parents in equal portions; but if only the father or mother survives the intestate then the property goes one-half to the surviving parent and the other half to the brothers and sisters of intestate and their descendants; if there be no such then the whole goes to the surviving parent. 3 If there be no surviving parents then the whole passes to the brothers and sisters and their descendants. 4. If there be no such kindred, the property passes one-half to the paternal and one-half to the maternal kindred.

Where the intestate leaves a surviving husband or wife the property goes: 1. One-third of the personal property to the surviving spouse and the balance to the children or their descendants and an undivided one-third life interest in the real property with remainder to the children or their descendants. 2. If there be no children or their descendants then the whole of the personal property and one-half of the real property goes to the surviving spouse, and the other one-half according to the rules of descent and distribution, provided, however, that if intestate have neither surviving parents nor brothers and sisters or their descendants, then the whole estate goes to the surviving spouse.

There is no distinction on account of source of property except in case of adoption. Kindred of half blood inherit one half as much as kindred of the whole blood.

Proceeds of the voluntary sale of the homestead are not subject to garnishment or forced sale.

The following property of persons not constituent of a family is exempt, viz.: cemetery lots, wearing apparel, tools, apparatus and books belonging to any trade or profession, one horse-saddle and bridle, current wages for personal services.

The exemption of the homestead does not apply where the debt is due for purchase money, for taxes or for work and material used in improvements on the property, but in this last case such work and material must have been contracted for in writing with the separate acknowledgment of the wife in order to make the property subject to execution.

The exemption of personal property does not apply when the debt is due for rent or advances made by a landlord to his tenants nor to other debts which are secured by a lien on such property.

GARNISHMENTS.—Clerks of the District and County Courts and Justices of the Peace may issue writs of garnishment returnable to the respective Courts in the following cases: (1) Where an original attachment has been issued as provided above. (2) Where the plaintiff sues for a debt and makes affidavit that such debt is just, due and unpaid and that the defendant has not within his knowledge property in his possession within this State subject to execution sufficient to satisfy such debt and that the garnishment applied for is not sued out to injure either the defendant or the garnishee. (3) Where the plaintiff has a judgment and makes affidavit that the defendant has not within his knowledge property in his possession within this State subject to execution sufficient to satisfy such judgment. In case mentioned in sub-division No. 2 above plaintiff must execute a bond with two or more sureties payable to the defendant in double the amount of the debt. Before the issuance of the writ of garnishment plaintiff must make application therefor in writing under oath stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the writ and that the plaintiff has reason to believe and does believe that the garnishee, stating his name and residence, is indebted to the defendant or that he has in his hands effects belonging to the defendant or that the garnishee is an incorporate or joint stock company and that the defendant is the owner of shares in such company or has an interest therein. The case must be docketed in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff and of the garnishee as defendant and the writ of garnishment must be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the garnishee is alleged to reside in commanding him to summon the garnishee to appear before the Court on the first day of the ensuing term thereof to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the defendant and was when such writ was served and what effects if any of the defendant he has in his possession and had when such writ was served and what other persons if any within his knowledge are indebted to the defendant or have effects belonging to him in their possession. When it appears from plaintiff's affidavit that garnishee is an incorporate or joint stock company in which the defendant is the owner of shares or is interested therein the writ of garnishment shall further require the garnishee to answer upon oath what number of shares, if any, the defendant owns in such company or owned when such writ was served and what interest, if any, he has in such company or had when such writ was served. After the service of the writ of garnishment it is not lawful for the garnishee to pay the defendant any debt or deliver to him any effects, nor shall the garnishee of an incorporate or joint stock company in which defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares or to have an interest, permit or recognize any sale or transfer of such shares or interest and any such payment or delivery, sale or transfer is void and of no effect as to so much of said debt effects, shares or interest as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's demand. However, the defendant may at any time before judgment replevy any effects, debts, shares or claims seized or garnisheed by giving bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the officer who issued the writ in double the amount of the plaintiff's debt and in all proceedings in garnishment where the defendant gives bond he may make any defense which the garnishee could make. The answer of the garnishee to the writ must be under oath and signed. If it appears from the answer of the garnishee that he is not indebted to the defendant and was not when the writ was served on him and has not any effects of the defendant and had not when the writ was served, and if the garnishee is a company in which defendant is alleged to own stock and it appears from the garnishee's answer that the defendant is not and was not when the writ was served the owner of any stock in the company, and if the answer of the garnishee is not controverted as herein provided then the Court must enter judgment discharging the garnishee. Should the garnishee, being a resident of the county, where the proceeding is pending, fail to make answer to the writ it is lawful for the Court at any time after judgment has been rendered against the defendant and on or after default day to render judgment by default against the garnishee for the full amount of the judgment against the defendant with interest and costs. If the garnishee resides in some other county and fails to make answer the Court must on motion of the plaintiff issue a commission addressed to the Clerk of the District Court, the County judge, or clerk of the County Court or any notary public of the County in which the garnishee is alleged to reside requiring him to cite such garnishee to answer the writ of garnishment and upon receipt of the commission the officer receiving it shall immediately issue a citation directed to the sheriff or any constable of his county commanding forthwith to summon the garnishee to appear before him at the time and place to be named in the citation to answer upon oath as above provided. If the garnishee appears and answers, the officer executing the commission shall return the same together with the answer of the garnishee duly certified to the Clerk of the Court or Justice of the Peace who issued it, whereupon like proceedings shall be had as provided in cases of answers of a garnishee residing in the county. If the garnishee fails to appear in obedience to the writ or having appeared, fails to answer or to answer fully the officer shall return the same together with the citation for the garnishee issued by him and the service introduced thereon and a statement duly certified by him to the Clerk of the Court or Justice of the Peace who issued the commission. On return of such commission with the citation for the garnishee and the return thereon and the certificate of such failure or refusal of the garnishee to answer, it shall be lawful for the Court after judgment against the defendant and on or after default day to render judgment against the garnishee for the full amount of the judgment against the defendant with interest and costs, unless the garnishee shall have previously filed a full and complete answer to the writ and have shown good excuse for his failure to appear and answer before the officer holding the commission. If it appears from the answer, or if it is otherwise made to appear as hereinafter provided, that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant or was indebted when the writ was served, the Court shall render judgment for the plaintiff against the garnishee for the amount so admitted or found to be due to the defendant from the garnishee unless such amount exceeds the amount of plaintiff's judgment against the defendant with interest and costs, in which case it shall be for the amount of such judgment, interest and costs. If it appears from the garnishee answer or otherwise that the garnishee has in his possession or had when the writ was served any effects of the defendant liable to execution, the Court must render a decree requiring the garnishee to deliver up to the sheriff or any constable presenting the execution in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant such effects or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy such execution. If the garnishee fails to deliver the effects to the sheriff, or the officer shall immediately make return of such failure, whereupon upon motion of plaintiff the garnishee must be cited to show cause at the next term of the Court, why he should not be adjudged for contempt of court and should he fail to show good excuse he must be fined for contempt and imprisonment until he delivers such effects. Where the garnishee is a company the court renders a decree ordering the sale under execution in favor of plaintiff against defendant of the share of the defendant in the company or so much thereof as is necessary to satisfy the execution. If plaintiff is not satisfied with the answer of the garnishee he may controvert the same by affidavit in writing, stating that he has good reason to believe and does believe that the answer of the garnishee is incorrect, stating in what particular he believes the same to be incorrect. The defendant may also controvert the answer of the garnishee. If the garnishee is a resident of the county in which the proceeding is pending the issue shall be formed under the direction of the Court and tried as other cases If the garnishee is a resident of some other county the plaintiff may file in any Court of the county where the garnishee may reside, having jurisdiction of the county, a certified copy of the original judgment and of the proceedings in garnishment and thereupon the clerk of that Court shall docket the case in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff and the garnishee as defendant, and issue notice to the garnishee stating that his answer has been controverted and that the issue between him and plaintiff will stand for trial at the next term of the Court. Upon the return of such notice issue shall be formed under the direction of the Court and tried as other cases. Current wages for personal services are not subject to garnishment and where it appears upon the trial that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant for current wages the garnishee must notwithstanding be discharged as to such indebtedness. Where the garnishee is discharged upon his answer the costs of the proceeding, including a reasonable compensation to the garnishee, must be taxed against the plaintiff; where the answer of the garnishee has not been controverted and garnishee is held thereon the costs must be taxed against the defendant and included in the execution; where the answer is contested the costs must abide the issue of such contest.

Abstract of the Commercial and Collection Laws of the State of Utah prepared by FREDERICK C. LOOFBOURROW, Attorney at Law, 6 5 Kearls Building, Salt Lake City, Utah.

ACTIONS.—(See Arrest and Attachment) Actions are commenced by complaint filed with the County Clerk or by the service of summons under code of civil procedure. There is provision for service of summons by publication in cases in which there is a lien created by attachment or existing otherwise. Actions must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest except that as a trustee or a person with whom a contract has been made for the benefit of another may sue in his own name. And claims on contracts for the direct payment of money may be assigned, without consideration, to a prospective plaintiff, for the purpose of suit. If the defendant makes default, judgment may be entered against him on the twenty-first day after service of summons, if served within the county where suit is brought; and on the thirty-first day after service if served out of the county. In J. P. Courts 10 days less time is required.

ASSIGNMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF CREDITORS.—Any insolvent debtor may execute a deed of assignment for the benefit of his creditors, provided all debts due for wages or personal services of servants or employes of the assignor for one year previous to the assignment are preferred claims and must be paid first.

Preferences can be given in deed of assignment if bona fide.

Joint debtors can prefer out of their joint property only, and individual debtors can prefer out of their individual property.

The deed of assignment shall set forth the name of the assignor, his residence and business; the name of the assignee, his residence and business; and generally describe the property assigned with its location, and the purposes of the assignment; each shall be executed and acknowledged in the manner of deeds and recorded in the office of the recorder of the county where the property is located. The assignor shall annex to such deed of assignment an inventory under oath, of all his estate, and a list of his creditors and the amount of their respective demands; the assignment having conveyed all the property belonging to the assignor, except property exempt from execution and insurance upon the life of the assignor; the exempt property and insurance can be conveyed, however, in the deed. As soon as the instrument is recorded it shall be filed with an inventory and list of creditors in the office of the clerk of the district court of the County where the property is located.

The assignee shall forthwith file with the clerk a true inventory of said estate, under oath, and shall enter into a bond to the State for the use of creditors in double the amount of the assigned property, to be approved by the clerk.

The assignee shall give notice of such assignment by publication in a newspaper in the county, if there be one, at least once a week for six weeks, and shall mail a notice to each creditor, requiring him to present his claim in three months thereafter, under oath. The claim presented must be sworn to by the claimant, or by some person acquainted with the facts; and shall be filed with the assignee within three months of the date of the first publication, unless the court extends such time, which it may do in its discretion, but in no case shall such extended time exceed nine months. At the expiration of three months from the time of first publishing notice, the assignee shall report and file with the clerk of the court a true and full list of such creditors with a statement of their claims, an affidavit of the publication of the notice, and a list of all creditors.

Any person may contest any claim or demand of any creditor by written exceptions thereto filed with the clerk, and any creditor whose claim is contested must be served with a notice returnable not less than ten or more than forty days, at which time the court shall hear the case and render judgment. If no exception is made to any claim, the court shall order the assignee to make from time to time fair and equal dividends among the creditors. The assignee is subject at all times to the order of the court. The assignee may be removed upon an application of a majority of the creditors in amount, and a person approved by the creditors may be appointed by the court. The compensation of an assignee is the same as that paid executors. An assignment for the benefit of creditors is void against any creditor of the assignor not assenting thereto in the following cases:

First.—If it gives a preference dependant upon any condition or contingency, or with any power of revocation reserved.

Second.—If it tend to coerce any creditor to release or compromise his demand.

Third.—If it provide for the payment of any claim known by the assignor to be false or fraudulent, or for the payment of more upon any claim than is known to be justly due from the assignor.

(2) Municipal bonds in which the bank might legally invest at no more than 90 per cent. of their market value; railroad bonds in which the bank might legally invest at no more than 80 per cent of their market value; and bank stocks in which the bank might legally invest at no more than 80 per cent. of their market value. Sixth. Five per cent. of the deposits of a bank may be invested in the purchase of a suitable building for the convenient transaction of its business, or a site therefor and the erection or repairs of a building thereon, from portions of which not required for its use a revenue may be derived.

Seventh. A bank may hold real estate acquired by the foreclosure of a mortgage thereon, owned by or pledged to such corporation, or by purchase at sales made under the provisions of such mortgage or upon judgment for debts due, or in settlements effected to secure such debts; and such real estate shall be sold by such corporation as soon as a reasonable price can be obtained therefor and within five years after the same is vested in such corporation, except when a majority of the trustees of such corporation shall make application in writing to the bank commissioner, stating that, in their opinion, the interests of such corporation require that such real estate be held for a longer period than five years; in which event said commissioner may extend the time of holding such real estate not to exceed five years.

Eighth. A bank may hold stocks, bonds, notes or other securities not the subject of legal investment, acquired in settlements effected to secure or adjust loans; but unless the length of time such securities

The treasurer of each bank shall, on or before the fifteenth day of February, nineteen hundred and twelve, and every sixth year thereafter, return to the bank commissioner, under oath, a list of depositors who have not made a deposit therein or withdrawn any part of their deposits or of the interest thereon for a period of ten years next preceding; and the treasurer of such an institution shall further give notice by publishing a list of such depositors in one or more newspapers published in or near the town where such institution is located, three weeks successively. The preceding section shall not apply to deposits which, with the accumulation, shall be less than twenty five dollars, or to a deposit made by or in the name of any person known by the officers of the bank to be living. The bank commissioner shall semi annually, without previous notice, visit and examine the condition and affairs of every bank, and oftener if he deems it necessary or believes the interest and safety of the depositors or creditors require. He shall be given access to all the files, books, accounts, securities and assets of the bank, and shall be afforded every reasonable facility for making an examination of its affairs. He may examine, upon oath, the officers, agents and servants of such bank, or any other person, in relation to the affairs and condition of such institution, and may administer oaths for that purpose. In addition to the examinations required to be made by law, said commissioner shall make such examinations when ordered so to do by a court of competent jurisdiction. Said commissioner may cause an examination of a bank to be made by an expert under his direction but at the expense of such bank. When the treasurer of a bank is an officer of a national bank or banking association, or the business of a bank is carried on in the same office or building with a national banking association, said commissioner shall, at least once in each year, visit and inspect the condition of such bank, at the same time that the United States bank examiner visits and examines such national banking association. Every bank shall at all times carry as a reserve 15 per cent. of its commercial deposits and 3 per cent. of its savings deposits. Not less than three-fifths of such reserve shall be in cash on hand and in balances payable on demand in banks and national banking associations in which banks of this State are authorized by law to make deposits; and at least one-third of said three-fifths shall be in cash on hand, but balances payable on demand in banks or national banking associations in the same county will be accepted as and in lieu of cash to the amount of one-half of such cash requirement. Two-fifths of such reserve may be in United States or State bonds or in the bonds of any city of the United States of at least two hundred thousand inhabitants according to the last preceding United States census. No new loans may be made when a bank's reserve is not in accord with the requirements of this section. The trustees shall have the general management of the affairs of the bank, but they may act through committees of investment, examination and audit, subject to their general supervision and control. A regular meeting of the board of trustees of a bank shall be held at least once each month to receive the report of its treasurer and for the transaction of other business. A majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum, but a less number may adjourn from time to time or until the next regular meeting. A trustee or other officer of a bank who intentionally violates a provision of this act shall be imprisoned not more than ten years or fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both; and the State's attorney for the county in which such corporation is located shall prosecute such violation on complaint thereof by the bank commissioner. A trustee or officer of a savings bank shall not, directly or indirectly, either for himself or as the partner of others, borrow or use its funds or deposits, or sign any note, as surety, upon which any of such deposits are loaned. A savings bank shall, immediately before making each interest payment to savings depositors, reserve from the net profits accumulated since the preceding interest payment not less than one-eighth of one per cent. of the average amount of deposits during such period, as a surplus fund until such fund amounts to ten per cent. of the amount of deposits and other liabilities except surplus. The accumulation toward such fund shall be set aside and held intact and, when the fund amounts to said ten per cent., it shall thereafter be maintained and held to meet losses in its business from depreciation in securities or otherwise; and, if at any time it falls below said ten per cent. reservations from net profits shall in like manner be renewed until such fund again reaches the ten per cent. requirement. A savings bank may pay interest on deposits not to exceed one and three-fourths per cent. semi annually until one-half of the ten per cent. fund described in the preceding section shall be accumulated, after which, so long as said accumulation does not fall below one-half of said ten per cent. fund, the rate may be not to exceed two per cent. semi annually until said ten per cent. fund is accumulated. The trustees, so long only as said surplus fund equals or exceeds said ten per cent., may declare and pay such interest on deposits as in their judgment the earnings and resources of the corporation, above such surplus fund, warrant. No loan shall be made to an officer, director or employee of any trust company without the written consent of a majority of the directors; and such loan shall not at any one time, directly or indirectly, exceed five per cent. of the capital stock actually paid in, but the discount of bona fide bills of exchange drawn against existing values, and the discount of commercial or business paper actually owned by such director, officer or employee negotiating the same to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars or a loan upon the pledge of any of the securities which are legal investments and subject to the restrictions thereof to an amount not exceeding the same sum, shall not be prohibited by this section. No loan shall be made by such corporation upon its own stock as collateral. In determining the per cent. of surplus fund held by a bank, its interest or dividend paying stocks and bonds and its real estate shall be estimated at their market value, and its notes and mortgages shall be estimated at their face value and accrued interest. The bank commissioner shall have power to revise the valuation of such investments, and may change the same from time to time, and his valuations shall, if he so directs, be used by the bank in determining its surplus fund and in making financial statements.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—All personal property is subject to mortgage. Mortgage must be recorded in the office of the clerk of the town in which the mortgagor resides at the time of the making of the same, or if he resides out of the State in the town in which the property is situated, or possession changed to be valid. Mortgagor and mortgagee are required to subscribe to an affidavit that the debt secured is a just one, and if such a mortgage is given to indemnify the mortgagee against liability assumed, or to secure the fulfillment of an agreement other than the payment of a debt due from the mortgagor to the mortgagee, or if such mortgage is given to a trustee to secure bonds issued or to be issued thereunder, such liability, agreement or obligation shall be stated specifically in the condition of the mortgage, and the affidavit shall be so varied as to verify the validity and justice of such liability, agreement or obligation.

CONDITIONAL SALE.—No lien is reserved on personal property sold conditionally and passing into the hands of the conditional purchaser, unless the vendor of such property takes a written memorandum, signed by the purchaser witnessing such lien, and the sum due thereon and causes it to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the town where the purchaser of such property resides, if he resides in the State; otherwise the office of the clerk of the town where the vendor resides, within thirty days after such property is delivered.

Clerk and two directors must reside in the State, and one fourth of capital must be paid in before contracting debts. Not less than twenty-five persons, a majority being inhabitants of the State, may form a railroad corporation under the general law. At a meeting duly called for that purpose, a corporation formed under this chapter may, by a two thirds vote of the stockholders representing two-thirds of its capital stock, or, if it has no capital stock, by a two-thirds vote of all members present, or, if such corporation has not been organized, by a two-thirds vote of the surviving signers of the articles of association, alter, add to or change the purposes for which it was incorporated; but if, in the opinion of the secretary of state, the business set forth in the proposed amendment may be repugnant to public policy or the laws of this State, he may, before making the record hereinafter provided, refer the same to a judge of the supreme court, who shall have full power to determine, with or without hearing, whether such proposed change is one that would be repugnant to public policy or the laws of this State.

Charter fee must be paid with application for charter and if charter is refused money is refunded.

DEPOSITIONS—May be taken in the State by justices of the peace, notaries public, masters in chancery, judges and registers of probate, and by commissioners of other States residing in this State. They may be taken out of the State by commissioners appointed by a Supreme Court judge, or by the governor, and by officers who are qualified to take depositions in other States.

DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.—The real and personal estate of a deceased person, not lawfully disposed of by his last will and not otherwise appropriated and distributed in pursuance of law, shall descend in the following manner: First. In equal shares to the children of such deceased person or the legal representatives of deceased children. Second. If the deceased is a married person and leaves no issue the surviving husband or wife, as the case may be, if the husband does not elect to take the tenancy by the curtesy or the wife does not elect to take dower, or if either waives the provisions of the will of the other, shall be entitled to the whole of the deceased's estate forever, if it does not exceed $4,000. But if it exceeds that sum, then the survivor shall be entitled to $4,000 and one-half the remainder; and the remaining part of said estate shall descend as the whole would if the husband or wife had not survived; and if the deceased has no kindred who by law may inherit the estate, the surviving husband or wife, as the case may be, shall be entitled to the whole. Third. If the deceased person leaves no issue, nor surviving husband or wife, as the case may be, the estate shall descend in equal shares to the father and mother of such deceased person; and if the mother is not living, the estate shall descend to the father; and if the father is not living and the mother survives, the estate shall descend to the mother. Fourth. If the deceased person leaves no issue, nor wife, nor husband, nor father, nor mother, the estate shall descend in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of such deceased persons and to the legal representatives of deceased brothers and sisters. Fifth. If none of the relatives above named survive the deceased, the estate shall descend in equal shares to the next of kin in equal degree; but no person shall be entitled by right of representation, to the share of such next of kin who has died.

DIVORCES.—Both absolute and from bed and board forever or for a limited time, may be granted by the county courts for the following causes: 1. For adultery in either party. 2. When either person is confined in State prison under sentence for three years or more. 3. For intolerable severity. 4. For three years' willful desertion or seven years' absence if unheard of during that time. 5. On petition of the wife for wanton and cruel refusal or neglect to support, without cause, the husband having sufficient pecuniary or physical ability.

EXECUTIONS.—May be levied upon property not exempt from attachment. Personal property levied upon is sold by the officer at public auction. Real property is sold at public auction, but the debtor may redeem within six months. In cases in which the body is liable to arrest, the officer may, for want of property, take the debtor and commit him to jail.

GARNISHMENT.—(See Attachment.)

HOLIDAYS.—(See Notes and Bills.)

HUSBAND AND WIFE—Are competent witnesses for or against each other in all cases, civil and criminal, except that neither is allowed to testify against the other as to any statement, conversation, letter or other communication made to the other or to another person, and neither is allowed in any case to testify as to any matter which in the opinion of the court would lead to a violation of marital confidence.

INTEREST.—The legal rate is 6 per cent. per annum. Judgments bear legal rate. Only the excess paid is forfeited, and that may be recovered back or set up in reduction of claim.

JUDGMENTS—Do not of themselves create a lien on property not attached upon mesne process.

LIMITATIONS OF SUITS.—Simple promissory notes are barred in six years, but notes signed in presence of an attesting witness are not barred until fourteen years next after the right of action shall accrue thereon. Accounts are barred after six years from the last credit; sealed instruments and judgments, after eight years. A verbal promise to pay will not revive a debt, but the promise must be in writing signed by the party to be charged. A partial payment will revive the debt; but, in case of a note, the payment can not be shown by the indorsement of the payment alone unless in the handwriting of the party making the payment.

LIENS.—A mechanics' lien for work or materials in erecting, repairing, altering, or removing buildings may be created upon the buildings and lot of land on which they stand, if the contract was with the owner, by causing to be recorded in the town clerk's office of the town where situated a memorandum, signed by the claimant, asserting such lien, which must be followed by an action on the claim within three months after filing the memorandum, if the debt is then due, or within three months after the debt becomes due, if not due when memorandum is filed. In this action the property on which the lien is claimed is to be attached within five months after judgment is obtained, a certified copy of the record is to be recorded in the town clerk's office, and the lien then becomes one in the nature of a mortgage, to be enforced by foreclosure as in cases of mortgage.

By filing a lien and giving notice to the owner, a sub-contractor may acquire and assert a similar lien, not to exceed the amount due from the owner to the original contractor.

Every person who shall make, alter, or repair any article of personal property at the request of the owner thereof has a lien thereon for his reasonable charges therefor, and may retain possession thereof until such charges are paid, and may, if such charges remain unpaid for three months and the value of the property does not exceed $100, on ten days' notice, by posting in two or more public places in the town of his residence, sell the same at public auction in such town, and apply the proceeds to the satisfaction of such debt and the expenses of the sale, and the balance shall be paid to the owner. A person boarding horses or cattle has a lien for the keeping.

MARRIED WOMAN.—May dispose of property by will. May make contracts with any person other than her husband, and bind herself and her separate property, as if she was unmarried, and may sue and be sued as to such contracts made by her before or during coverture. A married woman shall not become surety for her husband's debts except by way of mortgage, but she may convey or mortgage by her separate deed the real estate of which she is seized in her own right to her sole and separate use as she might do by her separate deed, if unmarried. A married woman may, by her sole deed, convey or mortgage and may manage and control any other real estate hereafter acquired by her, except that a homestead interest therein and the real estate of which she is seized jointly with her husband may be conveyed or mortgaged only by the joint deed of herself and husband. All personal property and rights of action acquired by her before coverture, or during coverture, except by gift from her husband, are held to her separate use, and neither her separate property, nor the rents, issues, income, or products of it, are subject to the disposal of her husband or liable for his debts; but this provision does not authorize any claim by either husband or wife against the other for personal services. The husband is not liable for her torts unless committed by his authority or direction, nor liable for her debts contracted before the marriage, unless the marriage was before January 1, 1885.—(See Husband and Wife.)

MORTGAGES—Of real estate are foreclosed by bill or petition and writ of possession given after decree and failure to redeem. The usual time for redemption granted in the decree is one year, but it may be shortened upon cause shown. (See Chattel Mortgages.)

The law as to assignments for creditors is practically suspended since the passage of the National Bankruptcy Act.

ATTACHMENTS.—In courts of record writs of attachment may be issued with the summons or at any time before judgment, in all actions upon contract, express or implied, or upon judgment or decree. The plaintiff, or someone in his behalf who has knowledge of the facts required to be stated, must make affidavit that the defendant is indebted to plaintiff in a sum exceeding $50.00 specifying the amount thereof as near as may be, over and above all legal set-offs; that he knows, or has good reason to believe one of the following facts to exist: (1) That the defendant has absconded, or is about to abscond, from the State, or is concealed therein to the injury of his creditors, or keeps himself concealed therein to avoid the service of summons; (2) that he has assigned, disposed of or concealed, or is about to assign, dispose of or conceal, any of his property with intent to defraud his creditors; (3) that he has removed, or is about to remove, any of his property out of the State with like intent; (4) that he fraudulently contracted the debt respecting which the action is brought; (5) that he is not a resident of the State; (6) that the defendant is a foreign corporation, or if a corporation of this State, that all the proper officers upon whom service might be made cannot be found, do not exist or are non-residents; (7) that action is brought upon official bond against principal to recover money due the State or some county or municipality therein, or upon a bond or other instrument given as evidence of indebtedness for, or to secure the payment of money embezzled or misapplied by defendant while acting as an officer of the State or of any county or municipality therein; or that a cause of action sounding in tort exists in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the damages sustained exceed the sum of $50.00 specifying the amount thereof; but in this case the defendant must be a non-resident or his residence unknown, or a foreign corporation. Affidavits for writs of attachment in justices courts, which may be issued when the indebtedness exceeds $5.00, may be traversed in the same manner as in courts of record. The lien secured by an attachment is dissolved if the debtor, being insolvent, within ten days after the levy, make a voluntary assignment for the benefit of his creditors, or if within such time, or thiry days thereafter, a receiver is appointed as provided by section 1694b of the Statutes of 1898. Attachments may be released by giving an undertaking or bond with two sureties for the payment of the judgment which may be recovered in the action.

CANADA.

THE CANADIAN BANKRUPTCY ACT.

The Dominion Bankruptcy Act effects the whole of Canada and was adopted by the Parliament of Canada effective from the 1st of July, A. D. 1920. Its general principles are the same as the English Act. A bankruptcy may be voluntary or involuntary; a voluntary one is made by an assignment to an authorized trustee, an involuntary one may be brought about by a creditor or creditors having claim or claims aggregating $500.00 petitioning the Court alleging that the debtor has committed an act of bankruptcy within six months before the presentation of the petition. An act of Bankruptcy may consist of making an assignment for the benefit of creditors, making a fraudulent conveyance of property absconding or having an execution against him unsatisfied for a specified time or exhibiting a statement showing insolvency or making a bulk sale of his goods without complying with the Bulk Sales Act. No farmer or wage earner may be forced into bankruptcy nor may any person be forced into bankruptcy by reason of any debt which was contracted before the first of July, 1920. On the petition being presented if the petitioner proves the debt owing to him and proves the act of bankruptcy the Court may make an order declaring the debtor a bankrupt. Any debtor, no matter what his occupation nor when his debts were contracted may voluntarily become a bankrupt by making an assignment to a trustee in bankruptcy. The trustee in bankruptcy either in case an order of Bankruptcy is made or in case the debtor voluntarily assigns to him, takes over all the property of the bankrupt and disposes of it, and pays the creditors pro rata, except those entitled to security which are not void by the Act and except three months wages to the employees who rank prior to other creditors. On the bankruptcy being declared all executions, garnishments, attachments general assignments of book debts and various other transactions all mentioned in the Act are void as against the trustee in bankruptcy. After the order for bankruptcy has been made the Court may sanction a composition or extension agreement approved of by the majority of the creditors. The bankrupt may under certain circumstances, having complied with the Act, apply for and obtain a discharge which releases him from all his obligations except certain limited kinds of claims.

Copies of the Act can be obtained by applying to the King's Printer, Ottawa, Ontario. Price $1.00.

ALBERTA

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the Province of Alberta, prepared by J. J. KELLY, Barrister and Solicitor, Calgary, Alberta.

AFFIDAVITS.—Affidavits, if made in a foreign country, may for all purposes, be properly sworn to before any of the following: The mayor, or chief official of any city or town, under the common seal of the corporation; the British consul, vice-consul, or consular agent residing therein; any judge of any court of record; a notary public under his seal; also a commissioner appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council for taking affidavits outside the Province. All alterations must be initialled by the party taking it.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY.—The Dominion of Canada Bankruptcy Act applies.

ATTACHMENTS.—A plaintiff in an action for a debt or liquidated demand may cause a garnishee summons to be issued either before or after judgment, directed to any person who is shown by a necessary affidavit of the plaintiff or his agent, to the best of his knowledge to be indebted to the defendant, stating the amount and nature of the claim. This will bind any money due or accruing due from such person to the debtor There is, however, an exemption of $25.00 in favor of the following: Mechanics, servants, clerks or other employees, unless the debt is one due for board or lodging, in which case there is no exemption. Wages of government employees cannot be garnisheed. The personal estate of a debtor may be attached if he attempts to remove the same from the Province with the intention of defrauding creditors, or keeps in hiding to escape service of process, or absconds the country.

BILLS OF SALE AND CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—Bills of sale and chattel mortgages, unless accompanied by actual delivery of the property to the purchaser must be registered within thirty days from the execution thereof, in order to protect the purchaser's title against subsequent purchasers or mortgages without notice and for valuable consideration or creditors of the seller. Such instruments must bear an affidavit of witness, also an affidavit of bona fides of the purchaser or mortgagee.

A chattel mortgage of a growing crop or one to be grown is only valid when given to secure the purchase price of seed grain, in which case the number of bushels, the price, and all other particulars must be set out. Mortgages filed are only valid as against creditors or purchasers, without notice within two years after the date of registration, but may be renewed from year to year. In case of the removal of mortgaged goods from one district to another three weeks time is allowed in which to register the mortgage in the new district A foreign mortgage, though unregistered in the foreign country, if a valid mortgage in the foreign country is valid here, to protect the interest of the mortgagee.

BILLS AND NOTES.—Three days grace is allowed on all bills and notes except when they are payable on demand. Any rate of interest agreed upon may be charged on sums loaned over $500.00; under that amount the Money Lender's Act makes it illegal to charge more than 12%. This does not apply to banks which can only legally charge 7%. If no rate of interest is fixed. 5% may be allowed after maturity.

COMPANIES.—All companies not incorporated under the Alberta Companies Ordinance, or under the Dominion Act, are designated Foreign Companies. Any foreign company fulfilling certain prescribed conditions may establish itself in Alberta and carry on business, but any foreign company carrying on business in the Province without complying with these conditions is liable to severe penalties. The fees charged a foreign company to register under the Provincial Act vary according to the capitalization; but when incorporated the company has all the powers it would have if it were an Alberta company. Annual returns must be filed with the government, and all transfers of land must be in the form required by the Land Titles Act.

COSTS.—In actions where judgment is obtained for $100.00 or under, 10% is allowed if the action has been tried If judgment has been by default 5% only is allowed in addition to disbursements. In actions for more than $100 00 costs are according to the tariff fixed by the rules of Court and are in the discretion of the Judge. All such costs must be taxed, and solicitors and clients costs may also be taxed.

COURTS.—The Supreme Court of Alberta is divided into two branches—the Supreme Court of first instance and the Appellate Division. This court has exclusive jurisdiction in guardianship money matters and all actions involving more than $600.00; and five Judges of this Court constitute the Court of Appeal. The District Court of Alberta has exclusive jurisdict on in all actions brought for $600 00 or under.

DEBTOR.—There is no direct statutory provision for the arrest or imprisonment of a debtor in civil matters.

EVIDENCE.—Any person understanding the nature of an oath may be a witness. Where witnesses reside beyond the Province a commission may issue an application to a Judge, on notice to the opposite party, for taking evidence before a commissioner to be named in the commission. In criminal cases the accused cannot be compelled to testify, nor can counsel for the prosecution or the Judge comment upon his not doing so in jury cases. Action may be brought here on the exemplification under seal of a foreign judgment. If the defendant resided in the foreign jurisdiction and was personally served there in the original action, or appears thereto, or defends it, no defence will be admitted which could have been set up in the original action, but want of jurisdict on on the part of the foreign court or collusion are always a good defence.

JUDGMENTS.—The successful party in an action may enter judgment against the other for the amount of the judgment, and issue executions to the sheriff to recover the amount, and a plaintiff in default, when no defence has been filed by the defendant, enter judgment for a liquidated claim after the expiration of the prescribed time, which varies according to the amount of the claim, and the court in which the action is brought. Executions bind both the real and personal property of the defendant subject to the exemptions, and remain in force during the life of a judgment (twelve years).

LIMITATIONS.—Simple contract debts are statute barred after six years; contracts under seal twenty years; judgments twelve years; foreign judgments six years; actions for the recovery of land twelve years.

LIENS.—When goods to the value of $15.00 or over are sold on condition that the right of property in them shall not pass to the purchaser until the purchase price is paid, a copy of the agreement or lien note with an affidavit of bona fides must be filed in the registration district in which the goods are, within thirty days from the date of the agreement. In order to protect the seller against subsequent purchasers, mortgagees or creditors of the purchaser, the document must contain a sufficient description of the goods sold to enable them to be identified. In case of default on the part of the purchaser the seller may, through the proper channels, regain possession of the goods, but must retain them at least twenty days before reselling, during which time the purchaser may redeem.

MARRIED WOMEN.—Married women in this province have all the rights, and are subject to the liabilities of a feme sole, and her real and personal property is exempt from her husband's creditors. She may carry on business in her own name or jointly with her husband or others, and may receive or dispose of any estate, real or personal, without the aid of a trustee. She has no dower in her husband's estate, nor has he any right as tenant in courtesy in her estate. Should the husband die intestate and without issue the wife takes all the estate, but if there are any children she only takes one-third and the child or children take two-thirds. If under the husband's will the wife is allowed less than she would have been entitled to had he died intestate she may apply to the court for relief.

MECHANICS' LIENS.—Mechanics or other persons who do or perform work upon or supply materials for any building erection, or mine, etc., may within thirty days from the date of the last performance of work or supplying of materials file a lien against the building and land upon which the same is or is being erected, for the amount of the debt owing in respect to the same, and this is so even though the land may belong to some third person, provided however that no lien will attach if the owner posts in a conspicuous place upon the property a notice that he will not be responsible. The lien will expire in ninety days from the date of filing unless action has been commenced and a lis pendens has been filed in the land titles office Contractors must receive pay rolls and deliver a copy to the owner.

PROOF OF CLAIM.—Send itemized account in duplicate giving full particulars with full name and address of both plaintiff and defendant, also if possible a statutory declaration verifying the claim.

The will must be in writing and signed by the testator or by some person in his presence at his direction in the presence of at least two witnesses present at the same time who shall attest the will in the presence of the testator. A devise other than the payment of a debt to a witness or the husband or wife of a witness is void, but does not invalidate the will. A will may be revoked either by a subsequent will or destruction with the intention of revoking or by a revocation in writing. A codicil is read as part of the will.

BANKS AND BANKING. (See Quebec.)

BANKRUPTCY.—The Bankruptcy Act being a Federal measure all the Provinces of Canada have the same bankruptcy laws. Under them an insolvent person or corporation may voluntarily go into bankruptcy by assigning to a recognized trustee or, in case of having committed certain acts of insolvency, may be declared a bankrupt on the petition of a creditor. The rights of secured creditors are protected in the bankruptcy proceedings; otherwise all creditors share ratably in the distribution of the estate.

COMPANIES.—If not incorporated in Manitoba, or if incorporated elsewhere and not licensed to do business in Manitoba, a company is forbidden carrying on business in this Province. But this prohibition does not apply to business transacted from outside the Province through the medium of correspondence or travelers not resident in the Province.

DEEDS.—Deeds of land, or of any interest in land, in this Province may be executed in the presence of a single witness. For the purpose of registration, an affidavit must be made by the witness of the due execution by the grantor, which affidavit, if made within the Province, may be made before any commissioner for taking affidavits in the King's Bench, the registrar or deputy registrar of the district in which the lands lie, a judge of any of the superior or county courts, or any justice of the peace; if made in any other Province of the Dominion, it may be made before a judge or prothonotary of any of the superior courts of law or equity, or any notary public certified under his official seal; if made in any State of the Union, it may be made before the mayor of any city or corporate town and certified under the common seal of such city or town corporate, any consul or vice-consul of his Majesty resident therein, or a judge of a court of record or a notary public, certified under his official seal. The grantor must also make an affidavit that the land is not a home. If it is and he or she is married the consent of the wife or husband as the case may be must be obtained to such a deed. No acknowledgment is necessary if the due execution of the instrument is proven as above. The Torrens system of land transfer has been introduced in the Province, and, when once land is brought under the operation of the act, all subsequent transfers or conveyances must be in the manner laid down and according to the forms prescribed by the said act.

EXECUTIONS issue from the King's Bench in all cases as of course against the goods of the judgment debtor, and bind the goods from the date of receipt by sheriff as against the debtor or purchaser with notice, or from date of seizure as against purchaser for value without notice; lands are bound by the registration of a certificate of judgment in the registration division where the lands are situated, which must be renewed every two years. Executions from the county court remain in force for one year and bind goods from time of seizure only, but may be renewed. Priority of claim under execution in the King's Bench is abolished. Priority of claim under executions against "traders" in the county court is also abolished.

INTEREST.—The legal rate is five per cent. and it governs where no rate is provided. There are no usury laws in force except in the case of money lenders who make a practice of loaning money at a higher rate than ten per cent. per annum. No such person shall charge more than twelve per cent. per annum on any sum under $500, and except also in the case of bankers who cannot exact more than seven per cent, Interest is computed on judgments from date of entry at the rate of five per cent. Rests not allowed unless there is a contract in writing. Accounts bear interest at legal rate from date of rendering or demand for payment. Liquidated demands from date due.

But it is only good in the case of manufactured goods if the goods at the time of sale have the manufacturer's name or some other distinguishing name printed or stamped thereon, or otherwise plainly attached thereto.

LIMITATION OF SUITS.—On simple contracts or to recover arrears of rent or of interest in respect of any money charged upon land or rent, suit must be commenced within six years from the time the same respectively falls due; on bond, mortgage, judgment, lease or contracts under seal, within ten years after the same becomes due. If party entitled to sue is under disability of infancy or lunacy, then within five years from date of removal of disability. Case taken out of statute by part payment or acknowledgment in writing.

MORTGAGES are executed in the same manner as deeds and are governed by same laws as to registration in the local registry offices, and as to priorities. Tacking prohibited by statute. Foreclosure for sale proceedings may by taken in the King's Bench; there is no redemption after final order for foreclosure or sale. Chattel mortgages and bills of sale must be filed within twenty days from the date thereof with the clerk of the county court, within whose division the goods are situate, before they have any effect as against execution creditors or purchasers for value without notice. They are required to be renewed within thirty days of expiration of two years from the date of filing, by filing a statement verified by the affidavit of the mortgagee or his agent, showing the amount due upon the mortgage and exhibiting his interest therein; unless renewed, they are absolutely void as against the creditors of the mortgagor subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith for valuable consideration.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE.—Bills of exchange, promissory notes and checks, are the ordinary forms of commercial paper used in this Province. It is not necessary that notes or bills of exchange be made payable at a bank or other particular place within the Province. Three days of grace are always allowed except when payable on demand. In case a bill or note falls due on a bank holiday (i. e. Sunday, New Year's Day, Christmas Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, 24th May, 1st July, Thanksgiving Day, and Labor Day,) it must be presented on the following day; when properly presented and protested, and notice given, the indorsers are liable; otherwise they are relieved. The production of the protest in any court within the Province proves presentment and notice of dishonor without further evidence. No stamp duty is now required on commercial paper within the Dominion of Canada.

SALES IN BULK.—The purchaser of a stock of goods in bulk from a trader or merchant must demand and vendor must furnish statements properly verified giving particulars of debts over $50; and if such declaration is not obtained the sale will be void as against vendor's creditors unless all his creditors are paid in full out of the purchase moneys. If such declaration shows the price to be less than vendor's indebtedness the sale will be void as against the vendor's creditors unless 60 per cent. of them in number and amount consent thereto in writing. Such sale will also be void if the purchaser after obtaining said declaration does not either obtain a written waiver from the creditors or deliver the purchase moneys or notes to a trust company or official assignee for distribution pro rata among the vendor's creditors.

SUITS.—There is only one Superior Court, the Court of King's Bench, which has all the powers possessed by the various courts of law and equity at Westminster, together with the probate and divorce, admiralty and ecclesiastical courts of England, as they stood on the 15th day of July, 1870. Actions and suits are begun by statements of claim. If defendant does not appear within time limited, judgment by default may be signed. Provision is made for substitutional service of process by publication or otherwise. There is an inferior court known as the county court which has jurisdiction up to $500.00 Any actions for amounts exceeding that sum must be brought in the court of King's Bench.

TAXES.—Lands may be sold for taxes, when in arrears for one year or upwards, by the treasurer of the municipality within which the lands lie, and may be redeemed at any time within two years from date of sale, upon payment of the amount of arrears of taxes and costs for, which the same was advertised and sold, with ten per cent. interest if redeemed within one year, and with twenty per cent. interest if not redeemed until the second year. If land is not redeemed within said period of two years from date of sale, the tax purchaser, if he desires to obtain title to the property, must make an application therefor to the district registrar of the registration division in which the land lies. Notice of said application where the value of the land exceed $50.00 is then served on the owner and all other persons who, at the expiration of said two years, appeared to have any estate or interest in said lands. If not redeemed within six months from date or service of said notice, title to said land issues to the tax purchaser.

Where the plaintiff resides out of the Province the defendant may demand from him a bond as security for costs which is generally three hundred dollars if suit is in the Supreme Court and one hundred if in the County Court.

In the County Court the defendant has 10 days in which to appear and plead, and the cause is at issue on the plea pleaded. In the County Court, if the defendant appears in any action on a bill, note, cheque, or bond or contract under seal for payment of a liquidated amount of money, the plaintiff may take the same steps for signing summary judgment as are outlined above in the case of a specially endorsed writ.

AFFIDAVITS.—Affidavits when sworn to within the Province may be before a commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the Supreme Court. When taken without the Province, must be before a commissioner duly appointed for taking such affidavits, or before a notary public, who must certify to same under his hand and official seal.

Executions may be issued within three years on judgment in justices' and commissioners' courts, and twenty years in Supreme and county courts. There is no priority amongst judgment creditors. All hare equally.

By order of a court or judge, goods under attachment, of a perishable nature, or from other circumstances whereby the goods may deteriorate in value, can be sold. No property, debts, or effects regularly attached may be released except by the termination of the suit in favor of the defendant, or otherwise by operation of law, until the defendant, or some one on his behalf, shall have given bond with two sufficient securities to the sheriff in double the sum sworn to, or until he shall have deposited with the sheriff, to abide the order of the court in the cause, an amount equal to the sum sworn to, and a further amount for costs, such bail bond shall stand and be security to the plaintiff to abide the final judgment of the cause. Goods, debts, or effects of any defendant attached in the hands of any third person must be paid into court to abide the order, judgment, or decree thereof, and for the purpose of ascertaining such amount, the court, or judge thereof, may, on the application of either party to the suit, summon such third person, or, in the event of his absence from the colony, his agent, to appear before such court, or judge, to be examined on oath, or cause such third party to be examined on oath, under rule, order, or commission, and thereupon make order for the payment into court of such goods, debts, or effects. In all actions the plaintiff must proceed to trial in term first after issuing of the writ, and if issued in term during such term, and to judgment and execution within ten days after trial, unless prevented by action of defendant, otherwise the attachment will be released.

At present the only banks doing business in Newfoundland, are branches of the Bank of Montreal, the Bank of Nova Scotia, Royal Bank of Canada, and the Canadian Bank of Commerce, all of which do business under the laws of Canada.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—All lands, tenements and other hereditaments in Newfoundland and its dependencies, which by the common law are regarded as real estate, are held to be chattels real, and a mortgage can be given by a debtor upon the same, as well as upon stock in trade to secure any debt, which deed must be registered in the registry of deeds, otherwise it will not be valid. It can also be given for past advances, but subject to the insolvency laws.

Executions, if unexecuted, continue in force one year; but alias and pluries writs of the like duration may be issued as long as the judgment remains unsatisfied, or such writ of execution may at any time before its expiration be renewed by the party issuing it from date of renewal, and so on from time to time during the continuance of the renewed writ.

Execution on such judgment may issue at any time within six years, after which time leave is necessary. Judgment may be confessed in person or by attorney. Judgments bear interest at rate of 5 per cent.

LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS.—All actions of account between merchant and merchant, their servants or other persons, shall be commenced within six years from the time of the debt falling due. An acknowledgment in writing signed by the party, or by a part payment, will revive the debt for a further period from such signature or payment.

REPLEVIN.—When any goods or chattels have been unlawfully taken or detained, an action of replevin will lie, to which an action for damages for such unlawful taking or detention may be added. Previous to action brought, a bond in double the value of the goods to be replevied must be given to the sheriff.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of Nova Scotia, revised by HENRY, ROGERS, HARRIS & STEWART, of the Halifax Bar.

ARREST.—Where plaintiff, by affidavit, proves to the satisfaction of a judge or a commissioner that plaintiff has a good cause of action to amount of twenty dollars or upwards, and that he believes defendant is about to leave Province; the judge, without inquiring into the ground of belief, will make an order directing that such defendant be arrested and held to bail.

ATTACHMENT.—In suits against absent or absconding debtor, the writ of summons shall be in the usual form, and describe the defendant as absent or absconding. The plaintiff may sue out a writ of attachment to take defendant's property, or issue a summons to any agent having money or credits due defendant, on making an affidavit showing a cause of action for twenty dollars or upwards, stating amount of debt or damage sustained, and that defendant is absent or absconding out of the Province. The sum so sworn should be endorsed on the writ of attachment. The sheriff shall levy for amount endorsed on writ, with $120 for probable costs, in actions to recover upwards of eighty-dollars and twenty-eight dollars in actions for less. Goods exhibited to sheriff as defendant's goods are appraised by sworn appraisers; defendant's goods are not bound by the attachment until levy is made. Perishable goods may be sold under an order of the court, unless defendant's agent gives security for their value within three days after appraisement.

AFFIDAVIT.—May be sworn abroad, before any judge of a court of record, British consul, or vice-consul, notary public, mayor or chief magistrate or a commissioner authorized to administer oaths out of the Province duly appointed by the government of the Province.

BANKRUPTCY.—The Canadian Bankruptcy Act, 1920, applies to whole of Canada. Its general principles are the same as the English Act. A debtor assigns to an authorized trustee, inspectors representing the creditors are appointed by them. The trustee may obtain a discharge if there has been no fraud. See under "Bankruptcy," other Canadian provincial laws.

BANKS AND BANKING. (See Quebec.)

BILL OF SALE.—Every bill of sale of personal chattels, and every schedule annexed or referred to in such bill of sale, must be filed at the time of execution thereof with the registrar of deeds of the county or district where the maker resides, accompanied by an affidavit by the grantor of the execution of the bill of sale and the bona fides thereof. Different forms of affidavit are prescribed, varying according to the nature of the contract, otherwise it is void as against the sheriff or other person levying on or seizing such property comprised therein under the process of law. Such bill of sale will only take effect and will only have priority from the time of such filing as against purchasers and creditors. Every bill of sale must be renewed at the expiration of three years from the date of filing in order to keep same alive.

Chattels purchased under a hiring and purchase agreement in which the property remains in the seller until the purchase price is paid, do not become a part of the realty although attached thereto, unless the seller consents.

EXEMPTIONS.—The necessary wearing apparel and bedding and bedsteads of the debtor and his family, and the tools or instruments of his trade or calling, one stove, and his best cow, cooking utensils, six each of knives, forks, plates, cups, saucers, spoons, chairs, one shovel, one table, teapot, jug, spinning wheel, weaving loom, ten religious volumes, food and fuel for thirty days, two sheep, one hog, and food for same and cow for thirty days, shall be exempted from execution.

IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT.—Under the provisions of "the Collection Act," a judgment debtor can be examined, at the instance of any creditor who has obtained a judgment directing the payment of money, before a commissioner of the court as to his ability to pay or whether he has acted fraudulently. The creditor is entitled to such order for examination on application to a commissioner of the court for the county wherein the defendant resides at the date of the application, on an affidavit of the creditor, his agent or solicitor, setting forth the judgment, the date of recovery thereof, the name and residence of the debtor and the amount due thereupon, that he has been unable to satisfy the same or that he believes that any efforts to satisfy same out of the personal or real property of the debtor will be fruitless. If the commissioner is satisfied after execution that there has been fraud or if the debtor after examination disregards an order made by the commissioner, the commissioner may issue a warrant under which debtor can be imprisoned or he may order the debtor to execute due assignment of all his property (except such as may be exempt from execution or levy) to the creditor in trust for the payment of the debt, or that the debtor pay the amount due by instalments. There is a right of appeal from the decision of a commissioner to a judge, which latter is final.

INTEREST.—There are no lawsagainst usury, except in the case of money-lenders who make a practice of lending money at a higher rate than ten per cent. per annum. No such person shall charge more than twelve per cent on any sum under five hundred dollars. Where no rate is specified, five per cent is by law chargeable and recoverable; but any rate may be agreed upon, except in case of banks, who may not charge more than seven per cent. Interest is computed on judgments from date of entry at the rate of five per cent.

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS.—On all contracts not under seal, six years; judgments and contracts under seal, twenty years; no arrear of dower, rent or interest can be recovered after six years.

MARRIED WOMEN PROPERTY ACT.—Under this married women may carry on separate business upon filing in the registry of deeds for the district in which the place of business is situated a certificate of the woman or her husband setting forth the names of the woman and her husband, the nature of the business, the place at which the business is to be carried on, with the street and number. They may also acquire, hold and dispose of by will or otherwise, any real or personal property of their separate estate in the same manner as if they were feme sole and without the intervention of any trustee. Married women having separate estate may sue and be sued as feme sole.

PRIORITY OF CREDITORS.—As to debtor's personal property priority among execution creditors is forbidden by statute where the amount endorsed to levy is more than $100.00, and all execution creditors must rank pari passu upon debtor's personal property unless their executions are under $100.00, in which case they rank in the order in which they are received by the sheriff.

REVIVOR.—Part payment or acknowledgment in writing.

ONTARIO.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of Ontario, revised by RYCKMAN, DENISON & FOSTER, Solicitors, 48 King Street, W., Toronto.

ACTIONS.—All actions are commenced by a writ of summons indorsed with a statement of the nature of the claim made, or the relief or remedy sought. If the claim is for a liquidated demand in money arising out of contract, express or implied, for example, on a bill of exchange, promissory note, check, account, or any simple contract debt, the writ is specially indorsed with the particulars of the claim or amount sought to be recovered. A defendant, if served within Ontario, must enter an appearance within ten days after service, inclusive of the day of service. If served out of Ontario, further time is given, according to distance. If the writ is specially indorsed, and the defendant does not appear, judgment may be signed in default of appearance without any further proof of claim, and execution issued forthwith. Should the defendant enter an appearance, pleadings will have to be served, and the action take its ordinary course. Where the writ is specially endorsed the defendant shall with his appearance file an affidavit that he has a good defense and showing nature of the defense. This may be treated as a statement of defense by the plaintiff, and pleadings may be closed, by serving the defendant within five days with a twenty-one days' notice of trial. Where the defendant appears to a specially endorsed writ and files his affidavit as above, the plaintiff may cross examine on such affidavit and move for judgment, and if the court is satisfied that a good defense upon the merits is not shown or that such facts as entitle the defendant to defend or that such facts have not been disclosed, judgment may be given for the plaintiff. Where a defendant who has appeared and filed his affidavit as above does not file a statement of defense within the time limited, his affidavit shall stand as his defense and notice of trial may be at once served. Where writ is not specially endorsed and defendant fails to appear, plaintiff may sign interlocutory judgment, directing an assessment of damage, or a reference. Inferior jurisdiction is exercised by the division or county courts. Division courts are held in the different counties throughout the Province, and have jurisdiction in: 1. All personal actions where the amount claimed does not exceed $60, or $100 when agreed to by the parties. 2. Claims and demands of debt, account, or breach of contract, or covenant or money demand where the amount or balance claimed does not exceed $100. 3. Claims for debt or money demand not exceeding $200 and interest, where the amount, or original amount, is ascertained by the signature of the defendant or person whom, as executor or administrator, he represents, provided in the case of an unsettled account the whole account does not exceed $600. No costs are recoverable in the division court as a general rule, only court fees, which are not large. County courts have jurisdiction in: 1. All personal actions where debt or damages claimed do not exceed $500. 2. In all suits relating to debt, covenant and contract to $800, if ascertained by acts of both parties or signature of the defendant, or in any similar case to any amount, if the parties by writing submit to the jurisdiction of the court. 3. Recovery of land or damages for trespass thereon where its value does not exceed $500. 4. Partnership accounts where stock or capital is not over $2,000. 5. Legacies not above $500 out of an estate not exceeding $2,000. 6. Claims on mortgages where sum does not exceed $500. 7. Actions for redemption or equitable relief where sum does not exceed $500. 8. Contestation of creditors claims on an estate where amount of claim does not exceed $500. They can not try: 1. Title to land where the value of the land is over $500. 2. The validity of any devise or bequest over $200 where the estate is over $2,000. 3. Actions for libel or slander, or criminal con. or seduction, or against a justice of the peace, if the justice by writing objects thereto within six days after the notice of action which is required to be given in such actions is served upon him. In all these latter cases and in all actions above the limit of the county courts, the Supreme Court of Ontario has jurisdiction. If suits are brought in the wrong court, the parties may be deprived of costs. Priority of judgments is regulated only by the time of the delivery of the writ of execution into the hands of the sheriff, and not by the time of obtaining the judgments, and judgment creditors share equally with other creditors, gaining no priority or advantage, except that their costs are added to their claim. (See Assignments.)

AFFIDAVITS.—Affidavits to be made in the United States or any foreign country, to be used in any of the courts in Ontario, may be made before a notary public, certified under his hand and official seal, or before a commissioner residing in such foreign country, duly authorized to take affidavits, etc., to be used in Ontario, or before the mayor or chief officer of any city or town or before British consul or vice-consul. If made before the mayor of the city or town they must be certified under the common seal of the municipality.

AFFIRMATIONS.—Any oath, affidavit, affirmation, or solemn declaration in attestation of the execution of any written instrument or deed, or allegations or fact, or of any account rendered, may be made before any judge, notary public, or commissioner. Accounts and statements are usually verified in this way when required to be sent in to assignees, trustees, executors and administrators of estates.

ALIEN ENEMIES. — Owing to the European war special conditions and provisions apply to aliens who are alien enemies. All rights of alien enemies are suspended during the present war, and all trading with alien enemies is prohibited. Alien enemies include neutrals trading in enemy countries. Aliens residing in Canada are required to register and have certain rights under Royal Proclamations. These may be suspended at any time. The various statutes of limitations continue to run against alien enemies. It has been held in Ontario that the suspension of rights extends to Canadian companies whose shareholders are alien enemies. The contrary has been held in England, and the Ontario decision is probably wrong. The charter of such companies may, however, be suspended by the Government. No case has yet been reported as to companies of neutral countries whose shareholders are alien enemies. It seems likely that the suspension of rights would extend to such companies.

ALIENS.—Every kind of real and personal property may now be held, bought and sold by aliens as freely as though they were natural-born subjects. Although not resident in Ontario, they may be sued if they are served with notice of process. Any resident in Ontario may be sued upon a cause of action arising in a foreign country. Any person not resident within the Province who brings an action in its courts, is bound, upon application made therefor, to give to the opposite party security for the costs which may be incurred in the action, either by paying $200 into court, or by filing a bond of a resident freeholder or freeholders in the penal sum of $400. In the County Courts the security is one-half of the above amounts In cases where debt is ascertained by the signature of the defendant the security required is $50.00 on motion for speedy judgment.

ARREST.—One foreigner cannot follow another into Ontario and have him arrested for a debt contracted abroad, but any creditor whose claim is $100 or over may obtain the arrest of his debtor upon showing by affidavit that the debtor is about to leave the Province, with intent to defraud his creditors. A married woman is not liable to arrest for debt.

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY.—The Dominion of Canada Bankruptcy Act applies.

ATTACHMENTS.—A resident in Ontario who, being indebted to any other person in a sum exceeding $100 departs or absconds from this Province with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid arrest or service of process, and at the time of his so departing is possessed to his own use of any real or personal property, is deemed an absconding debtor, and his property may be seized and taken by a writ of attachment, for which a judge's order must be obtained upon affidavits setting forth the necessary facts.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE AND PROMISSORY NOTES.—A war tax stamp duty of two cents is required to be paid on all bills, notes cheques, and all papers negotiated through a bank. Three days of grace are always allowed except on bills and notes payable on demand.

In case a bill or note falls due and is payable on a legal holiday, it must be presented the day after such holiday. The legal holidays as fixed by statute, in all matters relating to bills or notes, are Sundays, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Victoria Day (24th of May), Christmas Day, Dominion Day (1st of July), Labor Day (first Monday in September), the birthday of the Sovereign (3rd of June), and any special days appointed by proclamation for public holidays, fasting, or thanksgiving. The legal rate of interest is five per cent. If a bill is dishonored abroad, in addition to interest and expenses of noting and protest, holder is entitled to re-exchange with interest to date of payment.

BILLS OF SALE AND CHATTEL MORTGAGES must be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county where the goods are situated, within five days from the date of execution. Renewal statements filed during the last month of each year of their currency, are required to preserve their effect. Certain floating mortgages on the assets of corporations do not require registration.

COMMISSIONS are granted by order of a judge for taking the depositions of a witness in a foreign country, or when dangerously ill, though resident in the Province, or about to quit the Province. The court gives full directions as to the execution of the commission.

CORPORATIONS are created by Act of Parliament, special charter, or under the general acts relating to the incorporation of joint stock companies by letters patent. Foreign corporations may obtain a license to carry on business in Ontario. Shareholders of whom there must be at least five, are liable only to the amount of their shares, and when these shares are paid in full, they are discharged from any further liability, except that the directors remain personally liable for debts due to the company's servants for wages Provision has been made for the winding up of joint stock companies.

DEEDS.—All deeds should be in duplicate, so that one may be registered while the other is returned certified. Common forms of deeds may be used, but the statute provides a short form, with covenants and bar of dower. All deeds should be under seal. A wafer, sealing wax, or other adhesive substance will answer for a seal, but a scroll is of no use. In conveying the estate of a married woman no acknowledgment or separate examination of the wife, apart from her husband, is required. Proof of all deeds, mortgages, etc., for registration, is made by an affidavit by the subscribing witness, in any foreign country—before the mayor of any city, borough or town corporate, certified under the common seal, or before any British consul or vice-consul resident in such country, or before a judge of a court of record, or a notary public, certified under his official seal. When different parties sign before different subscribing witnesses, each such witness must make a similar affidavit as to the execution by the parties whose execution he attests, or the deed can not be registered. One credible person, male or female, who can read and write will suffice as a witness. See Torrens System.

EXEMPTIONS.—The following goods and chattels of a judgment debtor are exempt from seizure under writs of execution, or distress warrants for rent or taxes: The bed and bedding, and the necessary and ordinary wearing apparel of the debtor and his family and certain furniture, not exceeding in value $150; necessary fuel and food, not exceeding in value the sum of $40; stock in all not to exceed in value $100, and food therefor for thirty days; tools and implements of, or chattels ordinarily used in the debtor's occupation, to the value of $100; bees reared and kept in hives to the extent of fifteen hives; lands acquired under the free grant and home stead act are exempt from seizure and sale for debt for a period of 20 years from the date of the location of the land.

GARNISHMENT.—Claims in the Division Court only may be garnished before judgment. In all other cases after judgment.

INTEREST.—The legal rate is five per cent.. Parties may agree for any rate, but not exceeding twelve per cent. on amounts under $500. If a bill or note is made payable at any rate or percentage for any period less than a year, any interest exceeding 5 per cent. per annum shall not be chargeable, payable or recoverable unless the bill or note contains an express statement of the yearly percentage of interest to which the rate charged is equivalent, and any sum paid on account of interest not chargeable may be recovered back or deducted from any amount remaining due.

JUDGMENTS.—Foreign judgments are all judgments recovered against any person outside of the Province, even though it be in any other Province of the Dominion. A defendant sued in the courts of the Province on a foreign judgment of a court, to the jurisdiction of which he was subject, can not set up as a defense thereto any defense which he set up, or might have set up, to the original action if he was personally served with the process in such original action, or appeared or pleaded thereto. In the case of actions on judgments obtained in the Province of Quebec, if the service was not personal any defense may be set up which might have been made to the original judgment. (See Alien Enemies.)

LIMITATIONS.—All actions upon simple contracts, notes, bills, accounts, and all instruments not under seal and money demand, must be commenced and brought within six years from the time the cause of action arose or accrues; or from the time that a written acknowledgment has been given, or that any payment was made. When the plaintiff is under any disability, such as infancy, coverture, or lunacy, the statute of limitations begins to run from the removal of the disability. All actions to recover land and real estate must be brought and commenced within ten years from the time when the right of action first accrued or from any acknowledgment and not after. Actions on covenant or other specialty must be brought within 20 years, except in a covenant in a mortgage which must be brought within 10 years after cause arose. Judgments remain in force for twenty years and can be kept renewed. Actions on insurance policies must be brought within one year from death, or a further period of six months.

MARRIED WOMEN.—A married woman can acquire, hold, and dispose of, by will or otherwise, any real or personal property, including any property acquired by her in any employment which she carries on separately from her husband, or by the exercise of any literary, artistic or scientific skill, as her separate property and as though she were a feme sole. She may enter into any contract, and be sued either in contract or tort, and be liable as if a feme sole, and her husband need not be joined as a party. All damages and costs recovered against her in an action shall be payable out of her separate estate. A married woman may devise, bequeath her property by will. A wife is entitled to dower out of all the lands of which her husband was seized at and after their marriage in which she has not barred her dower. The husband can only be tenant by curtsey out of such lands as his wife may die seized or possessed of. Woman attains her majority at twenty-one years.

MORTGAGES ON LANDS should be executed and proved like deeds. See Deeds. A mortgage must be registered in the registry office of the county within which the lands are situated. It may be discharged by a certificate signed by the mortgagee, or his assignee, or representative entitled to receive the money, and such certificate must be registered in same registry office. After maturity the mortgagee is not entitled to charge the mortgagor any interest by way of bonus for the privilege of paying off the mortgage. The execution of a certificate is proved in the same manner as a deed or mortgage. The usual remedies of a mortgagee are sale or foreclosure, or action upon the covenant, which must be commenced within ten years after cause of action arose or from any acknowledgment.

PROOF OF CLAIMS.—A solicitor should be furnished with full name and residence of plaintiff and defendant, and with particulars of the claim if on an open account. If on a judgment an exemplification of the judgment under the seal of the court and hand of the chief judicial officer is required. Where the plaintiff is resident out of the Province, security for cost, may be ordered by the court on the application of the defendant, in which case a bond in the sum of $400 must be given or $200 paid into court to abide the event of the suit. If an action is brought by a foreign plaintiff and the plaintiff could, if an appearance was entered, apply for summary judgment on the ground of no defense, he may, on being required to give security, pay into court $50 and then make the application, and if successful the plaintiff may sign judgment and issue execution. (See Aliens.)

TAXES.—The rate for the year is fixed by the council of each municipal corporation, and lands are charged therewith. Lands may be sold for taxes when they are in arrears for three years. The owner may redeem within one year after sale.

TORRENS SYSTEM.—Lands in Ontario may be within the "Torrens System" of transfer, which is by certificate instead of deed. A mortgage is called a charge. Each holder of land gets a certificate from the office for the county—on that certificate are endorsed all transfers. This system is not universal yet in Ontario. Where papers are sent to the United States for execution, under this system, special directions are required.

WILLS must be signed by the testator, or if he is too weak in body, by some one in his presence and under his direction. No seal is needed. The testator must make or acknowledge his signature before two witnesses both present at the same time who must sign as witnesses in the presence of the testator and of one another. A common form of attestation clause is as follows:

"Signed and declared by the above-named A. B., as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, both present at the same time, who, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses. (Signed) A. B.
C. D., of Toronto, Clerk.
E. F., of Hamilton, Merchant."

The gift to a witness, or to the husband or wife of a witness, is invalid. A will to pass personal property need only be in conformity with the law of the country in which the testator had his domicile. To pass real estate, however, the will must be valid and effectual for such purpose according to the law of the country where the real estate is situated. A will, no matter how long executed before the death of the testator, is construed as if it had been executed immediately before his death. Hence, property acquiree between the date of the will and the time of the testator's death may pass by the will. A person under the age of twenty-one years cannot make a valid will. Every will is revoked by marriage.

QUEBEC.

Abstract of the Banking and Commercial Laws of the Province of Quebec, prepared by T. P. BUTLER, K. C., 4 3 Union Ave., Montreal.

AFFIDAVITS taken within the Province, to be used in its courts, must be sworn to before the proper officer of the court or a commissioner of the Superior Court appointed to receive affidavits. Foreign affidavits taken before a commissioner authorized by the Lord Chancellor to administer affidavits in England or before a notary public, under his hand and official seal or before the mayor or chief magistrate of any city, borough, or incorporated town in Great Britain, the colonies, or any foreign country or before any judge of a Superior Court in any of His Majesty's colonies or dependencies under their hand and official seal, or before any consul or consular agent of His Majesty in a foreign country to which he is appointed, are accepted.

ALIENS have a right to acquire and transmit property in the same manner as British subjects. Although not resident in Canada, they may sue or be sued in its courts for the fullfilment of obligations contracted towards or by them, even in foreign countries. Every person not resident in the Province is bound to give security for costs in any suit or proceeding which he institutes in its courts, and to file a power of attorney authorizing the taking of such an action; and in default of his so doing, the action may be suspended and, unless the order fixing a delay for giving security, etc., be complied with, may be dismissed

ASSIGNMENTS AND INSOLVENCY.—The Dominion of Canada Bankruptcy Act applies.

ATTACHMENT AND CAPIAS.—A person may, even before judgment, upon affidavit, seize the property of his debtor, whether in the hands of such debtor himself, or of third parties, or arrest his person, on the ground of secretion of property, absconding with intent to defraud, and, in the case of insolvency, of his refusing to assign. A capias for the arrest of a debtor can not be issued for a sum less than $50.00, but his property may be seized for a debt of $5.00. To justify a capias, the debt must be a personal one, and created or made payable within the Provinces of Quebec or Ontario. Women, priests and septuagenarians are not liable to be capiased.

BANKS AND BANKING.—The leading features of the Canadian bank act by which all chartered banks are governed are as fo lows: A joint stock bank must obtain a charter from the federal parliament and have a subscribed capital of at least five hundred thousand dollars, of which two hundred thousand has been paid up. This charter is good for twenty years, and at the expiration of that time may be renewed for a further period. Every shareholder has a double liability—that is, he may in case of the failure of the bank, be obliged to pay an amount equal to the par value of the stock subscribed in addition to the like amount already represented by the shares. There must be a board of at least five and not more than ten directors elected annually, who control the affairs of the bank. A majority of these directors must be British subjects. No dividend is allowed that will impair the paid-up capital of the bank, and none higher than eight per cent. per annum can be paid till a surplus or reserve of at least thirty per cent of the capital has been built up. The dominion government requires monthly statements, which must contain everything that should be known with regard to the solvency of the bank. An annual statement must also be made to the shareholders containing a detailed statement of the profit and loss account of the bank during the year. In the interest of the government, and in order to keep dominion notes in use, forty per cent. of the reserve held by the banks must be in dominion government notes, and any bank making a payment up to one hundred dollars must, when required, pay in dominion notes. No bank is allowed to take its own or the stocks of any other Canadian bank as a collateral for a loan. Banks are now allowed to purchase the assets of other Banks. (Stat. 1901) enabling amalgamation. A banking corporation can engage in no business transaction which is not properly speaking of a banking nature, save as follows: It can (only) buy and sell merchandise when seized for debt. It may buy public securities in order to utilize its reserve, but it cannot traffic in them. It may take as security for an overdue loan a mortgage on real estate, but can only hold or sell the same in order to keep itself from loss. It may purchase land at a mortgage sale, provided the sole object is to secure debts to the bank which are overdue; and provided this is the case, a purchase of lands exceeding the amount of the debt is lawful. Amendments to the Act of 1913 can be found in the Federal Statutes enacted in 1915 and 1916 allowing loans for seed grain for farmers, and to lumber merchants and manufacturers secured by prospective products. The Bank Act of 1913 and amendments can be obtained from "The King's Printer" Ottawa, Canada.

CHATTEL MORTGAGES do not exist in this Province. Movables pledged as security must be placed in the possession of the creditor.

COMMISSIONS for the examination of witnesses outside of the Province or within the Province at a distance from where the court is held, or in case of the illness of a witness, or of his probable absence from the country at the time of trial, are granted upon application to the court. Such commissions contain full instructions as to their execution.

COURTS.—The Circuit Court has ultimate jurisdiction in all suits for less than $100 and for school taxes and fees and assessments for churches—there being however an appeal in suits involving future rights, inmovable rights, fees of office and Crown dues, however small the amount sued for; and, except at the chef lieu of the district, original jurisdiction, but subject to appeal, in suits up to $200. The Superior Court has original jurisdiction in all suits of $100 or more—subject to appeal to (1) Revision before three judges: (2) In cases of $500 or more to the Court of King's Bench: (3) In cases of $2000 to the Supreme Court of Canada: (4) Privy Council in England. In the chefs lieux the terms of the Superior and Circuit Court are monthly; in the outlying parts the Circuit Court sits three times a year. A defendant may be summoned either before the court of his domicile, or of the place where the demand was served upon him personally, or where the right of action originated. Real actions are brought before the court of the place where the object in dispute is situated. Suits are instituted by means of a writ ordering the defendant to appear, copy of which, with statement of demand, is served upon him. The writ is obtained on written application and payment of proper fee. A system of summary procedure has been established in commercial matters and suits between landlord and tenant.

DEEDS, MORTGAGES AND REGISTRATION. —Mortgages and deeds affecting the title of lands held under the French system should be passed before a notary public, who retains the original and issues copies which are by law authentic or equal to duplicates. Where the lands are held in free and common soccage, deeds may be passed either before a notary, or two witnesses, one of whom makes affidavit to the signatures, in order to prove their authenticity. To take effect from the time they were made, they must be registered within thirty days; otherwise, they do not take effect, as regards third parties, until registered. Judgments give lien only on the real property against which they are registered.

DIVORCE can be obtained only by an Act of the Federal Parliament, though separation may be obtained before the Superior Court.

EVIDENCE.—The testimony of one witness is sufficient in all cases where proof by testimony is admitted. A party may be a witness in his own behalf. Husband and wife cannot testify against each other, except where they are separate as to property and one, as agent, has administered property belonging to the other in which case the agent may be examined in relation to facts connected with such administration, if the judge deems it just and advisable. Default of a party to examine consort not to be invoked against him.

EXECUTION may, in all cases, be issued after fifteen days from the rendering of the judgment. In summary matters the delay is only eight days. It may, however, be taken before the expiration of these delays upon causes which would justify a seizure before judgment. Except for taxes, executions can not issue against immovables unless the judgment is for a sum amounting to or exceeding $40, besides costs.

EXEMPTIONS have been materially added to. They include the furniture of the debtor, absolutely necessary for the use of himself and his family, with food and fuel for thirty days, and ordinary and necessary wearing apparel; a sewing machine is also allowed, and in the case of farmers, two draft horses or oxen, one cow, two pigs, four sheep, with food for thirty days. Books of account, titles of debt, alimentary allowances, wages and salaries not yet due, can not be seized, and wages and salaries can only be seized in part, the proportion varying according to the rate per diem or per annum. See also Assignments.

FOREIGN JUDGMENTS.—In any suit brought upon a judgment rendered out of the Dominion of Canada, any defense set up, or that might have been set up, to the original suit may be pleaded to the suit upon such judgment; but, if the first judgment was rendered in any of the other Provinces of the Dominion in a suit in which the defendant had been served there personally, or had appeared, no defense that might have been set up to the original suit can be pleaded to the suit on such judgment. In suits against corporations, service upon the proper officers, according to their charter or to law, is held to be personal service. If the service has not been personal, or if in the absence of personal service the defendant has not appeared, any defense which might have been set up to the original suit may be pleaded to the suit upon such judgment.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.—In default of an antenuptial contract of marriage, which must be in notarial form there takes place between the consorts, by the mere operation of law, a community of the following property: (1) Of all movable property, either possessed by them before marriage or falling to them, or acquired after marriage, including the revenues of their private property; (2) of all the immovables they acquire during marriage, except such as fall to them by succession or equivalent title. Of this community the husband has the sole control. Immovable property belonging to either consort before marriage, or falling to him by direct succession during marriage, remains the private property of such consort, subject as regards the property of the husband, to the right of dower, preserved by registration, consisting of the usufruct to the wife, and the ownership to the children, of one-half thereof. This right of dower may be abandoned by the wife. The husband administers the private property of his wife, but can not alienate her immovables without her consent. In marriage contracts all kinds of agreements derogating from these rules may be made, such as complete separation of property, gift of future property etc. Where the consorts are separated as to property, the wife retains the entire administraton of her property, movable or immovable but she can not alienate her immovables nor make valid contracts nor enter into business as a trader without the special consent of her husband or the authorization of a judge. Where community has been established by absence of antenuptial contract, separation as to property may be obtained by the wife by suit if her interests are imperilled. Separation as to bed and board, which may be obtained by either party for reason, carries with it separation as to property, the interests of the consorts being defined and the property of the community divided between the consorts. Upon the dissolution of the community each consort (or representative thereof) is entitled to one-half share in the common property after payment of debts.

INSURANCE.—A new Insurance Act was passed in 1917 and amended last session (1919), which must be studied and cannot be the subject of short notes. Those wishing it should apply to the Superintendent of Insurance at Ottawa.

INTEREST.—By the Revised Statutes of Canada 1906 (Money Lenders Act) no higher rate of interest than twelve per cent. can be exacted. If there is no agreement, the law fixes the rate at five per cent. Banks are not subject to any penalties for usury, but cannot exact more than seven per cent.

JOINT STOCK COMPANIES—Are incorporated either 1. For provincial purposes by letters patent from the Lieutenant Governor of the Province or by Statute of the Provincial Legislature. 2. For Dominion purposes, where the business of the company is to be carried on outside as well as in any Province, by letters patent from the Governor General, or by statute of the Parliament of Canada. The proceedings for obtaining letters patent of incorporation have been much simplified by recent statute. Joint Stock Companies must be registered in the same manner as Partnerships, which see below.

LIENS AND PRIVILEGES.—In cases of insolvency, the unpaid vendor of a thing has two privileged rights—a right to revendicate it, and a right to preference on the proceeds of the sale; but these rights must be exercised within thirty days from the date of delivery, Sale is complete by the consent alone of the parties, although no delivery is made. The seller is not obliged to deliver the thing if the buyer does not pay the price, unless a term has been granted for the payment of it, nor, in the latter case, if the purchaser, since the sale, has become insolvent. A promise of sale, accompanied by actual delivery, is equivalent to a sale. The right of stoppage in transitu may be exercised when the goods are in possession of third parties as agents for their delivery. There are also lien of a workman on the article on which he has worked—the builder's priority and the lien of the landlord or boarding housekeeper.

LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS.—Judgments and registered titles to and claims against real property can only be prescribed by thirty years. Possession as proprietor in good faith, of an immovable for ten years, covers defects of title. Actions on bills of exchange, promissory notes, store accounts, or professional services and generally all claims of a commercial nature, and are prescribable by five years. There are also certain short prescriptions of one, two, and three years.

NOTARIES.—The notary, is in this Province, a public official and a distinct profession—the advocate (who is also a barrister, solicitor and attorney at law) cannot be a notary, and vice versa. Deeds and wills passed before a notary are authentic. The notary is obliged to keep the original in his custody and grants certified copies which are equivalent to the original requiring no proof of signatures. There is, therefore, no probate of a will made before notaries.

NOTES AND BILLS OF EXCHANGE.—Commercial paper includes negotiable instruments for the payment of a specific sum of money, payable absolutely and at all events. It is transferable by indorsement and delivery, or, when payable to bearer, by delivery either with or without indorsement. When a particular place of payment is mentioned, not necessarily a bank, presentment must be made there. If payable at a bank, presentment may be made either within or after usual banking hours. When payable generally, i. e., when no place of payment is mentioned in the instrument, presentment must be made to the party primarily liable, either personally, or at his domicile, or office, or usual place of business. If he be dead, or absent from the Province, presentment may be made at his last known residence or place of business. In the case of insolvency, all current paper of the insolvent become immediately due and exigible. The place of payment of a draft may be fixed by the acceptor in his acceptance. The commercial law of Quebec is founded on the old English law. Three days of grace are allowed on bills and notes payable with a term or at sight, but no grace is allowed where they are payable on demand or on a fixed day. If the day on which they would otherwise become due is a legal holiday, the delay is of right extended to the next day. Payment must include interest from the last day of grace and all expenses of noting and protesting and notices, legally incurred. In the case of bills payable elsewhere than in Canada and Newfoundland, damages are also allowed equal to two and a half per cent. of the amount for which the bill is drawn, together with the costs of exchange and re-exchange. Indorsers and other parties secondarily liable are only held by protest and notice.

PARTNERSHIPS must be registered in the offices of the county registrar and the prothonotary of the Superior Court. Each partner must state, in the declaration registered, whether he is married, and, if so, whether under marriage contract, stating before what notary and on what date such marriage contract was executed; and, if separated as to property by judgment, the date and court record number. A similar declaration must be made by any person trading under a firm name or under another name than his own; in which latter case the word "registered" must be added in any document of the business. The same rule applies to joint stock companies and to persons carrying on business alone under a name other than their own. The laws applicable to firm name or a commercial partnerships are chiefly derived from the English commercial law. The property of the partnership is to be applied to the payment of the creditors of the firm, in preference to the separate creditors of any partner; and in case such property be found insufficient for the purpose, the private property of the partners or of any one of them is also to be applied to the payment of the debts of the partnership; but only after the payment out of it of the separate creditors of such partners or partner repectively.

SUCCESSIONS.—The law respecting abintestate successions was materially altered by recent provincial statute in favor of the surviving consort, who previously inherited only in the event of failure of any heir. By this statute (cap. 74, 1915, Quebec) the surviving consort succeeds (1) In full in default of children or other direct heirs or father or mother or collateral relatives up to nephews or nieces of the deceased. (2) For one half if there are no children or collateral relatives, but the deceased's father or mother survive. (3) For one third if there are children who take the other two-thirds—or if there are no children but father and mother and collateral relatives the other two-thirds are divided—one to the father or mother the other to the collateral relatives.

WILLS.—Wills may be either: 1st, before notary; 2d, before witnesses; 3d, olograph.

Upon certain conditions these companies may be incorporated under the companies act of Saskatchewan and do business here. A company not registered under the Saskatchewan companies act cannot do business in Saskatchewan and severe penalties are prescribed for violation of such regulation. When a foreign company is incorporated or has a license under the Saskatchewan statute it is in all respects in the same position as if it had been originally incorporated under the Saskatchewan law. The fees for incorporating vary with the amount of the capital of the company. Annual returns must be sent in to the government at least once a year.

The lien when registered stands against the land until action is taken to enforce it. Any person claiming any interest in the land, may at any time after thirty days from the filing of the lien require the claimant to take action to realize his lien. TITLE I.—NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS IN GENERAL.

ARTICLE I.

Form and Interpretation.

Sec. 1. An instrument to be negotiable* must conform to the following requirements:

1. It must be in writing and signed by the maker or drawer.
2. Must contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain† in money.
3. Must be payable on demand or at a fixed or determinable future time.
4. Must be payable to order or to bearer,‡ and
5. Where the instrument is addressed to a drawee, he must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

[*The Illinois act states: "An instrument payable in money to be negotiated."]

[†The Michigan Act says: "Certain sum."]

[‡The Arizona, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, North Carolina, West Virginia and Wyoming statutes read: "Must be payable to the order of a specified person or to bearer."]

[The following is added in Wisconsin: "But no order drawn upon or accepted by the treasurer of any county, town, city, village or school district, whether drawn by any officer thereof or any other person, and no obligation nor instrument made by any such corporation or any officer thereof, unless expressly authorized by law to be made negotiable, shall be, or shall be deemed to be, negotiable according to the custom of merchants, in whatever form they may be drawn or made. Warehouse receipts, bills of lading and railroad receipts upon the face of which the words 'Not negotiable' shall not be plainly written, printed or stamped, shall be negotiable as provided in section 1676 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1878 and in sections 4194 and 4425 of these statutes, as the same have been construed by the supreme court." "Words to be printed in Face of Note. Section 1675-1a. All promissory notes and other evidences or indebtedness taken or given for any lightning rod, patent, patent right stallion or interest therein as the case may be, shall have written or printed thereon in red ink, the words 'The consideration for this note is the sale of a lightning rod, patent, patent right, stallion or interest therein as the case may be.' Penalty for Taking Note without Statement Required. Sec. 1675-1b. Any person who shall sell a lightning rod, patent, patent right or stallion or any interest in a lightning rod, patent, patent right or stallion, who shall take a promissory note or other evidence of indebtedness for the whole or any part of the consideration thereof and who shall fail to state the consideration for said note as provided by Section 1 of this Act or in words of similar import shall be liable to a penalty equal to the face of the note so taken." "Notes Taken for Patent, etc., Non-Negotiable; Innocent Holder Of. Sec. 1675-1c. All notes or other evidences of indebtedness taken as the whole or part of the consideration for any lightning rod, patent, patent right, stallion or interest therein, which shall express upon their face the consideration for which they are taken, as required by Section 1 of this act, shall be non-negotiable and be subject to all the defenses in the hands of an innocent holder that the same would have if not transferred."

Sec. 2. The sum payable is a sum certain within the meaning of this Act, although it is to be paid:

1. With interest; or
2. By stated installments; or
3. By stated installments, with a provision that upon default in payment of any installment or of interest* the whole shall become due; or
4. With exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate;‡ or
5. With cost of collection or an attorney's fee, in case payment shall not be made at maturity.†

[*Idaho, Iowa, North Carolina and Wyoming omit "or of interest."]

[†Nebraska adds: "Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize any court to include in any judgment on an instrument made in this State any sum for attorney's fees or other costs not allowable in other cases."]

[South Dakota adds: "Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize any court to include in any judgment or an instrument made in this State any sum for attorneys' fees or other costs not now taxable by law."]

[‡Minnesota adds: "on or at a given place."]

Sec. 3. An unqualified order or promise to pay is unconditional within the meaning of this Act, though coupled with:

1. An indication of a particular fund out of which reimbursement is to be made, or a particular account to be debited with the amount; or
2. A statement of the transaction, which gives rise to the instrument.

But an order or promise to pay out of a particular fund is not unconditional.

Sec. 4. An instrument is payable at a determinable future time, within the meaning of this Act, which is expressed to be payable:

1. At a fixed period after date or sight; or
2. On or before a fixed or determinable future time specified therein; or
3. On or at a fixed period after the occurrence of a specified event which is certain to happen, though the time of happening be uncertain.

An instrument payable upon a contingency is not negotiable and the happening of the event does not cure the defect.*

[*Wisconsin substitutes, for this last paragraph, the following: "At a fixed period after date or sight, though payable before then on a contingency. An instrument payable upon a contingency is not negotiable, and the happening of the event does not cure the defect, except as herein provided."]

Sec. 5. An instrument which contains an order or promise to do any act in adidtion to the payment of money is not negotiable. But the negotiable character of an instrument otherwise negotiable is not affected by a provision which:

1. Authorizes the sale of collateral securities in case the instrument be not paid at maturity; or
2. Authorizes a confession of judgment* if the instrument be not paid at maturity; or†
3. Waives the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of the obligor; ‡or
4. Gives the holder an election to require something to be done in lieu of payment of money.

But nothing in this section shall validate any provision or stipulation otherwise illegal.

[South Dakota omits subdivisions 2 and 3.]

†[North Carolina contains the following: "That nothing in this act shall authorize the enforcement of an authorization to confess judgment or a waiver of homestead or personal property exemptions or a provision to pay counsel fees for collection incorporated in any instrument mentioned in this act; but the mention of such provision in such instrument shall not affect the other terms of such instruments or the negotiability thereof."]

[‡Kentucky omits this subdivision (3).]

Sec. 6. The validity and negotiable character of an instrument are not affected by the fact that—

1. It is not dated; or—
2. Does not specify the value given, or that any value has been given therefor; or—
3. Does not specify the place where it is drawn or the place where it is payable; or—
4. Bears a seal; or—
5. Designates a particular kind of current money in which payment is to be made.*

But nothing in this section shall alter or repeal any statute requiring in certain cases the nature of the consideration to be stated in the instrument.†

[*In Illinois: "Is payable in currency or current funds; or designates a particular kind of current money in which payment is to be made."]

[†In Illinois this paragraph is omitted.]

Sec. 7. An instrument is payable on demand—

1. Where it is expressed to be payable on demand, or at sight, or on presentation; or—
2. In which no time for payment is expressed.

Where an instrument is issued, accepted or indorsed when overdue, it is, as regards the person so issuing, accepting or indorsing it, payable on demand.

Sec. 8. The instrument is payable to order where it is drawn payable to the order of a specified person or to him or his order. It may be drawn payable to the order of—

1. A payee who is not maker, drawer or drawee; or—
2. The drawer or maker; or—
3. The drawee; or—
4. Two or more payees jointly; or—
5. One or some of several payees; or—
6. The holder of an office for the time being.*

Where the instrument is payable to order the payee must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

[*In Illinois the following is added: "7. An instrument payable to the estate of a deceased person shall be deemed payable to the order of the administrator or executor of his estate."]

Sec. 9. The instrument is payable to bearer—

1. When it is expressed to be so payable; or—
2. When it is payable to a person named therein or bearer; or—
3. When it is payable to the order of a fictitious or non-existing person and such fact was known to the person making it so payable; or*
4. When the name of the payee does not purport to be the name of any person; or—
5. When the only or last indorsement is an indorsement in blank.†

[Illinois provides: "When it is payable to the order of a person known by the drawer or maker to be fictitious or non-existent or of a living person not intended to have any interest in it."]

[†Illinois provides: "Where, although originally payable to order, it is indorsed in blank by the payee or a subsequent indorsee."]

Sec. 10. The* instrument need not follow the language of this act, but any terms are sufficient which clearly indicate an intention to conform to the requirement thereof.

[*Alabama, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, West Virginia and Wyoming insert here the word "negotiable."]

[Wisconsin adds: "Memoranda upon the face or back of the instrument, whether signed or not, material to the contract, if made at the time of delivery, are part of the instrument, and parol evidence is admissible to show the circumstances under which they were made."]

Sec. 11. Where the instrument or an acceptance or any indorsement thereon is dated, such date is deemed prima facie to be the true date of the making, drawing, acceptance or indorsement as the case may be.

Sec. 12. The instrument is not invalid* for the reason only that it is ante-dated or post-dated provided this is not done for an illegal or fraudulent purpose. The person to whom an instrument so dated is delivered acquires the title thereto as of the date of delivery.

[*Missouri says "valid," evidently a clerical error.]

Sec. 13. Where an instrument expressed to be payable at a fixed period after date is issued undated, or where the acceptance of an instrument payable at a fixed period after sight is undated, any holder may insert therein the true date of issue or acceptance, and the instrument shall be payable accordingly. The insertion of a wrong date does not avoid the instrument in the hands of a subsequent holder in due course, but as to him the date so inserted is to be regarded as the true date.

Sec. 14. Where the instrument is wanting in any material particular, the person in possession thereof has a prima facie authority to complete it* by filling up the blanks therein. And a signature on a blank paper delivered by the person making the signature in order that the paper may be converted into a negotiable instrument operates as a prima facie† authority to fill it up as such for any amount. In order, however, that any such instrument when completed may be enforced against any person who became a party thereto prior to its completion, it must be filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time. But if any such instrument, after completion, is negotiated ‡to a holder in due course, it is valid and effectual for all purposes in his hands, and he may enforce it as if it had been filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time.

[†Wisconsin omits "prima facie."]

[‡The Kentucky act says: "negotiable."]

[In South Dakota, the section reads as follows: "One who makes himself a party to an instrument intended to be negotiable but which is left wholly or partly in blank for the purpose of filling afterwards is liable upon the instrument to an indorsee thereof in due course in whatever manner and whatever time it may be filled in, so long as it remains negotiable in form."]

Sec. 15. Where an incomplete instrument has not been delivered it will not, if completed and negotiated, without authority, be a valid contract in the hands of any holder, as against any person whose signature was placed thereon before delivery.

Sec. 16. Every contract on a negotiable instrument is incomplete and revocable until delivery of the instrument for the purpose of giving effect thereto. As between immediate parties and as regards a remote party other than a holder in due course, the delivery, in order to be effectual, must be made either by or under the authority of the party making, drawing, accepting* or indorsing, as the case may be; and in such case the delivery may be shown to have been conditional or for a special purpose only, and not for the purpose of transferring the property in the instrument. But where the instrument is in the hands of a holder in due course, a valid delivery thereof by all parties prior to him so as to make them liable to him, is conclusively presumed.† And where the instrument is no longer in possession of a party whose signature appears thereon, a valid and intentional delivery by him is presumed until the contrary is proved.

[South Dakota inserts the following in lieu thereof: "An indorsee of a negotiable instrument in due course acquires an absolute title thereto so that it is valid in his hands, notwithstanding any provision of law making it generally void or voidable and notwithstanding any defect in the title of the person from whom he acquired it."]

Sec. 17. Where the language of the instrument is ambiguous, or there are omissions therein, the following rules of construction apply:

1. Where the sum payable is expressed in words and also in figures and there is a discrepancy between the two, the sum denoted by the words is the sum payable; but if the words are ambiguous or uncertain, reference may be had to the figures to fix the amount.
2. Where the instrument provides for the payment of interest, without specifying the date from which interest is to run, the interest runs from the date of the instrument, and if the instrument is undated, from the issue thereof.
3. Where the instrument is not dated, it will be considered to be dated as of the time it was issued.
4. Where there is a conflict between the written and printed provisions of the instrument, the written provisions prevail.
5. Where the instrument is so ambiguous that there is doubt whether it is a bill or a note, the holder may treat it as either at his election.
6. Where a signature is so placed upon the instrument that it is not clear in what capacity the person making the same intended to sign, he is to be deemed an indorser.
7. Where an instrument containing the words, "I promise to pay," is signed by two or more persons, they are deemed to be jointly and severally liable thereon.*

[*Wisconsin adds: "8. Where several writings are executed at or about the same time, as parts of the same transaction, intended to accomplish the same object, they may be construed as one and the same instrument as to all parties having notice thereof."]

Sec. 18. No person is liable on the instrument whose signature does not appear thereon, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. But one who signs in a trade or assumed name will be liable to the same extent as if he had signed in his own name.

Sec. 19. The signature of any party may be made by a duly authorized agent. No particular form of appointment is necessary for this purpose;* and the authority of the agent may be established as in other cases of agency.†

[*In South Dakota the remainder of this section is omitted.]

[†The Kentucky act reads "The signature of any party may be made by an agent duly authorized in writing."]

Sec. 20. Where the instrument contains or a person adds to his signature words indicating that he signs for or on behalf of a principal, or in a representative capacity;* he is not liable on the instrument if he was duly authorized; but the mere addition of words describing him as an agent, or as filling a representative character, without disclosing his principal, does not exempt him from personal liability.

[*Viriginia adds "without disclosing his principal."]

Sec. 21. A signature by "procuration" operates as notice that the agent has but a limited authority to sign, and the principal is bound only in case the agent in so signing acted within the actual limits of his authority.

Sec. 22. The indorsement or assignment of the instrument by a corporation or by an infant passes the property therein, notwithstanding that from want of capacity the corporation or infant may incur no liability thereon.*

Sec. 23. Where a signature is forged or made without the authority of the person whose signature it purports to be,* it is wholly inoperative, and no right to retain the instrument, or to give a discharge therefor, or to enforce payment thereof against any party thereto can be acquired through or under such signature, unless the party against whom it is sought to enforce such right is precluded from setting up the forgery or want of authority.

[*In Illinois and South Dakota, the act reads: "Where a signature is forged or made without authority, it is wholly inoperative," etc.]

Consideration.

Sec. 24. Every negotiable instrument is deemed prima facie to have been issued for a valuable consideration, and every person whose signature appears thereon to have become a party thereto for value.

Sec. 25. Value is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or pre-existing debt* constitutes value‡ and is deemed such whether the instrument is payable on demand or at a future time.†

[*Wisconsin adds "discharged, extinguished or extended." †Wisconsin adds: "But the indorsement or delivery of negotiable paper as collateral security for a pre-existing debt, without other consideration, and not in pursuance of an agreement at the time of delivery, by the maker, does not constitute value."]

[‡Illinois act provides: "An antecedent or pre-existing claim, whether for money or not, constitutes value where an instrument is taken either in satisfaction therefor or as security therefor and is deemed such," etc.]

Sec. 26. Where value has at any time been given for the instrument, the holder is deemed a holder for value in respect to all parties who became such piror to that time.

Sec. 27. Where the holder has a lien on the instrument, arising either from contract or by implication of law, he is deemed a holder for value to the extent of his lien.

Sec. 28. Absence or failure of consideration is matter of defense as against any person not a holder in due course, and partial failure of consideration is a defense pro tanto whether the failure is an ascertained and liquidated amount or otherwise.

Sec. 29. An accommodation party is one who has signed the instrument as maker, drawer, acceptor or indorser, without receiving value therefor,* and for the purpose of lending his name to some other person. Such a person is liable on the instrument to a holder for value, notwithstanding such holder at the time of taking the instrument, knew him to be only an accommodation party.†

ARTICLE III.

Negotiation.

Sec. 30. An instrument is negotiated when it is transferred from one person to another in such manner as to constitute the transferee the holder thereof; if payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery; if payable to order it is negotiated by the indorsement of the holder, completed by delivery.

Sec. 31. The indorsement must be written on the instrument itself or upon a paper attached thereto. The signature of the indorser, without additional words, is a sufficient indorsement.*

[*Illinois act adds: "And the addition of words of assignment or of guaranty shall not negative the additional effect of the signature as an indorsement unless otherwise expressly stated."]

Sec. 32. The indorsement must be an indorsement of the entire instrument. An indorsement, which purports to transfer to the indorsee a part only of the amount payable, or which purports to transfer the instrument to two or more indorsees severally, does not operate as a negotiation of the instrument. But where the instrument has been paid in part, it may be indorsed as to the residue.

Sec. 33. An indorsement may be either special or in blank, and it may also be either restrictive or qualified, or conditional.

Sec. 34. A special indorsement specifies the person to whom or to whose order the instrument is to be payable; and the indorsement of such indorsee is necessary to the further negotiation of the instrument. An indorsement in blank specifies no indorsee, and an instrument so indorsed is payable to bearer, and may be negotiated by delivery.

Sec. 35. The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank any contract consistent with the character of the indorsement.

Sec. 36. An indorsement is restrictive which either:

1. Prohibits the further negotiation of the instrument; or
2. Constitutes the indorsee the agent of the indorser; or
3. Vests the title in the indorsee in trust for or to the use of some other person. But the mere absence of words implying power to negotiate does not make an indorsement restrictive.

Sec. 37. A restrictive indorsement confers upon the indorsee the right:

1. To receive payment of the instrument.*
2. To bring any action thereon that the indorser could bring.
3. To transfer his rights as such indorsee, where the form of the indorsement authorizes him to do so.

But all subsequent indorsees acquire only the title of the first indorsee under the restrictive indorsement.

[*In Illinois the remainder of the section is as follows:

"2. To bring any action thereon that the indorser could bring or except in the case of a restrictive indorsement specified in section 36, sub-section 2, any action against the indorser or any prior party that a special indorsee would be entitled to bring.

"3. To transfer the instrument where the form of the indorsement authorizes him to do so.

"But all subsequent indorsees acquire only the title of the first indorsee under the restrictive indorsement specified in section 36, sub-section 1, and as against the principal or cestui que trust only the title of the first indorsee under the restrictive indorsements specified in section 36, sub-sections 2 and 3 respectively."]

Sec. 38. A qualified indorsement constitutes the indorser a mere assignor of the title to the instrument. It may be made by adding to the indorser's signature the words, "without recourse," or any words of similar import. Such an indorsement* does not impair the negotiable character of the instrument.

[*The Michigan Act reads: "Such an instrument," evidently a clerical error.]

Sec. 39. Where an indorsement is conditional, a party required to pay the instrument may disregard the condition, and make payment to the indorsee or his transferee, whether the condition has been fulfilled or not. But any person to whom an instrument so indorsed is negotiated will hold the same, or the proceeds thereof, subject to the rights of the person indorsing conditionally.

Sec. 40. Where an instrument, payable to bearer, is indorsed specially,* it may nevertheless be further negotiated by delivery; but the person indorsing specially is liable as indorser to only such holders as make title through his indorsement.

Sec. 41. Where an instrument* is payable to the order of two or more payees or† indorsees who are not partners, all must indorse unless the one indorsing has authority to indorse for the others.

[*Missouri says "where such an instrument."]

[†Wisconsin adds "Joint."]

Sec. 42. Where an instrument is drawn or indorsed to a person as "Cashier" or other fiscal officer of a bank or corporation, it is deemed prima facie to be payable to the bank or corporation of which he is such officer, and may be negotiated by either the indorsement of the bank or corporation, or the indorsement of the officer.

Sec. 43. Where the name of a payee or indorsee is wrongly designated or misspelled, he may indorse the instrument as therein described, adding, if he think fit, his proper signature.

Sec. 44. Where any person is under obligation to indorse in a representative capacity, he may indorse in such terms as to negative personal liability.

Sec. 45. Except where an indorsement bears date after the maturity of the instrument, every negotiation is deemed prima facie to have been effected before the instrument was overdue.

Sec. 46. Except where the contrary appears, every indorsement is presumed prima facie to have been made at the place where the instrument is dated.

Sec. 47. An instrument negotiable in its origin continues to be negotiable until it has been restrictively indorsed or discharged by payment or otherwise.

Sec. 48. The holder may at any time strike out any indorsement which is not necessary to his title. The indorser whose indorsement is struck out, and all indorsers subsequent to him, are thereby relieved from liability on the instrument.

Sec. 49. Where the holder of an instrument payable to his order transfers it for value without indorsing it, the transfer vests in the transferee such title as the transferer§ had therein, and the transferee acquires, in addition, the right* to have the indorsement of the transferer.† But for the purpose of determining whether the transferee is a holder in due course, the negotiation takes effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.‡

[*In Illinois and Missouri the remainder of the section is as follows: "to enforce the instrument against one who signed for the accommodation of his transfer and the right to have the endorsement of the transferer if omitted by accident or mistake. But for the purpose," etc.]

[†Colorado adds: "If omitted by mistake, accident, or fraud."]

[‡Wisconsin adds: "When the indorsement was omitted by mistake, or there was an agreement to indorse made at the time of the transfer, the indorsement, when made, relates back to the time of transfer."]

Sec. 50. Where an instrument is negotiated back to a prior party, such party may, subject to the provisions of this act, reissue and further negotiate the same. But he is not entitled to enforce payment thereof against any intervening party to whom he was personally liable.

ARTICLE IV.

Rights of the Holder.

Sec. 51. The holder of a negotiable instrument may sue thereon in his own name and payment to him in due course discharges the instrument.

Sec. 52. A holder in due course is a holder who has taken the instrument under the following conditions:

1. That it is complete and regular upon its face.
2. That he became the holder of it before it was overdue, and without notice that it had been previously dishonered, if such was the fact.
3. That he took it in good faith and for value.
4. That at the time it was negotiated to him he had no notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating it.*

[*Wisconsin adds: "5. That he took it in the usual course of business."]

Sec. 53. Where an instrument payable on demand is negotiated an unreasonable length of time after its issue, the holder is not deemed a holder in due course.

Sec. 54. Where the transferee receives notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same before he has paid the full amount agreed to be paid therefor, he will be deemed a holder in due course only to the extent of the amount theretofore paid by him.

Sec. 55. The title of a person who negotiates an instrument is defective within the meaning of this act when he obtained the instrument, or any signature thereto, by fraud, duress, or force and fear, or other unlawful means, or for an illegal* consideration, or when he negotiates it in breach of faith, or under such circumstances as amount to a fraud.†

[*Kansas says "alleged," evidently a clerical error.]

[†Wisconsin adds: "And the title of such person is absolutely void when such instrument or signature was so procured from a person who did not know the nature of the instrument and could not have obtained such knowledge by the use of ordinary care."]

Sec. 56. To constitute notice of an infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same, the person to whom it is negotiated must have had actual knowledge of the infirmity or defect, or knowledge of such facts that his action in taking the instrument amounted to bad faith.

Sec. 57. A holder in due course holds the instrument free from any defect of title of prior parties, and free from defenses available to prior parties among themselves,† and may enforce payment of the instrument for the full amount thereof, against all parties liable thereon.*

[*Wisconsin adds: "Except as provided in sections 1944 and 1945 of these statutes, relating to insurance premiums, and also in cases where the title of the person negotiating such instrument is void under the provision of section 1676-25 of this act."]

[†Illinois act adds: "Except the defect and defense specified in section 10 or (of) Act entitled 'Act to revise the law in relation to promissory notes, bonds, due bills, and other instruments in writing.' Approved March 18, 1874, in force July 1, 1874, and except the defect and defense specified in sections 131 and 136 of an act to revise the law in relation to criminal jurisprudence approved March 27, 1874, in force July 1, 1874, known as sections 131 and 136 of chapter 38 of the Revised Statutes of Illinois.'"]

Sec. 58. In the hands of any holder other than a holder in due course, a negotiable instrument is subject to the same defenses as if it were non-negotiable.‡ But a holder who derives his title through a holder in due course and who is not himself a party to any fraud* or illegality affecting the instrument has all the rights of such former holder in respect of all parties prior to the latter.†

[*Illinois and Wisconsin add "duress."]

[‡South Dakota act omits the remainder of this section.]

Sec. 59. Every holder is deemed prima facie to be a holder in due course; but when it is shown that the title of any person who has negotiated the instrument was defective, the burden is on the holder to prove that he or some person under whom he claims acquired the title as a holder in due course. But the last mentioned rule does not apply in favor of a party who became bound on the instrument prior to the acquisition of such defective title.

ARTICLE V.

Liabilities of Parties.

Sec. 60. The maker of a negotiable instrument by making it engages that he will pay it according to its tenor; and admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to endorse.

Sec. 61. The drawer by drawing the instrument admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse; and engages that on due presentment the instrument will be accepted or paid, or both, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent* indorser who may be compelled to pay it. But the drawer may insert in the instrument an express stipulation negativing or limiting his own liability to the holder.

Sec. 62. The acceptor by accepting the instrument engages that he will pay it according to the tenor of his acceptance, and admits:

1. The existence of the drawer the genuineness of his signature, and his capacity and authority to draw the instrument; and
2. The existence of the payee and his then* capacity to indorse.

[*Missouri omits "then."]

Sec. 63. A person placing his signature upon an instrument otherwise than as maker, drawer or acceptor is deemed to be an indorser, unless he clearly indicates by appropriate words his intention to be bound in some other capacity.

Sec. 64. Where a person, not otherwise a party to an instrument, places thereon his signature in blank before delivery, he is liable as indorser in accordance with the following rules:

1. If the instrument is payable to the order of a third person,* he is liable to the payee and to all subsequent parties.
2. If the instrument is† payable to the order of the maker or drawer, or is payable to bearer, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the maker or drawer.
3. If he signs for the accommodation of the payee, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the payee.

[*Illinois act provides: "If the instrument is a note or bill payable to the order of a third person or an accepted bill payable to the order of the drawer."]

[†Illinois act provides: "If the instrument is a note or unaccepted bill."]

Sec. 65. Every person negotiating an instrument by delivery or by a qualified indorsement warrants:

1. That the instrument is genuine and in all respects what it purports to be.
2. That he has a good title to it.
3. That all prior parties had capacity to contract.
4. That he has no knowledge of any fact which would impair the validity of the instrument or render it valueless.*

But when the negotiation is by delivery only, the warranty extends in favor of no holder other than the immediate transferee.

The provisions of subdivision 3 of this section do not apply to persons negotiating public or corporate securities other than bills and notes.

[*Illinois act omits "or render it valueless."]

Sec. 66. Every indorser* who indorses without qualification warrants to all subsequent holders in due course:

1. The matters and things mentioned in subdivisions 1, 2 and 3 of the next preceding section; and
2. That the instrument is at the time of his indorsement valid and subsisting.

And, in addition, he engages† that on due presentment it shall be accepted or paid, or both, as the case may be, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it.

[*The Illinois and South Dakota acts state: "Every indorser not an accommodating party."]

Sec. 67. Where a person places his indorsement on an instrument negotiable by delivery he incurs all the liabilities of an indorser.

Sec. 68. As respects one another, indorsers are liable prima facie in the order in which they indorse; but evidence is admissible to show that, as between or among themselves, they have agreed otherwise. Joint payees or joint indorsees who indorse are deemed to indorse jointly and severally.*

[*In Illinois act, last sentence is as follows: "All parties jointly liable on a negotiable instrument are deemed to be jointly and severally liable."]

Sec. 69. Where a broker or other agent negotiated an instrument without indorsement, he incurs all the liabilities prescribed by section 65 of this act, unless he discloses the name of his principal, and the fact that he is acting only as agent.*

[*In the Illinois act, the following section is added, numbered 69a:

"Whenever any bill of exchange drawn or indorsed within this State and payable without the State is duly protested for non-acceptance or non-payment, the drawer or indorser thereof, due notice being given of such non-acceptance or non-payment, shall pay such bill at the current rate of exchange and with legal interest from the time such bill ought to have been paid until paid, together with the costs and charges of protest and on bills payable in the United States in case suit has to be brought thereon, and on bills payable without the United States with or without suit, five per cent damages in addition."]

ARTICLE VI.

Presentment for Payment

Sec. 70. Presentment for payment is not necessary in order to charge the person primarily liable on the instrument,*‡ but if the instrument is, by its terms payable at a special place, and he is able and willing to pay it there at maturity,† such ability and willingness are equivalent to a tender of payment upon his part. But except as herein otherwise provided, presentment for payment is necessary in order to charge the drawer and indorsers.

[†Kansas, New York, Ohio and the Philippines add: "and has funds there available for that purpose."]

[‡Illinois adds: "except in case of bank notes."]

Sec. 71. Where the instrument is not payable on demand, presentment must be made on the day it falls due. Where it is payable on demand, presentment must be made within a reasonable time after its issue,* except that in the case of a bill of exchange, presentment for payment will be sufficient if made within a reasonable time after the last negotiation thereof.

[*Nebraska omits the following portion of this section.]

Sec. 72. Presentment for payment, to be sufficient, must be made:

1. By the holder, or by some person authorized to receive payment on his behalf.
2. At a reasonable hour on a business day.
3. At a proper place as herein defined.
4. To the person primarily liable on the instrument, or if he is absent or inaccessible, to any person found at the place where the presentment is made.

Sec. 73. Presentation for payment is made at the proper place:

1. Where a place of payment is specified in the instrument and it is there presented.
2. Where no place of payment is specified but the address of the person to make the payment is given in the instrument and it is there presented.
3. Where no place of payment is specified and no address is given, and the instrument is presented at the usual place of business or residence of the person to make payment.
4. In any other cases if presented to the person to make payment wherever he can be found, or if presented at his last known place of business or residence.

Sec. 74. The instrument must be exhibited to the person from whom payment is demanded, and when it is paid must be delivered up to the party paying it.

Sec. 75. Where the instrument is payable at a bank, presentment for payment must be made during banking hours,* unless the person to make payment has no funds there to meet it at any time during the day, in which case presentment at any hour before the bank is closed on that day is sufficient.

[*Nebraska omits the following portion of this section.]

Sec. 76. Where the person primarily liable on the instrument is dead, and no place of payment is specified, presentment for payment must be made to his personal representative if such there be, and if with the exercise of reasonable diligence he can be found.

Sec. 77. Where the persons primarily liable on the instrument are liable as partners, and no place of payment is specified, presentment for payment may be made to any one of them, even though there has been a dissolution of the firm.

Sec. 78. Where there are several persons, not partners, primarily liable on the instrument, and no place of payment is specified, presentment must be made to them all.

Sec. 79. Presentment for payment is not required in order to charge the drawer where he has no right to expect or require that the drawee or acceptor will pay the instrument.

Sec. 80. Presentment for payment is not required in order to charge an indorser where the instrument was made or accepted for his accommodation,* and he has no reason to expect that the instrument will be paid if presented.

[*Illinois act omits remainder of section.]

Sec. 81. Delay in making presentment for payment is excused when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, presentment must be made with reasonable diligence.

Sec. 82. Presentment for payment is dispensed with:

1. Where after the exercise of reasonable diligence presentment as required by this act cannot be made.
2. Where the drawee is a fictitious person.
3. By waiver of presentment, express or implied.

Sec. 83. The instrument is dishonored by non-payment when:

1. It is duly presented for payment and payment is refused or cannot be obtained; or
2. Presentment is excused and the instrument is overdue and unpaid.

Sec. 84. Subject to the provisions of this act, when the instrument is dishonored by non-payment, an immediate right of recourse to all parties secondarily liable thereon, accrues to the holder.

Sec. 85. Every negotiable instrument is payable|| at the time fixed therein without grace. When the day of maturity falls upon Sunday or a holiday the instrument is payable on the next succeeding business day.‡ Instruments falling due† on Saturday are to be presented for payment on the next succeeding business day, except that instruments payable on demand may, at the option of the holder, be presented for payment before twelve o'clock noon on Saturday, when that entire day is not a holiday.*

[†Arkansas, Indiana, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Virginia and New York add: "or becoming payable."]

[*Colorado substitutes for the last sentence: "Iustruments falling due on any day, in any place where any part of such day is a holiday, are to be presented for payment on the next succeeding business day, except that instruments payable on demand may, at the option of the holder, be presented for payment during reasonable hours of the part of such day which is not a holiday."

North Carolina provides: "All bills of exchange payable within the State at sight in which there is an express stipulation to that effect and not otherwise shall be entitled to days of grace as the same are allowed by the customs of merchants on foreign bills of exchange payable at the expiration of a certain period after date or sight. Provided that no days of grace shall be allowed on any bill of exchange, promissory note, or draft payable on demand."

Massachusetts modifies this section as follows: "On all drafts and bills of exchange made payable within this commonwealth at sight, three days of grace shall be allowed, unless there is an express stipulation therefor to the contrary."

In the Vermont act, the last sentence reads: "Instruments payable on demand may at the option of the holder be presented for payment. Reference to other instruments falling due on Saturday is omitted.]

For Iowa see also Sec. 198.

Sec. 86. Where the instrument is payable at a fixed period after date, after sight, or after the happening of a specified event, the time of payment is determined by excluding the day from which the time is to begin to run, and by including the date of payment.

Sec. 87. Where the instrument is made payable at a bank it is equivalent* to an order to the bank to pay the same for the amount of the principal debtor thereon.†

[†Illinois, Nebraska and South Dakota omit this section.]

Sec. 88. Payment is made in due course when it is made at or after the maturity of the instrument to the holder thereof in good faith and without notice that his title is defective.

ARTICLE VII.

Notice of Dishonor.

Sec. 89. Except as herein otherwise provided, when a negotiable instrument has been dishonored by non-acceptance or non-payment, notice of dishonor must be given to the drawer and to each indorser, and any drawer or indorser to whom such notice is not given is discharged.

Sec. 90. The notice may be given by or on behalf of the holder, or by or on behalf of any party to the instrument who might be compelled to pay it to the holder, and who, upon taking it up would have a right to reimbursement from the party to whom notice is given.

Sec. 91. Notice of dishonor may be given by an agent either in his own name or in the name of any party entitled to give notice, whether that party be his principal or not.

Sec. 92. Where notice is given by or on behalf of the holder it enures for the benefit of all subsequent holders and all prior parties who have a right to recourse against the party to whom it is given.

Sec. 93. Where notice is given by or on behalf of a party entitled to give notice, it enures for the benefit of the holder and all parties subsequent to the party to whom notice is given.

Sec. 94. Where the instrument has been dishonored in the hands of an agent, he may either himself give notice to the parties liable thereon, or he may give notice to his principal. If he give notice to his principal, he must do so within the same time as if he were the holder, and the principal upon the receipt of such notice has himself the same time for giving notice as if the agent had been an independent holder.

Sec. 95. A written notice need not be signed, and an insufficient written notice may be supplemented and validated by verbal* communication. A misdescription of the instrument does not vitiate the notice unless the party to whom the notice is given is in fact misled thereby.

Sec. 96. The notice may be in writing or merely oral, and may be given in any terms which sufficiently identify the instrument and indicate that it has been dishonored by non-acceptance or non-payment. It may in all cases be given by delivering it personally or through the mails.

Sec. 97. Notice of dishonor may be given either to the party himself or to his agent in that behalf.

Sec. 98. When any party is dead, and his death is known to the party giving notice, the notice must be given to a personal representative, if there be one, and if with reasonable diligence, he can be found. If there be no personal representative, notice may be sent to the last residence or last place of business of the deceased.

Sec. 99. Where the parties to be notified are partners, notice to any one partner is notice to the firm, even though there has been a dissolution.

Sec. 100. Notice to joint parties who are not partners must be given to each of them unless one of them has authority to receive such notice for the others.

Sec. 101. Where a party has been adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent, or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, notice may be given either to the party himself or to his trustee or assignee.

Sec. 102. Notice may be given as soon as the instrument is dishonored and unless delay is excused as hereinafter provided, must be given within the times fixed by this act.

Sec. 103. Where the person giving and the person to receive notice reside in the same place, notice must be given within the following times:

1. If given at the place of business of the person to receive notice, it must be given before the close of business hours on the day following.
2. If given at his residence, it must be given before the usual hours of rest on the day following.
3. If sent by mail, it must be deposited in the post office in time to reach him in the usual course on the day following.

Sec. 104. Where the person giving and the person to receive notice reside in different places, the notice must be given within the following times:

1. If sent by mail, it must be deposited in the post office in time to go by mail the day following the day of dishonor, or if there be no mail at a convenient hour on that day, by the next mail thereafter.
2. If given otherwise than through the post office, then within the time that notice would have been received in due course of mail, if it had been deposited in the post office within the time specified in the last subdivision.

Sec. 105. Where notice of dishonor is duly addressed and deposited in the post office, the sender is deemed to have given due notice, notwithstanding any miscarriage in the mails.

Sec. 106. Notice is deemed to have been deposited in the post office when deposited in any branch post office or in any letter box under the control of the Post Office Department.
